The cause of this Bishops going to the Roman Court, was to defend the Rights and Customs of his Church against the Archbishop of Canterburies Usurpations, who dyed in his way thither; * Thomas de Cantilupo, qui pro causa Ecclesie suae, ut dicitur, quam contra fratrem Johannem de Peckham, de ordine Fraternitatis Minorum Archiepiscopum Cantuariensem, defendere proponebat, in partibus obiit transmarinis, cujus ossa in Ecclesia supradicta fuerunt tradita sepulture. Robert Kilwardby the last Archbishop of Canterbury, formerly his Confessor, as * Walsingham stories, publicly averred, in commendatione ejus nullus ipsam mortalis criminis unquam sensit contagium. Quantique meriti fuit apud Deum crebrescentium ad sepulchrum ejus miracula cum gloria, indubitata fide demonstravit; ita quod infra breve temporis spacium centum & sexaginta miracula pro illo fieri Deus voluit; for which he was canonized a Roman Saint, which shews his opposer Archbishop Peckham was none. Post quem ad Ecclesiam Herefordensem electus & consecratus est (by the Kings license and assent) Magister Richardus de Swynefeld, sacra Theologia doctor, vir juvenis in verbis, & egregius predicator.

Upon the rydings of his death, the King seised and committed not only his Temporalities, but Goods and Chattels; yet upon his Executors putting in security to satisfy all Debts due by him to the King, his Goods and Chattels were restored to them to perform his Will, as these two Records assure us.

Imprimis igitur volumus & ordinamus, quod Officialis noster Cantuariensis, ad querelas subditorum Fratrum, & Suffraganeorum nostrorum de cetero non rescribat, præterquam in casibus specialibus, videlicet in casu negligentia, & in audiendis ratiociniis, ab executoribus decedentium in provincia Cantuariensi habentium Redditi, Maneria, Possessiones, & bona in diversis Diocesis nostra provincia memorata; necnon & in aliis casibus, qui tam de jure quam de consuetudine, nostris & prædecessorum nostrorum temporibus, eidem sunt permixti pariter & concessi, & si de facto in aliis rescripserint, & de hoc coram ipso excipiantur, hujusmodi exceptio sine difficultate qualibet admittatur.

Volumus insuper & ordinamus, quod idem Officialis ad Appellationes à subditis Fratrum & Suffraganeorum nostrorum directè ad Curiam Cantuariensem omisso medio interpositas de cetero non rescribat. Et si de facto rescripserit, ac de hoc coram ipso aut suo quovis Commissario excipiantur; cum de hujusmodi exceptione & ipsius effectu competenter constiterit, de eadem appellationis causa, ulterius se nullatenus intromittant. Hoc etiam temperamentum in favorem Fratrum & Coepiscoporum nostrorum, ac Cleri & populi provincia Cantuariensis quietem, præmissis annexentes, quod ad querelas subditorum Fratrum nostrorum prædictorum, sine conscientia nostra specialiter & expressa, & absque causa rationabili nomine nostro de cetero nullatenus rescribatur. Nos vero hoc jure nostro sic moderatè absque cujuslibet præjudicio uti intendimus, ut in nullo a prædecessorum nostrorum vestigiis discrepemus.

Sanè si contingat aliquem Fratrum nostrorum fructus Ecclesia Clerici subditi sui ex causa Canonica vel consuetà sequestrare, & post hujusmodi sequestrum eà occasione ad sedem Apostolicam, et nostram Curiam pro tutione ab eodem Fratre, ex parte hujusmodi Clerici appellatur, tanquam in Curia nostra pro eodem in tuitorio negotio pronuncietur, hujusmodi sequestrum tanquam eandem Appellationem præcedens, hujusmodi tutionis obtentu finaliter nullatenus volumus relaxari. Ceterum si contingat alicui in Curia nostra litiganti, per nostrum Officialem aut Commissarium, nostros vel suos absolutiois ad cautelam beneficium impetiri, si absolutiois hujusmodi publicatio petatur ab eodem, cum publicatio conformis esse debeat absolutiois, ne per simplicem absolutiois publicationem se gerat pro simpliciter absoluto, & ab aliis absolutus finaliter reputetur; volumus & ordinamus, quod in literis super hujusmodi absolutiois publicatione in posterum obtinendis, verba illa ad cautelam expressius inserantur. Si autem necesse fuerit aliqua prædictis adjicere vel detrabere, vel ipsorum aliqua declarare, parati sumus in prima congregatione Fratrum, eis in hiis, & in aliis condescendere, quantum possumus, salva Ecclesie nostrae libertate. Per hanc autem ordinationem nostram non intendimus successoribus nostris, seu Ecclesie nostrae in aliquo derogare. In cuius rei testimonium Sigillum nostrum presentibus duximus apponendum, Valete. The like License, Patent, Clauses of grace and proviso verbatim, issued this year to the Chief Justice for another Abbess in Ireland, m. 6. Teste Rege apud Rochelan. 15 die Augusti.

By which it is apparent, That although the King out of special grace did sometimes dispence with the Rights of his Crown in the electing and confirming of Bishops, Abbots and Abbesses in Ireland, without his previous license to elect, or by his Chief Justice his approbation and confirmation of them, in his name and stead, yet it was with a special proviso, testified by Charters under their respective seals, that it should not turn to the prejudice or disinheritance of him or his Heirs, nor be drawn into custome or consequence for the future, which they were then prone to do upon all occasions, as well as Popes and our English Prelates, as future presidents will demonstrate.

Comprising several Evidences out of our Records and Histories, of King Edward the 1. his Sovereign Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction over all Persons, Causes, and chief management of all Ecclesiastical affairs in England, Ireland, Scotland, and his other Dominions; with Popes, Bishops various Encroachments thereon, and his, his Parliaments, Councils, Judges Oppositions, Prohibitions against them; together with the most considerable Negotiations between Him, and the Popes, Cardinals, Court of Rome; and the successions of Bishops in England, Ireland, and Popes in Rome, from the beginning of the 11 to the end of the 20 year of his Reign.

King Edward the 1. having the year before by * special Writs, prohibited all Foreign Merchants to transport or return any monies to the Pope, collected and laid up in several Monasteries by the Popes Collectors in England for the 6. years Dismes granted in the Council of Lions, towards the relief of the Holy Land; (to secure it from transportation, for the publick good of the Realm, and right use for which it was given, that so his Brother Earl Edmund might be furnished therewith to ayd the Holy Land with a considerable force) issued Writs to Sheriffs and others, to view and secure that money, which they did in sundry places, breaking up the locks, trunks, closets where it was deposited, and taking it into their own custody. The Priors of Ely and Norwich fearing, obeying the Pope and his Collectors more then the King or his Officers, peremptorily refused to permit them to view or secure the monies laid up in their Monasteries; for which high contempt the King issued these memorable Writs, to summon them with some of their discreetest Monks to appear before him, wherever he should be in England or Wales, to answer these affronts, and receive condign punishment for the same.

The Pope being informed by his Agents of the Kings stopping and seising of these Dismes, was very cordially affected and discontented therewith; whereupon he writ and sent a very angry threatening Letter to the King, requiring him to restore all the monies thus seised within one months space, notwithstanding all his excuses and pretences in his Letter to him, which he reputed frivolous; which if he neglected or refused to do, he would rigorously proceed against him and his Realm by way of Excommunication and Interdict; and withall sent another Letter to John Peckam his devoted creature, (whom he had lately advanced to the Archbishoprick of Canterbury) to resort personally to the King, upon his canonical obedience, and to induce him by all means to restore or repose the intire money without difficulty, reciting therein the contents of his Letter to the King; which the Archbishop most diligently and peremptorily executed, as his own Epistle and account thereof to Pope Martin, enrolled in his Register, (worthy special observation) inform us;
thus related by Matthew Parker.

Nec ipsum latere volumus, quod quantumcunque personam ejus sinceris affectibus prosequamur, Regique libenter desideramus honori, nequaquam pati poterimus, cum non sit deferendum homini plquam Deo, quin super hoc; si opus extiterit, aliud remedium apponamus. Volumus igitur et fraternitati tuæ per Apostolica scripta in virtute obedientiæ districtè præcipiendo mandamus, quatenus ad eundem Regem te personaliter conferens, ipsum iuxta datam tibi a Deo prudentiam, ex parte nostra diligenter moneas et inducas, ut infra unius mensis spatium post monitionem tuam, prædictam pecuniam in locis eisdem, iuxta literarum ipsarum tenorem, cum integritate restitui faciat seu reponi, aperte prædicans eisdem, quod cum tantum et tam grabe dictæ Terræ Sanctæ dispendium volumus, acuti nec debemus, aliquatenus sustinere, nisi huiusmodi monitioni parere curaverit, tam contra eum quam terram suam, prout qualitas facti exigerit, et expedire viderimus, procedamus. Et quia huiusmodi negotium potissime incidet cordi nostro, volumus ut de monitione tua, & ipsius Regis responsione, ac aliis quæ super hoc egeris cum eodem, confici facias duo publica similia instrumenta, quæ nobis per latorem præsentium mittere non postonas. Nichilominus significatur nobis plenarie quicquid super præmissis duxeris faciendum, ut per te super his informari plenius et instructi, tutius et efficacius in hac parte procedere valeamus. Dat. apud Urbem Veterem 3 Non. Julii, Pontificatus nostri anno tertio. (What this Archbishop did in obedience thereunto, he thus certified the Pope.) Hinc igitur Sanctitatis vestre mandato vires et vota subiectis reberenter, requisito in illo Rege prædicto repertoque in finibus Walliæ, post literas vestras eidem directas, quas ipsius intelli manibus, literas etiam vestre beatitudinis mihi missas coram ipso et Magnatibus suis tunc præsentibus expressè vulgariter et aperte, tandemque expressè auctoritate mandati Regem ipsum monui super tribus.

Primo, ut pecuniam Decimæ suis iussionibus asportatam faceret integraliter infra mensem ad prædicta loca custodiæ repositari, tanta devotionis promptitudine, quæ posset asportationis maculam expiare.

Secundo, ut de cætero talibus ausibus penitus abstinere; adiungens, quod licet ipsam Apostolica clementia in charissimorum illorum numero complectatur, si tamen ipsum contingeret in talibus offensionibus de cætero inveniari, non posse eam nec velle virogam ei correctionis subtrahere, ne parcendo homini obsequiis iniuriis quas non corrigeret, assentiret.

Tertio, ne custodibus vel depositariis pecuniæ memoratæ aliquid huius occasione molestiæ vel gravaminis irrogaret. Quibus silenter ac reverenter auditis, tandem cum suis deliberatione præhabita, ad ubi propolita sic respondit:

Ad primum, inquires, quoniam non fuisset necessarium pro hac causa Summum Pontificem nobis suas literas destinasse, nec Archiepiscopum ad Regiam accessisse præsentiam, cum pene duobus elapsis mensibus pecuniam prædictam iusserimus restitui cum effectu.

Ad secundum subiungens, quod nihil indebitum intendebat de cætero contra Ecclesiam attemptare.

Ad tertium, miramur asserens, quare ad illos custodes iubemur specialiter innocentiam custodire, cum nostri sit propositi immobilis conceptio, sicut & debitum Regiæ dignitatis nullum ledere pro viribus innocentem. (A very milde and sober answer, to these insolent Papal and Pontifical demands; After which he subjoyns,) Denique iuxta mandati vestri beneplacitum (Pater Sancte) feci fieri publica Instrumenta, præcepta vestra reberenter et diligenter, acuti potui, in omnibus executas. Ad hac noveris vestra providentia Sanctitatis, quod licet communiter fidedignis testimoniis astruatur, quod prædicta pecunia sit iuxta iussionem Regiam suis custodiis restituta, huius tamen prædicta veritas scire non poterit, nisi per illos qui ipsius noverunt pondus, numerum, et mensuram. sancta per tempora longiora. Scriptum penultima die Novembris. These Letters attest how much more obedient this Arch-prelate was to the Pope, his creator, then to his Sovereign Lord King Edward: An. 11 E. 1.

The King having the year before invaded the Principality of Wales, and almost totally subdued it, though with some loss, by advice of his Prelates, Nobles, and Commons, for the future peace and security of the Realm from their frequent Rebellions and Incurfions, resolved totally to subdue them with a puissant Army; for which purpose standing in need of new and great supplies of Moneys, he by his Regal Authority issued out several special Writs to the Archbishops of Canterbury and Tork, and the Bishops within their Provinces, to hasten on the payment of the Quindisme they had granted him the year before, wherein the Archbishop was very negligent, though over-zealous to promote the Kings restitution of the Dismes collected for the Holy Land to the Pope, which after its restitution, he was enforced to borrow upon Security, and make use of against the Welsh Rebels. After which he sent forth other Writs to them, and likewise to the Abbots, Deans, Chapters, Clergy and Commonalty within their respective Provinces to meet together at severall times and places, to advise with such Persons as himself intrusted, to grant him a liberal Ayde and Supply of Moneys to accomplish this necessary and usefull Design at once; thus recorded to posterity in the Rolls of this year, remaining in the Tower of London.

REX Cantuariensis Archiepiscopo totius Anglia Primati salutem. What an insolent undutifull Answer this Arch-Prelate gave when they assembled in Parliament and Convocation at Northampton to this just and necessary request of the King, to promote the publick peace and felicity of the Church and Realm, who was so zealous to obey the Popes Commands, in demanding present restitution of the Dismes collected for the Holy Land, which he had seized, and might with more justice, reason make use of to supply his present pressing necessities, than suffer the Pope and his Agents to convert them to their own private uses,

* See here, p. 264, to 268.

Matthew Parker thus relates: * In hoc Parlamento Johannes Cantuariensis Archiepiscopus, cum Rex a Clero Decimam Proventus Ecclesiasticorum ad sumptus in Cambria factos recuperandos toto proximo triennio sibi solbi petisset, bicissim petiit, (in a very insolent manner) ut jura et privilegia vetera pro Ecclesiastica immunitate a Britannorum, Saxorum et Dacorum Regibus antiquitus tributa, quæ in S. Edwardi et Canuti Regum legibus descripta, a Willielmo Normanno approbata, ab Henrico primo in controversiam vocata, sed ab Henrico secundo rejecta et posthabita fuere, jam tandem auctoritate Regia, omniumque in eo Parlamento consensu firmarentur. Cujus rei deliberatio, Decima jam concessa, (much against the Archbishops mind) in aliud tempus dilata est. Notwithstanding the King to ingratiate himself with him, In hoc Parlamento Aymarus quidam de Monteforti Clericus, quem Rex Cambrensis belli reum suspicabatur, & carceribus incluserat, intercedente Cantuariensi Archiepiscopo cum suis Suffraganeis, simulque fide jubente ne quid, detrimenti ab eo Republicæ inferatur, liberatus est. Is Romam se ad Papam contulit, et abjecto Papæ auctoritate Clericatu, se addidit infansu militie. Paulo enim postquam se armis enseque cinxisset, nullo gesto aut suscepto obiit.

The King after this Parliament and Convocation held at Northampton, issued these Writs to the Archbishop of York, the Bishop of Durham, and the Abbots, Priors, Deans, Clergy and Archdeacons within their respective Provinces, Diocesses, and Counties beyond Trent, to meet together and grant him a competent ayd of money for this affair.

The Kings Embassadors sent to the Pope the year before, to excuse his own personal voyage to the Holy Land, by reason of his Wars with the Rebellious Welshmen, and troubles by the French, and to desire that the monies collected for the Holy Land might be conferred on his Brother Earl Edmund, who was ready and resolved speedily to repair thither in his stead, arriving at Rome, and imparting their Embassy to the Pope and his Cardinals; they utterly refused to grant his petition, pressing him to restore the monies seized in a milder manner than * before, and to repair personally to the Holy Land as they expected, for the glory of God, and his own honour; as this second Epistle of Pope Martin to him more fully relates.

MARTINUS Episcopus, &c. Charissimo in Christo filio Edwardo Regi Angliæ illustri, salutem & Apostolicam benedictionem. Charitatis facienda sinceritas quum personam Regiam tuamque domum solitam claris atque devotionis et fidei titulis insignitam, Apostolica sedes quasi mater affectuosa prosequitur instanter, animum nostrum pulsas mentemque sollicita, ut circa te veluti filium per dilectum interni luminis aciem dirigentes, de tuæ salutis profectionibus et bonorum augmento Regii seculo cogitemus. Sane dilecti filii Magistri Robertus Decanus Ebor. & Johannes dilecti Clarel Capellanus noster, Regia magnitudinis nuncios quæ affectione multa recepimus, nuper ad nostram presentiam venientes, & presentantes nobis literas Regiæ quas portarunt, ex parte tua cum instantia suppliciter petierunt, ut Decimam Regni tui Terræ Sanctæ subsidio deputatam, dilecto filio Nobili viro Edmundo Campaniæ & Britannici Comiti fratri tuo, cum ei certis causis, prout Puncionum ipsorum patet scit assensio, non intendas generalis passagii tempore a sede Apostolica statuendo ad partes accedere transmarinas, benigne concedere curaremus; cum idem Comes, sicut asseritur, sit paratus in terra memorata succursum prædicto tempore proficisci. * John Peckham Archbishop of Canterbury to fill his empty Purse, and extend his Archiepiscopal authority beyond his Predecessors, resolved thereupon to visit all his Province more accurately, and punish offenders more severely than in former times, to prevent all obstructions by Appeals to Rome, Visitacionem hanc suscepimus, prospiciendum sibi maxime putavit, ut Papæ ne ab eo turbaretur, in quibuscunque mandatis obsequeretur. Whereupon having obeyed his Commands to the King in admonishing him to restore the Dismes he had seized for relief of the Holy Land, he proceeded in his Visitation. In visitatione autem, quam peractis Papæ mandatis, exorsus est, primum Judæos in perpetuum exilium acturus scripsit Episcopo Londonensi, ut eorum omnes Synagogas everfas et demolitas solo adæquaret; (an high usurpation upon the Kings Prerogative.) Quod decretum paulo post, Rege procurante, mitigatum est, ac Judæis permissum utrum Templum in publico aliquo Civitatis loco, in quo suos ritus, amputata tamen Cereemoniarum multitudine, celebrarent. In hac Visitatione Crimina et Excessus permultorum Clericorum atque Laicorum acriter castigavit. Primum, quia plura Beneficia retinendi licentia in Anglia impune contra jura permissa Clericis fuit, eam non ab infamis modo sed a summis sumpto supplicio eradicavit; (a very commendable Action worthy imitation.) Nam Richard. More sacre Theologie Professore, Episcopum Winton. electum, necnon Johannem Kirkbey Capellanum Regis, ad Lichfeldensem Episcopatum etiam Electum, quia in Beneficiis plurales ante fuerant, confirmare noluit, sed rejecit. Quorum utrique, cum ad Papam appellassent, appellationes longo tempore prosecuti, eas tandem ratio deserere, et judicata a Johanne contra se Sententia stare inibiti coacti sunt; (a memorable President, wherein the Pope only aimed at his own Grandure and Ends, usurping a power to dispose of these Bishopricks upon this pretext, by his own Provision, to those who would give most for them.) In hujus autem locum Johan. Pontifarius ab ipso Papa Wintoniensis Episcopus creatus est, qui Wintonienses Monachos gravissime infestavit, et Episcopatus jura atque prædia mirum in modum ex Monachorum spoliis auxit, ut ex illius Ecclesie monumentis apparet. Cumque hos in jure vicisset, inferiores Clericos, qui plura Beneficia simul tenebant, aggressus est. Quos omnes, uno Beneficio contentos esse compulsi, (according to his * Constitutions made in the Council of Lambeth.) In quo proposito stetit durior, quod Romæ Cardinales quidam (ut ex ejus literis intelligi possit) eum coram Papa accusassent, quod hunc Anglicani Cleri excessum mirius tolerasset. Quam iniquam Criminationem ut vitaret, plurales non modo Beneficiis amovit, sed hujusmodi maledictis, Filios Belial, Contemptores Canonum, Usurpatores, et Beneficiozum Sacrilegos appellat. Rec minus in Plurales quam in Absentes, et non residentes acris Juxta fuit, a primis et elatis.

Archiepiscopus autem aliis impedita negotiis causam Priori de Southwerk, Decano de Archubus, & Canonico cuidam Ecclesiæ Pauline delegavit; quibus etiam mandavit, ut in tuitoris eventum de causa principali cognoscerent. Similisque inter Dunelmensem Episcopum & Eboracensem Archiepiscopum controversia, Archidiacono Cantuariensi appellationis tuitoria jure commissa est, in qua Archid. Cantuar. de eâ lite cognoscenti data est, Eboracensem Archiepiscopum suumque Officiale inhibendo à gerenda in Dunelmensis Episcopi præjudicium quacunq; jurisdictione comprimendi potestas. Deinde ut tribus diebus Dominicis in Ecclesia Parochiali Wilton exutus bestibus, virgiserberaretur. Tandemque postea penam tam in foro quam in Ecclesia Parochiali de Shaftesbury publice subiret. Ad hæc multozum mensum jejunium et injunctum est. Præterea omnibus militaribus insignibus detractis præbatus, nec calcearia deaurata, nec gladium, nec cellam militarem, aut deauratas Phaleras habiturus. Ad extremum ut nec vestes coloratas sed tantummodo de roseto, cum agnitis pellibus belovinis, nec utatur Camisia posteaquam fuerat castigatus per tres annos, ad ordinem suum militarem non rediret antequam tres continuos annos in Terra Sancta eregisset. Ante omnia, ut Moniales ad Cœnobium simili pœna multandas restituere atque remitti curaret. Hæc omnia se jurejurando facturum spondit; jejuniorum nihilominus ab Episcopopo Saresbiriensi illi præscribendo modo. (An high Usurpation on Knights and Lay-Subjects privileges.) Nec minorem in reprimendis jurisdictionem suam contemnentes seberitatem Petrus quidam de Sancto Marco Decanus de Archubus exercuisse fertur, qui Herefordensis Episcopi Officiale suis monitis non parentem, primo 10, deinde aucta et perseverante Contumacia, 40 Marcis; (which he had no legal power to impose) tanquam Rebellem et potestatis suæ contemptorem, multabit; necnon Episcopum ipsum Herefordensem, quod Officialis suæ partes audacius tueretur, excommunicabit, ejus Capellam Interdicto Ecclesiastico suppositur; (a very high Papal Exorbitancy.) Hoc etiam tempore lis quædam inter Lincolniensem Episcopum & Universitatem Oxon. aliquot annis de Jurisdictione Episcopi in Scholares Universitatis agitata est. De qua Johannis Cantuariensis cum Scholarium tum causam vacillare, nec jure stare posse intellexerat, Scholaribus rescriptis; Si in jure contenderent, vinci eos ac superari necesse esse, præsertim cum his quibus niterentur privilegia à Jurisdictione Episcopali jure communi stabilita, eximi nequaquam potuissent. Ipseque perlustrata reliqua Provincia Oxoniensem Academiam jure Metropolitico visitaturus adiit. In qua Visitatione quasdam Philosophicas opiniones, quos errores & à Roberto Kilmarby ante reprehensos docuit, tanquam hæreses et à fide Christiana abhorrentes è suggestu latine refellit. Quam Frater Johannes non concoxit, ne colligeretur inde, corpus Christi non fuisse unum numero vivum & mortuum, nec sanctorum corpora eadem tota vel secundum partes in orbe existere vel in urbe; sed alia quaedam quæ non pepererunt matres, sed de novo peperit phantasia; (the first President of this kinde, to adjudge and declare new Heresies in a Visitation, without a Synod or Council.) Sed istæ Hereses philosophicæ ab Oxonienſium Scholis in Prædicatorum & fratrum turbis profecti & disseminati fuerunt. Inter quos Richardus Knapwell Doctor Ordinis Prædicatorum octo opiniones contra Johannis Peckham assertiones defendit. Hunc itaque Johannes Peckham ad suum tribunal vocavit, eoque non accedente, eum suasque opiniones cum suo Clero damnabit. Sed * Hugo de Mancrovia ejus Ordinis Provincialis intercessit, & Cant. restitit. Allegabitque, neminem in subditiis fratres præter solum Papam potestatem habere. Itaque appellatione interposita superſedit negotia Cantuarienſis, atque contulit. Nec quicquam deinceps in hominulum fratrem valuit ejus auctoritas, qui in Regem et Episcopos omnia poterat. Idem acutus frater & Theologus, cum è sacris Scripturis probare vellet, non esse permissum Clericis duo Beneficia Ecclesiastica retinere, protulit hanc ex Evangelio sententiam; Qui habet duas tunicas, unam tribuat non habenti; & qui habet escas similiter. Richardus ille frater inter alia quæ de nugis Philosophicis scripsit, adidit unum de formarum vitate libellum, ut omnibus liquido constare posset, eum nullis Cantuarienſis minis deterritum in sententia sua perseverasse. His in Provincia visitanda gestis, scriptis ad plerisque Suffraganeorum literis, ne se, suos Officiales et tribunalia muneribus, (quæ cum insigni Prelatorum opprobrio dñi nepharie percipi in visitatione intellexerat) deinceps inquirari permitterent, admonuit; quod si suæ monitioni non parerent, se admissa deinceps in muneribus percipiendis scelera severius animadversurum. In literis etiam ad Ordinum Cardinalem Tusculanum Episcopum scriptis, queritur de quodam, quem Remigem, suam navem atque Puppim subversurum, nominat, qui muneribus moderi, ac duas pelbes aureas plenas slorensis accepisse ait. Idem ad Romanæ Curie Vicecancellarium scribit, comperisse se fuisse in Anglia multa privilegia per fallarios fabricata. Sed commoti Suffraganei, quod non modo tam crebris visitationibus, sed etiam quotidiana jurisdictione partes suas in eorum Diocæſibus tam sæpe interponeret, querelam 25. Articulis comprehensam in eum proponebant. Cuius querelæ tunc et eventum, cum in seipsos recidisse intellexerant, (by reason of his extraordinary favour with the Pope, his creator) ea omnia luctari amplius cum Petropolitano noluerunt. Inter hos Suffraganeos Londinenſis tum Episcopus gravare tulit quendam Henricum de Stokes suæ London. Diocæſis Rectorem, de Beneficiorum pluralitate eorum Decano de Arcubus in ius vocatum fuisse. Qua de re scripsit Johanni Peckham se id non laturum, sed nisi desistat tam in hac quam in aliis causis de suis Clericis subtiliter cognoscere, se appellationis ad Curiam Romanam sacram Anchozæ petitionem. Cui Johannes stupuisse se, scribit, de illa minaci & præjudiciali pagina. Sane, inquit, duo per nos vobis illata fuisse gravamina causamini: Primo, quod Henricum Stokes de pluralitate Beneficiorum ad nostrum evocavimus examen: Secundo, quod ipsum per Decanum de Arcubus citari fecimus; adjungentes, quod subditus Suffraganei Petropolitano non subest, quasi velitis jura Cantuar. Ecclesiæ, quæ tueri et defendere juraſtis ad amplius Petropolitani limites coardare. Decani autem de Arcubus processibus consuetis parare obicem nullatenus præsumatis: Pro certo scituri, quod jura Ecclesiæ Cantuar. partim scripta, partim a doctoribus authenticis notata, partim pacifice obtenta longo provincie usu intendimus contra omne hominum genus quantum poterimus constanti animo defendere. Thus did this Papal Arch-prelate, presuming on the Popes favour, domineer in this his Visitation over his whole Province, and subjugate it to his arbitrary power, which none of his predecessors attempted, much lesse effected till then. Having visited England, * Archiepiscopus per Cestriam transiens, Anno 1284. venit Walliam, ad reſormandum statum Ecclesiæ. In this Visitation (as I conceive) he made and published a Decree, what Ornaments of Churches the Parishioners should provide and pay for, and what the Priests or Encumbents; wherein you may observe how many Popish unnecessary superfluities he imposed on the people, without and against the Law or their assents,

REX Archiepiscopis, &c. salutem. Insuper scriptum quod venerabilis pater Willielmus Eborum Archiepiscopus Angliæ Primas, fecit in hac verba. Ad perpetuam memoriam subscriptorum in Dei nomine Amen. Dominus ac Redemptor altissimus qui omnia rite composuit & recto ordine stabilivit suos nonnunquam temporaliter tangit, ut quos intrinseca meditatio ad pias occupationes non allicit casus excitet exterior, qui contingit, quod penes eos qui ad successionem hæreditatis Dominicæ hiis diebus vocantur, præcipue est pensandum si statui viduarum Ecclesiarum prospicere considerent, & perplexos superiorum Prælatorum ingressus examinent intimius ad easdem. En nunquid Prælati nostri temporis nudam successionem scilicet in Ecclesiarum temporalibus nudi post fuscum adeunt, & nonne dum sola gleba pro cultura necessariis destituta, relinquitur prolixioribus quasi mendicando temporibus curam gerunt. Hoc siquidem innocentium oculi perhibent, & cotidiana revolutio in talibus evidencius manifestat, ex quibus plerumque accidit, quod spirituale meritum quod eminencius in Prælato requiritur, in temporale commercium laxius est conversum. An. 11 E. 1. prædictis mille bidentibus in maneris ad Archiepiscopatum Ebor. pertinentibus, ut inferius statim distinguitur, salvi ad usum & commodum maneriarum perpetuis temporibus conserventur. Remaneant scilicet in Balliva de Chirchedon apud Chirchedon duo equi carectarii cum carecta, & triginta & sex boves, cum quatuor carrucis & atillis. Item apud Norton octodecim boves, cum duabus carrucis & atillis. Item apud Sardington novem boves, cum una carecta & atillis. Item apud Cerny & Cumpston viginti & septem boves, cum tribus carrucis & atillis, & duo equi carectarii cum carecta. Item apud Otingdon duo equi carectarii cum carecta, & viginti & septem boves, cum tribus carrucis & atillis. Item remaneant in Balliva Suwell apud Suwell duo equi carectarii cum carecta, & triginta & sex boves, cum quatuor carrucis & atillis. Item apud Ascham quatuor equi carectarii, cum carectis duabus, & triginta & sex boves, cum quatuor carrucis & atillis. Item apud Seroby duo equi carectarii, cum una carecta, & octodecim boves, cum duabus carrucis & atillis. Item remaneant in Balliva de Shireburn apud Shireburn quatuor equi carectarii, cum duabus carectis, & quadraginta & quinque boves, cum quinque carrucis & atillis. Item apud Swychemund octodecim boves, cum duabus carrucis & atillis. Item apud Cavode viginti & septem boves, cum tribus carrucis & atillis, & octo boves, cum duobus plaustris. Item apud Grangiam Ebor. duo carectarii, cum una carecta, & viginti & septem boves, cum tribus carrucis & atillis. Item remaneant in Balliva de Wilton apud Wilton viginti & septem boves, cum tribus carrucis & atillis, & duo equi carectarii, cum una carecta. Item apud Wetwang. octo equi, cum duabus carrucis & atillis. Item remaneant in Balliva de Beverlaco apud Beverlaco quatuor equi carectarii, cum duabus carectis, & viginti & septem boves, cum tribus carrucis & atillis. Item apud Skyeby quatuor carectarii, cum duabus carectis, & viginti & septem boves, cum tribus carrucis & atillis. Item apud Patingreton octodecim boves, cum duabus carrucis & atillis. Item remaneant in Balliva Ripon apud Ripon decem equi carectarii, cum quinque carectis, & quaterviginti & novemdecim boves, cum undecim carrucis & atillis. Item apud Otteley duo equi carectarii, cum una carecta, & octodecim boves, cum duabus carrucis & atillis. Item remaneant in Balliva de Hextildesham apud Hextildesham octodecim boves, cum duabus carrucis & atillis. Item remaneant apud Patingreton quingentæ oves matrices, & apud Wilton quingenti multones de mille bidentibus antedictis. Qui quidem boves, equi & bidentes post decessum nostrum ad custodiam Domini Regis transeant, ipsique utatur Dominus Rex in lectis prædictis quacumque Ebor. fuerit sedes vacans, et eos adeo bonos sicut eos recepit, et in eodem numero integre restituat nostro proximo successori. Idem autem successor noster suis temporibus hiis utatur, & cum obierit vel cesserit illos in adeo bono statu quo eos recepit, Domino Regi dimittat in numero integro antedicto, et Rex similiter proximo successori, et sic deinceps. Ita quod nos, nec Dominus Rex, nec Custodes, per ipsum seu per heredes suos deputandi sede vacante quancumque, nec aliquis successor noster prædictos equos, boves, bidentes, vel aliquem singularem bovem, equum, vel bidentem possit vendere seu de hiis in testamento disponere, vel quocumque modo alienare vel occidere, seu qualitercumque subtrahere quominus prædictus numerus bovum, equorum et bidentium, salvis semper et integer remaneat ut superius est expressum, si si caput aliquod subtractum fuerit aliquo modo præmissorum is sub quo subtractum fuerit, statim subroget egrè bonum. The Archbishop of York St. Peters Vicar & successor as well as the Pope: See Tom. 1. p. 32, 33.

Et quia idem Papa notitiam illius persona temporibus retroactū memorialiter habebat, eidem denominationi libenter annuit & consensit: Egressi sunt ergo Bullæ Papales, et in Octabis Apostolorum Petri et Pauli, eidem Thomæ exhiberant præsentatæ, quæ fuerunt lectæ statim eodem die, præsentibus Comite Cornubiæ, Stephano de Penecester, tunc Constabulario Doveriæ, Pagistro Johanne de Lacy, & multis aliis; & statim idem Dominus Thomas, sic creatus in Abbatem, (of which he made no conscience, though against the Kings prerogative, and privilege of the Abbey) arripuit iter versus Regem, ad ostendendum illi Bullam Apostolicam; quem invenit apud Snouden apud Karnarvan 29 die Junii, qui Bullam cum dicto Abbate benigne admisit. Et prædictus Dominus Thomas Abbas eidem Regi totum processum cessionis prædicti N. & etiam sua creationis ore tenus expressit. Istis sic habitis benedictus est Londoniæ die Sancti Ambrosii de mandato Domini Papæ ab Archiepiscopo Dublinensi. Notwithstanding, upon better consideration, Cum vero fama laborasset sic de supradicta cessione, venit Cæcætor Regis die Pativitatæ Sancti Johannis Baptistæ, et Abbatiam in manus Domini Regis tenuit, et eam tenuit tanquam Cæcætor usque diem Mercurii proxime sequentem: quo die venit P. REX omnibus, &c. salutem. Cum Nicolaus nuper Abbas S. Augustini Cantuariensis, cui licentiam dedimus peregre proficiscendi ad Sanctum Benedictum in Monte Cassino, ad Curiam Romanam accedendo, Abbatia sua dicta in presentia Summi Pontificis, nobis inconsultis, cesserit; per quod idem Summus Pontifex de persona dilecti nobis in Christo Thomae de Fyndon Monachi dicti Monasterii, tunc in Anglia existentis, eidem Abbatia providit, vacatione dictae Abbatiae nobis minime nunciata, nec petita vel optenta per Priorem et Conventum ejusdem Monasterii a nobis, prout moris est, licentia eligendi sibi alium in Abbatem, nec etiam assensu Regio, prout ad Coronam et Dignitatem nostram pertinet, requisito; quod in exheredationis nostrae periculum (quod absit) de facili redundaret. Nos audito rumore de Vacatione praedicta, ne ex facto huiusmodi periculum exheredationis posset in posterum in casu consimili nobis et haeredibus nostris imminere, Abbatiam illam in manum nostram cepimus, et Custodes nostros deputavimus ad ipsam Abbatiam custodiendam. Ita quod de Exitibus inde provenientibus nobis responderent ad Saccharium nostrum, et per finem Quadringenta Marcarum, quem idem Thomas Abbas dicti Monasterii nobiscum fecit; de quibus Centum Marcas eidem pardonavimus ad instantiam venerabilis Patris R. Bachon. et Wellen. Episcopi Cancellarii nostri; et remisimus et pardonavimus praedictis Thomae Abbati & Conventui transgressionem nobis factam in hac parte; salva nobis et haeredibus nostris in omnibus Regia dignitate, ut Prior et Conventus Abbatiae praedictae, qui pro tempore erunt, in singulis vacationibus futuris ejusdem Abbatiae, vacationes illas nobis nuncient, et eligendi licentiam petant, necnon et Regium assensum requirant: Et salva nobis et haeredibus nostris custodia dictae Abbatiae, et perceptionem Exituum temporalium ejusdem in vacationibus praedictis, prout fieri debet et consuevit temporibus retroactis. REX Abbati Sancti Dionysii in Francia, salutem. Super dissensione inter Dominum vestrum Regem Francia, & Dominum Regem Sicilia, ex una parte, & Petrum Drapensem & fautores suos ex altera exorta, ac Regni Sicilia per eundem P. occupatione facta, dolemus novit altissimus vehementer, & si ad causam dissensionum inter ipsos pacificandam & sedandam opem operam & consilium impendere possemus utique gauderemus. Et hoc ob amorem quem erga Reges gerimus et gerere debemus memoratos, et etiam pro statu Terræ Sanctæ et Regnum prædictorum, ac insuper Christianitatis commodo universæ; Et super eo quod proprio motu vestro usque præter dicti Domini vestri Regis conscientiam nos ad hoc excitare voluistis, vestræ benevolentie quantum possumus gratiamur, discretionem vestram in hoc specialiter commendantes. Et quia nuncii nostri quos nuper in Vasconiam destinavimus, circa hoc de mandato nostro laborare volentes per Sacrosanctam Romanæ Ecclesiæ Legatum, ibidem in hac paciebantur repulsam, sicut vos credimus non latere, circumspeditionem vestram affectuosè requirimus & rogamus, quatinus vos qui Deum et pacem diligitis & cernitis, quanta bona ex huiusmodi pacis reformatione poterunt provenire, nobis consilium & avisamentum vestrum significare velitis, cujusmodi consilium & diligentiam apponere poterimus in præmissis. Nos enim ad honorem Dei, et Ecclesiæ sue Sanctæ, et commodum et tranquillitatem partium prædictarum, ac etiam totius Christianitatis, consilium quantum poterimus libenti animo apponemus. Dat. apud Ebor. 12 die Januarii, anno regni nostri duodecimo.

These pious Christian endeavours of the King for peace, being insolently rejected by the Popes Legate, the issue of the War this year (which he fomented) was so tragical to all parties, that Peter of Aragon died of a wound received in battel with the French, King Philip and Pope Martin both died of sickness, about the same time the French were likewise expelled Portugal, and Alphonso (Peters son) succeeded his father, notwithstanding the Popes Excommunications and deprivation, which then were not formidable, but contemptible even in Sicily, Aragon, Italy, and Rome it self.

Penulas autem hujusmodi amuciarum caprinas esse volumus vel agrinas, ne præ tonitate superba vel notabili, id quod in signum & suffragium humili proposito instituimus, mortuorum devotioni, sprete deformiter & neglecta decidat, quod absit, aliasve vilescat. Qui Canonici per nos & successores nostros creari disponimus, & in priorum decessibus vel cessationibus providos pariter recreandos. Volumus etiam, quod proventus Ecclesiæ de Lan Cadane memoratæ, inter Canonicos ibidem residentes & officis divinis continuè insistentes pro æqualibus portionibus dividantur; Præcentorum in eadem tertia parte reservata, quem continue in eadem volumus residere. Quod si pauciores Canonici, quam septem, in eadem fuerint residentes, duarum partium proventus ad fabricam Ecclesiæ memoratæ convertantur, vel cum Ecclesiæ perfecta, libris, palliis, indumentis, & aliis Ecclesiæ necessariis fuerit decorata, dicti proventus in usum pauperum Vicariorum ibidem Deo fervientium convertantur, prout nos & nostri successores melius duxerimus ordinandum. Et nos & nostri successores Stallum habentes in Choro, & locum in Capitulo Ecclesiæ antedictæ, correctiones, visitationes, et ordinationes, prout in Ecclesiâ nostrâ Meneven. hactenus facere consuevimus, in eadem impuisterum faciemus. Ecclesias autem Parochiales subscriptas eidem celebri Collegio, quod jam pro parte (benedictus Deus) in personis providis inchoavimus, ad perpetuum illius loci sustentimen in Præbendis conferimus, et caritative tanquam Patronus et Episcopus assignabimus. By which Record it is apparent, 1. That by the very election of a Prebend in Ireland to be a Bishop in England, the Prebendary in Law became void. 2ly. That the King then presented thereunto, not by reason of his promoting him to a Bishoprick, but by reason of the vacancy of the Archbishoprick of Dublin then in his hands, to which the Patronage of the Prebendary appertained.

King Edward the 1. having totally subdued the Welsh, in the 13. year of his reign, * pridie Kalendas Maii post Walliam subjugatam ad Westmonasterium veniens, præcedentibus Archiepiscopo Cantuariensi, & Suffraganeis suis Episcopis vestitus, cum turmis Nobilium & Religiosorum, & popularium comitivis, portionem Dominica Crucis non modicam, ornatum auro & argento & lapidibus pretiosis, quam de Wallia secum tulit, ad Westmonasterium cum solenni processione & concentu advexit, where he summoned a Parliament after the Feast of Easter, wherein he made sundry excellent Laws for the redresse of many oppressions of the people, and defaults and defects of the Laws; whereof Matthew Westminster renders us this brief account. In this Parliament, to prevent all Suits in Ecclesiastical Courts for Advowſons of Churches, and to give Patrons better and speedier remedies to recover their Advowſons, againſt uſurpers, in the Kings Temporal Courts, then formerly they had, the King, Lords and Commons enacted this Law.

* Cap. 5. Whereas for Advowſons of Churches there be but three originall Writts; that is to ſay, one Writt of Right, and two of Poſſeſſion, which be Darraine Preſentment, and Quare Impedit; and hitherto it hath beene uſed in the Realme, that when any havinge noe right to preſent, had preſented to any Church, whoſe Clerk was admitted; he, that was very Patron, could not recover his Advowſon, but onely by a Writt of Right, which ſhould be tryed by Batayle, or by Great Affiſe; whereby Heires within age, either by fraude, or elſe by negligence of their Gardi-ans; and Heires, both of right and meane Eſtate, either by negligence, or elſe by fraude of Tennants by the Courtſie, Tennants in Dower, or otherwiſe for terme of Life, or for Years, or in Fee Taile, were many times diſinherited of their Advowſons, or at the leaſt (which was the better for them) were driven to their Writt of Right; in which caſe they were hitherto without remedie: It is provided, that ſuch Preſentments ſhall not bee ſo prejudiciall to the right Heires, or to them unto whom ſuch Advowſons ought to revert after the death of other perſons. For as often as any havinge no right doth preſent, duringe the time that ſuch Heires are in Ward, or duringe the Eſtates of Tennants in Dower, by the Courtſie, or otherwiſe for terme of Life, or of Years, or in Taile, at the next avoidance when the Heir is come to full age, or when after the death of the Tennants before named, the Advowſon ſhall revert to the Heir being of full age, hee ſhall have ſuch Action and Receipt by Writt of Advowſon poſſeſſorie, as his laſt Anceſtor ſhould have had at the laſt avoidance, happening in his time, being of full age before his death, or before the Demise was made for terme of Life, or in Fee Taile, as before is ſaid. The ſame ſhall bee obſerved in Preſentments made unto Churches, being of the Inheritance of Women, what time they ſhall bee under the power of their Husbands, which muſt bee ayded by this Eſtate, by the remedie aforeſaid. Alſo Religious men, as Bishops, Archdeacons, Perſons of Churches, and other ſpirituall men, ſhall bee ayded by this Eſtate, in caſe any havinge noe right do preſent unto Churches belonging to Prelacies, ſpirituall Dignities, Perſonages, or to Houſes of Religion, what time ſuch Houſes, Prelacies, ſpirituall Dignities, or Perſonages bee vacant. Neither ſhall this Act bee ſo largely underſtanden, that ſuch perſons for whoſe remedie this Statute was ordeyned, ſhall have the recovery aforeſaid, ſurmyſing that Gardynes of Heires, Tennants in Taile, by the Courtſie, Tennants in Dower, for terme of Life, or for Years, or Husbands which have ſainly deſerded Pleas moved by them or againſt them, becauſe the Judgements given againſt them in the * Kings Courts, ſhould not bee annulled by this Statute, the Judgement ſhall ſtand in his force, untill it bee reverſed in the Court of the King, as erroneous, if errour bee found, or by Writ of Warreine Preſentment, or by enqueſt in Quare Impedit, if it bee paſſed, by Attaint, or be annulled by Certification, which ſhall bee freely granted. And from henceforth one forme of Pleading ſhall bee obſerved amongſt Juſtices in Writts of Darraine Preſentment, and Quare Impedit; ſo that where the Defendaunt alledged plenary in the Church of his own Preſentation, the Plea ſhall not fall by reaſon of that plenary, ſo that the Writ bee purchaſed within ſix moneths, though he cannot recover his Preſentation within the ſix moneths. And ſometimes where a Fyne is levied betweene many claiming one Advowſon, and inrolled before the Juſtices in the rolle or fine in this forme, That one ſhall preſent the firſt time, and at the next Advowſon another, and the third time another, and ſo of many in caſe there bee many. And when one hath preſented for his tourne according to the forme of their agreement, and fyne, and at the next avoidance, hee to whome the ſecond Preſentation belongeth, is diſturbd by any that was partie to the ſaid fine, or in his ſtead; It is provided, that from henceforth he that is ſo diſturbd, ſhall have no need to ſue a Quare Impedit, but ſhall reſort to the Roll or Fine. And if the ſaid concord or agreement bee found found in the Rolls or Fine, then the Sherriffe shall bee commanded, that hee give knowledge unto the Distourber, that hee bee ready at some short day, conteyning the space of fifteen dayes, or three weekes, (as the place happeneth to be neare or farre) for to shew if hee can alledge any thing, wherefore the partie that is distourbed, ought not to present. And if hee come not, or peradventure doth come, and can alledge nothing to barre the partie of his Presentation, by any deed made or written since the fine was made or inrolled, hee shall recover his Presentation, with his dammages. And where it chanceth, that after the death of the Auncellor of him that presented his Clerk to a Church, the same Advowson is assigned in Dower to any Woman, or to Tennant by the Courtesie, which doe present, and after the death of such Tennants, the verie Heire is distourbed to present, when the Church is void; It is provided; that from henceforth it shall bee in the election of the partie distourbed, whether he will sue a Writt of Quare Impedit, or of Darvaine Presentment. The same shall bee observed in Advowsons demised for terme of Life, or Yeares, or in Fee Taile. And from henceforth in Writts of Quare Impedit, and Darvaine Presentment, dammages shall be awarded, that is to wit of the time of six moneths past, so that the Bishop do present, and the very Patrone loseth his Presentation for that time, dammages shall bee awarded for two yeares value of the Church. And if the six moneths be not passed, and the presentment be deraigned within the said time, then dammages shall bee awarded to the halfe yeares value of the Church. And if the distourber have not whereof hee may recompence dammages, in case where the Bishop presenteth by lapse of time, hee shall bee punished by two yeares imprisonment. And if the Advowson be deraigned within the halfe yeare, yet the distourber shall bee punished by the imprisonment of halfe a yeare. And from henceforth Writts shall bee graunted for Chappells, Prebends, Vicarages, Hospitalls, Abbies, Priories, and other Howses which bee of the Advowsons of other men, that have not beene used to be graunted before. And when the Person of any Church is distourbed to demande Tythes in the next Parish by a Writt of Indicavit, that Patron of the Person soe distourbed, shall have a Writt to demande the Advowson of the Tythes, being in demands; and when it is deraigned, then shall the Plea passe in the Court Christian, as farre forth as it is deraigned in the Kings Court. When an Advowson descendeth unto Parceners, though one present twice, and usurpeth upon his Coheire, yet he that was negligent shall not bee cleerly barred, but another time shall have his tourne to present, when it falleth.

What benefit this Act gave to Patrons, and what additions it made to the Common Law, the words of the Act, together with Statiam, Brooke, Fitzherbert, Hughes in their Abridgements of the Law, Natura Brevium, and Ash, Titles Assise de Darvaine Presentment, Droit de Advowson, Indicavit, Quare Impedit, and Sir Edward Cooke in his Commentary on it, Institutes 2. p. 353, to 366. will at large inform you: Only I shall observe three particulars from it.

First, That although Pope Alexander 3. the Council of Lateran under him, and our Bishops endeavoured to deprive the King and his Temporal Courts of holding Plea of Advowsons of Churches, and the right of Patrons to present to them, (as I have elsewhere observed) yet our Kings and Nobles would never assent thereto, but preserved their antient Right and Jurisdiction vested in them by the Common Laws of England, which they further ratified by this Statute.

2ly. That although this Pope and Council of Lateran (not of Lions, as Britton mistakes) confined Patrons when Churches or Prebendaries became void, quod infra sex menses personis, quae digne administrare valeant, conferantur; whereas Britton, Fleta, and our other Law Books inform us, ante Concilium Lateranense nullum curriebat tempus contra presentantes; the Bishop providing only a Clerk to serve the Cure till the Patron presented or collated to it, but having no power or right to present thereto himself by way of lapse; yet this Councils Canons did never oblige the Kings of England, who by their Prerogatives were obliged to no time, but might and did present or collate to Bishopricks, Churches, Abbies, Prebendaries, and other Benefices presentative or donative, to which they had right, whenever they pleased; nor did this binde other Patrons & Subjects of this Realm, till established as a Law by consent of the King in Parliament; yea the six moneths, (as the Council) or half year (as this Act stiles it) shall be accounted six full Kalendar moneths, amounting to 3ly. That the right of Tithes, by the Common Law was originally and antiently triable only at the Common Law in the Kings Temporal Courts, not in the Ecclesiastical by the Canon Law, who had no Jurisdiction to hold plea of Tithes issuing out of Freeholds, no more then of rents, before the right of them was determined in the Kings Court by a Writ of Indicavit; which Writ (as † Sir Edward Cook observes) is against the Canonical Sanction, and yet hath been ever obeyed; for all foreign Sanctions or Canons against the Law of the Realm are of no force, and binde not here.

Next, whereas King Cnut the Dane after his return from Rome into England in a Parliamentary Council at Wynton, in Sancto Natali Domini, (printed in the * Chronicle of Bromton, Mr. William Lambard, and Mr. Abraham Whelock, cap. 96, 97. in the Latin, but 67, & 68. in the Saxon Edition) for the ease of his people enacted this Law, De intestato mortuis. Hac est alligatio quam omni populo meo providere volo, in quibus nimis omnino fuerant aggravati. Si quis ex hac vita decedat sine distributione rerum suarum, (or, as Lambard and Whelock better translate it, fuerit ab intestato mortuus) vel per incustodiam, vel per mortem improbitam, non insurpet sibi Dominus ejus de pecunia sua, (nisi quantum ad justam relevationem pertinet, quæ Anglicè vocatur Hereget) sed sit secundum discretionem ejus, (or, judicii suo, not of the Bishop or Ordinary) ipsa pecunia recte distributa, uxori, parentibus, et propinquis, unicuique secundum modum, qui ad eum pertinet, & sint relevationes ita minutæ sicut modus est. Which Law was afterwards ratified by Edward the Confessor, William the Conqueror, & Hen. 1. whereby it is apparent, 1. That before this Law, the Lord of every person dying intestate, usually claimed all his money and goods to himself. 2ly. That this Law confined every Lord to seise and retain no more of his Tenants money or goods, then would satisfy the relief, rent, or heriot due to him at his death. 3ly. That all the rest of his goods were to be rightly distributed between his wife, children, kinred, to each of them according to his proportion, as the Lord (not Bishop or Ordinary) should adjudge or direct. 4ly. That the Writ De Rationabili parte bonorum in case of Intestates, is not grounded upon the particular custom of some Counties, Boroughs or Cities, as is commonly mistaken, but on a general Law of the Land, namely on this Law of King Cnut, ratified both by the Confessor, Conqueror, Henry the 1. Magna Charta, c. 18. and on the Common Law of the Realm, as Bracton l. 2. c. 26. f. 60, 61. Hornes Mirror of Justice, c. 5. sect. 2. p. 213. Fleta l. 2. c. 57. Fitzherbert in his Natura Brevium, f. 122. b. assure us, and the ancient Writs in Glanvil, l. 12. c. 20. Secundum consuetudinem terræ nostræ, directly resolve, against the mistaken Clause in the Writs in the Register, f. 122. secundum consuetudinem in Comitatu prædicto (Berks) hactenus usitatum; and Sir Edward Cookes error grounded thereon, 2 Instit. p. 33. That this Writ doth not lie without a particular Custom. 5ly. That the Bishop or Ordinary before, or after this Law, had no legal authority by it, or any other Statute before this Parliament to make any distribution of the intestates goods, either to his wife, children or kinred, much lesse to any pious uses for the good of his Soul; not once mentioned, nor intimated in this or any other of his or his predecessors Lawes. Yet they usurped by degrees to themselves, either by pretext of a Clause in King Richard the 1. his Charter, or * King Johns Great Charter, (omitted in that of King Henry the 3. and Edward the 1.) or by a pretended Ordinance of the King and Lords, suggested in Ottobons, and Archbishop Stratfords Constitutions; or by Archbishop Boniface his Constitutions in the Council of Lambeth, (though protested, appealed against by King Henry the 3. as grievances, against the rights of his Crown, the Lawes, Customes of the Realm, as I have formerly evidenced) a power to seise, dispose, and distribute to pious uses the goods and chattels of intestate persons; or rather in imitation of Pope Innocent the 4. who by a new unheard-of Papal Statute and Constitution (Anno Dom. 1246.) claimed to himself and his successors the disposal of the goods and chattels of all persons dying intestate, especially Clergymen, seising upon them by his Emisaries; non sine Principum injuria et jactura, ut omnia eorum bona Papalis Charybdis deglutiret, et in gremio suavaritæ amplectaretur, non sine nota manifestæ cupiditatis, as * *Mat. Upon the Liberties of the Kings and Subjects of Engl. & Irel. K. Edward 1.

Matth. Paris, and others story of him, Quidcum audisset Dominus Rex (H. 3) An. 13 E. 1. detestans Romanæ Curie argumentum, ac multiplicem et multiformem avaritiam, hoc fieri prohibuit, compertens illud in damnum regni et suum redundare prejudicium; (claiming a Regal interest in, and Jurisdiction over them;) which Statute and Constitution the Cardinals not long after enforced this Pope to revoke, by reason of the general scandal it gave in divers Climates; yet Pope Martin the 4th. revived it by his practise near this time, in claiming the goods and chattels of Robert Kylwardby, Archbishop of Canterbury, dying intestate at Rome, under pretext of distributing them to the poor, and pious uses, which our Bishops did thereupon likewise imitate in England, to the prejudice of Intestates Wives, Children, Lords, Creditors to whom they were obliged or indebted; Hereupon, to rectifie this usurpation and abuse, the King, Lords and Commons in this Parliament enacted this Law, ch. 19.

Cum post mortem alicujus decedentes intestati, & obligati aliquibus in debito, bona deveniant ad Ordinarium disponenda, obligetur de cætero Ordinarius ad respondendum de debitis quatenus bona defuncti sufficiunt; eodem modo quo executores respondere timentur, si Testamentum fecissent. West 2 c. 19.

§ Sir Edward Cooke, in his Commentary on this Statute affirms; This Act was made in affirmance of the Common Law; That the Ordinary is the person whom the Law appointeth to take charge of the Administration of the goods and chattels of the party that dyeth intestate, or quasi intestatus; and justly did the Law in this case appoint the Ordinary, for the Law presumed, that he that had the care of his soul in his life-time, would after his death have care of his temporal goods and chattels to see them well disposed and administered. But under his favour, I conceive it most evident, that the Common Law of England never intrusted the Bishop or Ordinary (much lesse their Vicars Generals, Chancellors, Commissaries, Officials, Surrogates) with the general disposition, administration, or Judicature of all intestates temporal goods, debts, chattels after their deaths, of which they had, yea ought to have no care, disposition, jurisdiction, administration during their lives, being inconsistent with, incongruous to their spiritual function, which is only the cure of souls, not of mens worldly estates, as I have elsewhere evidenced; and the forecited Lawes of King Cnut, Edward the Confessor, the Charter of King Henry the 1. and Magna Charta, which divide the goods and chattels of Intestates between their wives, children, if they have any, or the next of kin, and leave them to their administration and distribution, or else to the Kings, Lords of whom they held, not to the Bishop or Ordinaries; Which being the ancient Common & Statute Law of England, this his assertion must be a clear mistake, contrary to his own and our other Judges Resolutions in Hensloes case: So that the end of this Statute (as I apprehend) was only to subject Ordinaries who seized goods or Chattels of persons dying intestate by their usurped Jurisdiction, (under this forged, false Popish pretext, of distributing them to pious uses for the good of their souls, to lessen their torments, and rescue them out of purgatory) and make them as farre forth liable to satisfie the Intestates Bonds and Debts, as his Executors then were, had he made any; but not to give them any new legal authoritie or Jurisdiction over Intestates goods and chattels, which they had not before by the Common, or any other precedent Statute Law.

Moreover, to prevent the frustrating of the Statutes against Mortmain by religious and other Ecclesiastical persons, through defaults, collusion, or erecting Crosses on Lands, this new Law was then likewise enacted.

* When religious men and other Ecclesiastical persons do implead any, and the person impleaded makes default, whereby he ought to lose the Land, forasmuch as the Justices have thought hitherto, that if the party impleaded make default by collusion, that where the Demandant by occasion of the Statute could not obtain seisin of the Land by way of Gift or other alienation, he shall now by reason of default, and so the Statute is defrauded: It is ordained by our Sovereign Lord the King in this case, that after the default made, it shall be inquired by the Countrey, whether the Demandant had right in the thing demanded, or no? and if it be found that the Demandant had right, the Judgement shall passe with him, and he shall recover seisin; and if he hath no right, the Land shall accrete to the next Lord of the Fee, if he demand it within a year from the time of the Inquest taken. And if he do not demand it within a year, it shall accrete to the next Lord

An. 13 E. 1. Lord above, if he do demande it within half a year. And so every Lord after the next Lord, immediately shall have the space of half a year for to demand it successively, untill it come to the King, to whom at length, throught default of other Lords, the Land shall accrete: And to challenge the Jurors of the Inquest every of the Chief Lords of the Fees shall be admitted; and likewise for the King they that will shall challenge. And after the Judgement given, the Land shall remain in the Kings hands, untill it be decreed by the Demaundant or some other Chief Lord; and the Sherriffe shall be charged to answer therefore at the Exchequer.

Cap. 33. Forasmuch as many Tenants set up, or cause to be set up Crosses in their Lands in prejudice of their Lords, to the intent their Tenants should defend themselves against the Chief Lords of the Fee, by the priviledge of Templars and Hospitallers; It is ordeyned, that such Lands shall be forfeit to the Chief Lords, or the King, in the same manner as is provided for Lands aliened in Poymayne.

For the true meaning and scope of which two Statutes, I shall referr you to Statham, Brooke and Fitzherbert their Abridgements, Title Collusion; and Cookes 2 Institutes, p. 428, to 433.

To prevent the Whoredom & Ravishment of Nuns they enacted, c. 34. Qui Monialem à domo sua abducit, sicut Monialis consentiat, purtatur per prisonam trium annorum, & satisfaciatur domui à qua abducta fuerat competenter, et nihilominus rebitur ad voluntatem Regis; all temporal penalties for what the Clergie deemed an Ecclesiastical offence; whence the Writ upon this Statute by a Prioress for taking away a Nun, recites, * per quod divinum servitium in Ecclesia ipsius Priorisse multipliciter substractum fuit & diminutum.

Register, f. 74. b. & 107. b. Moreover to prevent the Alienation of Lands given to Monasteries by the King, his Ancestors, or others to religious uses, or services, by Abbots, Priors and Wardens for their own private lutchre, or advancement, to purchase great preferments from the Pope, or to enrich their kinned, whores, or bastard children, against the Founders and Donors intent, to the discontinuing or ceasing the divine services or uses for which they were originally given, they provided new temporal remedies, no waies pleasing to the Abbots or Monks.

Cap. 41. Our Sovereign Lord the King hath ordeined, that if Abbots, Priours, Keepers of Hospitals, and other Religious Houses, founded by Him or by his Progenitors, do from henceforth aliene the Lands given to their houses by him, or by his Progenitors; the Land shall be taken into the Kings hands, and holden at his will; and the Purchaser shall lose his recovery as well of the Lands, as of the Money that he paid. And if the House were founded by an Earle, Baron, or other persons, for the Lands so aliened, he, from whom, or from whose Ancestor the Land so alienated was given, shall have such a Writ to recover the Lands in Demean. Præcipe tali Abbati quod iussit, &c. reddat G. F. tale tenementum, quod eidem domui collatum fuit in liberam Elcemosinam per prædictum G. vel antecessores suos, & quod ad prædictum G. reverti debet, per alienationem, quam prædictus Abbas fecit de prædicto Tenemento, contra formam Collationis prædictæ, ut dicit. In like manner for Lands given for the maintenance of a Chauntry, or of a light in a Church or Chappell, or other Alms to be maintained, if the Land given be aliened. But if the Land so given for a Chauntry, Light, Sultenance of poor people, or other Almes to be maintained or done, be not aliened, but such Alms shall be withdrawn by the space of two years, an action shall lye for the Donor or his heir to demande the Land so given in Demean, as it is ordeined in the Statute of Gloucester (c. 4.) for Lands leased, to do or so render the fourth part of the value of the Land, or more.

One chief design in making this Law, was to prevent Abbots and Priors giving, or leasing the Lands of their Churches to their Whores, Concubines and Bastard children; a common practise among these unchast Votaries, as well as with Popes, Cardinals, and Popish Bishops.

By virtue of this Act, Hil. 38 E. 3. rot. 14. coram Rege, it was found by Inquisition, that * Thomas de Pipe Abbot of Stonely in Warwickshire, (a lusty Stallion) of the foundation of Henry the 2. had alienated divers parts of the Mannor of Stonely, and other Lands for life, Isabellæ de Beneshare Concubinae dictæ Abbatis, et Johanni filio eorundem Abbatis et Isabellæ primogenito: habendam & tenendam ad terminum vite eorundem Isabellæ & Johannis; And other lands to other persons, absque abique aliquo reddendo inde annuatim, vel p<sup>er</sup> manibus inde ab eisdem percepto, sed tamen modo ad opus et proficuum ipsius Abbat<sup>is</sup>; et maxime pro sustentatione et inventione p<sup>re</sup>dictorum Isabellæ et puerorum eorundem Abbatis et Isabellæ, qui excedunt numerum Monachorum suorum missas celebrantium, si forte deponeretur de statu suo. And this was held an alienation within the meaning of Act.

They likewise settled what fees Abbots, Priors, Archbishops and Bishops should pay to the Kings Marshal and Chamberlain when they made their homage and fealty to the King for their Baronies held of him by Barony, and not in Frankalmoin.

Concerning the Kings Marshalls of Fee, the said Marshalls shall take of Abbots and Priours holding an whole Barony, when they make Homage or Fealty for their Baronies one Palfric, or the price. And this shall also be observed amongst Archbishops and Bishops. Of such as hold but a part of a Barony, whether they be Religious or Secular, he shall take according to the Portion of the part of the Barony that they hold. Of Religious men that hold in free Almes, and not by a Barony or part of a Barony, the Marshall from henceforth shall demand nothing. And our Sovereigne Lord the King hath granted, that by this Estatute a Marshall of Fee shall not be barred hereafter to demand more, if he can shew that he hath right unto more. The Kings Chamberlains from henceforth shall have of Archbishops, Bishops, Abbots, Priours, and other persons Spiritual, of Earls and Barons holding an entire Barony, a reasonable fine, when they do their Homage.

By this it is apparent, that Archbishops, Bishops, Abbots, and Priors, then did, and ought to do both Homage and Fealty to the King as their Sovereign Lord, for their Baronies, as well as Temporal Lords, at leastwise after their election, and before their consecration, if not after it; as is evident by Glanvil, l. 9. c. 1, 2. Bracton, f. 78. E. Britton, c. 68. Fleta, l. 3. c. 16. Littleton, §. 86. and other evidences I have elsewhere cited at large, notwithstanding all Popish Canons and Decrees against it.

The Templars and Hospitallers, and Conservators of their Priviledges by Bulls from Popes usurping upon the Kings Prerogative and Subjects Liberties, by illegal Citations into their Courts, for matters belonging to the Kings Courts; they then enacted this Law against such their Usurpations.

Be it prohibited from henceforth to Hospitallers and Templars, that hereafter they bring no man in Plea before the Keepers of their Priviledges, for any matter, the knowledge whereof belongeth to the Kings Court; which if they doe, first they shall p<sup>ay</sup> Damages to the party grieved, and be grievously punished unto the King. The King also prohibiteth to the Keepers of such Priviledges, that from henceforth they graunt no Citations at the instance of Hospitallers, Templars, or other persons privileged, before it be expressed upon what matter the Citation ought to be made. And if the Keepers do see that a Citation is required upon any matter, the knowledge whereof belongeth to the Kings Court, the Keepers shall neither make nor knowe the Citation. And if the Keepers doe otherwise, they shall p<sup>ay</sup> Damages to the party grieved, and nevertheless shall be grievously punished by the King. And forasmuch as such persons privileged depute Keepers, Superiours, Chaunters, Sextons, which be Religious men, and which have nothing to satisfie the Parties grieved, nor the King, which be more bold to offend the Kings Dignity, then their Superiours, to whom punishment may be assigned by their Temporalities; Let the Prelates of such Obedients therefore beware from henceforth, that they doe not suffer their Ordinaries to assume to themselves any Jurisdiction in prejudice of the King and his Crown; and if they do, their Superiours shall answer for their fact, as if they had been conbait upon their proper Act. And by parity of Law and Equity, Archbishops, Bishops, and other Ordinaries ought to answer for the usurpations, extravagances, excommunications, oppressions of their Vicars, Archdeacons, Chancellors, Commissaries, Surrogates, and other inferior officers, who commonly are more bold to usurp upon the Kings Crown, Dignity, Courts, and more vex, oppress, grieve his Subjects, then their Superiours, as the experience of all ages; evidence, to raise a fortune or family by unlawful gain, though they go to Hell in conclusion, and intail a curse upon their posterity.

This Year in this Parliament, as <sup>a</sup> Sir Edward Coke, and some of our ordinary printed Statute Books report, Circumspecte agatis, was made and published, thus recorded in William Lindwode his Provinciale, l. 2. De Foro Competenti f. 70. printed Antwerpia, Anno 1525. 20 die Decembris: in Richard Tottles Magna Charta, Londini 1556. f. 89. and other Statute Books since.

REX talibus Judicibus salutem. Circumspecte agatis de negotiis tangentibus Episcopum Norwicensem, & ejus Clerum; non puniendo eos si placitum tenuerint in Curia Christianitatis de his quæ sunt mere spiritualia; videlicet, de correctionibus quæ Prelati faciunt pro mortali peccato; viz. pro fornicatione, adulterio, et hujusmodi: pro quibus aliquando infligitur pœna corporalis, aliquando pecuniaria, maxime si convictus fuerit de hujusmodi liber homo. Item, si Prelatus puniat pro Cimiterio non clauso, Ecclesia discoperta, vel non decenter ornata; in quibus casibus alia pœna non possit infligi quam pecuniaria. Item, si Rector petat versus parochianos Oblationes vel Decimas debitas vel consuetas, vel si Rector agat contra Rectorem de decimis majoribus, vel minoribus, dummodo non petatur quarta pars valoris Ecclesiæ. Item, si Rector petat Portuarium in paribus ubi mortuarium dari consuevit. Item, si Prelatus alicujus Ecclesiæ, vel advocatus petat a rectore Pensionem sibi debitam: omnes hujusmodi petitiones sunt faciendæ in foro Ecclesiastico. De violenta manuum injectione in Clericum, et in causa Diffamationis concessum fuit alias, quod placitum inde teneatur in Curia Christianitatis, cum non petatur pecunia, sed agatur ad correctionem peccati, et similiter pro fidei latione. In omnibus prædictis casibus habet Juxta Ecclesiasticus cognoscere Regia prohibitione non obstante.

Whether Articuli Cleri be a Statute or Act of Parliament or not, and when, where, or by whom made, there have been different, yea contrary opinions amongst Lawyers: *Mich. 19 E. 3. Fitzh. Jurisdiction 28. Grene a Counsellor pleaded it as a Statute, in a Writ of Annuity brought by the Bishop of Winchester against the Archbishop of Sarum, which Annuity he and his predecessors claimed by prescription against the Archdeacon and his predecessors; comparing it, to the case of an Annuity between the Parson and Vicar, and between the Patron and Parson, which ought to be brought in Court Christian, q̄ per Prohibition la Court illoquin ne surcess, et ceo doet le Statut de Circumspecte agatis. To which Hillary (then a Judge) replied; ceo nest pas estatut neufable; and Willoughby (then Chief Justice of the Kings Bench) thus seconded, Non, les Prelats ceo fieront mesme: & in tous deux les cases que vous avez mysse, cest Court sur Title de prescription voit le constre: par que respondes, & ceo suit per agard. So as these two learned Judges then resolved it to be no Statute or Act of Parliament, but a Writ or Constitution made by the Prelates themselves. Yet notwithstanding afterwards in the Yearbooks of 10 H. 4. f. 1. b. Fitzherbert Pramunire 13. in a case concerning a Mortuary, Chyre a Pleader, after him Constable, Anno 12 H. 7. f. 23. a. and Plowden in Pless case, An. 4 E. 6. fol. 36. b. stile it, Le Statute de Circumspecte agatis. Sir Edward Coke in his 4 Report, f. 20 b. in his 6 Report, f. 67 a. William Geoffries case, Mich. 31 & 32 Eliz. & 7 Report, f. 44. stiles it, Le Statute et Act de Circumspecte agatis. An. 13 E. 1. Yea in his 2. Instit. p. 487, &c. he not only stiles, but prints comments on it as a Statute made An. 13 E. 1. and positively avers, that this is an Act of Parliament, and a Writ devised in the Parliament of Westm. 2. Anno 13 E. 1. which is proved not only by our Books, (forecited, quoted in his Margin) but by an Act of Parliament, to wit, 2 & 3 E. 6. ch. 13. which calls Articuli Cleri, and Circumspecte agatis, Statutes, in the last proviso but one; whence he concludes in his Commentary thereon. * This Act is (as here it appeareth) a Statute, and enacted An. 13 E. 1. though some have said, that this was no Statute, but made by the Prelates themselves. Besides the Statutes at large printed at London, An. 1564. most other Statutes at large since, with Rastalls and others Abridgements of Statutes, call it, The Statute of Circumspecte agatis, 13 E. 1. Only Richard Tottle his Magna Charta, printed London 1556. f. 89. terms it Circumspecte agatis, Edit. An. 13 E. 1. without stiling it, a Statute.

of King Henry the 6. inserted this Circumspecte agatis into his Provincial Constitutions of our Archbishops and Prelates, Provincialis lib. 2. Tit. De foro Competenti, f. 70. and made a large glosse thereon; where he writes, Istud e. Circumspecte, non est Constitutio provincialis, sed emanabit a Decreto Dom. Regis, (not Act of Parliament) quomodo viz. Justiciarii sui missi in Diocesi Norwyc. ad aliqua ibidem ex parte Regis facienda & inquirenda, se quo ad Clerum ejusdem Diocesis abstinerent ab infra scriptis, dimittentes ea foro Ecclesiastico, et Ecclesie judicio terminanda et decidenda. Et nota, quod in hoc e. recitantur in specie 13. casus, sive articuli, in quibus cognitio mere pertinet ad Judicem Ecclesiasticum. And on the words Norwycensem Episcopum; he thus glosseth. Rex et misit certos Justiciarios suos ad procedendum sub certa forma contra Episcopum Norwycensem, et alios de Clero sibi adherentes, quibus postea Rex scripsit, ut hic habetur. So as Lyndewode (who first glossed upon this Text and Writ) never styled nor esteemed it a Statute or Act of Parliament, but only a private Writ issued by the King to his Justices sent into the Diocese of Norwich, to inquire for the King of the abuses and encroachments of this Bishop and his Clergy upon his prerogative and the peoples Liberties, procured by this Bishop and his Clergy after their mission thither. But what King it was who thus sent this Writ, or when, or where it was made or dated, he determines not, being not mentioned in the Writ it self, nor any Copies of it (all without date) the first whereof I finde printed being that in Lyndewode his Provinciale, Antwerpiae impressum, Anno 1525. 25 die Decembris, summa cura atque diligentia Christophori Eudovien.

An. 13 E. 1.

To satisfy my self and others, whether this was a real Statute or Act of Parliament, and when, where, or by whom first made, I have made the diligentest search and enquiry I could after it and its original, both in our Records and Histories, and am clear of opinion after all my inquiries, That it is no real Act of Parliament, nor made in the 13. year of King Edward 1. in the Parliament at Westminster, nor in any other Parliament or year of this King Edward his reign; that it was only a Writ grounded on Articuli Cleri Anno 9 E. 2. made by, or issued upon the Bishop of Norwich his request, after Articuli Cleri; as these following Reasons perswade me.

First, It is not once mentioned nor recorded in the Statute Roll of the Acts of Parliament made in the 13. and all other years of the reign of King Edward the 1. remaining in the Tower of London nor in any Patent, Clause, Charter, Fine, or other Roll or Record of this King reign, (which I have twice diligently perused) nor in the Records of King Edward 1. in his Majesties Exchequer; where doubtless it would have been enrolled, as well as all other Acts, Statutes, Ordinances, and Writs of importance made in his reign, being of so grand concernment to his Prerogative, Courts of Law, the Prelates Jurisdiction, and Subjects Liberties.

2ly. It is not so much as mentioned by, nor registred in the antient parchment Manuscript of the Statutes of King Henry 3. Edward 1. and beginning of Edward 2. his reign, in Lincolns Inne Library, written (as the hand perswades me) in the reign of King Edward the 2.

3ly. The first time it was urged in any Court of Justice as a Statute, was * Mich. 19 E. 3. and then the Judges (who best knew its original) affirmed and resolved it to be no Statute, but only a Writ formed in the Kings Name, by the Bishops themselves, to the prejudice of the Kings Crown and Courts, to enlarge their own Jurisdiction.

See here p. 336.

4ly. Thereupon about 6. years after, in the 3d. Parliament held in the 25. year of King Edward 3. at Westminster, Friday the Feast of St. Hilary, the Bishops and Clergy in their Petitions to the King, did neither stile, nor presse the observation thereof as a Charter, Statute, or Ordinance of Parliament, but under the Name of a bare * Ordinance of Circumspecte agatis, as some then called it: Their Petition, and the Kings answer thereto, is thus recorded in the Parliament Roll. † Item, qil bons plese granter qe l'ordinnance qe lun appelle Circumspecte agatis, le quel est bien tenuz en plusieurs pointz, qe touchent conissance de vostre place, et vostre profit, soit assibien et entierment tenue en touz pointz touchant Seinte Eglise. To which the King gave this answer: Item quant ou quint point, soit bene l'ordinnance qe home appelle Circumspecte agatis, et en quel point elle n'est mie tenue, et qe sur ces reason en soit faite. From which Petition and answer thereunto, I shall observe:

* See the Abridgement of the Records in the Tower, p. 81. which mis-translates it a Statute.
† Rot. Parl. An. 25 E. 3. m. 62.

An. 13 E. 1. serve : 1. That in that Circumspectis agatis mentioned in this their Petition, there were many points which concerned the confusion of the Kings Court, and the Kings profit, which were well observed, as there are in Articuli Cleri; but in that now printed under this Title, there is nothing contained of this nature; wherefore it seems to be meant only of Articuli Cleri, not of this forecited Writ, grounded on the Ecclesiastical branches of it. 2ly. That if meant of it, yet the Bishops and Clergy themselves did not then call it a Statute or Ordinance of Parliament in their Petition, nor the Kings Judges, Officers esteem or observe it as such, in any points that concerned Holy Church. 3ly. That the Bishops and Clergy themselves did in their Petitions in this Parliament, distinguish, yea sever it from those Charters, Statutes, Ordinances granted and confirmed to them in Parliaments by the King and his Royal Predecessors, insisted on in their first Petition, in these words; nu. 58. Que le Roy de sa benigence, (would vouchsafe) a eux grantier & confermer totes les libertes, privileges et droitz, grantez et donez per luy et les noble progeniteurs avant ses heures a Sainte Eglise per leur Chartres, Estatuz, et autres Ordynances ent faitz; niment le Chartre nadgares a eux grant, &c. (viz. 14 E. 3. Stat. 3. c. 2.) par le Roy en son Parlement tenuz a Westm. le merchedy en un quaresme lan de son regne Dengleterre quatozysme, et de France pimer, et que vous Justices les alloient come reason est, et ils ne saont; commander a vostre Chancellor, qe briefs soient grantiez a chescun qe les demandra selonc la forme, et tenour des dits grants, Ordynances et Estatuz. Which the King then absolutely granted and confirmed to them; giving likewise a particular answer, Quant au point touchant L'ordynance nadgares fait en Parlement, in the 14. year of his reign. Since then they mentioned not this Ordinance of Circumspectis agatis in their first petition, amongst the other Charters, Statutes and Ordinances made and granted to them in Parliament; nor alledge in their second Petition, wherein they mention it, that it was made in Parliament, nor in what Parliament, as they did the Charter, Ordinance made by the King in the Parliament held at Westminster Anno 14 E. 3. (c. 2.) concerning his presentation to Advowsons in others rights, (the place, day, year whereof they particularly expressed) yea prayed no Writs to be made upon it by the Chancellor to those who demanded them, as they did upon the Charter, Statutes and Ordinances made in Parliament, it seems clear to me they did not repute it an Act, or Parliament Ordinance. 4ly. The King in his answer thereto, not calling it an Ordinance made in Parliament, as he did that in their first Petition, but only L'ordynance qe home appelle, Circumspectis agatis; giving no present answer to it, as to the rest, but that it should be viewed and considered, in what point it was not observed; and that thereupon reason should be done: These are convincing Arguments to me, that it was no real Act nor Ordinance of Parliament, but a meer Writ made and procured by the Bishop of Norwich out of Parliament, during the Judges absence in their Circuits, without advising with them, as the Judges resolved and declared in open Court Anno 19 E. 3. not above six years before this Petition for its future observation.

5ly. Neither Matthew Westminster, nor Thomas Walsingham, William Thorne, Ranulphus Cestrensis, Henry de Knyghton, nor any other of our Monkish or Prelatical Historians, living in or nearest the time when this supposed Statute was made, make any mention thereof in their Histories or Annals, as no doubt they would have done, were there any such then enacted, being so advantageous to the Clergy, and much enlarging their Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction.

6ly. The whole frame thereof, with its direction only to particular Judges, in this particular case of the Bishop and Clergy of Norwich, unanswerably demonstrates it to be only a private Writ framed in the Kings name, or issued by him to his Justices, as Lindewode acknowledgeth; not a Statute, or general Writ framed by the King, Lords and Commons in Parliament, to be from thenceforth universally observed in all Diocesses, and in all Temporal Courts, Circuits by his Judges.

7ly. Had it been made and issued in the Parliament of Westminster 2. An. 13 E. 1. as Sir Edward Coke affirms, no doubt it would have been added to, or inserted amongst the other Acts, Statutes, and general Writs therein framed and provided, cap. 5, 10, 19, 23, 24, 25, 26, 31, 35, 45, 46, 48. or at least some intimation would therein been made thereof; but in neither of all these Acts, or other new Writs

Upon the Liberties of the Kings and Subjects of Engl. & Irel. K. Edward 1.

Writs framed in that Parliament, is there any mention or intimation of this, or other like Inhibition to the Kings Justices, in any one of, much lesse in all the 13. causes therein contained; therefore not probable to be made in that Parliament or year: The rather, because in the Patent Roll of 13 E. 1. nu. 9, 13. I finde a special license of alienation in Mortmain, & also a pardon for an escape of a Clerk convict, granted to the Bishop of Norwich, but no other Writ or Patent besides concerning him, in that or any other Roll of that year; which no doubt would have recorded this Writ of Circumspecte agatis for him in perpetuam rei memoriam, had there then been any such issued, being of greater concernment to the King and Bishop, then his license of Mortmain, or pardon for an Escape.

Sly. All the particulars therein mentioned, are enumerated, contained in Articuli Cleri, presented by the Bishops and Clergy to King Edward 2. in his * Parliament of An. 5, 8, & 9 E. 2. Artic. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5. wherein they make not the least mention of this Statute or Writ of Circumspecte agatis; which no doubt they would have particularly named upon that occasion, and desired its observance, confirmation and explanation, had it been formerly enacted, published as a Statute, or Ordinance made in Parliament; and not petitioned only for an Explanation of the Kings Answers to their own new Petitions in 9 E. 2. and his two preceding Parliaments, with out once naming this Circumspecte agatis in the reign of his Father King Edward 1.

gly. There are some observable clauses in this Writ, which evidence it rather to be made by the Bishops, then the King or his Council, and that not in 13 E. 1. but after Articuli Cleri Anno 9 E. 2.

As First, These general clauses; De his qua sunt merè spiritualia, viz. de correctionibus quæ Prælati faciunt pro mortali peccato; viz. pro fornicatione, adulterio, et homicidio: Which affirm, That all mortal sins, especially fornication, adultery, and the like, are merely spiritual in their own nature, therefore properly punishable only in the Bishops Spiritual Courts, by their Spiritual Laws and penalties: When as God himself and St. Paul expressly resolve, they are merely fleshly, or carnal, directly contrary to spiritual things, Gal. 5. 16, to 25. Walk in the spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh; for the flesh lusteth against the spirit, and the spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary one to the other. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like. How then adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, or idolatry, heresy should be merely spiritual, any more then witchcraft, sedition, murder, drunkenness, and other mortal sin, here and elsewhere conjoyned by the Apostle as merely carnal, yea contrary to that which is spiritual, I cannot discern. The rather, because by the expresse Laws and Institutions of God himself, adultery, fornication, idolatry, blasphemy, heresy, as well as murder and sedition, were to be punished by the Civil Magistrates and People, with death and other temporal punishments, not by the High-Priests, or Bishops in their Consistories, as is evident by Gen. 34. 25, 26, 31. C. 38. 24, 25. Levit. 20. 10, to 22. 13, to 30. C. 24. 11, to 17. Dent. 13. 1, to 17. 2 Kings 10. 18, to 29. Zech. 13. 2, 3. John 8. 4, 5. Yea the Gospel it self resolves, that Kings and Civil Magistrates (not Bishops or Priests) are Gods Ministers, to whom he hath committed the Sword, to execute wrath and vengeance upon all them that do evil; Rom. 13. 1, to 7. 1 Pet. 2. 13, 14. Hence adultery, whore dom and fornication, by the Laws of King Alfred, Canute, and other our ancient Kings, were punished by the Civil Judges, Magistrates, and in Court Leets, with temporal punishments, and pecuniary fines, as they were antiently amongst the Germans, and other Heathen Nations, and only Excommunicated, not by the Bishop, but by the * whole Church and Congregation for the scandal given to them, without imposing any corporal or pecuniary punishments. Hence our King Henry the 3. issued sundry Writs of Prohibition to Grosthead Bishop of Lincoln, the Bishop of Worcester, and their Officers, prohibiting them to make any Inquiries upon Oath of the incontinency or manners of Noblemen or others, in their Courts or Visitations; as an innovation not formerly used, against his Crown and Dignity, tending to the great scandal, defamation and vexation of his Subjects. Therefore it is improbable King Edward the 1. would make, issue out any such Law or Writ as this, to authorize their Jurisdiction and proceedings in such cases, against his Fathers Prohibitions. Besides, William Lindwode himself in his Glosse upon this Writ, acknowledgeth this clause to be too general and indefinite, and therefore thus limits it, Non intelligas de omni peccato mortali, sed de tali cuius punitio de sui natura spectat ad forum Ecclesiasticum: nam si ratione cuiuslibet peccati mortalis cognosceret Ecclesia, ne periret temporalis gloriæ jurisdictione, cum tunc esset dare causam cum ratione peccati possit deferri ad Ecclesiam. Therefore it is improbable this wise King, his Council, Judges, Parliament should be so uncircumspect, as to insert this general ambiguous clause into this Writ, much lesse into an Act of Parliament, so destructive to the Kings Temporal Sword, Courts, and Jurisdiction. The only reasons why Bishops and Clergymen then reputed adultery, fornication, and such like carnal sins, to be meer spiritual things and offences, were these two: First, Because spiritual persons in that age (by reason of prohibitions of Priests marriage) were more guilty of them then Laymen, as their own Canons, Writers attest: Wherefore they voted them by their Canons to be meerly spiritual, thereby to engrosse the consueance and punishment of them to themselves, to exempt themselves from any punishments for them by Temporal Judges, concealing or conniving at these sins in those of their own order, which they seldom punished, the better to palliate and conceal their uncleanesse from the Laity. 2ly. Because they were sins for the most part against their pretended new Sacrament of Marriage, and the consueance of all causes relating to this Sacrament must be spiritual, and belong to them, to whom alone this Sacrament was then unlawfull, incompatible by their own Canons, so far as to null their very Sacrament of Orders if they wedded, diametrically repugnant to Christs and his Apostles Doctrine, Mat. 19. 3, to 15. 1 Cor. 7. 9, &c. 1 Tim. 3. 2, 4, 11. c. 4. 3. Tit. 1. 5, 6. Hebr. 13. 4.

Secondly, William Lindwode under this large word huiusmodi, in his Glosse thereon hooks in: not only stuprum, incestus, & alia quæ sub peccato luxuria continentur; sed etiam alia crimina quæ sunt tractanda & punienda in foro Ecclesiastico, viz. sacrilegium, crimen usurarium, hæresis, symonia, perjurium, inspectatores uigilum, consultores mathematicorum, phantasiæ angures, aruspices, & ebriosi. Therefore it is most probable the Bishops and their Canonists, not the King, his Council or Judges, inserted these general indefinite clauses into this Writ, to enlarge their own Jurisdiction to the utmost extent upon all occasions, to the prejudice of the Kings Prerogative, and his Temporal Courts.

Thirdly, This clause, Si Prælati puniat pro Cimiterio non clauso, &c. was an Innovation not long before first introduced and inquired of by * Grosbead Bishop of Lincoln in his Visitation Articles, against which King Henry 3. issued Writs of Prohibition, Anno 1220. After which it was prescribed by Alexander Bishop of Conventry Anno 1237. by Walter de Cantilupo Anno 1240. by Walter Bishop of Durham Anno 1255. and more particularly by Peter Quivil Bishop of Exeter Anno 1287. the 15. of Edward 1. But the enforcing of it on the Parishioners against their wills, by pecuniary mulcts imposed in Ecclesiastical Courts, was a thing not heard of before this Circumspecte agatis; the Bishops, Deans and Chapters themselves being enforced to purchase special Licenses and Charters from the King, to enclose and immure their own Church-yards belonging to their Cathedrals at their proper costs, as the * Patents purchased by them this year from the King for enclosing the Church-yards of the Cathedrals of Pauls, York, Lincoln, Exeter, Wells, and others, assure us: Therefore they could not then legally prescribe or enforce it on the Parishioners by their own Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction.

Fourthly, This clause, Si Rector petat Mortuarium in partibus ubi Mortuarium dari consuevit, Mortuaries being then but newly broached, encroached by their own Constitutions, against the antient Law, Custom of the Realm, to the peoples great oppression, and prejudice of Landlords in their Heriots; it is not probable the King or Parliament would prohibit his Justices from punishing or restraining this usurpation, oppression, Innovation by Mortuaries, not grown into a Custom till long after 13 E. 1. as is evident by Articuli Cleri An. 9 E. 2. cap. 1. till which Prohibitions were usually granted by the Kings Judges in cases of Mortuaries, as Lindwode Provinc. l. 1. De Consuetudine, f. 14, 15. acknowledgeth, & 10 H. 4. f. 1, 2. Fitzh. Præmunire 13. intimate.

Upon the Liberties of the Kings and Subjects of Engl. & Irel. K. Edward 1.

Diffamations, concessum fuit alias, quod placitum inde teneatur in Curia Christianitas, makes it clear to me, that this Writ de Circumspelle agatis was made after Articuli Cleri, when all the things therein contained, were specially complained of, and these two particulars of laying violent hands on Clerks, and Diffamations, expressly granted, as Artic. Cleri c. 1, 3, 4. resolve; being never granted for ought appears by Record or History, in any Parliament before: Therefore this concession must relate to it, and by necessary consequence Circumspelle agatis must be made after it, not in 13 E. 1. at least 30 years before Articuli Cleri.

10ly. The Statute of 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 13. of Tithes, mentions Circumspelle agatis as succeeding and puny to Westminster 2. and Articuli Cleri, both therein ranged before it: Therefore not made in the Parliament of 13 E. 1.

11ly. Prohibitio formata de Statuto Articuli Cleri, (printed in Totles Magna Charta, pars 2. f. 70.) thus directed, to the Prelates, Archdeacons, Officials, and other Ecclesiastical Officers within the Bishoprick of Norwich, seems to me a pregnant Argument, that Circumspelle agatis (directed to the Justices on behalf of the self-same persons within the same Diocese) was made after it, by way of exposition and explanation of some general clauses therein, mentioned to be against the Kings Crown and Dignity.

<sup>h</sup> Sir Edward Cooke in his second Institutes on Articuli Cleri An. 9 E. 2. affirms, that this Prohibitio formata de Statuto Articuli Cleri, was made in the time of King Edward the 1. about the beginning of his reign, against the Canons of Archbishop Boniface. But I find no such Writ as this in any Records during his reign, and the Articles, Constitutions of Archbishop Boniface and his Clergy being presently * rejected, opposed and appealed against by King Henry the 3. as prejudicial to his Crown, and grievances to him and his Realm, and so never put in execution till Archbishop Straiford revived them, Anno 1242. I clearly conceive this Prohibition was framed upon Articuli Cleri, to which the King gave answers in the Parliament of 9 E. 2. which Articles the Bishop of Norwich, his Archdeacons and Officials exceeding, the Judges thereupon by vertue of this clause, & aliis quorum cognitio ad Nos pertinet, restrained them to proceed in some things they conceived the King had granted them in his Answers to their Articles Anno 9 E. 2. whereupon they made or procured this Writ of Circumspecte agatis, to restrain the Judges excesses therein.

Finally, The filing Circumspecte agatis a Statute, in our Statutes at large and Law-books, is no convincing evidence that it is a real Statute, there being very frequent mistakes in the publishers of our Statutes at large, and in Sir Edward Cooke, in filing several Writs of the King alone to his Barons or Justices, Statutes, and printing them as such; witness <sup>i</sup> Statutum novum de Scaccario, aliter dictum Statutum de Roteland. 24 die Maii, Anno 10 E. 1. there being no Parliament held in that place or year, nor such a Statute in the Statute Rolls, it being only a Writ of the Kings to his Barons, and so recorded in Claus. An. 12 E. 1. m. 7. dorso. <sup>k</sup> Statutum de Militibus, Anno 1 E. 2. no Parliamentary Statute, but the Kings own Writ, as Sir Edward Cooke acknowledgeth; with sundry others of this nature. Yea his and others mistakes in the true times of making sundry real Statutes, as of the Statute de Judaiis, made Anno 3 E. 1. as Claus. 4 E. 1. m. 8. 11. Pat. 5 E. 1. m. 13. Mat. Westm. Anno 1275. p. 62. Graftons Chronicle, p. 163, 164. Stows Chronicle, p. 200. Survey of London, p. 289. the First Part of my short Demurrer to the Jews long discontinued Remitter into England, p. 35, to 42. & Part 2. p. 60, to 70. 77. irrefragably evidence; which yet <sup>l</sup> Sir Edward Cooke confidently avers to be made in the Parliament of 18 E. 1. the Statute De Tallagio non concedendo, made Anno 25 E. 1. as Thomas Walsingham Hist. Angl. p. 37, 38, 41. & Typodigma Nensiria p. 84, 85. truly informs us, not Anno 34 E. 1. as Sir Edward and most others mistake; may easily induce us to believe, that he and others who call Circumspecte agatis a Statute, made in Parliament Anno 13 E. 1. were mistaken in both, for the premised reasons; Wherefore the printed Edition of the Statutes at large, London 1577. placeth Circumspecte agatis under the Head of, Statutes unknown when or by whom they were made. All which I humbly submit to the serious consideration of the Sages and Students of the Common Law, to rectifie those great encroachments on, and prejudices to the Kings prerogative, Courts, and Common Law, which the erroneous asserting of Circumspecte agatis to be a Statute and Act of Parliament made Anno 13 E. 1. have introduced, for want of Lawyers diligent circumspection in examining the truth thereof by our Records and Histories of those times.

This year <sup>a</sup> generosa virago Alienora Regina Angliz, mater Regis, (preta pompa seculi, apud Ambresberiam, die Translationis Sancti Thomæ Cantuariensis, habitum religionis, diu desideratum suscepit, dote sua in regno Angliz sibi perpetuo possidenda, per summum Pontificem confirmata, notwithstanding her profession; <sup>b</sup> against not only Popish Canons of the Church, but the Lawes and Customs of the Realm, which Popes for money, and their own advantage, would easily dispense with upon any occasion, even against the very essential constitutions of their Religious Orders, Vows, Oathes of poverty, to renounce the world, with all things in it, when they entred into Religion. Cum semel quis se religioni contulerit, renunciat omnibus quæ seculi sunt; being contradicted and dispensed with in this Queens case.

*H*EC est Conventio facta inter Nobilem virum Gilbertum de Clare Comitem Glovernia & Herif. ex parte una, & Dominam Aliciam de Marchia ex altera, videlicet, Quod cum in causa Divoctii dudum mota & agitata inter dictam Aliciam de Marchia Aetricem, & Judicium procurantem, ac divoxtium fieri petentem, ex parte una, & dictum Dominum Gilbertum defendentem ex altera, sit pro dicta Alicia lata sententia diffinitiva, & predictus Gilbertus per eandem sententiam a vinculo contractus Patrimonialis inter ipsum Gilbertum, et dictam Aliciam de facto habitus sit absolutus penitus et liberatus, sibi ei nubendi auctoritate Ecclesie sit libera concessa facultas. Ipsi tamen Dominæ Nobilitatem generis, dictus Dominus Gilbertus considerans, ac nolens, quod occasione defectus sustentationis honeste sibi materia contristandi tribuatur: ex sua mera liberalitate, eidem Dominæ Alicie quoddam biserit Manerium de Taxstede eodem modo quo nunc tenet, una cum magno Parco, Maneria de Welles & Warham eodem modo quo nunc tenet, una cum octo libratibus, undecim solidatis, & octo denariis in redditu, superplusag. operibus & perquisitis de visu Franciplegii, excepto wreko maris, Manerium de Wynton sicut modo tenet, Buresford & Speinhom Londe sicut modo tenet, Dummodo dicta Alicia dictam sententiam et ipsius effectum ratam habuerit, aut in honoris dicti Domini Gilberti, seu commodi dispendium vel grabamen, verbo aut facto, clam vel patam, per se aut alium quicumque perseveranter non attemptaverit. Ita eisdem Maneriis & terris utendo & fruendo dicta Alicia ad suam sustentationem ut præmissum est, quod ad aliquod alienationis, impignoracionis, enormis devastacionis aut destructionis genus non attingat vel referatur. Si vero dicta Alicia contra præmissa seu aliquod præmissorum venerit, venire procuraverit, vel contravenire volentes non impedierit cum effectu, aut in fata decesserit, liceat dicto Domino Gilberto & hæredibus suis ipsius Dominæ Alicie aut cujusque reclamacione non obstante, dictam concessionem revocare, ac dictas terras, possessiones & Maneria libere ingredi & pacifice possidere. Præmissa vero Maneria, possessiones, terras & tenementa, & alia supranominata predictus Gilbertus & hæredes sui predictæ Alicie warrantizabunt, quoad vixerit sub modo, forma, & conditionibus supradictis. In cujus rei testimonium tam dictus Gilbertus quam dicta Alicia huic præsentis scripto in modum Cirographi confecto alternatim diviso sigilla sua mutuo apposuerunt. Hiis testibus, Domino Roberto Burnell Bathon. & Wellen. Episcopo, tunc illustris Regis Anglia Cancellario, Domino Antonino Bek Dunelmensi Episcopo, Domino Johanne de Sancto Johanne, Domino Radulpho de Hingham, tunc Domino Johanne Robertus de Waleys Milite, Magistris Richardo & Wilhelmo de Clifford. Dat. Lond. 17 Kal. Junii, Anno Regni Regis Edwardi Tertio decimo.

This year the King for the honor of God and of the Church, by his Letters Patents licensed the Dean and Chapters of Pauls, York, and Lincolne, to inclose the Churchyards of their Cathedral Churches with Walls and Gates, and to shut up their Gates every night, to prevent the incursions of Theeves, and other Malefactors, who committed sundry bloody murders and fornications too therein, and in the lanes, houses adjoining to them, provided alwayes, that the Gates should stand open from morning to night, for all persons to passe through them without any

By which Charter, and some others with the like clause, I conceive it apparent; 1. That Bishops and Ordinaries at this time had no Jurisdiction at all to grant administration, or dispose of the goods and chattels of Intestate persons in Wales, and that their next heirs and kinred ought to enjoy and dispose of them by this new Charter, according to the premised Laws grants of * K. Cnut, Edward the Confessor, William the Conqueror, and Henry the 1. of which this new Grant of the King was but a confirmation. 2ly. That the † former Kings and Princes of Wales did likewise claim the goods and chattels of persons there dying intestate as forfeited and appertaining unto them, as our Kings of England antiently did, which this new Charter exempted them from, but gave not their Regal power to the Bishop or Ordinary, to dispose of them at their pleasure to pious uses.

King Edward being this year in Gascoigne, the Prior of Grandemont complaining to him of the Rebellion, disobedience, abuses, rapines, wandrings, and bearing arms of divers Freers under his Jurisdiction, to the great scandal of Religion, and desiring his aide to punish and reform them; the King thereupon, as constituted by God for the defence of Religion and the Church of God, especially within his own Dominions, issued this memorable Writ to his Steward of Gascoigne for their apprehension, and correction.

An. 14 E. 1. Abbas & Conventus resumptis fraudibus suæ prædictæ moliminibus, bi et armis expulso prædicto Rectore se in ipsam, Dei timore postposito, furtim et sacrilege intruserunt contra decretum et sententias nostræ Curie antedictæ: Et licet sint excommunicati et aggravati quantum potestas Cantuariensis Ecclesiæ se extendit; ipsi tamen nostras sententias inauditis blasphemis subsannantes, in suo sacrilegio perseverant, non curantes quid damni in suis incurrant conscientis; cum tamen lucro sacrilego, Archidia sua valeant instaurare, * falsæ religionis et veræ pporitis titulum defendentes, et manu armata Ecclesiæ detinent prophanatam, in totius enervationem, quantum in ipsis est, Ecclesiasticæ disciplinæ. Uti igitur quod laudabiliter & canonicè factum est in forma iustitiæ effectui debito valeat mancipari, spaciati Regi supplicamus humiliter et devote, quatenus ad compescendam tantam præsumptionem malitiæ, vim, et potestatem laicalem, his secundum regni consuetudinem ab eadem Ecclesiæ subeat amoveri, et memoratum Robertum in eisdem possessionem pacificam reduci, et reduci auctoritate Regia protegi et defendi: Ut quod minus valet coherere sanctæ matris Ecclesiæ in hac parte, pro Dei et Ecclesiæ suæ reverentia Regia suppleat magnitudo, ne nostris temporibus iudicium Ecclesiæ veniat in contemptum. Valeat reverenda Majestas Regia semper in Christo & Virgine gloriosa. Dat. apud Obithmalling 7 Idus Martii, Anno Domini 1287.

What the King did upon this Certificate I finde not, but from thence I shall observe: 1. That this proud Archprelate, who so much opposed the Kings Regal and Ecclesiastical authority in other forementioned particulars, was here enforced humbly to implore the ayd and assistance thereof, to support his own Archiepiscopal Decrees, censures, and make them effectual in their execution. 2ly. That his Ecclesiastical censures and authority were both extraordinarily contemned, reproached, yea derided by this Abbot, Covent, and other Religious persons, notwithstanding his grandeur, and high favour in the Court of Rome. 3ly. That Abbots and Monks in that age, made no conscience by force or fraude to invade and detain the Churches of other Clergymen, to fill their own purses, (being true hypocrites, and of a false Religion) by the verdict of this Archprelate, who was and writ himself a Freer.

The King about the same time, at the prayer of Robert Burnell Bishop of Bath and Wells, granted the Bishop this special license to inclose the Churchyard of the Cathedral Church in Wells, with a wall, battlements and gates, for the honour of God, the honesty of the Church, and of the corps of the Saints therein resting, and the peace, security of the Canons and Ministers inhabiting therein, so as it should stand open for passengers all the day time, and be shut up only in the night.

REX omnibus ad quos, &c. salutem. Sciatis, quod ad honorem Dei, et honestatem Ecclesiæ Cathedralis Wellen. ac Sanctorum quorum corpora requiescunt in eadem, necnon ad securitatem et quietem Canonicorum et Monachorum prædictæ Ecclesiæ, et suorum ibidem residentium, concessimus pro nobis & heredibus nostris venerabili patri Roberto Bathon. & Wellen. Episcopo, quod ipse Cimiterium Ecclesiæ prædictæ, et procinctum domorum Canonicorum prædictorum infra Civitatem suam Wellen. muro lapideis circumquaque includere, et murum illum kernellare, et procinctum illum sic inclusum eisdem Episcopo et successoribus suis ad suam et dictorum Canonicorum securitatem maiorem tenere possit, sine occasione vel impedimento nostri et heredum nostrorum, Justit. et aliorum Monachorum nostrorum quorumcunque imperpetuum. Ita quod in stratis & locis aliis necessariis & competentibus ibidem, portas & posternas fieri, & stratas quas ipsum in procinctu illo includere contigerit ad proprius et commodius, quod pro transeuntibus fieri poterit liberti faciat, et ita quod portæ illæ et posternæ singulis diebus ab aurora diei usque ad noctem sint apertæ pro utilitate transeuntium per portas et posternas supradictas. Ita etiam quod portæ illæ & posternæ de nocte claudantur, & in aurora diei aperiantur, sicut prædictum est. In cujus, &c. Teste Rege apud Woodstock, 15 die Martii.

The * occasion of this Patent, and inclosing this Churchyard of Exeter, was the slughter of Walter Lichlade the first Chaunter thereof, as he came from the Mattins then said soon after midnight; upon which occasion the King came thither, and kept his Christmas there, and gave order to inclose the Churchyard, building certain gates therein, by a composition made between the Bishop and Citizens.

The first seisure I have observed after this Statute.

A Clerk flying to a Church for Sanctuary, for a robbery by him committed, and there being ready to abjure the Realm, without making his purgation; the Bishop conceiving it to be against the Liberty of the Church, petitioned the Earl of Cornwall (then Custos of the Realm in the Kings absence) that he might be delivered to him or his Official to keep, and make his purgation; which the Coroner was commanded to do after 40 dayes, and if he made not his purgation by a day prefixed, then he was to be restored to the Church, and make his abjuration.

Et quia ex consuetudine Regni nostri nullus pro transgressionem suam fugiens ad Eccleſiam in eadem Ecclesia ultra quadraginta dies sub protectione nostra morari debet. Tibi præcipimus, quod si prædictus Capellanus in Ecclesia prædicta moram fecerit per quadraginta dies, tunc ipsum prædicto Episcopo vel Commissario suo liberos custodiendum usque ad Quindenam Sancti Michaelis proximo futuram. To such strange, unreasonable shifts, obligations, penalties and forfeitures was the King put, to obtain the use of these Dismes for the pressing publick occasions of himself and his Realm, collected from his own Clergie and Subjects, through his favour, by the Pope and his Nuncio, (to whom he and all these Abbots and persons premised must be obliged to repay it upon 2. moneths notice.)

The King this year granted this Protection for the relief and preservation of the Abbot and Convent of Messenden, varying somewhat from others in the recital and grounds thereof.

By this Patent I conceive it evident, 1. That our Kings by their antient Prerogative had the disposal of all the Goods, Chattels, Jewels, Plate, Books of Abbots and Religious persons who dyed intestate, in point of Law, ( being disabled to make Wills, or devise them ) which were of their foundations, or held their Lands from and under them; and so of all their other Tenants dying intestate, ( as I have formerly evidenced out of Glauvil, and King Henry the 1. his Charter. ) 2ly. That our Kings divested themselves of this Right and Prerogative, only by special Charters of grace made to Abbots and Monasteries. 3ly. That Bishops and other Ordinaries had no Jurisdiction of, or disposing power over the Chattels or Goods of intestate Abbots, much lesse of Laymen.

By which Canon this Bishop and his Clergy endeavoured, 1. To deprive the King with his Temporal Courts and Judges of their ancient undoubted Jurisdiction of all personal Actions between Clergymen themselves and their Servants, and likewise between any Laymen or Clergymen, and to appropriate or engross them wholly unto their Ecclesiastical Courts & Judicatures. 2ly. They most insolently encroached not only upon the privileges and Liberties of Clergymen, in restraining them to sue or complain before any Lay Judge for personal Actions or Trespases by any Clerks or Laymen, under penalties, but especially on all Laymen and Judges, by subjecting both of them to their special, general Excommunications and Interdicts, (as violators forsooth of the Churches Liberties) in case they presumed to sue or prosecute any Clergyman of what degree soever for any personal action or cause before any of the Kings or other Lay-Judges, or to punish any Clerks for their contempts for refusing to answer before them in such actions. A very high and daring presumption and usurpation worthy observation.

Not much unlike to this is their other Constitution, in relation to debts and distresses of Clergy men, cap. 41, & 42. worthy observation.

Cap. 41. Ne Clerici distractioni fori, vel obligent se seculari, vel in Parcibus vel Vivariis Magnatum furtum committant. Annis singulis & diebus, mundus iste nequam, labi plus solito corripitur peccatorum, & tanto ardentius conatur inventum, quanto quis sibi congregat cumulum delictorum. Ecce enim rabies inaudita, quorundam insurgunt filii in parentes, et ipsos nituntur subjacere servituti, per quos sunt ad vitam perpetuam regenerati, et servitute diabolica liberati; quod apertius (patet) in Laicis, qui Clerum et Ecclesiæ Libertates nituntur subicere suæ ditioni, quoque temerariam audaciam refecare tenemur, potius quam sobere. Prohibemus igitur, sub pena Excommunicationis, ne Clerici, maxime Beneficiati, pro debito proprio vel alieno, distractioni se obligent Iudicis secularis, cuius obligationis præteritum Laici de facto, quanquam de jure non valeant, Clericos ad Iudicia secularia pertrahant. Et sicut per Clericorum contractus nolumus quod amplius id contingat; sic multo magis detestamur, si propter eorum delicto id debeat evenire. Unde districte inhibemus, ne quisquam Clericorum in Foresta Domini Regis, vel Parcibus aliorum cujuscunque, aut Warrenæ, furtum committere venationis, vel in stagnis, piscariis vel vivariis quorumcunque, furtum presumat committere. Si quis autem Clericorum contra has Prohibitiones nostras venire presumpserit, siquidem in contractu, ipsum a divinis in æternum volumus manere suspensum: si in delicto, ipso facto, vinculum Excommunicationis incurrat: & postea si monitus à Prælato suo pro gravi culpa, ad ipsius Prælati arbitrium satisfacere non curaverit; tunc si beneficiatus fuerit, ipsum a Beneficio suo decrevimus fore præbandum. Si vero beneficiatus non existat, ab executione ordinum per quinquennium suspendatur. Dicit etenim ratio, ut in quibus major reperitur culpa, in ipsos gravior exerccatur vindicta.

Cap. 42. De forma liberandi Bona Clericorum à Laicis malè capta & retenta. Bona mobilia et immobilia Clericorum, sicut ipsorum personas sub protectione Ecclesiastica consistere sanctorum patrum decreta sanxerunt, ut neque Laicis de ipsis statuendi seu disponendi quicquam Ecclesiæ respiciat commodum ulla sit permessa facultas: sed quicquid fecerunt in hac parte, firmum et stabile esse non poterit, donec ab Ecclesiâ fuerit approbatum. Quanto minus sit eis licitum, bona Clericorum capiendi et detinendi, nemo est qui ambiget sanæ mentis. Cum igitur Clericorum seu aliarum personarum quacunque bona a Ballivis Magnatum, seu aliis quibuscunque capi et detineri contigerit, ab injuria propria, quod absque latione Ecclesiasticæ libertatis posse fieri non videtur, ad eorum liberationem taliter procedi statimur et mandamus; ut per loci Archidiaconum vel Officialem ipsius, vel alium quem ipse assignaverit, moneantur ipsorum bonorum detentores primo, secundo, & tertio, sub testimonio trium vel quatuor Clericorum, vel saltem Laicorum, si Clericorum copia capia non habeatur, per quos monitiones possint probari, si de ipsis in dubium alias An. 15 E. 1. revocetur, quod bona ipsa Clericis, à quibus sunt ablata, restituant indulate, & si reddiderint, Clericos ipsos sibi fore obnoxios, quod compareant in proximo loci Capitulo adversus eos, prosecuturi actionem. Quem quidem terminum ipsis Clericis assignari precipimus, ut querelantibus respondeant in forma juris. Si vero factis monitionibus Detentores bona ipsa restituere per biduum detrectaverint, extunc qui illud moluit, in scriptis excommunicet detinentes, cum suis complicitibus et fautoribus, qui si latam in ipsos sententiam ad hæc aliud biduum bona ipsa restituere præposuerint, locum in quo taliter bona detinentur, Ecclesiastico interdico supponat. Et si nec robur, nec satigatio huiusmodi adhuc sufficeat ad tantam obstinatorum malitiam compescendam, contra eorum complices et fautores per Inquisitiones legitimas et sequentes Excommunicationis sententias censuras Ecclesiasticas modis omnibus precipimus aggravari. Deinde hiis remediis attemptatis, (nisi ad deliberationem proficiant) sustineamus patienter ut Ecclesia non habeat quid ultra faciat, quod hiis cuius bona detenti sunt, jus suum coram seculari Iudice prosequatur. Hanc formam volumus observari, nisi Clericus Laicum feodum possideat, ratione cuius bona sua Laico feodo capi contigerit; Nam quantum ad ipsum feodum pertinet, Clerici secularibus obnoxii sunt legibus.

Ad hæc, quoniam ut ait beatus Gregorius, Culpam vehementer me committere assimo, scia, qua pro timore omnipotentis Dei sunt suggerenda, noluero. Et aliter, cum increpare delinquentes non vult, eos proculdubio tacendo Pastor occidit: Ut igitur valeamus cum Apostolo dicere & clamare, Mundæ sunt manus meæ à sanguine ovium nostrorum; Dilere et impunitam versutiam quorundam Laicorum, maxime Ballivorum Magnatum (quæ) nostra conscientia minime nos permittit. Ipsi etenim frequentis querela didicimus, in tantam furoris audaciam modernis temporibus inciderunt, in quo magis contumelias, damna, et opprobria personis Ecclesiasticis et rebus eorum intulerunt, eo magis congaudent, et id potissime gloriuntur; Hæc miseri infelices & in tenebris ambulantes. Nonne Deus pater noster est qui vos creavit? Ecclesieque mater, quæ vos regenerabit? Nonne in Canone Cantum reperitur, Qui abstulit patri aut matri, & dicit, quia hoc peccatum non est, homicidii particeps est? Ergo qui pecunias Ecclesie rapit, aufert, et defraudat, Homicida est. Nonne mirabili insania esse cognoscitur; Si filium patrem, discipulum Magistrum sibi subjungere conetur, et iniquis obligationibus illum sui pœna subicere, a quo credit non solum in terra, sed etiam in cœlis sese ligari posse et solvi? Quapropter in virtute sanctæ Trinitatis firmiter inhibemus, ne quisquam Laicorum Clericum cujuscunque conditionis vel ordinis capere vel incarcerare præsumat, aut aliter in eum injicere manus temere aut violenter, cum scriptum sit, Nolite tangere Christos meos, & in Prophetis meis nolite malignari; Quod de Prelatis Ecclesiarum et Clericis intelligimus esse dictum, (A grosse mistake, being spoken only of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, their wives and families, neither of which were Prelates or Priests by order, but Laymen, as is evident by Psal. 105. 10. to 16. 2 Chron. 16. 10. to 23. Gen. 12. 10 to 20. Gen. 20. 3. to 18. c. 26. 28, 29. Gen. 34. 30. c. 35. 3, 5. compared together) nisi pro ipsius Clerici captione (velut excommunicati) scripsimus; sed pro crimine homicidii, aut consimili enormi delicto, capiendus fuerit, tanquam violator pacis Domini Regis Regni. Quod si quis Clericum aliter capere, detinere, et incarcerare præsumperit, aut in eum manus injicere violentas, ipsum, candelis accensis, pulsatis Campanis, in singulis Ecclesiis Archidiaconatus, in quo huiusmodi sacrilegus conderatur, excommunicatum a Canone tam diu publice nuntiari, donec hanc injuriam pacis satisfecerit competenter, precipimus, et cum nostrarum testimonio literarum ad Sedem Apostolicam venerit, absolvendus.

Item, quidam Laici proprios terminos excedentes, inter sacrum Sanctuarium et propædium minime distinguentes; solummodo quod sacrum est a manibus Pontificum consecratum, sanctuarium appellant, dum Ecclesiam et ipsius Cimiterium Sanctuarium tantum mendaciter asseverant; Quorum ne dum civilis verumetiam Canonica sanctio liquiddo contradicit, dum inquit, Nulli licet ignorare, omne quod à Domino consecratum, sive fuerit homo, sive animal, sive ager, vel quicquid fuerit, semel consecratur, sanctum sanctorum erit Domino, & ad jus pertinet Sacerdotum. Propter quod inexcusabilis erit omnis, qui a Domino et Ecclesia, cui competunt, aufert, vastat, inhabitat, et eripit, usque ad emendationem, Ecclesieque satisfactio-

 pellenda est etenim illius usurpationis contumelia, ne prædia usibus cætarum di-cata, a quibusdam irrudentibus vezentur. Quod si quis præsumperit, ut sacrilegus iudicetur. Hinc est quod omnes illos, qui nolum Clericorum personas, sed res eorum mobiles, seu se mobentes intra Ecclesiam vel ipsius Cimiterium, aut in agro ad Ecclesiam pertinente, vel alibi, absque rationabili causa, rapiunt, capiunt, et abducunt, ipsa inbitis quorum bona sunt; nisi celeri restitutione sibi prospexerint;
 ut inimicos Dei et Ecclesiæ, ac sacrilegos excommunicamus, et a sanctæ matris Ecclesiæ liminibus sequestramus; necnon ad bonorum liberationem ipsorum procedi præcipimus juxta formam superius traditam, quandocunque pro eo quod Clerici aut Laicali causam spirituales, ut puta violenta manuum iniectione in Clericum (nisi ad correctionem rebus præmissis) vel matrimonium contrahendo, Decimis, Ob-lationibus, Portuariis, latione fidei vel juramenti, et cæteris hujusmodi, de jure vel consuetudine ad forum Ecclesiasticum pertinent, in foro Ecclesiastico fuerint persecuti, ipsos ad forum traserint seculare; necnon et Juxes secularis, qui eos ob hoc gravare præsumperit, nisi post trinam admonitionem a gravamine desisterit inferendo, et satisfecerit de illata injuria, consimili Excommunicationis sententia innodamus; firmiter præcipientes, ut rei judicæ exceptionem Judices seculares admittant. Rei dico cujus cognitio ad Ecclesiasticum pertinet Judicem: et Ec-clesiastici Judices similiter, cum de re judicata per Judicem secularem excipitur, admittere non postponant.

By these two last Constitutions, they endeavoured to protect and exempt the bonds, contracts, persons, goods of all Clergymen, (unless only in Criminal and capital causes) Churches, Churchyards from the Kings secular Courts, Judges, Officers, and expose all Lay persons, Officers, Judges to their Ecclesiastical Ex-communications and Interdicts, who should presume to sue, arrest, or question them, as murderers, invaders of their Mother Churches priviledges, and sacrile-gious persons.

I shall in the next passe to their Decree De Testamentis, cap. 30.

By which new Constitution this Bishop and others Ordinaries then endeavoured to usurp, 1. A new Jurisdiction to prescribe the form of all Testaments, and who should be witnesses to them, and to assign all goods, Chattels not particularly bequeathed in Testaments, to pious uses, viz. to erect Chantries, Monasteries, hire Priests, Monks to chaunt Masses for their Souls, to rescue them out of their imaginary purgatory fire, to enrich themselves thereby; 2ly. A Jurisdiction to dispose of all goods of Laymen dying intestate, to such pious uses as they should appoint, against Christs own præsidet, and the ancient Lawes and usage of this Realm forfeited. 3ly. An authority to enable Villains to make Wills and Testaments, when as by the Lawes and Custome of the Realm, no Villain could dispose of his

Moreover, their Constitution concerning Mortuaries, (a new incroachment then much oppugned) is very considerable. *Cap. 52. De Mortuariis. *Morturarium prestationem ex eo intelleximus salubriter sumpsisse initium, quod Decimis ma-joribus & minoribus, ac ceteris juribus Parochialibus per ignorantiam non solutis, lasis Ecclesiis prastarentur, ne talis oblivio procedens ex incuria non solventis, posset saltem, per hoc, apud districtum Judicem excusari. Et quanquam ista provisio esset aequaliter fructuosa omnibus Christianis; quidam tamen, vel causam huiusmodi prastationis ignozantes; vel (quod deterius est) de salute propria non curantes, ipsam mira-biliter subtraherint, suam miseriam in posteros transmittentes: quâ se nituntur modernis temporibus excusare, quod nec ipsi nec maiores eorum, hanc prastationem ullo tempore agnoverint. O excusatio misera & infelix, quâ dum sit in peccatis, suos ducit ad interitum excusantes. Unde sunt & alii, qui anima suâ salutis provide conscientes, velut deboti Ecclesiæ filii prastationem ipsam agnoscunt, sicut maiores eorum hactenus cognoverunt: Sicque contigit, quod in una parochia solbi secundum melius aberiam pro defunctis, et in alia, penitus denegari. Ut igitur à palca triticum separemus: statendo præcipimus, ut in parochia, in qua talis solutio fieri consuevit, nullus ab ea se valeat excusare; sed in eadem fiat prastatio unisformis, cum eadem non debeat cum universo iure censi. Parochianos aliarum Parochia-rum monemus & hortamur in Domino, ut spiritum assumentes consilii sanioris, tam salubrem prastationem agnoscant de cætero, et de ea satisfacere studeant sicut ceteri in futurum. Videntur namque rabie nephanda moveri, qui male detentis Deo et Ecclesiæ satisfacere tunc non curant, quando quod debetur sibi nequiant amplius retinere: sed ipsius subibunt iudicium, cui in hac parte iudicium intole-runt. In Parochiis vero in quibus secundum melius aberiam dari hactenus consuevit, suboligandi, donandi, assignandi & in alios usus, decedentibus omnibus inter-dicimus facultatem. In Circitores, seu alios quoscunque detentores (nisi le-gitime moniti, satisfecerint Deo et Ecclesiæ de eodem) Excommunicationis sententiam præcipimus promulgari. Thus did these Prelates and Clergymen, by their own Canons and Constitutions, against the Laws and Custom of the Land, and Subjects Liberties, without consent of King or Parliament, upon frivolous; avaritious pretences, enforce the payment of Mortuaries by degrees upon all men, to the prejudice of the Lords of Mannors in their Heriots, and of the Executors, Wives, Children of deceased persons.*

I pretermitt their Cap. 5. De Penitentia. Cap. 9. *De Ecclesiis, Capellis, & Oratoriis

(which no more profaned them then their Ecclesiastical Courts, or Thieves and Murderers flying to, and residing in them as Sanctuaries, to protect themselves against publick Justice;) which they specially provide for Cap. 15. De Immunitate Ecclesiarum personis, & rebus earum. Cap. 27. Ne Clerici de bonis Ecclesiasticis in solo edificent laicali. Cap. 42. De Visitationibus Archidiaconorum & Procuracionibus, & non visitando. Cap. 53. De Decimis, wherein are several clauses intrenching upon the Kings Prerogative, or Subjects Liberties. They conclude their Constitutions Cap. 55. De sententiis Excommunicationum, with the general sentences and Anathemaes of Excommunication, made by Stephen Archbishop of Canterbury in the Council of Oxford, and of Osibon the Popes Legate in the Council of London; decreeing,

As this Bishop and Synod thus invaded the Kings Prerogative and Subjects Liberties, by these precedent Constitutions, so they thus advanced the Supremacy and Authority of the Church and Popes of Rome, in point of consecrating Reliques, canonizing Saints, and granting Absolutions for some offences peculiarly reserved to Popes and Prelates.

* Cap. 48. De Reliquiis & veneratione Sanctorum. Nonnunquam per malos, sicut per bonos, miracula facta, Sanctorum sacra commemorat Ecclesia; Idcirco ad Sacra-santam Romanam Ecclesiam, quæ per Dei omnipotentis gratiam, auctoritate Apostoli & traditionis, nunquam errasse probatur a tramite. In hoc igitur est recurrendum, et expectandum ipsius Decretum, ne quis hoc approbando, quod ipse reprobat, a Catholicis Hæreticus comprobetur. Idcirco in Concilio generali providimimus esse prohibitum, Ne quis Reliquias de novo inventas, publice venerari præsumat, nisi a Romano Pontifice prius fuerint approbatæ. Quam prohibitionem inviolatam ab omnibus præcipimus custodiri: Statuentes, ut nullus Sanctorum Reliquias venales exponat; sed nec lapides, fontes, arbores, ligna, vestes, aut res quasunque alias ut sanctas propter fœlta documenta aliquantulum veneretur, cum illud hæreticam sapere præbilitatem Apostolica declarat sententia; et

In their Modus exigendi Confessiones, (wherein they totally expunged the Second Commandment against the making and worshipping of Images, whereof they were then most notoriously guilty) they thus informed their Priests and Lay-people, what offences were then specially reserved to the Popes and Bishops ab-

King Edward the 1, in the 16 year of his reign going into Aragon, in Bierna Oloracensi Civitate Reges Angliæ & Aragoniæ conveniunt super liberatione Caroli Principis Salternæ cognati Regis Angliæ, tractatum diligentem habentes, qui conditionaliter fuit liberatus sub hac forma; viz. quod data Regi Arragoniæ certa summa pecunie, ipse Carolus a Domino Papa pacem Arragonensibus impetraret, quam si infra terminum limitatum impetrare non posset, rediret ad carcerem. Quibus conditionibus juramento firmatis, Carolus tradere debebat tres filios & alios milites nobiles quadraginta, pro quibus quousque venirent, Rex Angliæ liberationem Caroli accelerans, nobiles viros qui secum erant obsides tradidit, & pecuniam usque ad triginta millia librarum persolvit; pro cuius detentione Rex Arragonum vinculis ligabatur & communicationis. Sed in hac convocatione Regum duorum, per Legatum ad hoc specialiter destinatum absolutionis gratiam meruit obtinere. Prince Charles being thus released by our King Edwards procurement, most perfidiously by the (Popes encouragement) in vigilia S. Johannis Baptistæ decem millia Francorum militum aliorumque virorum fortium, quibus præsuit Comes Atrabicensis, cum navibus & galeis Siciliam ingredi nitebatur, sed dicti Regis Arragonum satellites in piratis pro magna parte dictam multitudinem submerserunt, quosdam vero vivos ceperunt, & eos in carceribus recluserunt: After which Charles himself, instead of performing his Oath and Covenant, a juramento suo execranda et detestabili auctoritate Nicolai quarti Papæ postea absolutus, regnum Siciliæ contra fidem et religionem invasit atque tenuit. Which Walsingham thus relates; Carolus Princeps Achaix, (An. 1291.) Romam veniens, per Papam Nicholaum a juramento Regi Arragoniæ præstito absolbitur, et in Regum Siciliæ coronatur. Such countenancers, fomenters of grossest perjuries, and breaches of Solemn Leagues, Covenants, were these Antichristian holy Fathers of Rome in that age, worthy to be had in perpetual execration.

King Edward after this release of his Cozen Charles returning from Aragon into Gascoigne apud Blankleforth in Valconia juxta Burdegalem, post convalescentiam de gravi infirmitate, Cruce-signatur, cum copiosa hominum multitudine, et Christianorum exercitus Capitaneus est effectus per Legatum Romanæ Curie ad hoc missum; Porque Judæos omnes tanquam Crucis hostes expulit de Walsconia, et aliis terris suis uniberis quas in Regno Franciæ possidebat; and soon after banished them out of England; but was hindered from his voyage to the Holy Land by his wars with the French, Welsh, and Scots.

Anno Dom. 1289. there hapned this Controversie between Archbishop Peckham and the Abbots and Monks of St. Augustines Canterbury, upon this occasion: ¶ Cum Dominus Edwardus de partibus Vasconie in Angliam venisset, & apud Sanctum Augustinum hospitatus, cum Regina, filiis suis, & multis aliis in vigilia Assumptionis, qua tunc Dominica erat, Johannem Peckham Cantuariensem Archiepiscopum fecit invitari, ut in festo die Assumptionis secum in loco illo comederet. Quo festo plures & majores Regni qui ad Regem convenerunt, interfuerunt. Quo audito, Abbas et Conventus metuentes sibi et suæ exemptioni preiudicium generari, si Archiepiscopus veniret cum Cruce erecta, instabant multum apud Dominum Regem et suum Consilium, ne permitteret Archiepiscopum sic venire cum Cruce in libertatum suarum lationem sui que Monasterii preiudicium et grabamen: set Rege adhuc volente ut Archiepiscopus veniret, & Archiepiscopo volente, nisi Cruce preavia et erecta, precepit Rex Cancellario, quod faceret Abbati & Conventui habere literas Archiepiscopi meliores quas sciret, & etiam literas Regis, quod huiusmodi ingressus Archiepiscopi, seu Crucis delatio, eis non posset vel suis libertatibus in aliquo preiudicare. Unde dicti Abbas & Conventus non valentes resistere, nec audentes contradicere Regis voluntati, ne ejusdem offensam seu grabatissimam lationem incurrerent, ob maiorem timorem huius periculi annuerunt in hoc fieri beneplacitum Regis, ut intraret cum Cruce Archiepiscopus; habitus tamen prius protestationum literis ab eodem de talio statu suo; set habita maxima altercatione super forma huiusmodi inter partem Archiepiscopi & Abbatis. Petierunt interea Clerici Domini Archiepiscopi vice sua, ut sibi exhiberentur privilegia inspicienda, quibus se pars Abbatia defendebat, quod Archiepiscopus non intraret. Quod etiam Dominus Eliensis Episcopus & regni Cancellarius cum instantia requirebat. Ad quod pars Abbatis multis rationibus respondebat, se non teneri de jure nec velle facere, maxime Clericis Archiepiscopi illa vice. Ipsi tamen Episcopo quedam privilegia ut amico, et ob reverentiam Domini Regis in suo Capitulo monstraverunt. Et sic partibus ab invicem recedentibus, advenit Dominus Bathoniensis Episcopus & Regis Cancellarius, viditque privilegia prius exhibita Episcopo Eliensi. Quibus visis & auditis, satis eisdem Episcopo constabat evidenter, quare Archiepiscopus ingredi non debebat. Et cum neutra pars vellet in unam formam literarum aliquatenus consentire, dictus Dominus Bathoniensis missus ad hoc specialiter per Regem ut in formam aliquam concordarent, quedam pauca verba de Clericorum Regis consilio apposita fierent illi forma literarum quam praeordinaverat pars Abbatis: Et illis literis pars Abbatis causa majoris visitandi periculi pro beneplacito regis stare consensit: quæ talis est.

Universis Christi fidelibus ad quos presentes literæ pervenerint, frater Johannes permissione divina Cantuariensis Ecclesie Minister humilis, totius Anglia Primas, salutem & pacem in Domino sempiternam. Noverit universitas vestra, quod cum nos specialiter invitati à Christianissimo Domino nostro Domino Edwardo Rege Anglia illustri, ut cum eo essemus in prandio die festi Assumptionis gloriosæ Virginis Maria Anno Domini 1289. ad ipsius instantiam et rogatum Abbatem Monasterii Sancti Augustini Cantuar. ad Romanam Ecclesiam nullo medio pertinentis, in quo Dominus Rex prædictus cum suis Primoribus tunc solempniter festivabat Cruce preavia intramus. Set eas sigillare pars Archiepiscopi recusabit omnino. Venerunt iterum ad Abbatem ex parte Archiepiscopi Archidiaconus Cantuariensis, Magister Lucas Cancellarius Archiepiscopi, & Magister Reginaldus de Brandon, simul cum Magistro Willielmo de Haleberghe, & Domino Johanne de Lewes, & dixerunt Archiepiscopi nomine huiusmodi nuncium Abbati. Salutat vos Dominus noster Archiepiscopus; & quia ut scitis Dominus Rex invitavit eum, ut comedat secum hodie in hac domo, rogat vos quatinus permittatis, ut possit venire cum decencia status sui et sine prejudicio statui vestri, quia non curat prejudicare in aliquo aut contravenire libertatibus vestris, & hoc si placet velitis sic concedere, aut versus Dominum Regem tantum facere et poturare, quatinus Rex nostrum Dominum habeat excusatum quod huc non veniat, set ut bene de Regis licentia possit in domo propria remanere. Deliberante vero Abbate super hiis cum suo consilio & respondente, quod voluit, licet invitatus, ut oportuit in forma preacta sicut antedixerat preceptis Regis obedire. Et statim missi ab Archiepiscopo recesserunt. Cumque hac postmodum essent relata Domino Regi per Cancellarium suum predictum, deliberato consilio mandavit Rex per ipsum Cancellarium Archiepiscopo, ne veniret, set ad cultum Regis ipso die extra in proprio hospitio remaneret. Ex quo Archiepiscopus multum offensus, aliquaque verba comminatio contra partem Abbatis ut dicebatur proferens, remansit sic extra in hospitio proprio, et perrexit in crastino extra villam. Et post pauca temporis intervallo Archidiaconus & Commissarius Cantuarienses auctoritate cujusdam mandati dicti Archiepiscopi eis & Magistro Aselino directi, Abbatem apud Scure existentem monuerunt, ut privilegia exhiberet proxima die iudicia in Ecclesia Sancti Gregorii Cant. juxta formam dicti mandati, illis diem & locum ad hoc eis dicti nunciis assignantes; Cujus mandati tenor, is registratus at large in <sup>b</sup> William Thorne his Chronica: the substance whereof was; Privilegia sedis Apostolica seu jura alia & munimenta si qua habent inspicienda exhibeant & ostendant, per qua Ecclesias quas in propriis usus maxime de novo in Civitate & Diocesi Cantuariæ habere dicuntur, tanquam appropriatas sibi valeant retinere, pensionesque percipere de diversis Ecclesiis, & decimarum portiones vel precium earundem infra limites diversarum parochiarum nostre diocesis qua propriis suis reguntur Rectoribus, &c. Item, quod absurdus est, gravior & multo detestabilis, ingressum nostrum personalem erecta Cruce præbia infra septa sui Monasterii corpora sanctorum Archiepiscoporum Cantuariensium predecessorum in eodem Monasterio quiescentium, visitandi causa seu peregrinandi ibidem prout ad alios communiter moris est, verbumque Dei inibi Clero & populo proponendo, quamquam sine prejudicio ipsius Monasterii Monachorumque ac privilegiorum eorumdem si qua habeant hoc facere voluerimus, & protestati saepe fuerimus, &c. Abbas vero Archiepiscopum suum non esse Iudicem proponens, nec se teneri suo obtemperare mandato, statim ex huiusmodi grabaminibus bisba voce sedem Apostolicum appellabit: dictique Archidiaconus & Commissarius consulerunt Abbatem ut ipse sano consilio iterum sub via pacifica plenius responderet. Abbas hoc annuit; sending first a Letter, and then resorting personally to the Archbishop at Lambeth; where Salvagius the Abbots Clerk spake thus to the Archbishop; Domine pater reverende, Dominus Abbas qui hic est, non venit huc coram vobis ut ad iudicem, figuraque iudicii, set ut homo pacis, & tranquillitatem & pacem vestra conscientia multum affectans, ostendere vobis coram Clericis vestris qua per ipsum fuerunt ostendenda. After which, Dominus Abbas ex quorundam peritorum consilio rationes Archiepiscopi articulis correspondentes in scripturam provida deliberatione redigere mandavit; the two last whereof I shall only recite. De invitatione (Archiepiscopi) ad missas celebrandas, quia in diebus solemnibus uti habet pallio & aliis insigniis Archiepiscopaliis, quibus non nisi in Ecclesiis sibi commissis et subiectis uti debet: unde in Ecclesia Sancti Augustini missas celebrare non debet cum a sua jurisdictione constaret exemptam. De absolutione Monachorum, &c. quia non habet potestatem in eos, nec eos potest absolbere, nec ligare ad predicandum populo, &c. quia plus hoc conbentit facere in propria Ecclesia, quam non sua. Ad ultimum, super Crucis delatione (the grand Controversie) hoc bidetur esse jurisdictionis et subjectionis indicium; unde nos exemp-

From this contest between this proud Archbishop and Abbot about carrying up his Crosse, I shall observe; 1. The just punishment of God upon him for communicating all who should entertain or sell any victuals to the Archbishop of Yorke or his followers for carrying up his Crosse before him within his province some few years before, when specially sent for by the King about the publike affairs of the kingdom, now retaliated with this Abbots opposing the bearing up his own Crosse before him in the Monastery of St. Augustines even within his own Metropolis and See of Canterbury, when specially sent for thither to dine with the King, 2ly. His pride and obstinacie, in refusing to subscribe such a Letter as the King directed to reconcile this difference and preserve the Abbots privileges, or to repair to the King without his Crosse born up before him; together with his spleen and malice against the Abbot and Covent for not admitting him to carry up his Crosse within their Monasterie. 3ly. The strange abuse he and other our Archbishops made in that age of that they stiled and reputed the very Crosse of Christ; which as it was an emblem of our Saviours lowest humiliation; by whose Crosse St. Paul affirmed, the world was crucified unto him, and he unto the world; and likewise a means of Christian love, peace, unity; yet our Enciferian Archbishops made, reputed it a badge, ensigne of their Metropolitane Jurisdiction, Authority, Pomp, State, causing it to be carried up in pomp before them for that end, as an emblem of their Antichristian pride and ambition; yea made it, and its carrying up before them, a cause of frequent, hot contentions, schismes: witnesse the manifest, high contests between the Archbishops of Canterbury, Yorke, and the Abbots of St. Augustines about crosse-bearing, to the great disturbance of the Church, State, King, Counsil, and the reproach, scandal of Christianitie, as well as Archiepiscopacie: So farr were they from imitating the doctrine or example of our Saviour, or St. Paul in this particular.

Anno Domini supradicto habitus est processus contra Rectorem de Waldwarfare. Qui Rector tam in capitalis Archidiaconi quam alibi querelam deponens contra fratrem Martinum tunc elemosinarium istius Ecclesie super occupatione quarundam Decimarum de quibusdam Hamleltis, viz. Mendetre, Eltsle, Westwold & Essele provenientium, ipsum elemosinarium asserentem distas Decimas & omnia iura parochialia inhabitatoribus distorum locorum, ac precipue omnes oblationes & obventiones ad Ecclesiam de Norborne qualitercunque provenientes ad ipsum elemosinarium & vicarium ejusdem taliter simul cum cantaria spectare debere, & quod si spectant & spectabant ab antiquo pacifice, publice, & notorie, nec dimisisset in pace, obtenta fuit quadam litera conservatoria Decano de Sandewico directam; per quam precipiebat eidem, & in virtute obedientie mandavit, quatenus dictum Stephanum Rectorem supradictum moneret legitime, & efficaciter induceret, ut de omnibus premissis ablatis, sapienter religiosis plene satisfaceret infra mensem, inhibens eidem ne in eos vel eorum Ecclesias de cetero plus attemptet. Quod si monitionibus & inhibitionibus suis parere contempserit, ipso facto ab officio et beneficio idem conservato suspendit, mandans eidem Decano, quod ipsum in singulis Ecclesiis decanatus sui singulis diebus Dominicis et festibus, quousque condigne super illis satisfecerit, suspensum faceret nunciari. Sed executione ejusdem litera ad tempus dilata, idem Rector pendente dilacione procuraverat ab Archidiacono quandam literam in forma communi contra omnes parochianos suos ad solvendum sibi ea qua ab eis Elemosinaris exigebat. Et tunc auctoritate predicta conservatoria ipse S. Rector publice diebus festis in vicinis ibi Ecclesiis ab officio et beneficio fuit denunciatus suspensus. Et ipse se divinis immiscuit nihilominus sic ligatus. Interim terim autem impetrata fuit alia conservatoria eidem Decano directa, cujus tenor An. 16 F. 1. talis est.

Abbas Ecclesie Sancte Crucis de Waltham, &c. Cum vos alias ad mandatum nostrum, immo verius Apostolicum, Stephanum Rectorem de Waltham monueritis & induxeritis, ut dictis Abbati & Conventui Sancti Augustini super majoribus & minoribus Decimis ac alijs juribus parochialibus ipsos religiosos & eorum Ecclesiam de Nordburne spectantibus & per ipsum Rectorem ablatis & invasis plenarie satisfaceret infra mensem à die consecutionis mandati nostri, et quia monitionibus et inhibitionibus premissis parere contempserit, ipsam denunciaveritis esse suspensum. Et quia crescente contumacia crescere debet & poena, vobis in virtute obedientie qua sedi Apostolicæ tenemini, et sub poena coercionis canonice firmiter injungimus et mandamus, quatinus singulis diebus Dominicis et festivis in singulis Ecclesiis Decanatus vestri inter Missarum solemnitas publicetis adhuc et habundanti, quod Rector ille de ablatis satisfaciatur sub poena Excommunicationis majoris quam in hac parte si non paruerit exnunc ut extunc in eundem Rectorem proferimus in his scriptis. Vobisque injungimus et mandamus, ut post lapsum mensis ipsius ipsum Rectorem cum solemnitate premissa nisi satisfecerit pulsatis campanis, candelis accensis sic Excommunicatum esse denunciatis, et denunciari faciatis. (Such was their animosity, violence, abuse of the Spiritual Sword against each other.)

Ipsi sic habitis, idem Rector pro tuitione Curie Cantuariensis sedem Apostolicam appellabit, procurans ab officiali Curie Cantuariæ scribi et mandari eidem Decano et sibi inhibendo, ne pendente in Curia Cantuariensi hujusmodi tuitionis appellationis negotio quicquam in prejudicium Rectoris appellantis attemptare faceret quominus haberet liberam appellationis suæ prosecutionem; & etiam citaret Abbatem & Conventum Sancti Augustini & Vicarium de N. quod comparerent coram ipso seu Commissario in Ecclesia beate Mariæ de Arcubus in dicto tuitionis negotio facturos et recepturos quod postulaverit ordo iuris. Die adveniente & Rectore predicto per Procuratorem in Consistorio de Arcubus comparente, & non parte Abbatis, post proclamationem, proposuit Magister Salvagius Clericus Abbatis, non ut procurator sed ut amicus, quod dictus Abbas et Conventus cum suis ita sunt exempti quod non debebant nec volebant ibi vel alibi coram eis super aliquo respondere, nec etiam super his privilegia sua exhibere. Interim autem impetrata fuit alia littera ab Abbate S. Edmundi conservatore inhibitoria, ne officialis Cantuariensis et Decanus de Arcubus eidem Rectori de Waltham tuitionis beneficium conferrent, aut partem Abbatis contra sua privilegia in aliquo gravarent, set ipsos secundum libertatis et exemptionis suæ erigentiam ab omni iudiciali examine libere dimitterent, cum nullo iure vel consuetudine possent in eos jurisdictionem aliquam seu potestatis exercitum absque sedis Apostolicæ speciali mandato et expresse ad eos directo aliquatenus vendicare, quorum privilegiorum contravenientes sine dubio per multa Romanorum Pontificum privilegia Excommunicationi asseruit ipso facto subiacere. Whereupon at last they submitted themselves to Arbitrators to end this hot contest, suspensions and Anathemas of one another about their Priviledges.

The Abbot of Westminster loving flesh and Venison, better then prayer, fish, and fasting, procured this grant and Writ from the King to him and his successors, for 8.
 Bucks every year to be taken in the Forest of Winlesore, and brought to Westminster.

An. 17 E. 1. by the Constable of Wyndesore Castle, at the Kings cost, and there offered before the High Altar every year, as a sacrifice to the Abbot (rather then to God) for the salvation of the Kings, his Ancestors and Heirs souls, by feasting the Abbots and Monks bodies, which little conduced thereunto.

NICHOLAUS Episcopus Servus servorum Dei, dilecto filio Nobili viro Edwardo nato charissimi in Christo filii nostri Edwardi Regis Angliæ illustris, salutem & apostolicam benedictionem. Petitis nos exhibita continebat, quod propter consanguinitatem Angliæ Scotiæque Regnorum diversa scandala, rancores, & odia inter ipsa Regna & eorum Reges hæcenus sunt exorta, ex quibus nonnulla rerum & corporum contigisse pericula dinoscuntur, sicque cum clara memoria A. Rex Scotiæ sit viam universæ Caritatis ingressus proprio masculino genere non extante, & dilecta in nobis Christo filia Margareta nata charissimi in Christo filii nostri Erici Norwegiæ Regis illustris, neptis prædicti Regis Scotiæ Regno ipsi Scotiæ Regi succedat verisimiliter dubitatur, quod si forsitan Regnum ipsum ad manus alterius ex ipsius Margarete contrahendo conjugio proveniret, de facili possent huiusmodi scandala, rancores & odia pullulare, ac provenire ex ipsis pericula graviora, unde ad huiusmodi periculis obviandum, ac ad sedandum & obliviscendum scandala, rancores, & odia supradicta, & ad procurandum & nutriendum vera pacis & dilectionis commoda inter prædicta regna & incolas eorundem, de jure cum prædicta Margareta matrimonialiter copulari. Sed quia tertio consanguinitatis gradu quo tu et eadem Margareta, nata ex quadam Margareta consanguinea tua præfati Norweg. Regis uxore, vobis attinetis ad invicem prohibente, id non potest perducere legitime ad effectum, Apostolicæ sedis licentiam super hoc humiliter implozasti; Nos itaque in prædictis regnis et ubique locorum Deo et Romanæ Ecclesiæ devotorum, pacem et concordiam affectantes, et intendentes ad id studia ruz possumus adhibere; Sperantes quoque quod ex huiusmodi matrimonio si fiet memoratis Regnis, odiorum tenebris inde propulsis, prosperitatum quæ plurimum, dante Domino incrementa proveniant. Considerantes etiam, quod si prædictum Regem patrem tuum, iuxta sui voti præfagia, contingat in Terræ sanctæ subsidium proficisci, posset ipsi Regi suoque Regno et tibi, et per consequens præfate Terræ Sanctæ negotio, si alii prædicta Margareta nuberet, depertire. Pensantes insuper, quod nulla ex huiusmodi provenire debere scandala verisimiliter cogitantur.

His & aliis dignis considerationibus subsistentibus excitati, tuis supplicationibus annuentes, tecum et cum Margareta præfata ut impedimento consanguinitatis huiusmodi non obstante matrimonium invicem legitime contrahere, ac in contracto licite remanere possitis, auctoritate Apostolica de speciali gratia dispensamus; prolem suscipiendam ex te ac dicta Margareta ex huiusmodi matrimonio nunciantes ex nunc legitimam, de Apostolica plenitudine potestatis. Nulli ergo omnino hominum liceat hanc paginam nostræ dispensationis infringere, vel ei ausu temerario contraire. Si quis autem hoc attemptare præsumpserit, indignationem Omnipotentis Dei, et Beatorum Petri & Pauli Apostolorum ejus, se noverit incursum. Dat. Romæ apud Sanctam Mariam majorem 16 Kal. Decembris, Pontificatus nostri Anno secundæ.

CUM egregius Princeps Eryk, Rex Norweye, & Domina Margareta nata Regis ejusdem, Domina Regina & hæres regni Scotia, requisivissent per suos lolempnes nuncios, Dominum videlicet Terricum de Campis Ludi, Petrum Algoti, & Guithorinum de Aseleja, magnificum Principem Dominum Edwardum Dei gratia illustrum Regem Anglia, quod ipse opem apponeret & consilium, qualiter prædictæ Reginæ neptæ suæ obediretur, ut Domina Regina, et Hæres Regni Scotia supradicti, et quod ipsa inde ordinare possit pariter et gaudere, prout alius faciunt Reges regnis, præfatus Dominus Anglia Rex illustris, pro bono pacis dicti regni Scotia, & reformatione status suæ neptæ, jam dictæ, Custodibus regni Scotia literas suas misit, quod Custodes ipsi mitterent personas nominatas & certas, qui potestatem haberent tractandi formam aliquam pro se & aliis, ad emendationem dicti regni Scotia, & reformatione status Reginæ jam dictæ. Idem quoque Custodes ad requisitionem hujusmodi Domini Regis Anglia prælibati, miserunt, juxta effectum requisitionis ejusdem, venerabiles in Christo patres Sancti Andrea & de Glasgoun. Episcopos, & nobiles viros Dominos Robertum de Brus, Dom. Val. de Anant, & Johannem de Comyn, ad tractandum prout superius est jam dictum; qui apud Saresbur. venientes, ad mensem Sancti Michaelis prox. nunc elapsam, ad quem locum prædictus Dominus Rex Anglia honorabiles in Christo patres Dominos Godfridum Wygorn. & Antonium Dunelmensem Episcopos, ac egregios viros, Dominos Guillelm. de Valenc. Pembrok. & Johannem de Garcum Com. pro tractatu prædicto transmissit, qui similiter venientes ibidem ad tractand. ex parte ipsius Regis Anglia cum nunciis Norweye, & nominatis Scotorum supradictis, post disceptationes inter eos varias & tractatus, in formam tandem talem pariter concordarunt, videlicet, Quod præfata Domina Regina & Hæres in Regnum veniat Anglia aut Scotia citra festum Omnium Sanctorum proximo jam futurum, ab omni contractu Maritagii & Sponsalium libera & quieta, & hoc præfati Nuncii Norweye, quantum in ipsis est bona fide promiserant, se Procuratores futuros & curatores citra terminum jam prædictum, nisi Regina rationabile & allocabile Essonium habeat in hac parte. Promisit insuper bona fide jam dictus Rex Anglia, quod si præfata Domina ab omni contractu Maritagii & Sponsalium, in manum suam aut custodiam libera veniat & quieta; & quando Regnum Scotia securatum bene fuerit & in pace, ita quod Domina ipsa securè venire valeat, & in eam commorari, ipsumque Regem Anglia per gentem Regni Scotia requiri contingeret, idem Rex Anglia eandem Domnam in Regnum Scotia mittet, ita liberam & quietam à contractibus, de quibus superius est locutum; sicut recepit eandem. Ita tamen quod bona gens Scotia, antequam ipsam Domnam recipiant, sufficientem faciant securitatem & bonam Regi Anglia prænotato, quod prædictam Domnam, nisi per ordinationem ipsius, voluntatem et consilium, ac per assensum Domini Regis Norweye Patris ipsius Domina nullatenus maritabunt. Prænotati

dicti Domini nostri Regis nomine Domina Margarette ipsius regni Regina, & Domini Edwardi filii & heredis Domini nostri predicti, deputetur ad iam dicta recipienda & eorum nomine facienda: Salvo homagio quod in personali Regis presentia fieri oportebit, set fidelitate facta habeat seisinam terre sue sine dilacione per breve de Capella. Nec quod aliquis de regno Scotie pro contractu inito vel delicto commisso in eodem regno, vel in aliquo casu teneatur respondere extra idem regnum, contra leges et consuetudines eiusdem regni, sicut hactenus exitit rationabiliter observatum. Et quod sigillum regni quod nunc currit, post mortem Regis teneatur & currat, quousque Regina predicta veniet in regnum suum, et fecerit Deo et Ecclesie, ac Communitati ipsius regni in loco ad hoc specialiter deputato, quod fuerit faciendum, secundum leges et consuetudines dicti regni. Et quod tunc fiat nobis sigillam de consuetu archiepiscopi & cir-cumscriptio nomine Reg. Scotie tantum, penes Cancellarium eiusdem regni, qui pro tempore fuerit, remansurum. Volentes quod habeant Cancellarium de regno, & in regno Scotie residentem ad officium Cancellar. exequendum. Et idem concedimus de Camerario, Clerico de Rotulis Capelle Domini Regis, Justiciariis, & aliis eiusdem regni Ministris; & quod nulla litera seu commune vel gratiam continens specialem, de dicta Cancellaria transeat, nisi secundum solitum & debitum cursum Capelle Regis & regni Scotie predictorum. Reliqua vero Carta privilegia & alia munimenta, qua tangunt regalem dignitatem & regnum Scotie, in tuto loco ponantur, sub firma custodia infra regnum Scotie, & sub sigillis maiorum de regno, & per visum eorum, donec predicta Domina venerit in regnum suum, & p. olem habuerit superstitem, & predicta munimenta ac privilegia in suis iuribus integraliter custodiantur. Et similiter quod nulla fiat sub-jectio, alienatio, vel obligatio rerum ad regalem dignitatem regni Scotie pertinentium, donec predicta Domina & Regina in regnum suum venerit, & p. olem superstitem habue-rit, ac superius est expressum. Promittentes firmiter & concedentes, quod nos & heredes, Comitum, Baronum, & Nobilium qui pro tempore erunt in custodia & munitagio Domini Regis Scotie post mortem antecessorum suorum, per predictum Regem nullatenus dispergantur. Nec quod Parlamentum teneatur extra Regnum et Marchiam Scotie super hiis que contingunt ipsi Regnum vel Marchiam, seu statum inhabitantium ipsi Regnum. Nec etiam tallagia, auxilia, exercitus, vel malitiosa exigantur a predicto Regno, aut imponantur gentibus eiusdem Regni, nisi pro communibus Regni negotiis expediendis, et in casibus in quibus Reges Scotie talia petere consueverunt. Ad que omnia supradicta integre et fideliter observanda, predictus Dominus noster Rex faciet in animam suam iurari.
Et Prelati ac Magnates Anglie infra scripti, videlicet, Cantuar. & Ebor. Archi-episcopi, ac Winton. Lincoln. Dunelm. & Carlhol. Episcopi, necnon Nobiles viri Domini Edmundus Domini nostri Regis Germanus, & Cornub. Penebroch. Gloverniz, Warennar, Lincoln. Norff. & Suff. & Oxon. Comites, fideliter procurabunt premissa firmiter observari. Et si Rex egerit extra regnum, quod locum suum tenens vel tenentes in eius absentia, vel heres ipsius Domini Regis legitima etatis existens, aut eiusdem heredis custos seu custodes, dum fuerit minoris etatis, quilibet in suo casu prestabit super premissis consimile Sacramentum. Promittimus etiam, quod predictus Dominus noster Rex pro se & heredibus suis obligabit se ad restitutionem dicti regni faciendam in casibus supradictis, sub pena Centum Millium Librarum Sterlingo-rum, solvendarum Ecclesie Romane in subsidium Terre Sancte. Et preter hec quod Dominus Papa dictum Dominum nostrum Regem et heredes suos possit per sententias excommunicationis in personas, et Interdicti in regnum et terras eorundem, tam ad regni predicti restitutionem, quam ad pene solutionem, si commissa fuerit, coercere; principali obligatione nihilominus in suo robore duratura. Concedimus insuper & promittimus nomine Domini nostri Regis predicti, quod idem Dominus noster presentem Obligationem propriis sumptibus & pro viribus faciet infra annum a tempore Sponsalium inter predictos Edwardum & Margaretam contractorum articulatum per Summum Pontificem confirmari, et infra idem tempus Communitati regi Scotie liberari; quod si infra annum predictum id facere non poterit, illud, quam citius potuerit, fieri impetrabit, ita quod illud perficiatur: Et si hoc non faciat suo tempore, quod heredes sui ad id faciendum bona fide teneantur.
Protestamur etiam in hiis scriptis, quod omnia premissa taliter intelligantur, quod iuri antus regni vel alterius ratione presentis facti, nichil decrescat aliquantulum vel aurescat:

their wealth in that age. In this Parliament, cap. 3. there was this Proviso added Ar. 18 E. 1. to the Statute of Quia emptores terrarum, to prevent alienations in Mortmain: Et sciendum est, quod per predictas venditiones seu emptiones terrarum seu tenementarum, sunt partis alterius earundem, nullo modo possunt terræ seu tenementa illa in parte, vel in toto ad manum mortuam devenire, arte vel ingenio contra formam statuti dudum super hoc editi: (viz. de Religiosis, Anno 7 E. 1.) enrolled in the Statute Rolls of King Edw. 1. in the Tower, printed in all our Statutes at large, in Raistrals Abridgements, Tir. Mortmain, and Cooks 2 Institutes p. 504. How much the covetous Monks and Clergy in that age were troubled at, and grieved with this Statute against Mortmain, will appear by this censure of, and exclamation against it by **William Thorne* a Monk of Canterbury. Anno Domini 1293. Edwardus Rex amplexum Sanctæ Ecclesiæ instigatione circumventus, statuit & consilio Procerum suorum ordinavit, Quod nullus Religiosus aliqua tenementa emere vel vendere, vel ex dono alicujus aliquid percipere, aut alio qualicumque modo, arte vel ingenio quicquam acquirere; & si secus a quoquam Religioso fuerit attemptatum, liceret Domino Regi illud sic acquisitum, emptum vel datum per escaetorem suum ingredi, & in perpetuum tenere in feodo & hæreditate. Ven, heu, probo dolo! quomodo non solum perit tunc liberalitas illa Deo grata, qua deboti Reges, Proceres, ceterique fideles pro magno desiderio habuerant Religiosos fundare, prædia et possessiones in honorem Dei liberalissime conferre, et ipsos tueri: Verum extunc opere hujus charitatis palam tabescente, et unoquoque manum suam a talibus beneficiis retrahente, non solum possunt Religiosi quicquam nobis acquirere, quin etiam nec antiquis suis possessionibus propter oppressionem laicorum, ne dicam magnatum, prospere ut laici gaudere; sed his nobilissimis temporibus sapientes hujus seculi horum prosperitati invidentes, sive que fraudi consulentes, universos Religiosos ne sic oblata acceptarent, et quod nequius est, sibi quicquam appropriarent, per decretum et sententiam iudicium, ut dictum est, coartarunt; et sic de eis veraciter posset dici, quod egressa fuit iniquitas a sententiis iudicibus qui Aliam Israel, puta Ecclesiam, nequiter condemnaverunt.

King Edward having remained beyond the Seas 3 years, 2 months, and 15 days, returning thence into England, in August Anno gratiæ 1289. postea per Angliam transiens, suos Justiciarios & Ministros, qui in sua absentia muneribus extorati, indicta perverterunt, et in aliis errabant secundum quantitatem transgressionum punxit; as <sup>a</sup> Matthew Westminster stories: Which <sup>b</sup> Thomas Walsingham thus expresseth: Rex auditis quæremoniis eorum Anglicanum, qui de Regiis Ministris volebant conqueri, Justiciarios fere omnes de falsitate deprehensos a suo officio deposuit, ipsos iuxta sua demerita gravi multans pœna. <sup>c</sup> Henry de Kynghton thus more particularly relates it; Cumque Rex moram traxisset in Vasconia tribus annis, Nunciatum est ei, quod majores regni Angliæ oppresserant & forisfecerunt de terris suis, ut thesaurum ab eis erigerent: unde debites placentes in Banco Regis corruperant falsos Justiciarios regni, scilicet, Thomam de Weland, Adam de Stretton, Richardum de Boyland, et alios. Unde Rex in adventu suo sui Anglicani fuit avariatus et occupatus, Thomas de Weland exulabat de Anglia et ibit in Franciam. <sup>d</sup> Fabian in his Chronicle, Anno 1289. and William Caxton story, That they being found guilty of such trespasses and causes as they were accused of, some of them were outlawed, and lost such goods as they had, and the other punished by long imprisonment. <sup>e</sup> Ralph Holinshed, Graffon, <sup>f</sup> Speed, Stow, & Daniel, in their Chronicles, Histories and Annals, Anno 1289. out of the Chronicle of Dunster, inform us, That in a Parliament then assembled the Judges upon due examination and proofe of their Extortions, were fined to pay to the King these sums following: Sir Ralph Hengham Chief Justice of the higher Bench 7000 marks, Sir John Lovetot Justice of the lower Bench 3000 marks, Sir William Bromton Justice 6000 marks, Sir Solomon Rochester Chief Justice of Assises 4000 marks, Sir Richard Boyland 4000 marks, Sir Thomas Sodington 2000 marks, Sir Walter Hopton 2000 marks, (these three last were Justices Itinerant) Sir William Saham 3000 marks, Robert Lothbury Master of the Rolls 1000 marks, Roger Leycester 1000 marks, Henry Bray Escheator and Judge for the Jews 1000 marks; but Sir Adam Stratton Chief Baron of the Exchequer was fined in 34000 marks, and Thomas Wayland Chief Justice

K. Edward I. An Exact History of Popes Intollerable Usurpations, B. 5. ch. 3.

An. 18 E. 1. Justice (found the greatest delinquent, and of the greatest substance) had all his Goods, Chattels, Jewels and Corn seized and confiscated to the King; which were it but equal to that of Sir Adam Stratton, these Fines brought to the Kings coffers above one hundred thousand marks, which at the rate as money goes now amounts to above four hundred thousand marks: A mighty treasure to be gotten out of the hands of so few men; which how they could amasse in those dayes, when litigations and Law had not spread it self into those infinite wratchings of contention as since it hath, may seem strange even to our greater getting times. To prevent such corruption for the future, the King at that time<sup>b</sup> caused all his Justices to swear, That from thenceforth they would take no pension, fee or gift of any man, except only a breakfast, or the like present. O divine and still necessary severity, only able to break the pernicious combination of men, that under the profession of Law and offices of Justice, make merchandize of honour, justice, law and conscience, which cannot in the end but bring forth ruine and confusion. So these Historians: who were all mistaken (as I conceive) in the case of Thomas Weyland, indicted of Felony, (not Bribery, unless then reputed Felony) who abjuring the Realm, his Lands were thereupon seized by the King and chief Lords of whom he held, as is undeniable by the Fine Roll of Anno 18 E. 1. m. 5, 7, 17. Claus. 18 E. 1. m. 7. and also by Placita Parliamenti apud Asherugg in crastino Epiphaniæ, An. 19 E. 1. nu. 1. where Margery wife of Thomas Weyland, and Richard his son, being joint-tenants with him of the Mannor of Sobber for life, the remainder to the heirs of the body of Richard, by a fine levied in the 6. year of the King, (which they pleaded) petitioned to be restored to the possession thereof, then seized into the Kings hands, quoad annum & vastum, quos Dominus Rex in eodem Manerio habet, & clamavit per forisfacturam dicti Thomæ, qui feloniam fecit, pro qua regnum Regis abjuravit. Whereas the Mannor was not held of the King, but of the Earl of Gloucester, & idem Comes post abjuracionem illam Domino Regi satisfecit pro anno & vasti ejusdem Manerii, eo quod idem Thomas illud de eo tenuit; nec de consuetudine regni debeat Dominus Rex annum & vastum alicujus ten. per forisfacturam alicujus haberi, nisi de liberis tenementis que idem forisfactor tenuit in feodo, &c.

Soon after, Anno 1290. (18 E. 1.) the King out of his piety and zeal to Christian Religion, in the same Parliament by a publike Act banished all the Jewes out of England, and confiscated all their Houses and Lands, for their infidelitie, blasphemie, crucifying of Christian children, in contempt of Christ crucified, and clipping of his coin: which<sup>a</sup> Matthew Westminster thus relates. Circa hos dies, scilicet 31 Augusti, Judæorum exasperans multitudo, que per diversas urbes & castra fortia habitabat per retroacta tempora confidenter, iusta est cum uxoribus et parvulis suis, una cum bonis suis mobilibus, ab Anglia cedere circa festum Omnium Sanctorum, quod eis pro termino ponebatur, quem sub pena suspendii transgredi non est ausa, quorum numerus erat (ut credebatur) 16 M. DXI. Exierat autem tale Edictum a laudabili Rege Anglorum in partibus Aquitanniæ, a qua omnes Judæi pariter exulabant.

Council in Parliament, we may observe: First, the manifold Policies, and new Inventions of the Popes and Court of Rome and their Delegates, as also of Bishops and Ecclesiastical Courts, by degrees, to usurp the Consuance and determination of the Succession and Rights of all Freeholds and Inheritances within the Realm to themselves, from the King and his Temporal Courts, and to subject the Kings Courts to theirs, against his Crown, Dignitie, the ancient Laws, and Customs of the Realm. 2ly. The Kings, his Counsils, Parliaments care, and industry to prohibite, oppose such usurpations upon grave and weighty considerations, to prevent the manifold mischiefs which would thereupon ensue both to the King, kingdom and subjects. 3ly. Their pious care to protect the rights of Infants and Wards in that age, against all Papal and Prelatical devices to battardize or disinherite them, by Delegations or Appeals to any Ecclesiastical Judicatures. 4ly. That the procuring of any Bulls from Rome prejudicial to the Kings Crown and Dignity, was such an high offence, as at least deserved imprisonment during the Kings pleasure, and for which some had been formerly imprisoned by Judgement in the Kings Court, to deterre all others from procuring the like.

Afterwards in the same Parliament, this William de Valencia exhibited another Petition concerning this matter, complaining of injustice in disinheriting his wife against the Earl of Cornwall, and other of the Kings Counsil; for admitting Dionysia to be right heir to William de Monte Canisio, wherein the truth of the case is thus related by the Earl, and others of the Counsil, Qui bene cognoscunt & recordantur, quod predictum Willielmus de Valencia predictum breve Inquisitionis petiit & illud optinuit, set dicunt, quod antequam breve illud petiit, venit quidam Dionysia de Monte Canisio, mater predicti Willielmi de Monte Canisio coram eis in pleno Consilio, & adduxit quandam Dionysiam filiam predicti Willielmi de Monte Canisio, asserens ipsam esse veriorum & propinquiorum heredem predicti Willielmi defuncti, & etiam heredem suum proprium, & ut filiam & heredem ipsius Willielmi de Monte Canisio filii sui defuncti, nomine Domini Regis admitterent. Et dicunt, quod quia publicum et notorium fuit, quod idem Willielmus tempore suo predicti Dionysiam ut filiam et heredem suam tenuit, et hoc idem dum vixit in pluribus locis sciri et proclamari fecit: et etiam quia Episcopus Wygorn. qui nunc est, in cuius Episcopatu eadem Dionysia, &c. filia, &c. originem traxit, per litteras suas patentes, quam Archiepiscopus Cantuar. viba voce testabatur, quod eadem Dionysia fuit filia predicti Willielmi legitima. Ipse Comes, Thesar. & alii eandem Dionysiam, nomine Domini Regis admitterunt ut heredem predicti Willielmi propinquiorum, et predicti terras et tenementa cum pertinentiis nomine Custodiz ratione minoris ætatis ipsius Dionysie in manus Domini Regis seque fecerunt. Ideo videtur Domino Regi, quod predictus Comes, Thesar. et alii de Consilio secundum quod recordantur bene et rite processerunt. Which made the premised addresse by William de Valencia to, and Bull from Rome more criminal and injurious.

As the King and Parliament passed this memorable Censure against the Popes premised Bull, and Petition grounded on it, so they gave a more severe Judgement against the Prior of Trinity, and Bogo de Clare, who audaciously presumed to serve a Citation from the Archbishop of Canterbury in the Kings own Palace upon the Earl of Cornwall, sitting the Parliament, as he was going to it: for which they were attached and prosecuted both at the suit of the King himself, of the Steward and Marshal of the King, the Earl of Cornwall, and Abbot of Westminster; fined in great fines, and committed Prisoners to the Tower of London, as this memorable Record will more fully inform us.

* Prior Sanctæ Trinitatis London. & Bogo de Clare attachiati fuerunt ad respondend. Domino Regi, Petro de Chanet Senescallo Domini Regis, Waltero de Fancourt Marescallo Domini Regis, Edmundo Comiti Cornubiæ, & Abbati Westm. de hoc, quod cum idem Comes, ad mandatum Domini Regis, ad istud Parliamentum suum London. venisset, et per medium maioris Aule Westm. versus consilium Domini Regis licite et pacifice venire et negotia sua prosequi debet, absque hoc, quod aliquas Citaciones vel Summonitiones ibidem admittat, predictus Prior ad procuracionem ipsius Bogonis, die Mercurii proximo ante festum Purificationis beate Marie hoc anno, predictum Comitem in predicta Aula citabit, quod compareret ad certos diem et locum coram Archiepiscopo Cantuar. super sibi obijciendis responsurus;

Et Prior & Bogo venerunt; & Prior bene cognoscit, quod ipse citabit predictis die et loco predictum Comitem, ut predictum est. Et similiter predictus Bogo bene cognoscit, quod ipse fecit citare predictum Comitem, ut predictum est. Sed dicit, quod ipse omnino ignorabit quod predictus locus fuit exemptus; et quod non intellexit aliquem contemptum Domini Regis, seu aliquod prejudicium ejus spiritualis, per Citationem illam fecisse; et omnino ponit se in gratiam, misericordiam, et voluntatem Domini Regis alto et basso. Et quia predicti Prior & Bogo cognoscunt predictam Citationem predictis die et loco per ipsos fuisse factam, et quia manifeste facta fuit in contemptum Domini Regis; Consideratum est, quod predicti Prior & Bogo mandentur Turri London. et ibidem custodiantur ad voluntatem Domini Regis, &c. Et quo ad predict. Com. & Abbatem, datum est dies eis, die Veneris in crastino Purificationis beate Mariæ, &c. Postea predictus Bogo invenit plegios subscriptos, ad satisfaciendum Domino Regi de predicta transgressione antecessum suum de Westm. de instanti Parlamento, alioquin quod ipsi restituerent corpus ejus Turri London. in recessu Domini Regis; scilicet, Johannem de Eyville, Henricum Hofe, Robertum le Vele, Radulphum Blut, Rouland de Erlei, Robertum de Radington, Willielmum de Rye, Willielmum de Nerford, & Willielmum Evereys, qui ipsum plegiaverunt in forma predicta. Et predictus Prior invenit plegios subscriptos; scilicet, Robertum de Melkele, Robertum de Gravel, Willielmum de Melkeshop, & Willielmum de Sutton, qui ipsum Priorem plegiaverunt sub eadem forma qua predicti Johannes de Eyville & alii superius predicti Bogo nem plegiaverunt. Postea venit predictus Bogo et finem fecit Domino Regi pro predicta transgressione per duas mille marcas. Et recipitur per plegios, &c.

Et quoad predict. Com. postea venit predictus Bogo, et bad. eidem Comiti mille libras pro transgressione sibi facta. Et idem Comes, ad instantiam Episcopi Dunelm., Episcopi Eliensis, et aliorum de Consilio ipsius Domini Regis, remisit eidem Bogoni predictas mille libras usque ad Centum libras, &c. Et sciendum, quod plegii de predicto sine admittuntur coram Thesaurario ad Scaccarium per preceptum Domini Regis. Et predictus Prior mittitur ibidem ad faciendum secundum quod Thesaurarius ei dicet ex parte Domini Regis.

From which Record and Judgement it is most evident; First, That the Kings Royal palace is exempted from all Archiepiscopal and Episcopal Jurisdiction whatsoever; 2ly. That the serving of a Citation therein by any Officer of the Archbishop, is an high contempt and dishonour to the King in those who serve, or procure it to be there served on any person, deserving a very great fine to the King, and imprisonment in the Tower of London, especially during the Kings personal presence there, and in time of Parliament, upon a Peer and Member of Parliament, and an injurie both to the Kings Steward, and Marshall. 3ly. That Westminster Abbey was by Popes Bulls and our Kings Charters exempted from all Archiepiscopal Jurisdiction. 4ly. That the Fine and imprisonment imposed on them in this Case, was not for any breach of the Priviledge of Parliament, nor here mentioned nor inflicted on, (as <sup>a</sup> Sir Edward Cooke, and <sup>b</sup> Mr. Elsing mistake) but for the contempt, injury, and dishonour to the King, his Palace Priviledge, Officers, and the Court, as I have <sup>c</sup> elsewhere evidenced more at large.

This Bogo de Clare in the same Parliament, was attached at the suit of John de Waleys Clerk, upon a different account, that the said John entering into his house in London on the Lords day to serve a Citation out of the Archbishop of Canturburies Court, certain of his family took and enforced him against his will, to eat the said Citation, together with the Seal, and also imprisoned, beat, and ill intreated him, to his damage of 20 l. and in contempt of the King, to his damage of 1000 l. as this Record informs us.

* Bogo de Clare attach. fuit ad respondendum Johanni de Waleys Clerico de hoc, quod cum idem Johannes die Dominica in festo Sanctæ Trin. proximo præterito in pace Domini Regis & ex parte Archiepiscopi Cantuar. intrasset domum prædicti Bogonis in Civitate London. et ibidem derulisset quasdam literas de Citatione quadam faciend. quidam de familia prædicti Bogonis ipsum Johannem, literas illas, et etiam sigilla appensa bi et contra voluntatem suam manducare fecerunt, et ipsum ibidem imprisonaverunt,erberaverunt, et male tractaverunt, contra pacem Domini Regis, et ad dampnum ipsius Johannis viginti libz. et etiam in contemptum Domini Regis mille libz. et inde producit sectam.

Dicit enim, quod idem Johan. in querela sua dicit, quod quidam de familia ipsius Bogonis prædict. transgress. ei fecisse debuerunt, nullas certas personas nominando, prout moris est in Curia. Nec etiam dicit quod illa persona de familia sua quacunque fuerunt, per præceptum suum transgressionem illam (si qua fuerit) fecisse debuerunt. Et sic in querela sua nec dicit ipsum Bogonem esse factorem nec facti præceptorem: unde petit judicium. Bogo quoad

An. 18 E. I. quoad scilicet ipsius Johannis inde sine die. Et quia Dominus Rex prædictam transgressionem sic enormiter factam, ut dicitur, tum propter Contemptum ipsi Domino Regi in præsentia sua, viz. infra burgam, et in Parlamento suo factum, tum propter malum exemplum temporibus futuris, tum propter audaciam delinquenti sic de cætero aliis reprimendam, permittere non vult impunitam, dictum est prædicti Bogoni, quod ad scilicet Domini Regis inde respondeat, ex quo prædicti. transgressi dicitur fuisse facta infra portam suam et per manipulos et familiares suos; Et etiam quia per quosdam testatum est, quod quedam certa persona tunc de familia sua, viz. Henr. de Braban, Johannes Dunken, Rogerus de Burnham, Willielmus de Carrec, Johannes le Porter, & Henr. de Anesley fuerunt principales factores prædicti. transgressi. dictum est eidem Bogoni, quod deus & ceteros qui fuerunt de familia sua tempore quo prædicti. transgressi. facta fuit, habeat coram ipso Domino Rege in Quindena Sanctæ Trin. &c. ad faciend. & recipiend. quod per Regem & ejus Consilium fuerit ordinand. Ad quem diem prædictum prædictus Bogo adduxit coram ipso Domino Rege & ejus Consilio omnes de familia sua præter præd. Henr. Johannem, Rogerum, Willielmum & Johannem le Porter, & Henr. qui incontinentem post prædictum factum recesserunt & abierunt, nec aliqua parte sunt in potestate vel amicitia vel obsequio prædicti Bogonis vel suorum, prout per examinationem Militum, Clericorum, & aliorum de familia ipsius Bogonis juratorum, & singulariter examinatorum compertum est; & qui quidem jurati dixerunt, quod præd. Henr. & alii præd. factum fecerunt sine præcepto & assensu ipsius Bogonis, & absque hoc, quod præd. Bogo aliquid scivit de facto illo antequam factum fuit. Et super hoc idem Bogo petit judicium si de præcepto, missione, vel assensu, si sibi imponeretur ad scilicet Domini Regis respondere debeat antequam factores principales aliquo modo de facto illo convincantur? Et quia per consuetudinem et legem Angliæ, nullus de præcepto, hi, et auxilio aut missione respondere debeat antequam factores aliquo modo convincantur; consideratum est quod prædicti. Bogo ad præsens quoad hoc eat inde sine die, & prædicti. Johannes de Waleys sequatur versus factores principales prout sibi viderit expedire, si voluerit. Et insuper Thomas de Thurbervill de Com. Hereford, Walterus de Moleworth de Com. Hunt. Willielmus de Melkesham de Com. Eborum, Simon. de Lundgate de Com. Sum. David le Grand de Com. Hereford, & Willielmus le Franceys de Com. Buck. manneceperunt prædicti. Bogonem, ad habendum ipsum coram Domino Rege, ad respondendum ipso Domino Regi ad voluntatem suam, cum prædicti. factores de facto illo fuerint convicti, si Dominus Rex versus eum inde loqui voluerit.

From which Record I shall observe: First, That the Archbishops Citations were much slighted and opposed in that age. 2ly. That this enforcing his Clerk to eat and swallow down his Citation, with its Seal, was complained of to, and highly resented by the King, as a contempt against his Royal authority, being within the verge of his Court and sitting the Parliament, not punished by the Archbishop with Ecclesiastical censures. 3ly. That Masters ought not to be punished for abuses, contempts or offences committed by their Servants, without their privy or assents unto them before or after their conviction, nor any to be punished as accessaries, before the principals be convicted.

There happening many contests between the Bishop of Lincoln, and the Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford, concerning the presentation and confirmation of their Chancellor, whether he ought to come out of the University in person to the Bishop, or to be admitted by his Proxies; the King by his Prerogative to advance Learning, and settle peace between them; made this friendly accord for the future, which they both subscribed in this Parliament.

* Placita Parl. 18 E. I. nu. 2. See Ry'ev. p. 4. Concordia inter Episcopum Lincoln & Universitatem Oxon.

* Cum inter venerabilem patrem Oliverum Lincoln. Episcopum ex una parte, & Magistros Universitatis Oxon. ex altera, mota esset materia discorde super presentatione et confirmatione Cancellarii sui; & idem Magistri dixerunt, quod nunquam solebant Electum suum extra Oxon. mittere ad confirmandum, sed per nuncios suos fuerit eorum Electus semper hucusque confirmatus, et commissio Episcopo transmissa. Et præfatus Episcopus dixisset, quod commissio illa est de pura & libera voluntate sua: ita quod quando commissio illa per nuncios facta fuerit, hoc fuit de pura gratia sua: et quia prædicti Magistri gratiam illam trahere volebant

volebant in ius et consuetudinem, prædictus Episcopus gratiam illam continuare non intellerit. Tandem ad instantiam Domini Regis, ad istud Parlamentum suum, qui omnes contentiones vult pacificare, partes prædictæ se in hunc modum concordant, viz. quod prima vice cum prædicti Magistri Cancellarium suum elegerint, prædictus Episcopus ita prope Oxon. appropinquabit, quod Magistri ejusdem Universitatis ad ipsum venire poterint, et Electum suum præsentare et reddere, ab'que hoc, quod aliquam Electionem amittant. Idem etiam Episcopus dicit, quod hoc facto, ipse intendit graciosus esse prædictis Magistris in istis et in aliis, nec intendit eos gravare sine suo merito; et credit quod successores sui eodem modo eidem Magistris amici erunt et graciosi: Et intendit quod alias cum Cancellariis Universitatis prædictæ erunt electi, si idem Episcopus prope Oxon. fuerit, ipsos prædictos, admittet quando personaliter venerint; et si partibus longinquis fuerit, intendit de gratia sua illos admittere per Procuratores; sed quod ad hoc non teneatur per promissionem istam, nec alio modo nisi de pura gratia et libera voluntate sua. Et ad istam concordiam faciendam, prædictus Episcopus præfatus fuit, & etiam frater Willielmus de Leominstr. Johannes de Mone-moye, Ricardus de Bradeley, Johannes de la More, & Stephanus de Herdley, Magistri prædictæ Universitatis, qui concordia prædicta unanimiter consenserunt, et quorum quilibet assensum suum manu propria scriptis, &c.

Et Prior venit & dicit, quod Decimæ prædictæ ad ipsum et Ecclesiam suam beatæ Mariæ Karliol. pertinent, & non ad prædict. Episcopum. Dicit enim, quod Dominus H. Rex vetus, concessit Deo & Ecclesie sue beatæ Mariæ Karliol. & Canonicis ibidem Deo servientibus, omnes Decimas de omnibus terris quas idem Dominus Rex, aut hæredes sui Reges Angliæ, in Foresta prædicta in culturam redigere fecerint, & Ecclesiam prædictam inde feoffavit per quoddam cornu eburneum quod dedit Ecclesie sue prædictæ. & quod adhuc habet, & petit judicium, &c.

Et super hoc venit Magister Henricus de Borton persona Ecclesie de Thuresby, & dicit, quod Decimæ prædictæ ad ipsum ratione Ecclesie sue pertinent, & non ad prædictos Episcopum & Priorem; quia dicit, quod placea prædictæ de quibus Decimæ petuntur sunt infra limites parochie sue; & quod ipse & predecessores sui semper fuerunt in possessione percipiendi Decimas majores et minores prædictæ placearum ut de iure Ecclesie sue de Thuresby, quousque prædict. From which case it is observable: 1. That in that age it was the received opinion, as well as in this, that all Tithes in Forests and other places, which are extra-parochial, or without the bounds of any Parish, belong of right to the King by his Sovereign Ecclesiastical Prerogative, as Supreme Governour and Head on Earth of the Church of England, and as he is persona mixta et unita cum Sacerdotibus, as was resolved in this case, and in our Law-books since; whereas no meer Layman is originally capable of Tithes. 2ly. That by his Sovereign Ecclesiastical Prerogative he might erect New Parishes, Parish Churches, and grant Tithes unto them where there were none before, without the Pope or Bishop. 3ly. That he likewise held Plea of Tithes in his Temporal Courts.

In the same Parliament of 18 E. 1. there happened two memorable cases concerning the delivery and purgation of Clerks convict, to and before theirordinaries: The first was the case of **Walter de Berton*, imprisoned in the Tower of London, being convicted before John de Mettingham in the last Eyre in the County of Dorset, De falsatione sigilli Domini Regis; whom the King commanded to be delivered to the Bishop of Sarum, qui eum petit ut Clericum suum sub pœna et in forma qua decet, quia videtur consilio, quod in tali casu non est admittenda purgatio; it being out of the Statute of Westm 1. ch. 2. which extends only to Felony, whereas this counterfeiting of the Kings Seal was then reputed, and afterwards declared to be Treason, 25 E. 3. ch. 2.

The second was the case of the Abbot of Westminster, by way of complaint against the Kings Justices, who summoned him being a Baron to appear before them, and seised his Temporalities for a contempt, because his Archdeacon suffered two Clerks convicted of murder, to make their Purgations before the certain day prefixed by him in Court, to which the prosecutor for the King was adjourned, and thereby prejudged; thus entred in the Pleas of that Parliament.

deur si ipsi Domino Regi & eius Consilio videatur, quod eidem Abbati injuriatur. An. 18 E. 1.
 Dicit etiam, quod cum ipse habeat & habere debeat, & predecessores sui Abbates Westm.
 temporibus retroactis per concessiones & confirmationes Regum Angliæ habere consueve-runt, velut omnimodo unum breuium & preceptorum Domini Regis, ipsum Abbatem, homines, terras seu libertates suas ubicunque infra regnum tangentium, tam coram Justiciariis itinerantibus, quam aliis Justiciariis Domini Regis quibuscunque, & per Ballivos & Ministros suos sum. & attach. eorundem breuium & preceptorum facere:

 mini Regis assign. die Jovis in festo Apostolorum Petri & Pauli prox. praterit. per quendam Barthol. le Criour Servientem suum eidem Abbati parato magnam Missam celebrare in Ecclesia sua Westm. preceperunt, quod esset coram eis in crastino responsurus de hoc, quod ei dicerent ex parte Domini Regis. Ad quem diem idem Abbas ob reverentiam Domini Regis, coram eisdem Justiciariis comparuit, qui ei im-posuerunt, quod duo Clerici de morte hominis reatati, et ad sectam Domini Regis coram eis conditi per inquisitionem patriæ ex officio suo captam, liberabantur Archidiacono ipsius Abbatis ut loci Ordinatio, et eos ut Clericos petenti. Et qui quidem Archidiaconus coram eisdem Justic. certum diem statuit eisdem Clericis ad purgationem suam faciendam, et eundem diem præfixit cuidam Ricardo Bostard, qui dixit se velle sequi pro Domino Rege versus eosdem Clericos de morte prædict. Et licet idem Abbas coram eis calumpniavit, quod esset Baro Domini Regis, et quod sine Brebi Domini Regis et ejus Retorno, de tali-bus respondere non debuit, per libertates suas sibi & Ecclesie sue concessas, iidem Justic. super calumpniis illis certum diem ei coram eis dederunt. Ad quem diem idem Abbas tunc cum ipso Domino Rege personaliter existens, fecit defaultam coram eisdem Justic. ob quam Justic. prædict. Baroniam suam in manum Domini Regis capere fecerunt, & etiam per Breve Domini Regis, Vic. in quorum Com. terra & tenementa sua sunt, preceperunt distringere ipsum Abbatem per omnes terras et catalla, et quod de eritibus, &c. Ita quod haberent corpus ejus coram ipso Domino Rege à die sancti Michaelis in unum mensem ubicunque, &c. ad respondend. de facto prædicto.
 Unde dicit, quod Justic. prædict. manifeste sibi insuriant in hoc, quod ipsam sine Brebi Domini Regis coram eis venire fecerunt, contra libertates regias sibi et Ecclesie sue concessas. Et etiam in hoc, quod eidem Abbati insinuerunt, quod responderet coram eis de purgatione prædict. admissa, cum Dominus Rex ex quo Clerici de felonis in Curia sua ad sectam suam vel alterius cujuscunque conditi fuerunt per Inquisitionem patriæ ex officio Justic. suorum captam et Ordinario cuicunque eos petenti sub pena et qua decet fuerunt liberati, de eorum purga-tione seu de die illius purgationis admittenda, statuenda, per consuetudinem in regno hactenus usitatam non se debent intromittere. Et petit, quod Dominus Rex vicariis Justiciariis suis prædictis factum eorum audiat & intelligat, & sibi faciat quod de jure & consuetudine regni fuerit faciendum.

Et prædict. Justiciarii vniunt & bene recordantur quod duo Clerici, viz. Walterus de Thorny, & Johannes de Thorny de morte hominis coram Rad. de Hengham & sociis suis nuper Justic. Domini Regis ad placita sua assign. per quendam mulierem appellati fuerunt: Qua quidem mulier postea versus eos in secta sua facienda fecit defaultam: Ob quod consideratum fuit, quod Clerici illi quoad sectam ejusdem mulieris vent inie quieti. Et quod ad sectam Domini Regis veritas inquireretur p. r. patriam: Per quam à die Pasche in unum mensem convictum fuit coram ipsis Gilberto & sociis suis, quod prædict. Clerici de morte prædict. fuerunt culpabiles; propter quod liberati fuerunt cuidam Waltero de Hunt. Archidiacono ipsius Abbatis loci Ordinario, ut de felonis prædicta convelli. Qui quidem Archidiacon. in presentia eorundem Justic.
 certum diem statuit de purgatione eorundem Clericorum admittenda, & eundem diem præfixit cuidam Ricardo Bostard, qui dicebat, se velle sequi pro Domino Rege versus eos pro morte prædict. Et dicunt, quod prædict. Archidiaconus ante diem sta-tutum et præfixum prædicto Ricardo admisit purgationem illorum Clericorum, in contemptum Domini Regis manifestum, et ad sectam suam et auferendum.
 Propter quod ipsi Justic. hoc intelligentes, mandaverunt prædict. Abbati ex parte Domini Regis, quod veniret coram eis ad certum diem in querela sua contentum, ad respondendum de contemptu & transgressionibus prædictis. Et quia prædictus Abbas postea coram eis fecit defaultam ad diem sibi datum, in contemptum Domini Regis iterato, iidem Justic.

An. 18 E. 1. *praeceperunt distringere praedictum Abbatem, ut praedictum est. Et dicunt, quod aliam injuriam seu voluntatem ei non fecerunt. nam de Landath & Prabendas à tempore mortis prædicti Episcopi vacantes in Ecclesia prædicta pro voluntate sua contulit, & adhuc confert cum illas vacare contigerit, in præjudicium Coronæ Domini Regis, et exheredationem suam manifestam; Cum etiam Comes per ipsum Malcolmum ex parte Domini Regis sciret requisitus, quod seisinam prædicti Manerium ratione Custodiæ sibi commissam eidem liberaret, & quod Dominum Regem Archidiaconatum prædicti & Prabendas prædictas conferre permitteret. Dicit etiam quod Comes Hereford. qui nunc est fecit seiscire post mortem prædicti Episcopi in manum suam, Willam de Donestowe, & etiam quod Willielmus de Brewose scior post mortem prædicti Episcopi seiscire fecit in manum suam Willam de Bishopston in Gower, & adhuc detinet, in præjudicium Coronæ ut prædictum est, &c. Dicit etiam, quod Edmundus frater Domini Regis post mortem prædicti Episcopi cepit de Tenementis Manerii de Loncyllis Cressmy quod fuit prædicti Episcopi lxxv. solidos, qui ad ipsum Dominum Regem pertinebant ratione Custodiæ prædictæ; Et quod Comes Norff. & Mareschall. Domini Regis qui nunc est, post mortem prædicti Episcopi seiscire fecit in manum suam Manerium de Macherne in Netherwente, & proficua ejusdem Manerii & Exitus cepit; set cum idem tam frater Domini Regis quam Comes Norff. per ipsum Malcolmum requisiti fuerint, prædicti. Et Comes Hereford bene cognoscit quod prædicta Villa de Donestowe post mortem prædicti Episcopi seiscira fuit in manum suam per Ballivos suos ipso ignorante. Et dicit, quod post seisinam illam Decanus & Capitulum Ecclesiæ Landav. protulerunt coram ipso Comite quandam Chartam sub nomine Humfridi de Boun Antecessoris sui quondam Comitis Hereford. factam, qua testabatur, quod idem Humfridus quondam Comes, &c. concessit, dedit, & Charta sua confirmavit Decano & Capitulo Ecclesiæ Landavensis prædictam Villam de Donestowe, tenend. sibi & successoribus suis in liberam, puram & perpetuam Eleemosinam imperpetuum. Propter quod ipse liberare fecit seisinam prædictæ Villa prædicto Decano & Capitulo, juxta formam Cartæ prædictæ. Et dicit, quod ipse nihil clamat in prædicta villa ratione Custodiæ tempore vacacionis prædicti Episcopatus, Immo totum jus suum si quod habeat vel temporibus futuris habere contigerit, hoc totum Domino Regi et hæredibus suis pro se et hæredibus suis concedit, relaxat, et quiet. clamat imperpetuum. Ita quod ipsi Progenitores habuerunt inde Custodiam ut Custodiam de Custodiâ ratione minoris ætatis ejus seu alicujus Antecessorum suorum. Dicit etiam, quod quidam Richardus de Clare quondam Comes Glouc. pater suus, cujus hæres ipse est, fuit in seisinâ de prædicta custodiâ prædicti. Manerium tempore vacationis prædictæ sedis nuper præterita; & quod ipse post mortem suam in instanti vacatione prædictæ sedis intravit in custodiâ prædicti. Manerium, ut in jure & hereditate sua, & de quo jure prædicti. pater suus obiit seiscirus, & non per aliquam occupationem Domino Regi factam. Postea apud Kingeschippton die Luna prox. post festum Sancti Lucæ Evangelistæ anno decimo octavo prædicti. Comes Glouc. & Hertford. reddidit Domino Regi id quod ad ipsum pertinuit de Advocacione et custodiâ Episcopatus prædicti, una cum collationibus Prabendarum et Dignitatum ejusdem tempore vacationis Episcopatus illius, ut jus ipsius Domini Regis, prout Scriptum ipsius Com. quod

Ita quod post decessum ipsorum Com. et Johanne, Abbecatio et Custodia Episcopatus prædicti, una cum Collationibus Præbendarum et Dignitatum ejusdem temporibus vacationis Episcopatus illius, ad ipsum Regem et heredes suos integre revertentur quæta de heredum eorundem Com. et Johanne imperpetuum; Salva Domino Regi et heredibus suis in singulis vacationibus Episcopatus prædicti. Suborta siquidem inter nos ex parte una, et Gilbertum de Clare Comitem Glouc. & Heref. ex altera, super advocacione Ecclesiæ Landaven. et Custodia temporalium prædictæ Ecclesiæ ac collocationibus Dignitatum et Præbendarum in eadem sede Landavenf. vacante materia quæstionis, Anno Domini MCCXC. in Chastino Animarum apud Clifton pro nobis proponi fecimus, contra Com. prædictum, quod præfata advocatio Ecclesiæ Landavenf., Custodia Temporalium, et Collationes dignitatum et præbendarum in eadem Ecclesia sede Landavenf. vacante, non ad dictum Com. sed ad nos et nostræ Coronæ dignitatem, sicut in cæteris Ecclesiis Cathedralibus Regni nostri Angliæ de Jure et Regni consuetudine pertinebant. Et quod progenitores nostri Reges Angliæ qui pro tempore fuerant præmissis uti consueverunt pleno jure, et quod præ memoris H. progenitor noster qui proximo regnabit ante nos, in vacatione prædictæ Landavenf. Adjectumque fuerat ex parte nostra, quod Episcopi Landavenf. qui pro tempore fuerunt, tenuerant Barchiam suam et terras et possessiones a Progenitoribus nostris Angliæ Regibus, et a nobis, nihilque a Domino Comite seu ipsius Progenitoribus. Et quod Ecclesia Landavenf. vacante, Canonici ejusdem non a Comitibus, sed a Regibus petunt licentiam eligendi: unde pro nobis propositum extitit, quod idem G. Comes Glouc. & Heref. in præfenti vacatione ejusdem Ecclesiæ per mortem bonæ memoriæ W. de Brewos nuper Landavenf. Episcopi præmissas custodiam Temporalium, et collationes dignitatum et præbendarum nullo jure utens de facto, cum de jure non posset, in injuriam et derogationem Coronæ nostræ sibi viciose usurpavit. Et quia idem Comes habita super hoc deliberatione pleniori, constebatur præmissa quæ sibi opposita fuerant ex parte nostra verâ esse, Advocacionemque dictæ Ecclesiæ Landavenf., Custodiam temporalium, et collationes dignitatum et præbendarum, ad nos et Coronæ nostræ dignitatem pleno jure pertinere, ut idem Comes præmissis Custodia temporalium, et Collationibus dignitatum et præbendarum uteretur sede Landavenf. vacante, ad vitam suam duntaxat sibi concessimus gratiose: Ita plane, quod per factum hujusmodi nobis aut nostris heredibus per heredes seu successores præfati Comitis super præmissis nullum penitus præjudicium generetur. Nicholas a Cardinal Deacon of St. Maries of the Porch in Rome having the year before obtained from Pope Nicholas a new unheard-of Provision, by his Papal authority to unite and appropriate these two Prebendaries of Nassington and Fenton to two Churches in Rome, and endeavouring to get the actual possession of them by the Popes Bulls and proceffe published in the Realm, to the diminution of Gods service and the Almes of the Poor, against the piety and intention of their Founders, the manifest disherison of the King and his heirs, the dangerous consequence of such ill presidents to draw on the like, whereby the Churches should be left destitute of Ministers, maintenance, and Divine service; their Revenues being assigned to forreign uses, to Gods high displeasure, who would not have one Church and Altar robbed, to enrich or increase the services of another. The King and his Nobles in this Parliament, besides the * premised Prohibitions and Proclamations against this Innovation and Usurpation, writ and sent these memorable Letters to the Pope and all his Cardinals in general, and to this Cardinal in particular, to recall and reform this unheard-of Provision and abuse, which by their respective Oathes they were obliged to oppose, and could not permit or connive at: worthy special observation, being recorded for perpetual memory.

Venerabili in Christo Patri N. Dei gratia Sanctæ Maria in Porticu Diacono Cardinali. E. Dei gratia salutem, & sinceræ dilectionis augmentum. Epistola vestra nuperrime nobis directâ inter cætera continebat, quod Clerici nostri Magister J. de Lasce, & W. de Pickering, disparet vobis in vestra amicitia vestrisque obsequiis extiterant. Hoc proculdubio verum esse fatemur. Immo nec eorum obsequium pro nobis hæcenus factum nec imposterum faciendum vestræ amicitia nobis gratæ aliquâter comparamus, quam amicitiam nostris temporibus non solum perseveranter continuari, & continuis incrementis cupimus augmentari, et in his quæ vobis cedere poterunt in honorem sine Coronæ nostræ læsione favorem vobis Regni impertiri. Prohibitiones tamen vobis factæ de Præbendis Ebor. et Linc. manifestæ cederent in nostram exheredationem, Coronæ nostræ Regiæ læsionem, et scandalum populi, si optatum a vobis sortirentur effectum. Adcirco nos, qui ad conservationem status Coronæ nostræ astringimur Juramento, quantumcunque honorem vestrum et commodum optemus, ipsas Prohibitiones non possumus nec volumus sustinere; Set * nec Procures et Magnates Regni nostri ipsas æquanimiter permitterent, etiam si vellemus. It seems these Prohibitions and resolute Letters prevented these and all such like Provisions and appropriations for the future, which the Pope and Cardinals could no wayes justifie nor excuse.

In a Bundle of Writs, Anno 17 & 18 E. 1. in the White Tower Chapel, I found this Letter of Vezano the Popes Nuntio, to Pope Nicholas the 4. who by his Bully authorized and commanded him to proceed in an Appeal to him and the Court of Rome, at the prosecution of the Nephew of Pope Innocent the 4th. Rector of the Church of Huguate within the Diocesse of Yorke, grounded upon a contract for Debt belonging to the Kings Courts, contrary to the Kings Prohibitions to him; which the Kings Judges, together with the King, his Counsil, and Nobles, upon serious consultation, refused notwithstanding his importunitie to permit him to proceed in, as being against the Kings Crown and Dignity; whereupon he sent back his Bull to the Pope, as his Letter to him more at large relates.

Sanctissimo Patri Domino N. Divina providentia Summo Pontifici, Giffredus de Vezano Camerae suae humilis Clericus, primum oscula beatorum. Sanctitati vestrae remitto literas Apostolicas quae sic incipiunt. — NICHOLAUS Episcopus Servus servorum Dei, dilecto filio Magistro Giffredo de Vezano Canonico Cameracensi. Et sic finiunt. Datum Romae apud Sanctam Mariam majorem, 15 Kal. Aprilis, Pontificatus nostri anno secundo. — Quas, postquam habueram responsum a Justiciariis Illustris Domini Regis Angliae, quod respondere volebant mihi sine Rege, utrum Prohibitiones Regiae mihi praesentari locum habere deberent, vel possem procedere eis non obstantibus, retinueram ostendendas ipsi Domino Regi, ut videre posset, quod de cognitione causae appellationis, contentae in eisdem Apostolicis literis, per se vel suos se intromittere non debebat; et pateretur, quod, non obstantibus dictis Prohibitionibus sine ejus offensa possem mandatum Apostolicum adimplere. Supplicans flexis genibus, ne ad inobedientiam vel infidelitatem servi Dominus imputer, si mandatum contentum in ipsis Apostolicis literis efficaciter non implevi, quia ipsi Domino Regi praefatas Apostolicas, et prohibitiones ex parte sua, mihi praesentatas, tradidi; et ei super ipso negotio exposui diligenter, quae exponenda videri; requirendo et supplicando, quod super hoc prohibere vellet, quod ejus et Ecclesiae Romanae decerneret honorem. Tandem idem Dominus Rex, habita deliberatione, super ipsis Apostolicis literis et Prohibitionibus, cum * Consilio suo, in quo fuerunt plures Comites, Barones et Praelati, vocari me fecit et responderi in ejus et dicti Concilii praesentia: Quod cognitio contractus de Debito, (de quo fit mentio in Apostolico rescripto) de antiqua et approbata consuetudine spectabat ad Coronam et Dignitatem Regiam, et ipse et sui Antecessores usque fuerant cognitione hujusmodi contractuum. Et ex quo praefatus contractus erat fundamentum negotii, ne per hujusmodi appellationes iure Regio defraudari posset, quod procederem in ipso negotio substinere volebat; asserendo, quod si etiam ipse vellet, * Barones nullo modo substinerent, quod Prohibitiones (Regiae) locum in hoc et aliis similibus non haberent. A most pregnant Testimony of the Popes own Nuncio to the Pope himself, both of the Kings, his Justices, Counsils, Barons, Nobles care, vigilance, strenuous opposition, and deliberate, peremptory resolution against this new Papal encroachment by Appeals, upon the ancient rights and prerogatives of his Crown and Courts.

As the King was thus careful to defend the rights of his Crown and Courts against the Popes, so likewise against his own Prelates and their Officials usurpations in their Ecclesiastical Courts; witness these Writs of Attornie, to prosecute persons for suing in Court Christian against the Kings prohibition, for goods and Debts, not of Testament or Marriage.

Nos Offic. Curia Eborum ex officio nostro objicimus vobis Ascino Grot, Aschino Marescallo, Roberto Fyke, Thomæ de Clyff, manentibus in Thornton, quod in sententiam Excommunicationis a Canone latam incidistis; pro eo, quod manus sacrilegas in Dominum Willielmum de Derlington Capellanum temere injectistis, &c. ut supra. Unde intendimus, ob salutem Animarum vestrarum, vos corrigere in præmissis, quatenus Canonice Sanctiones permittunt et facere suadent in hac parte. Salvo nobis in omnibus juris beneficio.

Nos Offic. Curia Eborum. ex nostro officio objicimus tibi Willielmo de Wagelbardby, quod in sententiam Excommunicationis a Canone latam incidisti; pro eo, quod manus sacrilegas in Dominum Willielmum de Derlington Capellanum temere injectisti; Quod ita notorium est, &c. (ut in primo articulo supradicto.)

In Dei nomine Amen. Dico & in jure propono coram vobis Domine Officiali Curia Eborum, seu vestro Commissario quocunque, ego Willielmus de Derlington Capellanus, contra Petrum dictum Skat, & contra quemlibet legitimè intervenientem pro eodem; Quod dictus Petrus, Dei timore pariter et humano pudore proptus abiectis, manus sacrilegas in me temere injectit, in Animæ suæ periculum, et mei præjudi-

The Abbot endorsed this return thereon. Ego Frater Johannes Abbas de Thame, virtute istius mandati, recepi Sacramentum Domini Petri de Divione, Abbatis de Regali loco juxta Oxon. apud Oxon. Dominica in festo Apostolorum Simonis & Judæ; & etiam recepi Manuceptores ipsius Domini Petri Abbatis de Regali loco, viz. Johannem de Doclynton Majorem Villa Oxon. Johannem de Crokesford juniorem, Ricardum Kary, Johannem de Falle, & Johannem le Peyntour, Burgeses dictæ Villa Oxon. Qui conjunctim & divisim manuceperunt dictum Dominum Petrum Abbatem de Regali loco, quod idem Abbas bene et fideliter erga Dominum Regem se habeat; et omnia alia in Brebi isto contenta perficiet et observabit.

It seems most Abbots and Priors that were Aliens, took the like Oath, and gave sufficient Pledges for their fidelity and true allegiance to the King in that age, (especially in times of War) and not to send the Goods of their Monasteries out of the Realm, which they frequently did to the Kingdoms prejudice.

The Bishop of Norwich excommunicating the Vicar of Stokneyland, who appealed to the See of Rome against his sentence as unjust, and he being imprisoned by a Capias Excommunicatum upon the Bishops certificate after his Appeal, and thereupon enlarged by the Kings Writ, after his enlargement, upon a false suggestion, that he had not Appealed, being in danger to be reimprisoned by a Writ of recaption, the King thereupon issued this Writ to the Sheriff of Norfolk, to summon both parties to appear before him, to hear and determine this cause.

Edwardus, &c. Viccomiti Norff. salutem. Cum nuper ad requisitionem venerabilis patris R. Norwicensis Episcopi, per suas literas patentes nobis significavit, quod Magister Willielmus de Caldewell Vicarius Ecclesiæ de Stokneyland propter manifestam contumaciam suam excommunicatus est, nec se vult per censuram Ecclesiasticam sufficere, per Breve nostrum tibi præcepimus, quod prædictum Willielmum per corpus suum, secundum consuetudinem Angliæ sufficiat, donec Sanctæ Ecclesiæ tam de contemptu quam de injuria, et illata ab eo, esset satisfactum; Et jam intelleximus quod prædictus Willielmus pro se a sententia prædicta in ipsum per præfatum Episcopum lata, tanquam ab iniqua Sede Apostolicam legitime appellabit, et Appellationis suæ negotium prosequitur cum effectu; nolentes, quod prædicto Willielmo per prædictum Breve nostrum via præcludatur, quo minus dictæ Appellationis suæ negotium prosequi possit in forma juris; maxime, cum huiusmodi Breve nostrum de gratia nostra procedat, et appellantium status integer esse debeat; tibi præcipimus, quod ipsum Willielmum a prisione qua detinetur occasione prædicta sine dilatione deliberari faceres, donec de Consilio nostro aliud inde duxerimus ordinandum. Et postea ad suggestionem Willielmi Barry, nobis falso suggerentis, quod prædictus Willielmus nullam appellationem fecerat, quare a prisione prædicta deliberari deberet; Tibi præcipimus, quod prædictum Willielmum per corpus suum, secundum consuetudinem Angliæ sufficiat, donec Sanctæ Ecclesiæ tam de contemptu tempus quam de injuria ei illata ab eo, fuerit satisfactum. Nos super premissis in praesentia partium plenus certiorari, et partibus inde plenam et celerem justitiam exhiberi volentes; sibi precipimus, quod scire facias prefato Willielmo Barry, quod sit coram nobis a die Sancti Hilarii in Quindecim dies ubicunque tunc fuerimus in Anglia, auditurus quid super premissis de Consilio nostro duxerimus ordinandum. Et habeas ibi praedictum Willielmum de Caldewell, si cum per te interim capi contingat, illud idem audientis. Et hoc Breve. Teste meipso apud Westm. 2. die Januarii, Anno Regni nostri 18. A clear evidence that the King was Supreme Judge in all cases of Excommunication, Appeals, Exorbitances, legality or illegality of Ecclesiastical Courts and Prelates proceedings, and to hear, rectify, and finally determine them upon his Subjects complaints.

The Bishop of Worcester intending to make some Parochial Churches, whereof he was Patron, Prebendaries, and to annex them to the Collegiate Church of Westbury near Bristol, which the Prior and Chapter of Worcester opposed, for fear they should thereby lose their right of electing their Bishop; the King thereupon sent this Letter to them, to assent thereto, for advancement of Gods service, and his royal honor and benefit, being a thing he cordially desired, and to return him their answer the next Parliament, when all things and differences between them should be finally settled without further suit or expences.

Edwardus Rex, &c. Dilectis in Christo Priori & Capitulo Wygorn. salutem. Cum pater venerabilis Godefridus Wygorn. Episcopus, commendabili ductus proposito, quasdam Ecclesias aliquando Parochiales ad suum Patronatum omni jure spectantes in Ecclesia Collegiata de Westbur. prope Bristol. fecerit prebendales. Insuper alias residuas, sui consimilis patronatus & Diocesis proponat hujusmodi libertati donare; quo magis cultus augeatur divinus, quod quidem appetimus toto corde, cum conferre Prebendas beata vacante Ecclesia, multum nobis esset nobilius et decentius, quam Beneficia curae parochiali annexa: dilectionem vestram requirimus & rogamus, quatinus ipsius Episcopi condescendentes desideriis quoad hoc, immo nostris, velit ea ad effectum deducere exoptatum, vestrum in hac parte cum favore exhibendo consensum: Nec timor vel suspicio, quoad electionem futuram de Episcopo, seu de ullo gravamine per Canonicos supradictos, animos vestros conterat ullo modo, cum praescriptio longissima, ac alia Jura fortissima vos satis muniant & defendant. In his autem vestram erga nos dilectionem volumus experiri. In proximo autem nostro Parlamento post Pascham, volumus per praesentiam vestram (viz. Prioris) nobis super his fieri responsiva; ut exinde quae deceant & expediant ac liceant, inter patrem & filios abjectis laboribus & expensis, cautius & salubrius tunc temporis finaliter ordinentur. Teste meipso apud Westm. 3. die Februarii, Anno Regni nostri Decimo.

Brevia Regis Anno 18 E. 1. in Turre London.

This year <sup>a</sup> Mense Septembris in Terra Sancta mirabile & flebile infortunium contigit Christianis, Soldanus namque Babyloniz, cum multitudine onerosa, obsedit famam Tripolis civitatem, quam pro dolor, cepit, & solo tenuis finaliter complanavit, non sine maxima effusione sanguinis Christiani. In visperium insuper & contemptum nominis Ihesu Christi (or rather in detestation of Popish Idolatry, and Image-adoration) per Civitatem destruxit, ad caudas equorum Sandozum Imagines iussit trahi. Hereupon Pope Nicholas the 4th. under pretext of relieving the Holy Land, sent forth his Nuncios and Bulls into Germany, France, and England to the Kings, Princes, Prelates and Clergy to assemble together in Synods to raise Dismes and Taxes for sundry years towards the relief of the Holy land, but in truth to fill his own Coffers, and advance his Papal Jurisdiction over them, as his predecessors had done by this pious fraud; what opposition he met with in Germany in this his design, and provisions of Bishopricks, especially from Menardus Earl of Tyrol (whom he then caused to be excommunicated, who justly censured him and his Prelates as Antichristian by his publike Edict) b Johannes Aventinum thus relates. Eadem tempestate Nicholaus quartus Pontifex Maximus Franciscanus, omnes Archimystas Germaniz, quemque cum suis collegis in sua provincia Concilia habere jubet. Ab hisce rursus consilium simul et auxilium petit, quo Palestina armis recuperari possit.

subsidium memorata, sicut magis expediet negotio dictæ Terræ. Item, quod Decima sex Annorum collecta in subsidium Terra Sancta in Anglia et Scotia Regnis, et in terris Wallia & Hibernia Nobis assignetur in duobus terminis, videlicet, medietas ipsius in festo Pentecostes beati Johannis Baptista p̄or. venturo, et alia medietas in festo Nativitatis ejusdem Sancti deinde secuturo. Et idem fiat de obventionibus in dictis Anglia & Scotia Regnis, ac in terris Wallia, Hiberniaque collectis, et adhuc pro illis temporibus colligendis: de Decima vero et obventionibus sex Annorum futurorum colligenda in dictis Regnis Anglia et Scotia, ac terris Hibernia et Wallia, medietas secundum quod tribus primis annis colligetur nobis ante tempus passage assignetur. Residua vero medietas Decimæ et obventionum eorundem sex annorum annis singulis, prout collecta fuerit nobis postquam transfretaberimus assignetur, fiat autem Collectio et exactio ipsius Decimæ et obventionum per personas Ecclesiasticas * Regni nostri. Item, quod omnes Crucesignati qui esse poterunt utiles ad pugnandum, vel alias utiles Terræ Sanctæ monitionibus et persuasionibus efficacibus inducantur, et quantum rationabiliter fieri poterit compellantur in ipso passage transfretare in subsidium præfatæ Terræ prout utilis esse poterit ipsi terræ. Item, De Decimis et obventionibus collectis in subsidium Terra Sancta in terris illis quorum Domini non transfretabunt, impedimentis nunc obstantibus Domino favente sublatis, taliter nobis subveniatur quod merito possumus et debeamus esse contenti. Hos omnes Articulos & singulos superius expressos, sponte recipimus et acceptamus, ipsique nostrum præstamus assensum, et quatinus contingunt vel contingere possunt nos inviolabiliter observaturos promittimus, volentes ipsos robur plenæ firmitatis habere, et præsentis Literas nostras Regio pendente sigillo munitas, vobis et Ecclesiæ Romana concedimus, in testimonium veritatis. * That so the Pope might not finger them.

Eidem, Rex salutem, præsentium tenore vobis Sanctissime Pater vestrisque Successoribus Romanis Pontificibus, & Ecclesiæ Romana promittimus, quod si nos sponte, vel culpa nostra deficere in transfretando in subsidium Terra Sancta contigerit, seu per nos steterit quo minus in præfixo generalis passage termino transfretemus, omnia quæ de Decima nobis concessa in Anglia, Scotia Regnis, ac terris Wallia et Hibernia, nos recepisse contigerit, restitueremus ad vestrum dictorumque successorum, et Ecclesiæ Romanæ mandatum; etiam si per ipsorum receptorum vel omnia ipsa recepta in præparatione transfretacionis fuissent expensa: si vero non transfretaberimus in ipso termino aliquo impedimento legitimo impediti, expensæ quæ factæ fuerunt in præparatione prædictæ pro medietate nobis, et pro medietate reliqua imputentur prædictæ Decimæ, seu de ipsa Decima deducantur: Et si quid facta imputatione seu deductione hujusmodi apud nos de Decima ipsa remanserit, illud similiter restitueremus ad vestrum, dictorumque successorum, et Ecclesiæ Romanæ mandatum: si quid etiam de expensis quæ sunt in præparatione prædictæ, vel de datis seu assignatis ejus occasione nobis taliter impeditis recuperari contingerat, vel de rebus præparatis occasione passage illius, medietatem similiter restitueremus, et reliqua medietas erit nostra. Pro hiis itaque omnibus firmiter observandis et plenarie adimplendis, Nos, successores nostros, ac exitus nostros Regni Anglia, aliarumque terrarum nostrarum, bona nostra mobilia, vobis, dictis successoribus vestris et Ecclesiæ Romana obligamus specialiter et expresse, præsentis literas nostras Regio pendente sigillo munitas, vobis, supradictis vestris successoribus, et Ecclesiæ, in veritatis testimonium concedendo. An. 18 E. 1

A few years before the Bishops and Archdeacons of Ireland endeavoured by the power of the Bishop of Bath and Wells, then Lord Chancellor of England, to engross all Suits in the Kings Courts in Ireland against Executors, into their own Ecclesiastical Courts, as matters of Testament, not belonging to the Kings Courts, and a breach of their Ecclesiastical Privileges, as appears by this complaint and petition of the Bishop and Archdeacon of Ferns to this Lord Chancellor, An. 13 E. 1. (where it should have been inserted) concerning a Suit brought against the Archdeacon as an Executor, in the Kings Exchequer in Dublin.

Venerabili patri in Christo & amico (si placet) charissimo, Domino R. Dei gratia Bathon. & Wellen. Episcopo, R. miseratione divina Ecclesie Fernens. Minister humilis, salutem & sincera dilectionis constantiam cum orationum suffragiis. Cum vos libertatis Ecclesiasticae columnam agnoscamus ceteris firmiorem, vestram moueat paternitatem, quod in partibus Hiberniae, contra libertatem Ecclesiasticam, insolenter et nobilitate est sollicitum, quod pia paternitati vestrae praesentis pagina referimus volentes; videlicet, Quod cum Nicholaus Archidiaconus noster Fernens. Executor Testamenti Adae de Sancto Johanne, de bonis eiusdem defuncti, tanquam Executor, iamdudum disponeret et ministraret, ut dicitur; quidam Miles Wilhelmus Waspayl, nomine Domini Waterfordensis Episcopi, Justiciarii Hiberniae specialis, de mandato ipsius Domini Justiciarii, et ejus patrocinio specialiter confidens, & audaciam habens, quaterviginti et sex libras argenti ab eodem Archidiacono nostro erigit coram Baronibus de Scaccario Domini Regis Dublin. ipsum ibidem conueniendo per Breve de Scaccario, (cujus transcriptum vobis mittimus, praesentibus inclusum.) Qui quauquam idem Archidiaconus per Attornatum suum coram eis allegasset, quod super huiusmodi re Testamentaria ibidem non debuisset respondere, ac per nos instanter petiitum esset, quod causa illa ad nos remitteretur eramen, in eadem causa processerant; compellendo ipsum Attornatum eidem Willielmo ibidem respondere de pecunia praedicta; quam idem Wilhelmus dicit se soluisse Reginaldo de Dene per distractionem Scaccarii praedicti: Qui Reginaldus de Dene est in custodia dicti Justiciarii, & filiam suam de ejusdem Justiciarii duxit in uxorem. Et cum huiusmodi causa mere sit Testamentaria, et ad eramen Ecclesiasticum de jure debeat pertinere, sicut vestra nobis discretio, et nos semper parati fuerimus, et sumus, de dicto Archidiacono nostro, dicto Willielmo et aliis de se querelantibus plenam iustitiam exhibere, ad libertatis Ecclesiasticae defensionem et conseruationem, pro qua vos semper impendistis, summo (si placet) studio remedium in praemissis prohibere dignemini. Praedicta vero causa inter ipsum Militem & dictum Archidiaconum, prout didicimus, in loco Ecclesiastico, coram Domino Lechlin. Episcopo, in cuius Diocesi idem Miles dicit, ipsum Archidiaconum de bonis dicti defuncti administrasse, extitit alias usque ad sententiae diffinitivae calculum ventilata, donec dicto Episcopo de facto, per ipsius Willielmi negligentiam, conquiebit. Unde intuitu Dei et Ecclesiae, taliter in praemissis operari et prohibere vestra discretio dignetur, ut Ecclesiastica libertas illa custodiat. Valeat pia paternitas vestra semper in Domino. Rot. 105 Wiltes.* Assisa venit recognitura quis advocatus tempore pacis presentavit ultimam personam qua mortua est ad Ecclesiam de Wamberge qua vacat, &c. et cujus advocacionem Alanus filius Rogeri de la Zuche, & Emelina Lungespeye alias clamaverunt versus Priorissam de Ambresbury, &c. Et modo venit predictus Alanus, & similiter predicta Priorissa per Attornatos suos. Et quia eadem Priorissa alias dixit, quod non potuit predicto Alano sine predicta Emelina particeps sua inde respondere, preceptum fuit Vicecomiti quod summoneret eam quod esset hic ad hunc diem ad sequendum simul, &c. Et ipsa non venit, & summon. &c. Ideo consideratum est, quod predictus Alanus respondeatur sine predicta Emelina, &c. Et Alanus dicit, quod quidam Stephanus Lungespay antecessor ipsius Alani & predicta Emeline, cujus haeres ipsi sunt qua non sequitur, &c. ad predictam Ecclesiam presentavit quendam Hugonem de la Penne Clericum suum tempore pacis Domini H. Regis patris Domini Regis nunc, qui ad presentationem suam fuit admissus & institutus, & per cujus resignacionem predicta Ecclesia modo vacat, &c. Et de Stephano descendit, &c. & predicta Emeline qua non, &c. Et de ipsa Elia descendit, &c. ipsi Alano qui nunc, &c.

Et Priorissa per attornatum suum venit & dicit, quod non debet ei inde ad hoc breve respondere, quia dicit, quod predicta Ecclesia plena est & consulta de ipsa Priorissa & conventu suo qui illam tenuit in proprios usus de advocacione sua propria, & fuit ante impetrationem brevis. Et hoc parata est verificare ubi & quando debueris, &c. An. 18 E. 1

Et predictus Alanus dicit, quod predictus Hugo nuper persona predicta Ecclesia ad presentacionem predicti Stephani antecessoris, &c. a tempore institutionis sue ut persona impersonata in eadem statum continuavit usque festum Sancti Michaelis proximo praeteritum, & tunc Hugo Ecclesiam illam resignavit. Et dicit, quod quam cito noticiare signacionis, &c. ad ipsum pervenit ipse infra quinque menses proximo sequentes breve suum impetravit. Et hoc petit quod inquiri per assisam. Unde dicit, quod status plenitudinis quem predicta Priorissa dicit se habere, potius debet dici in eum Intrusio, quam plenitudo. Dies datus est eis de audiendo iudicio suo hic a die Sancti Michaelis usque xv. dies. Postea . . . . . ad diem illum venerunt partes per attornatum ipsius Priorisse. Et Priorissa dicit, quod advocacio predicta Ecclesia fuit cujusdam Prioris & fratrum de Nogento Rodrode, qui Ecclesiam illam tenuerunt in proprios usus de advocacione sua propria per centum annos ante impetrationem predicti brevis. Et dicit, quod predictus Hugo super possessione predictorum Prioris & Fratrum intrusit se in predictam Ecclesiam, & illam tenuit occupatam quousque idem Hugo ad sectam ipsius Prioris per sententiam diffinitivam latam in Curia Romana fuit ab Ecclesia illa priuatus, et idem Prior in eadem Ecclesia restitutus. Et hoc paratus est verificare ubi & quando debueris, &c. Et dicit, quod idem Prior & fratres postea dederunt advocacionem predicta Ecclesia ipsi Priorisse & Ecclesia sua predicta, tenend. ipsi Priorisse & ceteris Priorissis qua ei succedent, &c. Et profert quandam Cartam nomine ipsorum Prioris & fratrum que hoc testatur. Et dicit, quod postea Episcopus Sarum appropriavit ipsi Priorisse predictam Ecclesiam tenendam in proprios usus; unde cum predicti Prior et fratres per sententiam predictam possessioni suae proprietatis in predicta Ecclesia fuerunt restituti; et de seiscina sua proprietatis fecerunt ipsos Priorissam et Conventum de advocacione ejusdem, Episcopus Sarum ipsis appropriavit Ecclesiam illam, et ipsi tenuerunt illam appropriatam quasi immediatam post seiscinam predictorum Prioris et fratrum, petit iudicium, &c. Et quia predicta Priorissa nichil dicit quare assisa illa debeat retardari, consideratum est, quod procedatur ad assisam, &c. set ponitur in respectu usque in Crastino Purificationis beatae Marie pro defectu Recognitorum, quia nullus venit. Ideo Vicecomes habeat corpora, &c.

* Matthew Parker Archbishop of Canterbury shewes, that John Peckham Archbishop of Canterbury this year, after the visitation and subjugation of his whole Province, summoned a Council of his Clergie at Redyng, wherein he intended and propounded the drawing of all Causes concerning Advowsons meerly belonging to the Kings Temporal, to their Ecclesiastical Courts, and to cut off all Prohibitions to them from the Kings Courts in personal causes; a design they had long attempted: which the King hearing of, expressly commanded them by special Messengers, to desist from it, whereupon their design was frustrated, and this Council dissolved.

* De Antiqu. Eccles. Angl. f. 205. Anno 1290.

Subacta sibi jam his modis Provincia, Clerum suum Redingi congregabit. Preposuitque cognitionem de Patronatu Ecclesiarum, multis annis ad Regium tribunal spectantem, inde ad Ecclesiasticum forum traducere, tum Prohibitiones Regias in Litibus de bonis et catallis prorsus rescindere, et ne deinceps Ecclesiasticos Judices a jure reddendo retardarent vetare. (Such was his Papal insolencie and disloyaltie) * Sed Rex incepto hoc audito, nunciis ad Concilium destinatis multis, tam Archiepiscopo quam toti Clero minis precepit, ut desisterent. Unde tacitum est, ut a sua presumptione Archiepiscopus penitus transiret. Ita dissoluto Concilio omnes Prelati spe inanes recesserunt. To which he subjoyns this notable passage concerning the Prelates incontinencie, the briberie, usurie of the Pope and Court of Rome, and their Merchants, the suppressing all proceedings against an unchaste Bishop for mony, and the Archbishopps endeavours to advance his own absolute authority. In eo etiam Concilio fama publica id exigente, perquisivit de Episcopo quodam Concubinario; de quo ad Mattheum quendam Romanæ Ecclesiæ Cardinalem scripsit, sed de ejus nomine nullam mentionem fecit, id enim, ut ait, nuncio suo proferendum

An. 18 E. 1. ferendum commisit. Petiit in aliis literis à Cardinali Matthæo, ut de eo exrigendo Papam secreto sermonem consuleret, neque res enunciaretur. Pultos enim et in Romana Curia amicos et explozatores fuisse, potissimum autem Percatores Lancanenses, quorum (ut diximus) opera in expropriationibus et usuris Papa sæpe usus esset. Hunc autem non nominatum Episcopum cum secreto convenisset, atque quævisset, an vera essent quæ de ejus concubinato fama retulisset? Testes, quos Archiepiscopus expebat & adesse jussit, metuens tandem turpia narrasse, et ipsius turpitudinis diem factum fuisse, describit. Deinde eadem septimana cum Mortlaci moraretur, venisse ad eum feminam quandam Julianam de illius Episcopi factis quadam narraturam. Ea juramento coacta peperisse se quinque liberos ex eodem Episcopo adhuc superstites, falsa est. Hunc cum coercere vellet, metuens ne se muneribus ad Papam lundendis defenderet, per hunc Cardinalem præoccupavit Papam. Propono, inquit, eum adhuc aggredi iterato. Sed scio, quod conatus meus parum proderit, nisi me litera jubat Apostolica. Por enim ut eum tetigero, appellationis alio falsidice rete meum effugiet, infinitam pecuniam effusus. Peto autem, ut in omnibus aliis mihi per vos adstet adminiculum Papæ, per quod mea crescat auctoritas, et timor incutatur rebellibus, meaue jurisdictio excitetur, ut constantius noba inchoem, et inchoata auctoritate majori valeam confirmare.

I finde in the Parchment Book of Collections of Placita Parliamenti 18 E. 1. in the Tower, that the King to preserve the Jurisdiction of his own Temporal Courts against the Bishops encroachments, and yet to preserve their legal Jurisdiction in causes properly triable by them by the grace and grant of his predecessors, made this Constitution upon the Ecclesiastical Judges grievous complaint, that the Chancellor or Chief Justice for the time being, when a Prohibition was granted to stay any suit in Court Christian, should send for the Libel, and if upon examination they found the Kings Court by Writs out of the Chancery could not relieve the party, and that the cause belonged to the Ecclesiastical Court to determine, they should order them to proceed notwithstanding the Prohibition.

* Cum Judices Ecclesiastici ad procedendum in causis coram ipsis agitatæ per Prohibitionem Domini Regis sæpius supersedebant in casibus ubi remedium conquirentibus ad Curiam Domini Regis per Brevia de Cancellaria sua fieri non possit, propter quod querentes illi in utraque Curia tam Regia quam Ecclesiastica jure suo et remedio sunt elongati, ad grave dampnum ipsorum, proout Dominus Rex ex gravi querela quorundam intellexit: Dominus Rex bult et præcepit, quod cum Judices Ecclesiastici per Prohibitionem Regiam sibi propterea supersedebant in casibus prædictis, quod Cancellarius vel Capitalis Justiciarius ipsius Domini Regis qui pro tempore fuerit, viso libello illius causæ, ad instantiam querentis, si viderint quod per Breve de Cancell. querenti remedium suo casu fieri non possit, set quod ad Curiam Ecclesiasticam pertineat causam illam determinare, scribant Judicibus coram quibus causa illa prius fuerit agitata, quod in causa illa procedant, non obstante Prohibitione Regia prius sibi inde directæ. Therefore the Archbishop and Clergy had no cause at all to attempt the suppression of all Prohibitions to them to restrain their usurpations on the Kings Crown, Courts, or Subjects Liberties.

An. 19 E. 1. King Edward sending his Letters to the Archbishops and Bishops of Ireland to convene their Clergie, and induce them to grant him a Dismissal of their Spiritualties to defray his expenses and Debts in redeeming his * Nephew Charles, and settling Truces in foreign parts, the Clergie of Ireland unanimously refused to grant his request, by reason of their extreme poverty, and many years wars and depredations, yea sundry of them appealed to the Pope against it, as these Letters of the Archbishops of Tuam and Cassels, and Bishop of Dary to the King, which I found in the White Tower Chappel, will more fully relate.

Serenitatis

Upon the Liberties of the Kings and Subjects of Engl. & Irel. K. Edward 1.

Serenitatis vestrae literas affectione qua decuit nuper recepimus, quibus intime nos rogastis, quod ad certos diem et locum nostros Suffraganeos et Clerum nostrae Provinciae coram nobis faceremus specialiter convocari; quodque ipsos ex parte vestra induceremus efficaciter, quod una nobiscum Decimam Spiritualium ipsos contingentium vobis concederent gratiose ad exonerationem Debitorum, quibus istis impliciti, propter missas graves et expensas necessarias, quas nuper moram trabendo fecistis in partibus transmarinis, deliberationem magnifici Principis, vestri Con sanguinei, Domini Caroli Regis Siciliae faciendam; Super quibus Regia vestra Celsitudinis tenore praesentium respondemus, Quod juxta literarum vestrarum tenorem Suffraganeos et Clerum nostrae Provinciae ad certos diem et locum fecimus convocari; ipsosque diligentia & instantia, quibus potuimus (novit Altissimus) induximus, & ferventissime rogavimus, quatenus requisitionem tanti Principis, tam exillem, recusarent nullatenus vel tardarent, sed eam potius grater concederent et horibet. Qui quidem Suffraganei singuli, cum dicto Clero, ad deliberandum secesserunt ad partem: eorumque Clerum deliberato consilio respondit unanimiter, Quod propter guerram, paupertatem, et Ecclesiae libertates in statu debito conferbandas, petitionem vestram praedictam nullo modo concedere poterat, nec volebat. A cujus responsione (idem Suffraganei, ut asseruerunt rationibus antedictis, et propter Appellationem per ipsum Clerum ad sedem Apostolicam interjectam, discedere non valebant, et sic cum eo partem duxerunt eligere negativam. Nos ceterum immediatum nostrum Clerum, ad certos diem & locum per nos similiter convocatum, efficaciter induximus & ferventer, Quod concessionem petitionis praefatae minime supersederent; Intimantes eidem, ac nostris Suffraganeis, eorumque Clero, quod licet per Concessionem hujusmodi modice crederent praegravari, per eam tamen possent veram vestrorum benevolentiam perficere, et uberius gratiam indubitanter captare, ac vos ipsi per hoc induci ad gradamina Hibernicae Ecclesiae et personis Ecclesiasticis ibidem illata hactenus, rebocanda, et fortassis ad eandem Ecclesiam restituendam in solidum praefatae libertati. Quibus auditis, super hiis deliberavit, in hunc modum respondens: Quod cum sua Beneficia exilia nimis exstant, ipsique per Satellites Hibernicos et per guerram, depauperati sunt et adnihilati; adeo quod victus totius anni eis non sufficit commode per sex Menses, (quod est planius omni plano) dictae petitioni in aliquo condescendere, non voluntate sed impotentia repugnante, penitus denegabat; sedem Apostolicam, ne nos contra ipsum hac occasione procederemus, inconsulto Romano Pontifice (cujus licentia specialis, juxta Statuta Canonica, est necessaria in talibus obtinenda) una cum Clero Provinciae concorditer in scriptis appellans. Nos siquidem qui voluntati Regiae sumus, ut concedet, pro viribus complacere, spem duximus mole Debitorum adeo praegravatam, tempestate guerrarum tam continue perturbatam, et tam tenuem in facultatibus (licet erubescamus hoc dicere) quod ex ea non possumus juxta dignitatem nostram decentiam commode sustentari, sed extra nostram Diocesim, in qua nulla penitus biqualia possidemus, nos urget ad praesens necessitas commorari; et in fide qua Creatori, Romanae Ecclesiae bobique tenemur assidui, omnia nostra bona mobilia et se mobentia, pro exoneratione nostrae Ecclesiae Debitorum, per triennium concederemus et amplius cum actione multiplicum gratiarum (licet hoc aliquibus incredibile videatur.) Unde ad praemissa cum nostris Suffraganeis atque Clero contra nostram voluntatem nunc compellimur concordare. Quapropter Regiam vestram Magnificenciam devotius precibus exoramus, quatinus, intuitu pietatis divinae, nostrae compaetientes impotentiae, excusationem nostram sufficere et verissimam in praemissa gratiam habere dignemini pariter et acceptam. Valeat & vigeat vestra Regia Celsitudo, &c. Datum apud Athnery 8. die Junii, Anno &c. 1291.

DOMINO suo Reverendissimo Domino E. Dei gratia Regi Angliae, &c. suus humilissimus ac devotus S. eadem gratia Castell. Minister, salutem, & gloriosum de huius semper reportare triumphum. Literas vestrae Regiae Majestatis recepimus, continentes, quod fratres nostros & Co-episcopos induceremus, ut vobis de suis Spiritualibus Decimam unius Anni liberaliter concederent, ad relebantes immensarum expensarum circa Principis de la Morrey deliberationem, & pacis inter Reges diversae reformationem, per vos salutarum. Nos autem fratrum nostrorum, Capitulorum, & Cleri sacra congregatione generali, negotium vestrum praedictum eisdem plenissime

Et licet nos et Confratres nostri animo benivolo vestrae petitioni condescenderemus, consensum tamen Cleri ob causas praedictas allicere non possumus. Et quia nos de alicuius iuris injuria largiri non valemus, vestra Majestati devotè supplicamus, quatinus caritativè intuitu, & ob Creatoris vestri reverentiam, istud nobis non impingat: quia novus ille qui nichil ignorat, quod nos corpus nostrum & omnia quae habemus, pro vobis exponere sumus parati: & circa dictum negotium, licet illud ad finem non perduximus optatum, omnem quam potuimus adhibuimus diligentiam. Excellentissimo Domino & Magnifico Principi E. Dei gratia Illustri Regi Angliae, &c. suus (si placet) frater N. ejusdem miseratione, Daren. Ecclesia Minister humilis & indignus, corporis & anima salutem, de hostibus triumphum, & per Regni temporalis fructuosos labores, aeterna quietis & regni caelestis sceptrum feliciter promereri. Ad vestra Illustris Excellentia mandavi ac petitionis instantiam, a Paschate Dominica in tres Septimanas per discretum virum Magistrum Thomam Cantok, Clerici vestri ac Nunciū Dublinenses, una cum aliis totius Hyberniae Praelatis, ibidem obidem mandatum vestrum pariter congregatis, recepi, sicut ibidem de communi omnium Praelatorum et singularum Dioecesium Clericorum consilio et assensu probatum fuerat. Vos omni caritate, qua potuimus, universo Clero nostro ad majorem Ecclesiam Kilic. convocato, cum omni instantia, diligentia & industria, quibus scivimus, eundem Clerum per varias exhortationes, monitiones, et obsecrationes, secundum gratiam nobis datam induximus cum effectu, ut Petitionem rationabilem et modestam, de Decima parte suorum Bonorum Spiritualium, vestrae Magnificentiæ, tanti Principis, ac nostri nativi Domini, cum omni sollicitudine, benivole ac grater, studerent debito ac optato effectui mancipare. Qui Clerus deliberato Consilio, universaliter, omnes et singuli sine cordis angustia concorditer responderunt, quod vobis ex cordis affectu de bonis suis Spiritualibus libenti animo subvenirent, si facultates voluntatibus responderent. Sed re vera (ut testificari potest tota Hibernia) Provincia Daren. Dioc. pro majori parte per cruces et continuas Guerras, ac diuturnas jam per 24. annos, per Dominorum oppressiones ac Balliborum extorsiones, et Hybernorum quasi cotidianas spoliaciones et furas, in tantum est dissipata ac quasi funditus extenuata, quod ad suam sustentationem et tenuem, et exilem non sufficiunt: Propter quæ ad praesens (de quo maxime dolent) non valent petitionem vestram in hac parte, prout vellent, aliquatenus adimplere: Sed orationes et lacrymas, quibus in his aduersitatibus et arumnis pro defectu pacis abundanti, pro vobis et vestris Regi omnipotenti corde contrito et tritulato omni devotione qua poterunt offerre continue non desistent; quorum impotentiam et bonorum inopiam, non affectionis aut ingratitude ignaviam (teste Deo) habere dignetur vestra Majestas Regis misericorditer excusata. Nos vero licet eadem incommoda patiamur, & are alieno propter defensionem pauperum nostrorum ab incurfibus hostilibus Hybernensium vastatorum sumus quamplurimum onerati, qui sumus vobis tam ex naturali affectu quam ex multiplicibus vestris beneficiis & honoribus arcus & tenerius astricti, toto cordis affectu et gratanti animo decimam partem bonorum nostrorum Spiritualium, ad annum proximum, ad festum Sancti Michaelis propius incipientem, vobis concedimus gratiose, * — & verentes tanto Principi ac Domino nobis in negotiis nostris gratissimo, sicut retroactis temporibus experti sumus, offerre tam exigui subsidium — quod vestram Regiam generositatem votius pensetur affectus quam census, coram Deo vobis possumus testificari quod à concessione — depauperata et miserabiliter tribulata sicut nunc, cuius veritatem et causam scire poteritis ab hiis qui terram noverunt. Valeat, &c.

Sanctæ

An. 19 E. 1. Sanctæ Ecclesiæ, tam de contemptu, quam de injuria ei illata ab eis, fuerit satisfactum: nobis est ostensum, quod licet iidem Rogerus, Johannes, Simon, Willielmus, Rogerus, Willielmus & Nicholans eidem Archiepiscopo frequenter obtulerunt idoneam cautionem de parendo mandatis Ecclesiæ in forma juris, ut absolutionis beneficium consequi possint: idem tamen Archiepiscopus cautionem illam ab eis hactenus admittere recusabit, de quo miramur. Et quia nolumus quod fidem Rogerus, Johannes, Simon, Willielmus, Rogerus, Willielmus & Nicholans contra justiciam in prisiona diutius detineantur; Tibi præcipimus, sicut alias præcepimus, quod in propria persona tua ad prætatum Archiepiscopum accedas, & ipsum ex parte nostra moneas, & efficaciter inducas, ut accepta ab eisdem Rogero, Johanne, Simone, Willielmo, Rogero, Willielmo & Nicholao cautione prædicta, ipsos à prisiona prædicta mandet deliberari. Et si idem Archiepiscopus in præsentia tua id facere noluerit, tunc tu ipsos Rogerm, Johannem, Simonem, Willielmum, Rogerm, Willielmum & Nicholaum à prisiona prædicta, si ea occasione & non alia detineantur in eadem, deliberari facias; vel causam nobis significes, quare mandatum nostrum alias tibi inde directum exequi noluit, vel non potuit. Teste meipso apud Dunfermlyn in Scotia 14 die Julii. Anno Regni nostri decimo nono.

Mandatum alias mihi super hoc directum exequi non potui, eo quod tunc fui ad Scaccarium Domini Regis, computum meum redditurus, per præceptum Domini Regis. Istud mandatum exequi non potui, eo quod Robertus de Herteford & socii sui Justiciarii assignati ad Assisas capiendas nunc sedent in Comitatu nostro. Et post eorum recessum ad Chacea Domini Regis de Engelwode & de Landa de Plumpton per mandatum Domini Regis una cum auxilio totius Comitatus nostri prædicti me oportet interesse; Unde (si placet) me excusatum habere velitis, eo quod negotia Dominum Regem tangentia præ omnibus aliis credo fore prærogatura. Valeat Sanctitas vestra per tempora diuturna.

I shall close up this year with this memorable passage of Matthew Westminster concerning Pope Nicholas and the Archbishop of Canterburies deaths, and the Freer Minors insolency, pride, avarice whiles they lived, being of their Order.

Gloria, laus, speculum fratrum Nicholae Pinozum,
Te bivalente bigent, te moriente cadunt.

Cujus tempore fratres de Ordine Pinozum Papam pro Sole habentes, Lunam Archiepiscopum Cantuariensem nominantes, ceperunt sua Cognua erigere in universum orbem, nulli parentes ordini vel honori in provincia Anglicana; nam Ponaphos et Professores patris Benedicti Wygorn. & Westm. opido misericorditer potentiam et audaciam infestabant, (such was these Monks enmitie against each other) ut adimpleretur Prophecia Sanctæ Virginie Hildegardis, qua in tempore beati Bernardi floruit Spiritu Sancto plena, quo docente, exposuit & condidit multos libros, scilicet librum Scivias, &c. Inter cetera prophetia sua opera in libro secundo Speculi Temporum futurorum, sive Pentacronon Virginis Hildegardis, sub Anno Gratia 1142. in titulo de Novis Religionibus, sic dicebat secundo Capitulo, quod sic incipit; De imminente luce, Iterum audiivi vocem dicentem, Wilia Syon, corona capitis filioz tuozum inclinabitur, et pallium dilectionis dicitur eozum minuetur, quia illud tempus non cognoverunt, quod eis ad videndum & subditos suos ad docendum dedi. An. 19 E. 1. ritum apud Deum habere desiderat, opus ad hoc exhibeat, sed quia non facit, ad serboserbozum computamini, et ipsi Iudices vestri erunt, ac libertas vestra a vobis de-clinabit. Sicut benedictio à Canaan, ista flagella percurrent. Alia autem & postea alia peiora venient: Nam Diabolus in semetipso de vobis dicit, escas epulantium & convivia omnis voluntatis mea inveniam. Sed et oculi et aures, et benter ac venameæ de spurcitiis istorum plena sunt, et ubera mea plena sunt de bitis eorum. Nam ipsi laborare in Deo suo nolunt, sed eum quasi nihilum computant. Quapropter cum eis incipiam militare, & jucunde cum eis ludere, quoniam eos in agro Domini sui laborare non invenio, quemadmodum Deus eorum ipsos iuter. Sed Oves discipuli & subditi mei, multo plus eis coram populo disciplinati, & quia tunc essis, trigite vos super eos, et omnes debitas et omnem bonorem abstrahite ab eis, atque omnino spoliantes suffocate eos. Hac Diabolus in semetipso dicit, qua etiam in multis iudicio Dei ita complebit. Sed ego qui sum audientibus me dico, in tempore illo, cum illud fiet per quandam errantem populum peiorem & errante populo qua nunc est, super bos præbaricantes, præbaricantes ruina cadit, qui ubique vos persequitur, et qui opera vestra non celatit, sed quia ea denudabit, et qui de vobis dicit, isti Scorpio-nes in motibus et operibus serpentinis. Sed & quasi in Zelo Domini de vobis imprabitur: iter impiorum peribit. Nam vias vestras in iniquitate vestra & intentione deridebunt & subsannabunt, sed populus iste qui hac faciet a Diabolo seductus et malus pallida facie veniet, & velut in omni sanctitate se componet, ac maioribus secula-ribus Principibus se conjunget. Quibus & de vobis sic dicit, quare hoc vobiscum habetis, quare eos esse patimini, qui totam terram in maculosis iniquitatibus suis pol-luunt. Isti abriti et lurotosi sunt, et nisi eos a vobis efficiatis tota Ecclesia destruetur. Populus qui hac de vobis dicit vilibus capis, qua alieni coloris sunt, induit-tur & recto modo intonsus incedit, atque omnibus suis placitum & quietum hominibus ostendit. Abaritiam quoque non amat, pecuniam non habet, atque in oculis suis tantam abstinentiam imitatur, quod vix ullus ex eis poterit reprehendi. Diabolus autem cum hominibus istis est, latitare sub fulgore ejus se ostendens, velut in con-stitutione mundi ante ruinam fuit, et Prophetis aliquantulum se similem fecit, et dicit populo: jucunda loquere scilicet quia rapida & immunda animalia, & velut mi-eis ostendam, sed nunquam in pennas ventorum fulgurante tonitruo volare volo, & omnibus modis infundere qua omnem voluntatem meam perficerent, & sic in hominibus istis signa mea omnipotenti Deo assimilabo. Nam Diabolus per aerios Spiritus hac operatur, &c. Isti autem deceptores non sunt qui ante novissimum diem venturi sunt, & cum Diabolus in altum volaverit, ut ipse initio contra Deum pugnare caperet, sed tamen postquam ipsi in perversitatibus Baal, aliis pravis operibus sic inventi fuerint, Principes et alii majores in eos irruent, et veluti rapidos Lupos eos occident ubicunque eos invenerint. Tum aurora vestra injustitia & novissima vestra meliora prioribus erunt, ac de præteritis omnibus timorati eritis, & quasi purissimum aurum fulgebitis, & sic per longa tempora permanebitis. Nam prima aurora justitia in spi-rituali populo, tunc surget ut primitus cum parvo numero incepit, nec ipsi multas sa-cultates nec multas debitas habere volunt, quæ animas occidunt, sed dicent, ve vobis quia peccavimus. Ipsi namque de præterito timore & de præterito dolore ad ju-sticiam confortabuntur, quemadmodum Angeli in casu Diaboli & amore Dei confortati sunt, et sic postea in humilitate bibent, nec præbis operibus Deo rebellare cupient, sed à multis erroribus purgati deinceps in fortissima vi rectitudinis persistent: Hic ter-minatur secundum Capitulum secundi libri Pentateuchon, sive Speculi temporum fu-turorum beate virginis Hildegardis. Hanc Epistolam inserimus huic operi, quia multi non habent libri superius annotati copiam vel exemplar. Et ut intelligant hanc legentes, quod Spiritus ubi vult spirat, & qua ventura sunt annunciat, per breve spa-tium temporis sequentis Sole fratrum Pinozum obscurato per mortem Papæ, qui erat ejusdem Ordinis, ut superius est expressum; Luna patiebatur eclipsim: Archiepiscopus namque Cantuar. cusus sapientia ante obitum suum fuerat totaliter deborata, qui in prosperitate sua multos absecerat et contempnit, et maxime Professores Ordinis beatissimi Benedicti, sine plandū Monachorum in hoc anno obiit.
 How much these Freers Minors were then likewise opposed, censured by the Bishops and Clergie of France for their insolencies, usurpations, hypocrisie, innovations, you may read in the Complaints of the University of Paris and * French Prelates

* Albertus Cranzius stories of this Pope Nicholas, natione Lombardus, religione Minor, that he had this memorabilis exitus. Tradunt illum, cum se decessurum intelligeret, convocasse in unum Cardinales, & ratione temporum suorum coram eis reddita, omnes de plenitudine potestatis, dignitate qua præditi fuerunt, absolvisse, ut in reliquum privati viderent. Idem primum stupuisse Cardinales de eo quod acciderat; deinde quasi moti capitis hominem, qui ad exitum insisteret, reliquisse. Ille totidem sui Ordinis fratres evocasse, illos titulis Cardinalium insignivisse, iurando, ne quem se moriente nisi ex suo numero Pontificem crearent, ne de ullam in suum adoptare viderent collegium nisi sui fratrem ordinis, adegisse. Hoc testamento condito, ad superos evolasse. Mira res si vera relatio. Exinde usque ad tempora Sixti 4. occultum in fratribus spinosius fuisse Papatum, qui in persona ejus defecerit. Thus did these Freers Minors endeavour to monopolize the Papacy, Headship of the Church, and all Cardinals Caps, unto themselves, for which they justly incurred the premised Censures by their fellow Monks, who envied their grandeur, honour, wealth, secular employments, and favour with Kings and Princes.

* Anno 1293. (by reason of the forementioned contests between the Archbishop, Abbot, Prior and Monks of Canterbury) Prior S. Augustini, & Decanus Cantuarienses ad mandatum conservatorum privilegiorum nostrorum, ob vexationes abbertariorum, et ad cautelam futuroz, coram Officiali Archidiaconi, & de Westbere, de Bregge & Sandwico, Elham, Lymene, Cherring, & de Ospringe Decanis, & coram aliis multis in Capitulo S. Augustini, Dominica prima post Octavas Epiphaniæ, privilegia scilicet beati Augustini Anglorum Apostoli, primi Cant. Archiepiscopi, ac Romanorum Pontificum Bonifacii, Agathonis, Cælestini, Calixti, Innocentii, Urbani, Eugenii, Lucii, Alexandri, Gregorii, Innocentii, Alexandri & Honorii aperte recitarunt, & solempniter publicant, ita videlicet, quod Monasterium S. Augustini, Abbas et Fratres, cum pertinentibus ad eisdem, exempti sunt omnino a quozumlibet ordinarioz Jurisdictione, subjectione et potestate, ac specialiter a Domini Cantuar. Archiepiscopi, Officialis et Archidiaconi ejusdem, necnon et cuiuslibet alterius Iudicis, Regati, delegati præter sedis Apostolicæ speciale mandatum ad dictos Religiosos nominatim directum, plenam et expressam de indultis hujusmodi faciens mentionem. Et quod idem Religiosi, res, possessiones, homines, et Clerici eozundem, Apostolici sibi immediate subjecti, et non alteri. Et quod privilegia hujusmodi contravenientes scienter, cum suis sanctoribus canonica monitione præmissa, per prædictum Sanctum Augustinum, sociisque suis Laurentium, Melitum & Justum Cantuarienses Archiepiscopos excommunicati, ac per prædicta privilegia Apostolorum etiam indignationem incurrant, ab officio Cleri submoti, a communione Sanctozum alieni, proprioque privati officio excommunicationi subaceant eo ipso. Et quod Ecclesias de Mestres, Chisteler, Nordborne, Middleton & Faversham, cum Capellis non valeat Ordinarius interdiceret, vel suspendere quoquo modo. Et quod in aliis Ecclesiis sibi appropriatis, una cum istis non ipsi Religiosi, sed sui ipsorum locorum Vicarii, debent Ordinariis de oneribus ordinariis teneri, et scribis Episcopalis respondere. Sed super custodia vacantium Ecclesiarum nostri patronatus, decedentibus personis vel Vicariis Ecclesiarum prædictarum, claves earundem in Capitulum nostrum deferri, et custodia et obventiones earundem esse in manu Abbatis et Conventus, donec Personæ vel Vicarii Archiepiscopo ad easdem fuerit presentatio, tam antiqua quam moderna experta tradit usitatio. Thus did these Augustine Monks proclaim these their transcendent Privileges (purchased at dear rates from successive Popes) in the Metropolitane See and City of Canterbury it self, in high affront and defiance of the proud Archbishop of Canterbury and his Officers, (though endowed with extraordinary power and privileges by Kings Charters and Popes Bulls, and Primate and Metropolitan of all England) as totally exempt from his and his Officers Metropolitane Jurisdiction, Censures, Canonical demands, and owing no subjection to them in the least degree or punctilio whatsoever: So as that of the Poet, might more truly and properly be applyed to these proud Monks and Prelates thus eagerly contending for priority and exemption, then to Cæsar and Pompey.

Archbishop Peckham's death this year, put a period to these contests between the Abbot and him; of whom * Mat. Parker renders us this character and account. *Johannes Peckham Cantuariensis Archiepiscopus, cum 13. annis sedisset, adesse hujus vita sensit exitum: Testamentum itaque condidit, cujus Executores Nicholaum de Knovile Rectorem de Maidilton, & Simonem de Greille constituit. Hi post mortem Gualteri Reignolds, sede Archiepiscopale vacante, ad reddendam executionis sue testamentaria rationem à Priore Cantuariensi in jura vocati sunt. Rationibus exactis compertum est, ex inventario, præter legata in specie relicta, inperjurasse ex Johannis Peckham bonis 5305 l. 17 s. 2 d. & q. monetæ Anglicanæ. Hanc summam ad defuncti funera suasque expensas hi callidi Executores sibi pene totam a Priore decerni obtinuerunt. Ut reddita ratione non amplius quinque solidis ser denariis in pauperum et pios usus distribuendis remanserit. Hinc videmus quibus artibus tam occultam avaritiam hic bonus vir terit: Qui paupertatem et inopiam Archiepiscopatum suum ingressus replebat (ut diximus) suam. Idem paucis annis tanta abundantia copiarque repletus est, ut Cardinalibus et Curialibus Romanis grandia stipendia annua decerneret, et quod laudi verti debet: Pauperibus maxeriorum suorum 770. marcas distribui mandavit. His tam immensis sumptibus non obstantibus, consanguineos suos multos miram in modum plurius præditi locupletabit, aliosque ad Equestrem, alios ad Generosum Ordinem eberit; quorum de stirpe nonnulli in Cantio atque aliis Angliæ Comitatibus veterem tunc institutum & ab eo acceptum splendorem retinent. In omnibus quas frequenter scriptitavit literis, hoc titulo exorsus est; Johannes frater Cantuariensis Ecclesiæ Sacerdos humilis, (though as proud as the Pope, who yet styles himself Servus servorum Dei) Regi solique Principibus pro Ecclesiæ Cantuariensis præditi atque juribus audacter resistit, ut irato et offenso saepe Rege de exilio subinde cogitaret; (which he knew he oft deserved.) Ideoque multis Prebendam quam (ut diximus) Lugduni habuit petentibus, respondere solitus est; Se diem illum videre et expectare, quo hinc abiens ibi resideret; (being conscious of his deserved exile.) Quamquam ex Fratrum & Predicatorum ordine prodierit, juris tamen Civilis et Pontificii quam sacrarum Scripturarum fuit peritior; etsi et libros permultos in illa rixosa, garrula & digladiatoria fratrum Theologia concripsit.*

* Lib. Assisarum An. 30 E. 3. pl. 19 Brook Corone 115. & Treason 14. Cooks & Report, Of the Kings Ecclesiastical Law, p. 12.

I finde this Report of a memorable Case in our * Common-Law Books, happening about this time, before the Statute of Carlisle, against Popes Bulls and Provisions; A Subject of this Realm procured a Bull of Excommunication from the Pope against another Subject, and gave notice thereof to the Treasurer of the King; for which offence, le Roy voluyt quil ust esse tray & pendus, the King willed he should be drawn and hanged as a Traytor; & non obstante que le Chancelleur & le Tresorier par luy genuerunt devant le Roy, uncoze par agard il forjura le Roialme, &c. Whence Judge Brooke and Sir Edward Cooke observe, That the bringing in and publishing such Bulls from the Pope, (to the prejudice of the Kings Jurisdiction, and his Subjects vexation) was by the antient Common Law of England adjudged Treason against the King, his Crown and Dignity, for which the offenders should have been drawn and hanged by this Kings award, and opinion in that case; had he not mitigated the penalty upon the Chancellors and Treasurers petition.

The Vicar General of the Spiritualities of the Archbishop of York, during his absence refusing to admit the Kings Clerk to the Church of Dalston in the Diocese of Carlisle, to which the King presented him by reason of the vacancy of that Bishoprick then in his hands, upon an Inquisition found, that the last Bishop had divided that Church into three parts, which those to whom he divided it enjoyed, and so the Church was full and not void; The King thereupon declared, that this division being made without his Royal license or assent, was null and void in Law, tending to his disinheritance, which he neither could nor would admit, and therefore fore notwithstanding the Bishops Ordinance, commanded him to admit his Clerk thereto, without any more delays or excuses; which if he refused, he commanded the Sheriff of Cumberland to take possession of the Church; and sequester the profits thereof till he gave further order therein, by these memorable Writs, evidencing his Sovereign Ecclesiastical authority and Judicature in such cases.

If all Prelates usurping on the Kings prerogative and Courts, had been constantly fined, and their fines duly levyed for the like usurpations, the King and his people had not afterwards been so frequently troubled and vexed by them in England or Ireland.

King Edward out of his Sovereign Ecclesiastical Authority, blinde devotion, and love to his late deceased Confort Queen Alianor, instituted a Solemn Anniversary to be kept for her every year, issuing sums of money, and granting several Mannors, Lands to the Abbot and Convent of Westminster for that end, wherein he prescribed how many Tapers and of what weight they should find, how many and what Masses, Dirges, Pater-Nosters, Ave-Maries they should sing, and what Almes they should distribute to the Poor for her Soul; obliging the Abbot, Prior, and Monks by a solemn Oath duly to perform the same, under pain of forfeiting all their goods, chattels, and the lands thus given to them for this end; as these Records will inform us.

REX Archiepiscopi, &c. salutem. Literas patentes venerabilis patris Antonii Dunolmenfis Episcopi ordinationem per ipsum factam perpetuis temporibus duraturam super Decanatu & Prebendis in Ecclesia de Cestr. sui patronatus & Diocesis, plenarie continentes inspicimus, in hac verba. Universis sanctæ matris Ecclesiæ filiis præsens scriptum visuris vel audituris, Antonius permissione divina Dunolmenfis Episcopus, ad futuram rei memoriam. Plures rituli qui ab uno fonte procedunt aquæ timorem ebacuant, fontis tamen balorem non minuant aut decorem, imo ex se usum producere tanto placidioris fons ipse dinoscitur, quanto pluribus locis arboræ sitis molestia fatigatis effuso gurgite aquæ copiam uberius subministrat. Illa quoque matrona despicabilis non habetur, set potius laude digna, quam et si frequens conceptus extenuet, secunda tamen honorificat procreatio filiorum. Sic utique una Ecclesia sui titulum non perdit honoris, si ex sui habundancia plures beneficiorum solacio consoletur, immo tanto nobilior est censenda, quanto ei deservit ministrorum amplior famulatus. Sanè cum super Ecclesia de Cestr. nostræ Diocesis, quæ nobis pleno jure subicitur utpote ad nostrum spectans patronatum, variis dudum quæstionibus & controversiis emeris inter Dominum Willielmum de Clifford Clericum, se pro Rectore ejusdem Ecclesiæ tunc gerentem, ex parte una, ac Magistrum Alanum de Easingwalde ex altera, asserentem, dictum Walterum per bonæ memoriæ Dominum Robertum prædecessorem nostrum immediatum eadem Ecclesia fuisse & esse sententialiter ex certis & legitimis causis privatum, eamque sibi ab eodem prædecessore nostro canonicè fuisse collatam, sicque varii & diversi processus judiciales tam auctoritate Delegata quam Ordinaria, non absque gravi discrimine, & tam corporum quam animarum periculo fuissent hinc inde diutius agitati. Tandem partes antedictæ coram nobis præfentialiter constitutæ, nolentes tam periculosis licium amfractibus ulterius implicari, submiserunt ordinationi nostræ Ecclesiam illam cum Capellis, terris, fructibus & obventionibus universis ad eandem pertinentibus, & totum jus quod eis compeciit, vel competere potuit in eadem, processibus habitis inter eos renunciantes, expressè promittentes nichilominus se ratum habere quicquid per nos ordinatum, statutum seu provisum fuerit in præmissis, idque perpetuis temporibus inviolabiliter observare. Attendentes igitur prædictæ Ecclesiæ de Cestr. quæ ad nostrum spectare dinoscitur patronatum, parochiam esse diffusam, et probentium redditus habundantes, adeo quod ab plurium sustentationem sufficienti ministrorum, eamque paucos hactenus habuisse servitores, et quo obditi multociens fraudabatur obsequiis, et in ipsius parochia diffusa cura negligebatur dampnabiliter animarum; quæ tamen post Ecclesiam nostram Dunolmensem inter ceteras Ecclesias nostræ Diocesis tipum gerit dignis honoribus extollenda, utpote quam sanctum & reverendum corpus beati Cuthberti patroni nostri, quod per centum & quindecim annos inibi præfentialiter conquevit, quadam prerogativa specialiter insignivit. Considerantes etiam, utilitatem evidentem et motum ad ordinationem subsequentem, videlicet, divini cultus augmentum, et salutis animarum uberiozem profectum, urgentem insuper necessitatem in hac parte propensius ponderantes, quam evidenter perpendimus ex defectu et raritate Jurisperitorum et Consiliatorum in nostra Diocesi, ad quos in magnis & arduis Ecclesia nostra negotiis habere poterit impellente necessitate recursus, de Capitulo nostri Dunolmenfis expresso consensu acceptata submissione prædicta, & circumstantiis universis plenius intellectis: In nomine Domini nostri Jesu Christi, ordinamus in hunc modum; videlicet, quod prædicta Ecclesia de Cestr. extunc collegiata erigatur, et sint in eadem de cætero unus Decanatus et septem Prebendæ: Ita quod Decanus sit perpetuus in ordine Sacerdotali, curam gerens in solidum animarum, et residentiam residenciam ibidem continue faciens personalem, inveniat duos Capellanos idoneos conformes in habitu Vicariis Canonicoz, pro cura huiusmodi sollicitè supportanda, aliosque minores Clericos habeat ad serviendum Ecclesie competerenter omnia ipsius onera ordinaria supportando: Cancellum cum indigerit reficiendo et sustinendo, ad nobis tamen fabricacionis vel constructionis opus minime teneatur. Capellis insuper de Taunfeld & Lameley faciat per Ministros idoneos describi. Ad qua omnia & singula supportanda volumus & firmiter statuimus, quod Decanatus obventiones totius alteragis tam in Ecclesia de Cestr. quam Capellis antedictis, videlicet, mortuarioz, lanæ, agnoz, lactis, vituloz, fenoꝝ, lini, canabi, gallinarum, aucarum, porcelloz, et omnium minutarum personalium decimarum, una cum redditu et Curia tenenciam Ecclesie in Villa de Cestr. et de Walrigg. et tota terra Dominica de Hernerton totaliter applicentur. Mesuagia etiam ad predictas Capellas de Lameley & de Taunfeld spectantia, cum curiis & terris suis Dominici eidem Decanatu assignavimus, hoc excepto, quod utriusque loci Prabendarii habebunt quandam portionem seu partem Curia arbitrio nostro limitandam, in qua poterunt competenter reponere suabladam. Habeat etiam Decanus piscariam in Ripa de Were, et decimam piscariz. Ad hæc quilibet Prabendariorum qui tres primas habent, Prabendas inveniat suis sumptibus unum Vicarium Capellani, et de aliis quatuor residuis, singuli habeant Vicarium Diaconum in ipsa Ecclesia ministrantes in habitu Canonicali, et modum psallendi teneant secundum morem Ecclesie Ebor. vel Sarum. Singuli autem sint rectorarii in suo statu secundum ordinem vicis suæ iuxta dispositionem Decani, qui sicut in cura parochiali, sic in hijs quæ ad divinum spectant officium ordinet, corrigat, choꝝum regat et disponat, ac etiam in hijs puniat transgressores. Statutinas quoque mane diet propter parochianos volumus et mandamus. Et ne discordiam pariat communitas, set singuli suis finibus sint contenti, Prabendas illas taliter duximus distinguendas; videlicet, quod ad primam Prabendam pertineant decimæ prædiales universæ de magna Lumeley, parva Lumeley, Lampton, Wodesende, ac etiam decimæ minæ carbonum. Ad secundam Prabendam de Lameley, Kibblesworth, Ravenesworth, Dervecrok, Hedley, Ladesheved, terra de Fugers, Raveneshelm, & Northuses. Ad tertiam de Pelton, Pokeley, Pelawe, Piketre, Tribeley, Edmansley, Steresley, & Nettelwrth. Ad quartam de Cestr. & Withill. Ad quintam de Caunfeld, Lince, Crok, Taunfeldley, Stanley, Stanley Hall, Caldesete, & de Steles. Ad sextam de Birtley, Herverton, Mora, & de Harden. Ad septimam de Urpath, Ulkestan, & de Twysles. Totum autem residuum parochie de Cestr. videlicet, decimas prædiales de Planworth & de Walrigg, & omnium vasorum tam in haya quam alibi in eadem parochia redigendorum ad culturam commune, residenciam assignamus, & inter ipsos duntaxat aqualiter dividantur, qui per tres menses ad minus in anno continuè, vel interpellatim in Ecclesia ipsa residenciam fecerint personalem: Ita quod in festo Sancti Martini in hyeme, & in festo Pentecostes fiat eorumdem proventuum communium distributio. Et qui pro medietate temporis antedicti personaliter residuerint, pro rata medietatis huiusmodi distributionem percipiant proportionaliter de communia, de residuo temporis illius nichil penitus percepturi, nisi omnes ejus partes integraliter compleverint residendo. Ordinamus insuper, quod decima pars porcionis cujuslibet non residentis, residentibus assignetur, et si nullam residere contigerit, huiusmodi partes decimæ in usus Ecclesie, vel in usus pauperum degencium infra limites Prabendarum nonresidentium convertantur. Area autem Ecclesia ad inhabitandum inter Decanum & tres Prabendarios primos juxta nostrum arbitrium dividatur. Ne etiam de ordine sedendi vel procedendi contencio oriatur, statuimus, ut post primum stallum ex parte australi, (quod nobis & successoribus nostris in signum præeminentie specialiter reservamus) Prabendarius prima Prabenda optineat primum locum. Prabendarius tertia Prabenda optineat secundum. Prabendarius quinta, tertium. Prabendarius septima, quartum. Ex parte vero boreali Decanus Ecclesie optineat primum locum. Prabendarius secunda Prabenda secundum locum. Prabendarius quarta, tertium; & Prabendarius sexta Prabenda quartum; & eundem ordinem observent invicem in procedendo. Hanc autem ordinacionem concurrente consensu Capituli nostri, ad honorem Dei et Ecclesie Christi factam, statuimus perpetuis temporibus inoblabiliter observandam, auctoritate, dignitate et potestate Ecclesie nostre Dunolmenis et successorum nostrorum in omnibus semper salvis. From which 3. Charters I shall observe, 1. That the King, this Bishop and other founders of Chantries in that age, took special care to oblige Deans, Prebends, Priests, Masters and Chaplains not only by their Charters, covenants, but also by solemn promissory Oathes to constant personal residence on their Cures, and the diligent discharge of their pastoral duties, which yet notwithstanding they were apt to neglect. 2ly. That they particularly prescribed, both what and how many Masses, prayers, Tapers, Alms, divine or superstitious Services they should perform for the benefit of their own and others souls departed, whereof our Kings had then the Sovereign Charge, care, for which they made special provisions by their Charters both for that and succeeding ages; as these, with all other their Charters for erecting, endowing, or confirming of Bishopricks, Monasteries, Chappels, Churches or Chantries abundantly evidence.

King Edward the 1. for the peace, quiet, good Government and encouragement of Scholars and learning in the University of Cambridge, this year ratified all former Charters

Charters granted to them by his Father King Henry the 3. and former Orders and agreements made between them and the Mayor and Townsmen of Cambridge for that end, by this his Royal Charter; evidencing the great care our Kings had to protect, advance, encourage Scholars and learning in our Universities, and keep the Townsmen from exacting on them in any kinde.

REX Archiepiscopi, &c. salutem. Inspeximus literas patentes quas Dominus H. quondam Rex Angliæ pater noster fecit Universitati Scholarium Cantabr. in hac verba. Henricus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, Dominus Hybernix, & Dux Aquitanix, Omnibus Ballivis & fidelibus suis ad quos presentes literæ pervenerint, salutem. Sciat, quod ad pacem et tranquillitatem, necnon ad utilitatem Universitatis Scholarium Cantabr. prohibimus et concessimus, quod duo Aldermanni fiant in Cantabrigia, & quatuor de discretioribus & legalioribus Burgensibus ejusdem Villa associantur ipsis Aldermannis, qui omnes jurent fidelitatem, & sint assistentes & consulentes Majori & Ballivis nostris Cantabr. ad pacem nostram conservandam, & ad assisas prædictæ Villa custodiend. & ad investigandum malefactores & perturbatores pacis nostræ, & vagabundos de nocte, & receptatores latronum & malefactorum, et corporale præstent Sacramentum, quod omnia prædicta fideliter observabunt. In qualibet autem parochia Villa Cantabr. fiat duo homines electi de legalioribus parochianis, & jurati, quod in qualibet quindena inquirent ne quis suspectus hospitetur in parochia, & si aliquis receptaverit aliquem per tres noctes in domo sua, respondeat pro eo. Nullus etiam receptarius emat victualia in villa Cantabr. vel extra versus villam viciniam, nec aliquid emat ut iterum vendat, ante horam terciam, & si fecerit, amercietur secundum quantitatem & qualitatem delicti. Si vero Laicus inferat Clerico grabamen vel enormem læsionem, statim capiatur: et si magna sit læsio, incarceration in villa ipsa, et ibi detineatur quousque Clerico rationabiliter fuerit satisfactum. Si autem Clericus inferat grabamen vel enormem læsionem Laico, incarceration in prædicta villa quousque Cancellarius Universitatis ipsum postulaverit. Pistores, Braciautores Cantabr. in primo transgressu suo amercientur, in secundo, panem amittant vel cervisiam, in tercio transgressu habeant judicium de Pillorio vel Tumberello. Quilibet Pistor habeat sigillum suum, & signet panem suum per quod possit cognosci cujus panis sit; quod si non fecerit, graviter amercietur. Quicumque de villa Cantabr. braciaverit ad vendendum, exponat signum suum, alioquin amittat cervisiam. Vina Cantabr. communiter vendantur & indifferenter tam Clericis quam Laicis ex quo imbrochiata fuerint. Temptatio panis fiat bis in anno, videlicet in quindena post festum Sancti Michaelis, & circa festum Sanctæ Mariæ in Marcio. Et Assisa cervisia fiat eisdem terminis secundum valorem bladi & brasie. Et quotiescunque debeat fieri temptatio panis & cervisia, interfuit Cancellarius prædictæ Universitatis, vel aliqui ex parte sua ad hoc deputati, si super hoc requisiti interesse voluerint, quod si non interfuerint, nec super hoc requisiti fuerint, nihil valeat temptatio prædicta. Præterea volumus quod villa Cantabr. à sordibus mundetur & munda teneatur, & quod aquaductus aperiantur sicut antequam esse solebant, ac aperti custodiantur, ut per eos sordes affluere possint, nisi alia necessitas aut utilitas obsteterit; & quod alia obstacula transitum impediencia amoveantur, & præcipue ut magnum fossatum ville mundetur: Ad quæ observanda ordinentur duo Burgenses ex legalioribus in quolibet dico jurati coram Majore et Ballivis, Cancellario et Magistris ad hoc requisitis, si venire voluerint. In cuius rei testimonium has literas nostras fieri fecimus patentes. Teste meipso apud Westm. vicesimo secundo die Febr. anno Regni nostri quinquagesimo secundo. Inspeximus etiam literas patentes quas idem Rex pater noster fecit Cancellario & Scholaribus Cantabr. in hac verba. Henricus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, Dominus Hybernix, & Dux Aquitanix, Omnibus Ballivis & fidelibus suis salutem. Sciat, quod ob honorem Dei et Ecclesiæ sacrosanctæ, necnon et commoquum et communem utilitatem Scholarium in Principio Cantabr. studencium, concessimus Cancellario & Scholaribus prædictis, & eorum successoribus ibidem studentibus, Quod omnes domus ejusdem villæ quas Scholares prædictos inhabitare contigerit, per duos Magistros et duos Burgenses ejusdem villæ secundum rationabilem taxationem, de cætero taxantur de quinquennio in quinquennium. Et ideo vobis mandamus, quod prædictis Cancellario et Scholaribus contra hanc concessionem nostram impedimentum, molestiam aut grabamen non inferatis, vel aliquibus inferri permittatis. In cuius rei testimonium has literas nostras fieri fecimus patentes. Teste meipso apud Westm. sexto die Feb.

Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, Dominus Hyberniz, & Dux Aquitaniz, Omnibus Ballivis & fidelibus suis ad quos presentes litera pervenerint salutem. Quia Ballivi & Burgenses nostri Cantabr. non solum negligentes existunt, verum etiam impotentes ad malefactorum insolencias, et alia Magistris et Scholaribus Universitatis ejusdem Willz nociva modo debito reprimenda, per quod sicut pro certo intelleximus, contingit dictos Magistros et Scholares multociens impediri, ita quod actus scholasticos in quiete studentibus maxime necessaria nequeunt exercere; Nos dictorum Magistrorum et Scholarum tranquillitati et paci prospicere cupientes, volumus et precipimus, quod Vicecomites Com. Cantabr. qui pro tempore fuerint, quando Ballivi aut Burgenses predicti negligentes vel impotentes inventi fuerint in premissis, hujusmodi malefactores, ac pacis nostræ dictæque Universitatis turbatores, cum sufficienti posse Com. prædicti, si necesse fuerit, ab hujusmodi præsumptionibus temerariis penitus destituisse, et prædicta nociva reprimi faciant, cum ex parte Universitatis prædictæ inde fuerint requisiti. Ita quod dicti Magistri et Scholares ibidem studiis liberalibus applicati, sub protectione manus nostræ oblati liberius prospicere valeant incrementis. Inspeimus etiam literas patentes quas idem Rex pater noster fecit Magistris et ceteris Scholaribus Universitatis ejusdem Willz, in hac verba. H. Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, Dominus Hyberniz, & Dux Aquitaniz, Omnibus ad quos presentes litera pervenerint salutem. Quia dilectis nobis in Christo Magistris et ceteris Scholaribus Universitatis Cantabr. per Comites, Barones, Milites, & alios torneamenta ibidem exercantes, aventuras querentes & ad arma euntes, frequenter solent pericula et incommoda multipliciter evenire, quæ si tollerarentur, in discordium itidem studentium per processum temporis cedere possent manifeste, quod sustineri nolumus sicut nec debemus: Nos indemnitati Magistrorum et Scholarum prædictorum volentes in hac parte, quatenus fieri poterit prohibere; Concessimus eis de gratia nostra speciali, quod torneamenta aliqua, aventura, Justiz, seu hujusmodi basiliudia non fiant de cetero in villa prædicta, seu per quinque miliaria circumquaque. Et prohibemus super grobem regniæ nostræ, ne quis de Regno nostro apud villam prædictam, seu alibi infra prædicta miliaria circumquaque torneare, justas facere, seu aventuras, vel alia basiliudia querere præsumat contra concessionem nostram prædictam. EDwardus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, Dominus Hiberniæ, & Dux Aquitanix, omnibus hac visuris, salutem. Inspeximus quendam privilegia in tertio bullata, non cancellata, non abolita, nec in aliqua sui parte viciata, ex parte Religiosorum virorum Abbatis & Conventus Majoris Monasterii Turonensis nobis exhibita, formam quæ sequitur continencia.

Innocentius Episcopus servus servorum Dei, dilectis filiis Abbati & Conventui Majoris Monasterii Turonensis, ad Romanam Ecclesiam nullo mediantes spectantis, salutem & Apostolicam benedictionem. Cum nuper duxerimus statuendum, ut exempti quantacunque gaudeant libertate, nichilominus tamen ratione delicti, seu contractus, aut rei de qua agitur contra ipsos, esse possint coram locorum Ordinariis conveniri, et illi quo ad hoc summi in ipsos jurisdictionem prout sus erigit exercere.

recercere. Vos habitantes, ne per Constitutionem huiusmodi libertatibus et immunitatibus, ac iuribus vobis et membris vestris, privilegiis et indulgentiis ab Apostolica sede concessis præiudicari valeant: Nobis humiliter supplicastis, ut prævidere super hac indempnitati vestra paternam sollicitudine curaremus. Quia verò Monasterii sacra religio sic vos apud nos favore dignos constituit, ut nobis votivum existat, vos ab omnibus per quæ vobis possent provenire dispendia immunes libenter aut no præservare, auctoritate vobis præsentium indulgemus, ut occasione Constitutionis huiusmodi nullam eisdem libertatibus et immunitatibus, ac iuribus imponeretur præiudicium generetur. Nulli ergo omnino hominum liceat hanc paginam nostræ concessionis infringere, vel ei ausu temerario contraire. Si quis autem hoc attemptare præsumperit, indignationem omnipotentis Dei, & beatorum Petri & Pauli Apostolorum ejus se noverit incursum. Dat. Lugduni 3 Idus Aprilis, Pontificatus nostri anno octavo.

Alexander Episcopus servus servorum Dei, dilectis filiis Abbati & Conventui Majoris Monasterii Thronensis, ad Romanam Ecclesiam nullo modo pertinentis, Ordinis Sancti Benedicti, salutem & Apostolicam benedictionem. Laudabilis religio qua in Monasterio vestro colitur, sic ab eo mundana dissolutio relegavit illecebras, ut inter alia claustralis abstinencia nexibus religatum, observancia puritate fulgeat regularis, & voluntatis libitum coartans, omnino sub obedientia debito dignam & sedulam exhibeat Domino servitium; unde tanquam potiori devotionis praminiens attolli jandudum exemptionis privilegio meruit, & voluit sanctitatis eminentia præsignitum nonnullis diversarum gratiarum titulis honorari. Cum itaque in privilegiis ipsius Monasterii continetur expresse, sicut nos ipsi ex inspectione ipsorum privilegiorum collegimus, ne quaquam Archiepiscopus aut Episcopus beati Martini Majus Monasterium, aut ipsius majoris Monasterii Monachos pro ulla causa, nullo in loco excommunicare præsumat, ac antea Priores et Monachi vestri, sive in ipso Monasterio, sive in ipsius Prioratus conmoventur et membris, in eodem Monasterio prent assertis professionem emittant, et ad voluntatem Abbatis ipsius Monasterii qui est pro tempore mittantur ad Prioratus et membra eadem moraturi meo, et ab ipso Abbate cum ei placuerit, ad idem Monasterium rebocentur, et conventiens sit ut qui eidem Monasterio pari se in illo professione alligant, eadem gaudere debeant libertate. Nos vestris devotis supplicationibus inclinati, ut universi Priores & Monachi predicti ubicunque fuerint, gaudeant & usantur libere privilegiis, indulgentiis, libertatibus, immunitatibus, & gratiis quibus gaudent & utantur Monachi in ipso Monasterio commorantes, constitutione seu declaratione felicitis recordationis Innocentii Papa prædecessoris nostri, circa exemptos edita, vel quibilibet aliis statutis seu declarationibus factis et promulgatis ab Apostolica sede ad instantiam quorumcunque, et quibuscunque litteris Apostolicis per quoscunque obtentis nequaquam obstantibus, auctoritate vobis præsentium de speciali gratia indulgemus. Nos enim Interdicti, Excommunicationis et Suspensionis sententias et processus, si quos in vos et Monasterium vestrum, vel Prioratus aut Monachos prædictos, seu Prioratus et membra vestra contra præsentis indulti tenorem per quoscunque ferri vel haberi contigerit, irritos decernimus et inanes. Nulli ergo omnino hominum liceat hanc paginam nostræ concessionis & constitutionis infringere, vel ei ausu temerario contraire. Si quis autem hoc attemptare præsumperit, indignationem omnipotentis Dei, & beatorum Petri & Pauli Apostolorum ejus se noverit incursum. Dat. Viterbii 6 Idus Novembris, Pontificatus nostri anno tertio.

Nota.

Thus one Popes Bull contradicted, and then repealed, or explained another, to gain monies from their exempt Monasteries, Abbots and Monks upon all occasions; who could not endure to be subject to any Archiepiscopal or Episcopal Jurisdiction.

The Pope granting the Bishop and Freers of the Hospital of St. Maries of Bethlem, Bulls and Indulgences to collect Almes for the relief of the poor and infirm in their Hospitals, in divers parts of the world; the King out of his charity and Royal authority granted them this Protection, License, and Patent of assistance to collect and receive the Almes of his Subjects within the Realm, and to seise and punish all false Collectors thereof, not authorized by them.

De corde Regis Henrici liberato Abbatisa Fontis Ebraldi ad sepeliendum in Monasterio suo.

What inrodes, entroachments the Bishops, Clergymen, and their Officials this year made upon the Kings Crown, prerogative Royal, and Temporal Courts of Justice, by holding Pleas of Chartels and Debris which concerned not Marriage and Testament, and likewise of Advowsons and Freeholds, against the Kings Prohibitions to them, how contemptuously they proceeded to excommunicate those who delivered the Kings prohibitions to them, to restrain their encroachments, and to imprison them by Capias Excommunicatims, notwithstanding the Kings Prohibitions; and how zealous the King, his Judges, Subjects were to oppose these their encroachments, usurpations, and contempts against the Kings Crown, Dignity, Courts Prohibitions, and his Subjects liberties, will appear by these ensuing Writs, actions, suits against them both by the parties grieved, and by the King himself, (the Originals and returns whereof, endorsed on them, I rescued out of the rubbish in the White Tower Chappel,) and by the Plea Rolls Anno 20 E. 1. which I shall here present you with.

Edwardus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, Dominus Hiberniæ, & Dux Aquitaniæ, Vic. Linc. salutem. Pone per vadum & salvos Plegios Oliverum Episcopum Linc. quod sit coram Justiciariis nostris apud Westm. à die Sancti Hillarii in xv dies, & ibi habeas R. I finde another suit brought by the Abbot of Battle, for 40 s. lent by his prede-

 Domini Regis nunc quinto, in Curia Romana apud Lugdun. mutuavit a quodam Abbate de Bello prædecessore nunc Abbatis quadraginta solidos, pro negotiis prædicti Wlwardi in prædicta Curia promovendis et expediendis, solvend. eidem antecessori, &c. ad festum Purificationis beate Mariæ proximo sequens in Angliā apud Abbatiam de Baraile, prædictus Wlwardus ad terminum prædictum prædicto Abbati eosdem solidos non solvit. Et licet sæpius per Abbatem nunc requisitus esset prædictam pecuniam sol-vend. illam solvere contradicit; unde dicit, quod deterioratus est & dampnum habet ad valenciam quadraginta solidorum: et inde producit sectam; & profert quoddam scriptum sub nomine ipsius VVlwardi factum apud Lugdun. quod prædictum debitum testatur solvendum in Angliā, &c. Et VVlwardus per attornatum suum venit & defendit vim & injuriam quando, &c. Et dicit, quod non debet de aliquo debito respondere.
 Dicit enim quod ipse Abbas petit prædictam pecuniam tanquam sibi ipsi debitam, & per narrationem suam dicit mutuatam fuisse de quodam Abbate prædecessore suo, per quod sibi videtur quod illud verbum in brevi contentum Abbati qui nunc est deservire non potest.
 Immo de injuste detinet tantum, & petit judicium de breve. Præterea, prædictus VVlwardus non recedens ab ipsa exceptione, immo ea sibi salva dicit, quod per prædictum scriptum etiam patet, quod prædictus contractus factus fuit apud Lugdun. super Ro-

de Deulacres, ratione disseisinæ prædictæ, &c. Et unde idem Custos dixit, quod quidam Robertus de Chetelton antecessor prædicti hæredis tempore pacis tempore 7. Regis nunc præsentavit quendam Petrum Clericum suum ad prædictam Ecclesiam, qui ad præsentationem suam fuit admissus & institutus, & ultimo obiit persona in eadem, per cuius mortem prædicta Ecclesia tunc vacavit, & adhuc vacat, &c. Et de ipso Roberto descendit jus præsentationis Willielmo ut filio & hæredi. Et de ipso Willielmo quia obiit sine hærede de se, descendit jus præsentationis, &c. cuidam Hugoni ut fratri & hæredi; & de prædicto Hugone descendit jus præsentationis, &c. cuidam Roberto ut filio & hæredi, qui fuit infra ætatem & adhuc est.

Abbas tunc venit & dixit, quod non debuit ei inde ad hoc breve respondere, quia dixit, quod prædicta Ecclesia non vacavit, immo est plena et consultata de ipso Abbate et Conventu suo qui eam tenent in proprios usus, et tenuerunt jam quadrag. annis elapsis. Et hoc parati sumus verificare, sicut Curia consideraverit. Et ad verificationem, Justiciarius protulit quandam Cartam sub nomine cuiusdam Hugonis antecessoris (Richardi) quæ testatur quod prædictus Hugo dedit & concessit Abbati & Conventui de Deulacres prædictam advocacionem prædictæ Ecclesiæ.

Nicholaus dixit, quod prædictus Abbas non debuit ad aliquam verificationem inde admitti, quia dixit, quod post mortem prædicti Petri personæ ultimæ prædictæ Ecclesiæ, Abbas prædecessor prædicti Abbatis de Deulacres in prædictam Ecclesiam se intrusit tempore quo prædictus Willielmus filius prædicti Henrici fuit infra ætatem, & in custodia Henrici de Aldingley, qui per suam negligentiam permisit prædictum Abbatem intrare prædictam Ecclesiam, unde petit Judicium, si per prædictam intrusionem debeat inde à præsentatione sua impediri, &c.

Abbas dixit sicut prius dixit, quod prædicta Ecclesia plena fuit & consultata de ipso & Conventu suo ut prædictum est; Et hoc paratus est verificare sicut Curia consideraverit, scilicet per Ordinarium ejusdem loci, &c. Postea à die Sancti Hilarii in 15 dies anno Regis nunc decimo octavo, venerunt partes, & nichil aliud dixerunt quam quod prius dixerunt. Ideo Abbas & Nicholaus si voluerit, habeat breve ad Episcopum Covenrentensem & Lychfeldensem, quod constare faciat Justiciariis hic a die Pasche in quindecim dies, si prædicta Ecclesia sit vacans, vel non? Et si non sit vacans, de quo et ad cuius præsentationem pacis tempore plena fuerit, &c? Ad quem diem Episcopus nichil inde fecit, nec breve misit. Et tunc sicut prius præceptum est Episcopo quod convocatis, &c. diligenter inquireret in forma prædicta; & quid inquisierit constare faciat hic in Octabis Sanctæ Trinitatis proximo sequens per literas, &c. Et Episcopus esset, &c. Ad quem diem misit Episcopus literas suas minus sufficienter factas, eo quod mandavit, quod prædicta Ecclesia de Chetelton de Religiosis præfatis non est plena nec consultata iusto titulo, sed per eosdem per intrusionem triginta annos & amplius occupata, &c. Ad quem diem præceptum fuit Episcopo sicut pluries quod convocatis, &c. diligenter inquireret in forma prædicta. Et quid inde invenerit constare faceret hic à die Sancti Martini in quindecim dies proximo sequentes, &c. Ad quem diem Episcopus mandavit, quod prædicti Religiosi de Deulacres post mortem cuiusdam Rogeri quondam personæ prædictæ Ecclesiæ qui obventiones ejusdem Religiosis concessit tota vita sua pro sustentatione sua habenda in eadem domo, hucusque continuaverunt possessionem ejusdem Ecclesiæ, absque aliquo iusto titulo, propter quod idem Episcopus Ecclesiam illam vacantem de jure ac vacuam reputavit. Et quia idem Episcopus tunc non certificavit Justiciariis hic prædictæ, si prædicta Ecclesia sit vacans, vel non? Ideo mandatum fuit ei sicut pluries quod convocatis, &c. diligenter inquireret, & constare faceret Justiciariis hic ad hunc diem expresse & prædictæ, si prædicta Ecclesia sit vacua, vel non? Et Episcopus sic fecit, &c. Et modo venit prædictus Nicholaus, & similiter prædictus Abbas per Attornatos suos. Et Episcopus super hoc misit literas suas parentes certificadorias quæ testantur, quod cum idem Episcopus esset in exequendo mandatum Domini Regis, (sicut decuit) reberenter, postrata fuit ei Inhibitione Offic. Curie Canthuarie per quendam Monachum prædictæ Abbatis, cuius prætextu ulterius non processit hucusque, sed supersedit propter Inhibitionem illam per prædictos Monachos ei delibetam, &c. Et quia prædictus Abbas allegavit, prædictam Ecclesiam plenam esse & consultam de ipso Abbate & Conventu suo, qui illam tenent in proprios usus; & hoc paratus fuit verificare coram loci Ordinario; Et idem Abbas per prædictam Inhibitionem ipso Episcopo postratam, prætextu cuius idem Episcopus ad verificationem prædictam procedere non potuit, liberabit, renuntians verificationi super bacatione Ecclesiæ prædictæ, quam prius dixit. Consideratum est quod procedatur ad assisam, &c. Et dictum est prædicto Abbati, quod dicat ad verificationem Assisæ si sibi, &c. Et Abbas dicit, quod prædictus hæres nihil Juris clamare potest in prædicta Advocatione, quia dicit, Quod quidam Hugo antecessor prædicti hæredis, & per medium cuius, &c. dedit, concessit, & Carta sua confirmavit Deo, & beatæ Maria, & Abbati & Conventui de Deulacres, totum Jus & Clameum quod habuit in Advocatione & Patronatu Ecclesiæ de Chetelton; & quod concessit, quod prædicti Abbas & Conventus prædictam Ecclesiam cum omnibus pertinentiis & libertatibus suis habeant & possideant, liberè & quietè, purè & pacificè, sicut ad Ecclesiam suam de Leks pertinentem. Et quod ipse & hæredes sui warrantizab. &c. Et proferit quandam Cartam sub nomine prædicti Hugonis, quæ hoc testatur. Unde petit Judicium, &c.

An. 20 E. 1.

Et Nicholaus petit, quod procedatur ad Assisam, secundum quod prius consideratum; quia dicit, non est suum respondere præfata Cartæ, &c. Et prædictus Abbas quaeritus, si prædictus Robertus de Chetelton antecessor prædicti hæredis ultimo præsentavit, &c. vel non? Dicit, quod ad hoc non vult respondere, &c. Ideo cap. Assisa; sed ponitur in respectum usque à die Sancti Johannis Baptista in 15. dies, pro defectu recognitionis, quia nullus venit. Ideo Vicecomes habeat corpora, &c.

Postea ad diem illum venerunt partes, & similiter recogn. præfata Assisa. Et eidem Abbati allocatis calumpniis suis versus quamplures Recogn. quæ fuerunt allocandæ, & quæ non per Sacramentum adnihilatæ; processum est ad Assisam, &c.

Juratores dicunt super Sacramentum suum, quod prædictus Robertus de Chetelton, & antecessor prædicti hæredis cuius, &c. tempore pacis, tempore prædicti Domini 7. Regis, ultimo præsentavit prædictum Petrum Clericum suum, qui ad præsentationem suam fuit admissus & institutus, & ultimò obiit persona in eadem à patrono præsentata. Et quaeriti, quantum temporis lapsum sit post mortem ipsius Petri? Dicunt, quod decem anni, et amplius, &c. Et quia convictum est per assisam istam, quod prædictus Robertus antecess. hæred. &c. ultimo præsentavit, ut superius patet; Consideratum est, quod prædictus Custos nomine prædicti hæredis recuperet præsentationem suam ad prædictam Ecclesiam. Et habeat Breve Episcopo Covenren, & Lychefeld, quod ad præsentationem prædicti Custodis, ad prædictam Ecclesiam, idoneam personam admittat; Et Abbas in misericordia, &c.

By which case we may discern. First, how many unjust, fraudulent tricks and devices these pretended Religious Abbots and Monks then had, to deprive infants and others of their rights of patronage unto Churches, by intrusions and pretended appropriations; 2ly, what dilatory pleas and fraudulent inhibitions unbecoming Christians, much lesse religious Votaries, they used to prevent, retard their recovery of their rights by Legal suits and processe in the Kings Courts, when they could not ingrosse the consuance of them into their own Ecclesiastical Courts, as they frequently endeavoured; which would soon have deprived all Lay-Patrons of their Advousons, had their Titles been never so clear or legal. * See Here, p. 268, 439.

The Bishop of Rochester presenting and instituting Robert Esfre the Kings Chaplain to the Church of Woldeham, then found to be void by Walter the Parsons entry into Religion in the Church of Rochester, which he exchanged for the Church of Henlee afterwards appropriated to the Bishop and his successors, the said Walter casting off his Monks habit, and vexing the said Robert so as he was in danger to lose the said Living; the King thereupon writ to the present Bishop of Rochester to do him right against the said Walter, and to restore him to the Church out of which he had forcibly ejected him: whereupon the Bishop admonished Walter to remove the force out of the Church, and deliver the possession thereof to Robert Esfre, excommunicating him for not doing it; who, contemning his Mandate and Excommunication, procured an inhibition to him out of the Court of Canterbury to which he had appealed, not to act any thing to Walters prejudice pending his appeal: whereupon the Bishop made this Certificate to the King of his proceedings therein, desiring his Majesty

The Chancellor employing one of his Clerks and Creatures to carry the Popes Bulls and Kings Writs into Ireland for levying a Disme and Quindism there for the King, he rendred this account to him of his voyage thither and proceedings there- in, by these Letters which I found in the White Tower, being blamed (as it seems) for his negligence in that affair.

Venerabili in Christo patri suoque charissimo Domino, suus Clericus quem creavit, salutem, & cum promptitudine serviendi in servitute continua se paratum. Ecce (amantissime Domine) quam gravis afflictio additur mihi afflicto, ultra id quod impetivimus vobis scripsi; Statim siquidem postquam de vobis veni Bristoll. & veni commoditatem perceperim cum Bullis quas traditis mihi didistis, ut eos perpetuari facerem, ne per mortem Papæ, quæ fortassis contingeret, earum retardaretur prosecutio vel effectus; fere solus & nudus, quia navis quam pro me & familia mea conduxeram ex toto non extitit preparata, cum festinatione omnimoda versus Hiberniam properavi, spe credens firmissima indignationem Regis per hoc totaliter effugisse, et ex eo gratias reportasse. Verumptamen, quia quamplurima Brevia Deciman et Quintadeciman tangentia, una cum mea familia & aliis rebus meis post me transvehend. quamtocius ut sperabam, Bristoll. dimisi; quæ omnia Brevia, tam ex abrupto progrediens, mecum salbo ducere non valebam, nec ipsa sicut ceteras res meas nondum acceperim, nisi vestra benignitas me dignetur prospicere, in id incidere dubito quod plene credidi evasisse, & pro gratiis earum (quod absit) contrarium incurrisse. Ne forsitan credatur & per sinistros aliquos sibiillatores nostro Domino Regi suggeratur, quod Quintadecimæ prosecutio sit neglecta, licet ipsa ut spero effectualiter fuerit retardata. Expediens siquidem non foret, quod illud injunctum michi nuncium inchoassem, donec quamplurimum Hibern. Incolarum in proterbitate induratos et involuntarios animos ad majorem affectum versus Dominum Regem piis operibus necnon verbis attraxerim allectibus. Etiam & si Quintadecimam præsent. bonorum suorum conceperint citra festum Purif. beatæ Mariæ, quæ quidem concessio citius fieri non possit de hujusmodi concessione Dom. noster Rex respectu lucrum modicum reportaret. Utilis igitur hujus rei non inchoata dilatio me potius immunem debet à culpa servare, quam precipitatio immatura culpæ. Pie pater, quia Brevia saepeata & fere omnia bona mea dubio naufragio fore deperdita, Petrum de Abyndon latorem presentium vobis misi pro nobis Brebibus impetrandis, prout vobis si placet, sicut cetera me tangentia dicet plenius oreturus. Et quia Dominus Robertus Bagot & quamplures alii de Consilio Regis in Hibern. me rogantur pro eodem, quod sibi committerem custodiam Rotulorum et Brebium Regis de Banco Dublin. asserentes me hoc facere posse, id tamen nolui, vestris consensu & licentia irrequisitis; absit enim, quod absque vestro precepto, quid hujusmodi facerem vel aliud quodcunque, quod contra vestram cederet voluntatem. In veritate ipsum reputo discretum, fidelem, & valde prudentem, & talis laudabili testimonio comprobatur. Altissimus vos in prosperitate continua semper salvet. Dat. apud Dublin. die Luna prox. post festum Sanctæ Lucie.

Reverendo in Christo Patri, suoque amantissimo Domino, sua creatura, salutem, ibidem: & se cum quanto poteris obsequio & honore in continua servitute. Die Lune in Quindena Sancti Hillar. ad quem Barones & Magnates Hibern. necnon fidelis communitas ejusdem, ipsi duntaxat qui sunt de libertatibus certis ex causis exceptis, apud Dublin. vocati existerant, ipsorum majorum animis, ad obtemperand. in omnibus voluntati Domini nostri Regis prius inductis, eidem Baronibus et Magnatibus, Militibus et cæteris de communitate tunc ibidem presentibus; nuncium exposuit de Quintadecima michi injunctum. Quo exposito, omnes Hiberniæ fere Majores ipsam Quintadecimam concesserunt in forma subscripta; videlicet, Quod à prestatione & taxatione ejusdem deducantur eorum Arma; Equitatura, generis cujuscunque Utensilia, necnon eorum Thesauri & Garderoba. Ceteri vero de vulgo & plures Magnates post immensas altercationes habitas inter ipsos, asseruerunt se guerris quotidianis gravari, et ex eo, quamplurimum ære alieno. Propter quod nisi & ipsorum debita, quæ debent, similiter deducantur, vel in tantum exonerentur versus suos Creditores, quantum solvent de Debitis illis Quintadecima nomine, ipsam nullo modo præstabunt. Gratanter etiam & unanimiter concedentes quod Quintadecimam de debitis quæ eis debentur persolvent. Quocirca paternitati vestra placeat (Reverende) istius concessionis formam exponere Domino nostro Regi, ut sua Excellentia michi libeat demandare, quid de præmissis duxerit ordinand. De eo maxime, utrum sibi placeat, quod de istius Anni nunc bonis apparentibus Quintadecima persolvatur; an ipsius actio usque in Annum futurum proximo differatur, quod magis videtur meo iudicio expedire. Enimvero præsentis Anni bona sunt fere consumpta. Dignetur etiam Dominus noster Rex

An. 20. 1. terminos ordinare quibus Quintadecima debet solvi. Assenserunt enim predicti Hibernie Isola in concessione ejusdem Quintadecime, quod ipsam nisi diffusis terminis aliquantulum solvere non possunt propter duo; unum, quia pauperes; aliud, si ex praematura et calerit exactione ejusdem pauperiores efficiantur, citius sui inimici infideles Hibernici eis assidue machinantes, subdolis incurribus ipsos forsitan inbadent, depiment et confundent. Pie pater, negotia me plura tangencia Magister Henricus de Raglelator presentium vobis (si placet) refert viva voce: in quorum aliquibus dicimini manus correctionis apponere, & alia vestra benignitate auxilium impertiri. Sicut vobis idem Magister refert qualiter & quomodo negotium de Decima Clericorum praestanda inchoavi, & quibus vigiliis & diligentia tam praestitum negotium quam istud studio & insisto ad effectum salicem perducere & optatum. Pro certo (reverende Pater) offerre poteris Domino nostro Regi, quod Dominus David de Effington bonus & fidus amicus habetens a tempore adventus mei in Hibern. exitit in praemissis, necnon ceteris omnibus qua sibi injunxi ex parte predicti nostri Domini facienda; sed ultra omnes quos in Hibernia sum expertus, Archiepiscopus Cassell. et immensis fidelitate et assidue ne quas gerit erga Dominum nostrum Regem est merito commendandus. Quia, si placet, eidem nostro Domino referatis, ut predictus Dominus David ab indignatione quam adhuc ignorat incurrisse mandetur; & predictus Archiepiscopus grates ex suis benemeritis valeat reportare. Vos in prosperitate Altissimus semper salvet.

In the same Bundle of Writs of Privy Seal and Letters this year, I finde this memorable case related in a Letter concerning a devise of a Messuage in London to a Chauntry, and the probat thereof in that age, with the opposition made against it by the heir who brought an Assise of Mortdauancester, because the Testator died before his Seal was put unto it; which suit the Author of this Letter endeavoured to engage the Chancellor to supersede, and make the Will inviolable.

Litter & Brevia Regia
de privato sigillo, Anno

Salutem & se totum. Quia Johannes de Hakeburn. quoddam Messuagium competentis in Civitate London. in Testamento suo legavit Johanna uxori suae, tenendum ad vitam ipsius Johanna, ad sustentationem unius Capellani pro anima ipsius Johannis Divina celebraturi; et idem Testamentum tam coram Ordinario quam in Hustengo London. legitime est probatum, quod Dominum nostrum Cancellarium credo non latere, eo quod relatum fuit michi London. quod idem Dominus noster Cancellarius pro eodem negotio fuit in Gildhalla London. & novit probationem ejusdem testamenti, vel ad probationem ejusdem procedere precepit: propter quod, ut superius est expressum, legitime est probatum. Et quidam Johannes le Ironmonger, qui se dicit esse fratrem & heredem ejusdem Johannis, & unus est Executorum ipsius Johannis, & pars (ut executor) probationis Testamenti predicti, quandam Assisam mortis Antecessoris arram, coram Vicecom. London. de eodem Tenemento versus predictam Johannam, in fraudem et elusionem Testamenti predicti, maliciose & contra Deum & Justitiam, ut a multis fidedignis in Civitate predicta intellexi. Dilectionem vestram de qua plene confido, effectuose requiro, quatinus negotium istud Domino nostro Cancellario, qui partem ejusdem novit (ut credo) & pro quo Dominus Hugo de Cressingham scribit eidem, ostendere, & partes vestras erga ipsum efficaciter interponere velitis amore mei, ut idem Dominus noster Cancellarius quandam Associationem de Domino Johanni de Mettingham Custodi & Aldermannis dictae Civitatis concedat, juxta tenorem Cedulae quam vobis mitto presentibus interclusum; quam tradidit michi predictus Dominus Hugo. Ita tamen quod si correctione indigeat, de consilio vestro & aliorum sociorum vestrorum corrigatur. Et quia Testamentum predictum legitime probatum est, nec aliud oppositum est eidem probationi, nisi quod post idem Testamentum editum, Sigillum Testatoris eidem Testamento non erat appositum, eo quod ita frustanter obiit, quod post Testamentum predictum editum ante ejus obitum apponi non potuit eidem; Et ultima voluntas Testatoris, et non Sigilli sui appositio, facit Testamentum; — si constet predicto Domino nostro Cancellario de probatione predicta, sicut predictum est, sine praedicio melioris sententiae, juri congruit — quod scribatur Custodi & Aldermannis predictis, qui hujusmodi facti Recordum habent, executionem Testamenti predicti, sicut probatum est fieri faciant; & quod Vicecomites predicti, qui eis sunt inferiores & sui Ministri, nec aliquod aliquod Recordum inde habent in præjudicium libertatis Civitatis prædictæ, quam habent de gratia Domini Regis & non aliundè de lege vel jure, ad captionem Assisæ prædictæ in præjudicium prædictæ Johanna contra formam Testamenti prædicti nullatenus procedant. Inauditum enim est, quod id quod coram Justic. actum est & approbatum, coram Vicecom. possit aut debeat infirmari. Unde vobis placeat de isto negotio efficaciter intromittere, vos rogo quantum possum, ut effectum sortiri possit debitum. Maxima autem malitia prosecuta est in hoc facto, propter quod prædictus Dominus noster Cancellar. in Gildhalla fuit personaliter, & Custodi & Aldermannis injunxit, quod propter Assisam prædictam non omitterent quin ad probationem Testamenti prædicti et executionem ejusdem procederent, et nichilominus impetratum est Breve de Cancellaria quod Vicecomites ad captionem ejusdem Assisæ procedant; quod non est valde honestum. Et hoc dicatis (si placeat) Domino nostro prædicto. Ego vero sum London. pro negotiis Conversorum, & ad vos erō quam citius ego potero ubicunque vos juvero, Domino concedente. Valt.

vos conservet ad suum servitium & vestrorum regimen, per tempora longiora cum grata commemoratione Decanat. vestri. Dat. Paris. die Lunæ post Octab. festi Purificationis beatæ Mariæ. An. 20 E. 1.

I shall now crave liberty to insert into this year and Chapter, the most remarkable claims, declarations, demonstrations of King Edward the 1. his Sovereign Dominion over the Kingdom, Kings, Prelates, Nobles, Clergy and Commonalty of Scotland, as Superior Lord of Scotland; which hath then undeniably evidenced by antient Chronicles, Historians, the Homages, Oathes made to him and his Royal Predecessors by the Kings of Scotland in former ages; the unanimous confessions, Charters, Homages, Fealty of all the Competitors to the Crown of Scotland, after the death of King Alexander, and Queen Margaret his daughter without issue, before her intended marriage to Prince Edward his son; the surrender of the whole Kingdom, with the Castles and appurtenances thereof into his hands, as Superior Lord thereof, by the Guardians of Scotland, with the unanimous consent of the Nobility, Clergy, Commonalty of that Nation; by the memorable Petitions of all the pretenders to the right and descent of the Realm and Crown of Scotland to them, after Queen Margarets decease; who set forth their respective Titles, and submitted them all to his absolute Judicature, as their Superior Lord; who thereupon after sundry deliberate, just, legal proceedings therein, and many hearings and interpleadings, by advice and consent of his Parliament, and of the Prelates, Earls, Nobles, and most eminent Lawyers of both Kingdoms, finally adjudged the right of the Crown of Scotland to John Baliol as next heir in Law; who thereupon swore Fealty and Homage to him as to the Sovereign Lord of Scotland, after his Coronation and restitution of the Kingdom and Castles to him by the Kings Writs; who frequently summoned him to his Court, Parliaments upon complaints & appeals, for his injustice, oppressions, treachery, and confederacies with the French King against his homage and allegiance: All which particulars being only briefly, yea very imperfectly related by <sup>a</sup> Mat. Westminster, <sup>b</sup> Thomas Walsingham, <sup>c</sup> Henry de Kynghton, and the rest of our Historians, I shall here present you with at large, (for the vindication of the antient right and Sovereign Dominion of our English Kings over that Realm and Church, against all claims of usurping Popes, or ingrate perfidious, rebellious Kings of Scotland) out of a most memorable irrefragable Record then made thereof by King Edwards special command, written by two sworn Notaries approved by the Pope in a very excellent fair hand, in sundry large Rolls of parchment, now remaining in the Tower of London; the truth of each particular therein contained, with all circumstances of time, place, and other emergencies, being attested by many Bishops, Earls, Nobles, and other persons of quality of the English and Scottish Nations, present at all the Transactions, and these two sworn Notaries: Which being thus recorded by King Edward in perpetuum re-memoriam, to all succeeding generations, and the exactest Narrative, Record both for History, judicial and legal proceedings, rare pleadings, Pedigrees of the Scottish Royal Line, the several Titles made to the Crown of Scotland, and the completest, uncontrollablest evidence of our Kings Sovereign Jurisdiction and Lordship over Scotland, this day extant, most worthy publick view, though very long, reciting sundry Patents, Charters, Oathes both in French and Latine, for the reasons therein expressed.

tas eidem regno et ejus incolis permaneat in futurum. Nec est etiam suæ intentionis quicquam indebite occupare, nec alicuius iustitiam differre, aut libertates diminueret seu impedire: sed (ut præmittitur) tanquam superior et directus Dominus regni Scotia, jure suo uti, et omnibus et singulis facere iustitiæ complementam. Et ut hæc deduci valeant commodius ad effectum, idem Dominus noster Rex veltrom super præmissis ex habundanti benivolum requirit assensum, et superioritatis et directi domini hujusmodi recognitionem: Volens in hiis & aliis omnibus, dictum regnum Scotia tangentibus, veltrom uti consiliis opportunis.

Quibus per præfatam Dominum Rogerum (ut præmittitur) nomine dicti Domini Regis Angl. peroratis, & à præfatis Episcopis & aliis Prelatis Ecclesiasticis, Comitibus, Baronibus, Magnatibus, aliisque Nobilibus de Communitate dicti regni Scotia ibidem præsentibus plenius intellectus, iidem Episcopi & alii Prelati Ecclesiastici, Comes, Barones dicti regni Scotia ibidem præsentis, diem ad consulendum cum absentibus dicti regni Scotia Nobilibus & Prælati, ac communitate, & deliberandum super requisitione prædicta ipsis ex parte Domini Regis facta, & ad respondendum eidem sibi concedi cum instantia petierunt. Habitaque super hac deliberatione aliquanti (licet ipsi, quid idem Dominus Rex ipso die facere & dicere voluit, fuissent primitus præmuniti sufficienter) ex habundanti tamen fuit eis terminus per ipsum Dominum Regem proximus sequens dies assignatus, ad audiendum deliberationem Domini Regis super jam dictis induciis petitis denegandis vel etiam concedendis. Actum in parochiali Ecclesia de Northm. anno, indictione, mense & die prænotatis; præsentibus venerabilibus in Christo patribus Dominis Johanne Dei gratia Ebor. Archiepiscopo, Angl. Primæ, Antonio Dunelm. Radulpho Carleolen. Willielmo Elien. Willielmo Sancti Andree, & Roberto Glasuen. Episcopis; & nobilibus viris Dominis Henrico Lincoln. Rogero Northfolch. & Marescallo Angl. Comitibus, Magistris Henr. Ebor. Johanne Lichfelden. Thoma Wellen. & Andr. Exon. Ecclesiarum Decanis, ac Johanne Ertun de Cadomo publico auctoritate Apostolica Notario, ac aliis tam Nobilibus quam Prælati per pluribus in multitudine copiosa.

Quo die, undecimo videlicet mensis Maii, anno & indictione prænotatis, loco eodem, præfati Episcopi regni Scotia & Nobiles coram dicto Domino Rege Angliæ, ut prius, comparuerunt; & diem ad deliberandum & consulendum cum absentibus regni Scotia Nobilibus & Prælati, ac communitate, super dicta requisitione regia eorum, ut præmittitur, facta, de recognitione videlicet hemibola superioritatis et directi domini regni Scotia, quod dicebat esse suam suæ et eidem respondendum, cum instantia petierunt. Quibus idem Rex post diligentem super hoc deliberationem, respondit & dixit: Se velle eorum voluntati complacere in hac parte, præfixit & assignavit eisdem secundum diem mensis Junii prox. sequent. ad interim consulendum cum absentibus regni Scotia Nobilibus & Prælati, & aliis de communitate ejusdem regni super præmissis, & deliberandum, & illo die præcisè respondendum requisitioni suæ supradictæ, & ad exhibendum proponendumque ulterius, & ostendendum præcisè & peremptoriè munimenta vel scripta aut alia quævis documenta, si quæ habuerunt, quæ ipsam a jure suo prædicto superioritatis et directi domini sui dicti regni Scotia, aut ab exercitio seu executione dicti sui juris excludere possent, et rationes et documenta pro ipso et jure suo prædicto ostensa, per validiora et efficaciora aliqua via juris infirmare; protestans, se velle et paratum esse ea, quatenus jura permetterent, eis allocare, et facere quod iustitia suaderet in eventu. Præmissaque per venerabilem patrem Dominum Antonium Dei gratia Dunelm. Episcopum, ipsum ad hoc organum suum constituens, præfatis Nobilibus regni Scotia & Prælati ibidem præsentibus nunciavit, ac etiam notificavit. Præsentibus testibus superscript. cum aliis quampluribus.

Ut autem præsentem processum sive Instrumentum publicum omnibus Christi fidelibus evidenter appareat, cujusmodi rationibus evidentibus & documentis verisimilibus & probabilibus dictus Dominus Rex Angliæ jus superioritatis et directi domini regni Scotia suum esse, et ad ipsum jure Coronæ regni Angliæ et dignitatis suæ regali præeminentia pertinere debere asserbat, et etiam ostendebat; incipiendo à tempore Bruti, & sic successivè descendendo usque ad tempus suum, sicut in antiquis Chronicis et libris in diversis Angliæ & Scotia regnorum Monasteriis compertis scripta reperiebantur; videlicet, in Chronicis Magistrorum Mariani Scoti, Willielmi de Malmesbyr. in multis libris, necnon Sanctorum Patrum Summorum Pontificum litteris suis bullis plumbetis more Romanæ Curie pendent. bullatis, et aliis scripturis a sede Apostolica approbatis, ea seriatim de verbo ad verbum nihil addens vel minuens, quod solum mutes vel intelligi corruptat, presenti Instrumento publico sive processu conscribam.

In primis, qualiter sub temporibus Ely & Samuelis propheta vir quidam strenuus ac insignis, a Brutus nomine, de genere Trojanorum, post excidium urbis Trojæ, cum multis Nobilibus Trojanorum in quandam Insulam tunc Albion vocatam, a gigantibus inhabitatam; quibus sua & suorum devictis potentia & occisis, eam nomine suo Britanniam, sociosque suos Britones appellavit. Et edificavit Civitatem, quam Troinovantum nuncupavit, quæ modo Londonia appellatur. Et postea idem Brutus dictam Insulam in tres partes dividens, eam tribus suis filiis reliquit possidendam, Logrino videlicet, Albinacto, & Cambro: Logrino vero quia primogenito, illam partem Britanniarum, quæ nunc Anglia vocatur, cum superioritate et dominio partium aliarum; Albinacto vero secundo suo nato illam partem Britanniarum, quæ tunc a nomine Albinacti Albinia dicta, nunc vero Scotia nuncupatur; Cambro vero tertio suo filio partem illam quæ tunc suo nomine Cambria, nunc vero Wallia vocatur; reservata tamen Logrino seniori regia semper dignitate. Petebat enim Trojana consuetudo, quod dignitas hereditatis primogenito proveniret. Biennio vero post mortem Bruti applicuit in Albinia quidam Rex Humorum nomine Humber, & Albinactum fratrem Logrini occidit. Quo audito Logrinus Rex Britannorum persicinus est enim, qui fugiens submersus est in flumine quod de nomine suo Humber vocatur, & sic Albinia reversitur ad dictam Logrinum. Hac autem in Historia Bruti. Item, in Chronicis Mariani Scoti, & Rogeri de Hoveden, & Willielmi de Malmesbyr. (quorum compilationes & libri in diversis Monasteriis & locis aliis utriusque regni inveniuntur) inter cetera reperitur, Quod anno Domini 901. Edwardus Monarcha Angliæ cognomento senior filius Ælredi Scotorum, Humberorum & Stregewallorum Reges, suæ ditioni subegit, et in devotionem recepit. Et quod anno Domini 911. Rex Scotorum cum tota gente, & Reginaldus Rex Danorum, cum Danis & Anglis Northumbriam incolentibus, & Rex etiam Stregewallorum cum suis, eundem Regem Edwardum Abi Imperatorum et Dominum elegerunt, armumque fœdus cum eo pepigerunt. Item, quod anno Domini 924. idem Edwardus Rex Angliæ cunctis Britanniam incolentibus Anglorum, Scotorum, Cumbroorum, Danorum, & Britonum populum præfuit. Item, quod anno Domini 926. Ædelstanus filius & immediatus successor ejusdem Edwardi, Constantinum Regem Scotorum, & Danorum Regem pralio vicit & fugavit; qui postmodum cum ipsos fœdus pepigerunt, in loco qui dicitur Emothe, quarto Idus Julii. Hoc autem invenitur in Chronicis Mariani Scoti & Rogeri de Hoveden in multis libris. Et in Chronicis Willielmi de Malmesbyr. Henr. de Huntingdon, & Radulphi de Diceto, inter cetera sic invenitur. Ædelstanus Rex Angliæ Constantinum Regem Scotorum cedere regno compulsi, qui tamen postea regno Scotiarum privatum per ipsum sub se regnare, sicut prius, gratiosius; dicens consilio suo remittens, Gloriosius est Regem facere quam esse. Item, anno Domini 934. idem Ædelstanus Rex Angliæ eundem Constantinum Regem Scotorum rebellantem debilit et fugavit, & terram Scotiarum usque Dunfermelin vastavit. Qui Constantinus postea filium suum dicto Ædelstano regi cum dignis muneribus in obsidem tradidit, & sic pacificatus. Et hoc in Chronicis Mariani Scoti, Rogeri de Hoveden, Henrici de Huntingdon, & Radulphi de Diceto, in multis libris invenitur. Et in Chronicis Willielmi de Malmesbyr. in multis libris inter cetera reperitur, quod anno Domini 937. Eugenius Rex Cumbroorum, & Constantinus Rex Scotorum, in loco qui dicitur Dacorum venientes, se cum suis regibus eidem Ædelstano Regi Angliæ dederunt; cuius pælii gratia filium Constantini iustum baptizari idem Ædelstanus de sacro fonte suscepit. Item, anno Domini 940. Ædelstano prædicto defuncto, successit sibi in regnum Edmundus frater ejus, qui regnavit septem annos sine rebellionem Scotorum. Item, in Chronicis Mariani Scoti, & Willielmi de Malmesbyr. & Henrici de Huntingdon in multis libris invenitur, quod anno Domini 947. Edredus frater Ædelstani minor, dicto Edmundo fratri suo successit; qui Northumbriis devictis, in Scotiam vexilla direxit: Et Scoti nimio terrore percussi, sine bello se subdiderunt eidem, et fidelitatem Abi ut Domino debitam iuraverunt; Quodam Rege, Yritio nomine, per ipsum super ipsos Scotos tunc statim. Item, anno Domini 955. mortuo Rege Edredo prædicto, successit sibi Edwinus filius

An. 20 E. 1. Quod Anno Domini 1086. successit eidem Willielmo Baffard. Willielmus Ruffus filius ejus, qui anno 14. regni sui rebellante Malcolm Rege Scotorum & Northumbriam invadente, cum Roberte fratre suo acies in Scotiam direxit, cui Malcolm occurrit, & pax inter eos facta est conditione tali, ut idem Malcolmus Rex Scotiarum eidem Willielmo Regi Angliæ, sicut patri suo fecerat, obediret. Et in Cronicis Henrici de Huntingdon invenitur, quod Willielmo dicto Ruffo Rege Angliæ acies in Scotiam dirigente, Malcolmus Rex Scotorum nimio terrore perterritus, homo ipsius Regis Willielmi efficitur, et eidem juramento fidelitatis est subiectus. Item in Cronicis Marini Scoti, Rogeri de Hoveden, Willielmi de Malmesbir. & Henrici de Huntingdon in multis libris invenitur, Quod Anno Domini 1094. Malcolmus Rege Scotorum interfecto una cum Edwardo primogenito in Northumbriam per Morellum Militem strenuissimum, Scoti elegerunt Dovenaldum fratrem ejusdem Malcolm in Regem: Quod audito, Duncanus filius Malcolm ad Regem Angliæ Willielmum, cuius tunc obsisterat, accessit; et ut sibi patris sui concederet, postulabit, et etiam impetrabit ab eodem, et sibi fidelitatem jurabit, et sic ad Scotiam properabit, & Dovenaldum patrum suum de regno Scotiarum expulit, & loco suo regnabit. Et anno sequenti dicto Duncanus de loco perempto, dictus Dovenaldus iterum regnum Scotiarum invasit; quem dictus Rex Willielmus de regno expulit, & Edgarum filium Malcolm prædicti Regem Scotorum constituit. Item, in Chronico Henr. de Huntingdon in multis literis invenitur, Quod Anno Domini 1100. dicto Willielmo Ruffo Rege Angliæ successit Henr. senior frater ejus, Cujus regni anno septimo Edgarus Rex Scotiarum decessit: Cui successit Alexander frater ejusdem Edgari de consensu Domini Regis Henrici. Item, in Cronico Marini Scoti, Rogeri de Hoveden, & Henrici de Huntingdon invenitur, Quod Anno Domini 1106. Rege Henr. seniore defuncto, successit eidem Rex Stephanus; cuius regni anno primo, cum a David tunc Rege Scotorum homagium peteret et fidelitatem, et ipse id ei facere recusat, quia primus erat omnium Scotorum qui homagium et fidelitatem fecerat Matildi Imperatrici. Filium tamen ejusdem David Henr. nomine fecit homagium dicto Regi Stephano. Item, in Cronicis Rogeri de Hoveden in multis libris invenitur, quod anno Domini 1154. Regi Stephano prædicto successit Henricus secundus filius Imperatricis, cuius anno regni sui 11. obiit Malcolmus Rex Scotorum, cui successit Willielmus frater ejus. Et anno dicti Regis Henrici vicefimo primo in crastino Coronationis Henrici filii sui fecit Rex Henr. pater Willielmum Regem Scotorum et David fratrem suum, et Comites et Barones regni Scotiarum debere homines filii sui Regis Angliæ, et jurare sibi fidelitatem contra omnes homines; salva tamen sibi fidelitate sua, quam eidem prius juraverat. Item, anno Domini 1164. & regni dicti Henrici Regis patris vicefimo, dictus Willielmus Rex Scotorum rebellare incipiens venit in Northumbriam cum ingenti exercitu, & stragem magnam exercuit in populo; cui occurrentes Milites Comitatus Eborum apud Alnewyk ipsum ceperunt, & dicto Henrico Regi tradiderunt. Et anno Domini 1175. 15. Kal. Martii, Willielmus Rex Scotorum liber abire permittitur: & eodem anno tercia die post assumptionem beate Mariæ Virginis, scilicet 17. Kal. Septembr. apud Eborum facta fuit hac conventio & finis inter prædictum Henricum Regem Angliæ & præfatum Willielmum Regem Scotiarum. Cujus conventionis & finis in omnibus & per omnia tenor est talis.

n Hæc est Conventio & Finis, quem Willielmus Rex Scotorum fecit cum Domino suo Domino Henrico Rege Angliæ filio Matildi Imperatricis. Willielmus Rex Scotorum devenit homo ligeus Domino Regi Angliæ Henr. contra omnem hominem de Scotia & de omnibus aliis terris suis; & fidelitatem ei fecit ut ligio Domino suo, sicut alii homines sui ipsi facere solent. Et similiter fecit homagium Henrico Regi filio suo; salva fide Domini Regis patris sui. Omnes vero Episcopi et Abbates et Clerus terrarum Regis Scotiarum et successores sui facient Domino Regi Angliæ sicut ligio Domino fidelitatem, de quibus habere voluerit, sicut alii Episcopi sui facere solent, et Henrico Regi filio suo et heredibus suis. Concessit autem Rex Scotia, ut David frater ejus, & Barones, & alii homines sui Domino Regi Angliæ; Quod Ecclesia Scotiana talem subjectionem amodo faciet Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ, qualem illi facere debet et solebat tempore Regum Angliæ prædecessorum suorum. Similiter Richardus Episcopus Sancti Andree, & Ricardus Episcopus Dunkelden. & Galfrius Abbas de Dunfermelin. & Herbertus Prior de Goldingham concesserunt; Quod etiam Ecclesia Anglicana illud jus habeat in Ecclesiâ Scotiana, quod de jure habere debet; et et quod ipsi non erunt contra jus Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ. Et deficiat ligiam fidelitatem Domino Regi Anglia & Henrico filio suo fecerunt, eos inde asscuraverunt. Hoc idem facient alii Episcopi et Clerus Scotia per conventionem inter Dominum Regem Anglia, et Regem Scotia, et David fratrem suum et Barones suos factam, Comites etiam & Barones et alii homines de terra Regis Scotia, de quibus Dominus Rex Anglia habere voluerit, facient ei homagium contra omnem hominem, et fidelitatem ut ligio Domino, sicut alii homines sui ei facere solent; & Henrico Regi filio suo et hæredibus suis, salva fide Domini Regis patris sui. Similiter hæredes Regis Scotia, et Baronum et hominum suorum homagium et ligeantiam facient hæredibus Domini Regis Anglia contra omnem hominem. Præterea, Rex Scotia & homines sui nullum amodo fugitivum de terra Domini Regis Anglia pro feloniam receptabunt in Scotia vel in alia terra sua, nisi voluerit venire ad rectum in Curia Domini Regis Anglia, et stare iudicio Curie suæ: sed Rex Scotia & homines sui quamcunque poterunt eum capient, et Domino Regi Anglia reddent, vel Iudiciariis aut Ballivis suis in Anglia. Si autem de terra Regis Scotia aliquis fugitivus fuerit pro feloniam in Anglia, nisi voluerit venire ad rectum in Curia Domini Regis Scotia, vel in Curia Domini Regis Anglia, et stare iudicio Curie, non receptabitur in terra Domini Regis Anglia, sed liberabitur hominibus Regis Scotia per Ballivos Domini Regis Anglia, ubi inventus fuerit. Præterea homines Domini Regis Anglia habebunt terras suas quas habebant, et habere debent de Domino Rege Anglia, & de Rege Scotia et de hæredibus suis. Et homines Regis Scotia habebunt terras suas quas habebant & habere debent de Domino Rege Anglia & de hominibus suis. Pro ista vero conventionem et fine firmiter observanda Domino Henrico Regi Anglia et Henrico filio et hæredibus suis à Rege Scotia et hæredibus suis, liberavit idem Rex Scotia Domino Regi Anglia Castellum de Roxburgh, et Castellum de Berwyk, et Castellum de Jedburgh, et Castellum de Puderham, et Castellum de Strivelin in misericordia Domini Regis Anglia: Et ad custodiendum castella illa assignavit Rex Scotia de redditu suo mensuraliter ad voluntatem Domini Regis Anglia. Præterea pro prædicta conventionem et fine exequenda, liberavit Rex Scotia Domino Regi Anglia David fratrem suum in obsidem et Comitem Duncann, et Comitem Walden, et Comitem Gilbertum, et Comitem de Argez, et Ricardum de Morevilla Constabularium et Neth. filium Willielmi, et Ricardum Comyn, et Walterum Corbet, et Walterum Olisard, et Johannem de Vaux, et Willielmum de Lyndesey, et Philippum de Colevilla, et Philippum de Valoignes, et Robertum Fremberd, et Robertum de Burneville, et Hugonem Giffard, et Hugonem Rydell, et Walterum de Berkele, et Willielmum de la Haye, et Willielmum de Mersimer. Quando vero Castella reddita fuerint, Willielmus Rex Scotia et David frater suus liberabuntur. Comites quidem et Barones prænominati unusquisque postquam liberaverit obsidem suum scilicet filium suum legitimum quem habuerit, et alii nepotes suos vel propinquiores sibi hæredes, et Castellis (ut dictum est) redditis, liberabuntur. Præterea Rex Scotia et Barones sui prænominati asscuraverint, quod ipsi bona fide et sine malo ingenio sive occasione facient, quod Episcopi et Barones et homines terræ suæ, qui non assuerint quando Rex Scotia cum Rege Anglia finivit, eandem ligeantiam et fidelitatem Domino Regi Anglia et Henr. filio suo facient quam ipsi fecerunt; Et quod Barones & homines qui assuerunt obsides liberabunt Domino Regi Anglia de quibus habere voluerit. Præterea Episcopi, Comites & Barones conventionaverunt dicto Regi Anglia & Henrico filio suo, Quod si Rex Scotia aliquo casu à fidelitate Domini Regis Anglia, & filii sui, & à Conventionem prædicta recederet, ipsi cum Domino Rege Anglia tenebunt sicut cum ligio Domino suo contra Regem Scotia, donec ipse ad fidelitatem Domini Regis Anglia redeat. Prædictam itaque conventionem firmiter observandam bona fide & sine malo ingenio Domino Regi Anglia & Henrico filio suo & hæredibus suis à Willielmo Rege Scotia, & David fratre suo; & à Baronibus suis prædictis, & ab hæredibus eorum asscuraverit ipse Rex Scotia David frater suus & omnes Barones sui prænominati deficiat ligei homines Domini Regis Anglia contra omnem hominem, & Henrici filii sui, salva fidelitate Domini Regis patris sui. Hiis itaque recitatis in Ecclesia Sancti Petri Eborum coram predictis Regibus Anglia, & etiam Rege Scotia & David fratre suo, & universo populo, Episcopi, Comites, Barones et Milites de terra Regis Scotia juraverunt Domino Regi Anglia et Henrico filio suo et heredibus eorum fidelitatem contra omnem hominem sicut ligetis Dominis suis. Post hanc vero compositionem & finem, Anno Domini 1176. & regni dicti Regis Henrici vicefimo secundo, ad Concilium celebratum apud Norhamptoniam venit Dominus Willielmus Rex Scotia per mandatum Domini Regis Anglia, adducens secum omnes Episcopos, Abbates, Priores totius regni sui; anno vero sequenti proximo, idem Henricus Rex Anglia tradidit Castrum de Roksburgh in custodia Willielmo de Stotewille, & custodiam Castri Puellarum Rogero de Stotewille, & custodiam Castri de Berewyk Galfrido de Neville. Anno vero regni ejusdem Henrici Regis vicefimo septimo, idem Willielmus Rex Scotia venit in Normanniam per mandatum dicti Regis Domini sui, cujus ammonitione & consilio idem Rex Scotorum concessit Matthæo Episcopo Aberden, & Johanni Episcopo Sancti Andree, quos ipse de Scotia fugaverat, licentiam repatriandi. Hac autem inveniuntur in Chronicis Rogeri de Hoveden in multis Libris. Et etiam in Chronicis ejusdem Rogeri quod Anno Domini 1189. dicto Regi Anglia Henr. successit Ricardus filius ejus. Quo anno mense Decembr. venit Cantuariam idem Willielmus Rex Scotorum ad ipsum Regem Ricardum et homagium sibi fecit, cujus tempore Scoti non rebellaverunt. Item in Chronicis ejusdem Rogeri de Hoveden in multis libris invenitur, quod Anno Domini 1199. dicto Regi Ricardus successit Johannes frater ejus, qui statim post Coronationem suam misit Philippum Dunelm, & Rogerum Bigod, & quosdam alios Nobiles ad dictum Willielmum Regem Scotorum cum literis Regis de salvo conductu, & statuit sibi diem veniendi apud Lincoln. in crastino Sancti Edmundi Regis. Quo die mensis videlicet Novembris, 8. Kal. Decembris, feria quinta, iidem Rex Johannes Anglia & Willielmus Rex Scotia convenerunt ad colloquium extra Civitatem Lincoln, super mentem arduum, et ibi in conspectu omnis populi idem Willielmus Rex Scotorum debuit homo ligius predicti Regis Angliae Johannis, et fidelitatem sibi juravit super crucem Huberti Cantuar. Archiepiscopi de vita et membro et terreno honore contra omnes homines, et de pace servanda sibi et regno suo. Item in Chronicis Monasterii de Bridelington, & aliis quampluribus invenitur, quod Anno Domini 1209. mense Junii, apud Berewicum super Twedam idem Rex Angliae Johannes castrum construxit, & contra Willielmum Regem Scotorum exercitum suum copiosum congregavit ad debellandum eum pro eo, quod filiam suam desponsaverat Comiti Boloniae prater assensum ipsius Regis Angliae Johannis. Et in Chronicis Monasterii de Kyngfwe de Wygorn. Dioc. invenitur, quod eodem anno pace inter ipsos Reges reformata, cito idem Rex revertebatur in Angliam, datis sibi duabus filiabus dicti Regis Willielmi in obsidibus. Item in Chronicis Monasterii Sancti Albani invenitur, quod Anno Domini 1216. dicto Regi Angliae Johanni successit Henricus filius suus; cujus regni anno tricesimo quinto, idem Rex Henricus cum Regina sua Anglia, & multitudine Prelatorum Angliae apud Ebor. congregati in festo Nativitatis Domini, tractarunt de Matrimonio contrahendo inter Alexandrum Regem Scotorum filium dicti Willielmi Regis, & Margaretam filiam dicti Regis Henrici. Et in die Sancti Stephani proximo sequente idem Rex Alexander dictam Margaretam solempniter desponsavit. Et eodem die fecit idem Alexander homagium dicto Regi Angliae Henr. Et commissa est dicta Regina Scotiae tutela Roberti de Ros & Johannis de Balliolo, & etiam regnum Scotiae cum Rege Alexandro predicto de consilio Magnatum utriusque regni. Item in quadam Charta Regis Scotiae Edgari filii Malcolmi facta Ecclesia Dunolm. inter cetera continetur; Quod idem Rex Edgarus recognoscit se possidere totam terram de Louneys et etiam Regnum Scotiae de dono Domini sui Willielmi Regis Angli. Et in carta Willielmi Regis Scotorum facta dicto Regi Angliae Johanni continetur; Quod idem Rex Willielmus concessit carissimo Domino suo Domino Johanni Regi Angliae, quod maritus dictum Alexandrum filium suum sicut hominem suum ligium, ubicunque voluerit ad fidem, ita quod non disparagatur. ipso contingat, idem Willielmus Rex Scotiæ & Alexander filius suus, Henrico filio Regis Angliæ Johannis tanquam ligio Domino contra omnes mortales fidem et fidelitatem tenebunt, et iuvabunt eum pro viribus suis ad tenendum ipsam in Regno suo; salva fide sua qua prædicto Regi Angliæ Johanni tenebantur. Item in quibusdam literis Apostolicis sub nomine felicii recordationis Domini quondam Honorii Papa tertii conceptis, & ipsius bulla plumbea more Romanæ Curie pendens, bullatis, inter cetera continetur; Ad hac Regi Scotorum ipsum Regem Angliæ Dominum suum nequiter impugnanti, ac propter hoc excommunicationis vinculo innodato, &c. Item, & in quibusdam aliis literis Papalibus sub nomine felicii recordationis Domini quondam Gregorii Papa noni conceptis, & bulla sua plumbea more Romanæ Curie pendens, bullatis Regi Scotiæ directis, similiter inter cetera continetur; Quod jamduam inter clara memoria Henricum avum, & Johannem patrem Regis Angliæ ultimi ex parte una, & Willielmum Regem Scotorum ex altera, Compositio amicabile intercessit; per quam ipse Willielmus prædictis avo & patri & eidem Regi Angliæ, ac Alexander Rex Scotiæ filius ejusdem Willielmi Regibus Angliæ Johanni & Henrico ligium homagium, et fidelitatem fecerunt, quæ tenentur successores eorum et Comites et Barones Regni Scotiæ ipsi et suis successoribus exhibere, ac Comites et Barones esse cum Regibus Angliæ contra Reges Scotiæ, si compositionem eandem forsitan non ferbarent. Item, idem Gregorius similiter in suis literis sub nomine suo conceptis, & bulla sua plumbea more Romanæ Curie pendens, bullatis, inter alia scribit Archiepiscopo Eborum, & Episcopo Carleolen, quod moneant et inducant dictum Regem Scotiæ supradictam amicabilem Compositionem observare. Item, ad hac in aliis ejusdem Papa Gregorii noni literis dicto Regi Scotiæ directis inter cetera continetur; Quod cum idem Rex Scotiæ homo ligius sit ipsius Henrici Regis Angliæ, et eidem fidelitatis præstiterit juramentum, quo se principaliter astringit, quod in ipsius Regis Angliæ et regni sui detrimentum nihil penitus debeat attemptare, &c. Item, Clemens Papa scribens Henrico Regi Angliæ pro Johanne Episcopo Sancti Andree expulso ab Episcopatu suo per Regem Scotiæ, inter cetera sibi mandat, quod Willielmum Regem Scotiæ moneat & inducat, et si necesse fuerit, distractione Regali, qua ei preminet et concessa suæ Regiæ Celsitudini potestate compellat, ut dicto Episcopo omnem rancorem remittat, ipsumque Episcopatum suum habere permittat in pace. Item, in quodam libro de vita & miraculis beati Johannis de Beverlaco, quæ sunt per Romanam Curiam approbata, similiter inter cetera reperitur. Regnante inclito Rege Adelstano viro Catholico qui Monarchiam totius Angliæ tenuit, Scotorum Rex cum suis transito flumine qui dividit Angliæ regnum à Scotia, cepit depopulare villas, homines exterminare, agros depradare, & (ut verum fatear) totam regionem in exterminium conabatur deducere in Septentrionali parte Angliæ. Quod cum fama volente præfatus Rex comperisset, congregato exercitu statuit (quam citius enim potuit) armata manu ei occurrere. Provisisque interim necessariis propositum carpebat iter. Cumque in provincia Lincoln. devenissent, quidam evanescentes tam pauperes quam mediocres obvii sibi facti sunt; Quos cum interrogasset, quæ esset causa tanti gaudii, & unde venirent? responderunt, quod de Beverlaco venirent, ubi sanctus Johannes Confessor quosdam ex eis variis infirmitatibus oppressos gratia Dei sanos effecerat; & hac erat causa tanta lætitiæ. Et inde progrediens iterum alios cateruatim venientes obvius habuit; quos cum similiter requisivit, unde venirent? Illi vero responderunt, quod de Beverlaco ubi quosdam ex eis vel mutos, vel claudos, cecos vel surdos mira Dei potentia sanctus Dei Confessor sanaverat. Cumque Rex venerandum hunc Confessorem in tanta veneratione habitum, & per Deum tanta operari valuisse comperiret, habito consilio cum suis, dixit se debere talem patronum adire, ut sibi in instanti negotio subveniret. Transmisitque suum exercitum per occidentalem regionem versus Eborum, ut cum ibi præstolarentur, ipse vero transito flumine Humber venit Beverlacum, procumbensque in oratione in Ecclesia coram Altare in presentia reliquiarum venerandi confessoris, devoto animo prolixius orabat. Exurgensque deinde ab oratione coram adstantibus tam Clericis quam Laicis & ascultantibus, talem orationem exorsus est, dicens. O gloriose Confessor Johannes qui tot virtutibus & signis refulges (ut fama refert) precor te ut mihi subvenire digneris per intercessionem tuam apud Deum in instanti negotio, ut inimicorum infestationem pernoxiam, te patrocinante, exsuperare queam. Et continuo extrahens cultellum suum de vagina posuit super altare, dicens; Ecce vadium meum coram te pono, quod te auxiliante vita comite rediens recipiam, ita quod Ecclesiam

An. 20. 1. Ecclesiam tuam honorificabo & redditibus augebo, si Dei nutu tuoque suffragio hostes debellare quivero. Custodes vero Ecclesie qui aderant, suggererunt sibi, ut signum aliquod inde secum in monumentum assortaret. Et fecit quoddam vexillum sibi de eadem Ecclesia proferri, consignans se ad suum exercitum reversus est. Cumque Scoti audissent Anglorum exercitum advenire, non sunt ausi eos in finibus eorum exspectare, nec campestri bello eis resistere, sed transfretaverant Flumen quod dicitur Scotorum vadum, ut ibi infra proprios terminos securus se in bello ad resistendum parare possent. Rex vero Adelstanus cum omni exercitu Angliæ, cum ad Flumen pervenisset, didiciit Scotos transisse, & præcepit suis super ripam fluminis sua tentoria figere, ibique aliquantulum pausare. Subsequenti nocte quiescentibus cunctis cum suo Rege, talis visio eidem Regi apparuit ceteris dormientibus, & omnino ignorantibus. *Videbatur enim ei, quod quidam Pontificali habitu indutus coram se adstaret, sibi que diceret; Adelstane Rex, fac tuos in crallinum præparari, ut transeant flumen istud ad debellandum contra Scotos. Cumque interrogaret Rex, Quisnam esset qui talia sibi diceret? Respondit qui adstabat, quod ipse esset Johannes, cujus precibus expetierat se protegi, cum Beverlaci in ejusdem Ecclesie oraret. Subinde statim intulit; Noli timere cum exercitu transire armato; nam debellabis eos; hæc enim tibi nunciare veni. Mane itaque facto curavit Rex suis visionem patifacere, & de victoria certificare. Qui latentes animati sunt ad certamen; & transfretavere flumen. Scotos vero invenerunt cum suo Rege paratos ad resistendum. Commissique gravi prælie, multi ex Scotis perierunt, vivus autem vix ipsorum Rex effugit ad totius regni confusionem & desolationem. Quo viso, Rex Angliæ laus effectus gratias egit Deo, venerandaque Confessori, videlicet Johanni suo intercessori, totumque regnum continuo suo subjugabit imperio, continens & perlustravit cunctas illius terra provincias, principes & præpositos urbium, indicens eis, ut tributa sibi suisque successoribus, scilicet Angliæ Regibus, ex debito persolverent. Septem etiam Insulas adjacentes etque vicinas sibi servire compulit; et tam diu in illis partibus commoratus est, quod jam tres anni finirentur. Jamque revertens per loca maritima juxta Dunbar vidit Scopulos prominentes. Aspexit, taliaque suspiciens eliquia protulit, dicens; S.D. us, interveniente beato Johanne mihi aliquod signum evidens facere permittat, quatenus tam succedentes quam præsentis cognoscere possent Scotiam Anglorum regno jure subjugari utpote devictum ab Adelstano Rege, sibi que et suis successoribus tributum omni tempore debere persolvere, non immerito illi devotè gratias agerem. * & extrahens gladium de vagina percussit in scilicet, qua adeo penetrabilis (Dei virtute agente) fuit gladio, quam si eadem hora lapis butyrum esset, vel molli glarea, qui lapis ad ictum gladii ita concavatur, ut mensura ulnae longitudine possit coaptari, et usque ad præsentem diem evidens signum patet, quod Scoti ab Angliis debiti et subjugati, monimento tali ebidentur cunctis adeuntibus demonstrante. Item, de homagio Domino Regi Angliæ debito de terra Galwydiz subscripta invenimus; anno Domini 1185. mense Augusto apud Carleolum, Rolandus Galwydiz Dominus, illuc, ut iussus fuerat, Domino Regi occurrens, in deditionem sponte venit; veritus tamen (ut creditur) exercitus multitudinem quam ad debellandum cum Rex ipse adduxerat, nisi maturius captam contumaciam reliquisset. Recepto itaque homagio ipsius Rolandi de Gawydia, simul et Comitibus David fratris Willielmi tunc Regis Scotiæ de omnibus terris, quæ tenebat, demisitque Rex exercitum suum & in Angliam festinavit. Anno regni Regis Henrici vicefimo secundo Gilbertus filius Ferrugus princeps Galwennorum venit in Angliam in conductum Regis Scotiæ, et devenit homo ligatus Henrici Regis patris, et fidelitatem sibi juravit contra omnes homines. Et pro amore ipsius habendo, dedit Regi mille marcas argenti, et Dupcanum filium suum in obsidem, de pace sibi servanda.

etiam, dictum Dominum suum in successionem juris ad dictum regnum Scotiæ præ omnibus aliis petentibus pingulus jus habere, et petiit & admitti nomine Domini sui, et Dominum suum in personam suam ad petendum jus suum inter alios ibidem, et ipsum Dominum suum in crastino in personam propriam admitti, et audientiam debitam super jure sibi competenti ad idem regnum eidem concedi.

Anno Domini & Indictione prænotatis, dicti mensis Junii, die tertia, congregatus in loco proximo superscripto dicti regni Scotiæ Nobilibus & Prelatis, sicut die proximo præcedenti, accessit ad ipsos ex parte dicti Domini Regis Angliæ venerabilis pater Dominus Bathon. & Wellen. Episcopus, in cujus ore idem Rex (sicut alias) verba sua posuerat, ipsum organum suum constituens, eisdem eadem, qua die proximo præcedenti, nomine dicti Regis intimavit, & qua fiebant coram ipsis iterato recitavit per ordinem seriatim. Et quia Nobilis vir Dominus Johannes de Balliolo, qui illis diei hesternæ non interfuit, nunc præsens erat ibidem, et se dicebat præ omnibus aliis regnum Scotiæ petentibus pingulus jus habere, petens se cum effectu ad prosecutionem juris sui inter alios admitti, et audientiam debitam sibi concedi; ad interrogatio-nem dicti patris sibi ex parte Domini Regis Angliæ factam, an vellet stare juri coram ipso Domino Rege, ut superiori et directo Domino regni Scotiæ, et ab ipso et coram ipso petere, respondere et recipere justitiæ complementum? Respondit sicut & ceteri Nobiles superscripti, recognoscens palam organo vocis suæ, dictum Dominum Regem Angliæ superiorem et directum esse Dominum dicti regni Scotiæ, et se velle coram ipso gratanter stare juri, et petere, respondere et recipere in omnibus ipsum tangentibus quod justitia snaderet. Quibus sic factis, ex parte dicti Domini Regis idem Pater præcepit eisdem omnibus & singulis tam Nobilibus quam Prelatis, & aliis de Communitate regni Scotiæ ibidem congregatis, quod statim ad Ecclesiam parochialem de Norhm. accederent, & coram Domino Rege convenirent, voluntatem suam audituri. Quibus coram ipso Domino Rege (ut præmittitur) in dicta Ecclesia parochiali de Norhm. congregatis, venerabilis pater Dominus Bathon.
& Wellen. Episcopus ibidem ex parte Domini Regis ipsiusque nomine, vice et mandato, eadem verba qua die prox. præcedenti coram ipsis recitavit (lingua tamen Gallica) hunc habens sententialiter intellectum.

Serenissimus Princeps & Dominus noster Dominus Edwardus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ illustris, superior et directus Dominus regni Scotiæ, desolatum statum ejusdem perpendens, & ex principis destitutione turbatum considerans, & nonnulla

Insuper & in parte ipsius Domini nostri Regis & suo nomine protestamur, quod quambis ius superioritatis et directi Domini regni Scotia sit suum, et exercitium seu executio eiusdem spectat ad eum, propter hoc non intendit se a iure hereditario (si quod sibi competat) ad dictum regnum, quo ad proprietatem ipsius excludere, licet utatur iure suo superioritatis et directi domini sui predicti exhibendo aliis iustitiam, sed etiam ius suum inter alios petentes dictum regnum visis, modis et temporibus quibus de iure poterit proseguere, et sibi videri expedire. Ad hæc autem dictus Dominus Rex Angliæ præmissa per præfatum Dominum Bathon. & Wellen. Episcopum, suo nomine (ut præmittitur) recitata & dicta, sermone Gallico ore proprio recitavit, dicens hæc verba vel hiis similia hunc habentia sententialiter intellectum.

Nos Edwardus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, et superior Dominus regni Scotia, statum ejusdem desolatum considerantes, & ex Principis seu Regis sui destitutione multipliciter contrubatum, & varia perplexitate depressum condolentes, & propter dissensiones Magnatum ius ad dictum regnum se habere contententium, ob affectionem & zelum quem habuimus & habemus ad ipsum regnum & ipsius incolas (sicut dicitur Bathon. Episcopus coram vobis nostro nomine recitavit) & præcipue ad universos & singulos quorum tuitio & defensio ad nos spectare dixerunt, ac etiam pro pace dicti regni & inhabitantium ejusdem, ad partes istas gressus nostros direximus, nostris non parcentes laboribus nec expensis. Cumque vos Episcopi aliquos Ecclesiarum Prelati, Comites, Barones & Nobiles regni Scotia ad nostrum mandatum hic in termino vobis assignato congregati, requisitionem quandam vobis ex parte nostra factam, super recognitione vestra benivolentia nobis facienda de superioritate et directo dominio regni Scotia quod est nostrum; et in cuius possessione vel quasi progenitores nostri Angliæ Reges a tempore cuius contrarii memoria non existit, et nos adhuc continemus in presenti; quod per rationes evidentiissimas et manifestas, ac iura, certa que alia documenta vobis nostro nomine sufficienter ostensa evidentes apparet, quæ antea vobis et etiam intellexistis vicibus iteratis. Vobis omnibus et singulis de Communitate ipsius regni, sicut hesternæ die et hodiernæ per dictum Episcopum Bathon. notificari fecimus et denunciari nomine nostro, ita in presenti notificamus et denunciamus; Quod intentionis nostræ est uti iure nostro, et in negotio inter contententes de iure successionis regni Scotia prælibati procedere iure superioritatis et directi domini huiusmodi, quod est nostrum, ad cognoscendum, discutendum et discernendum de iure singulorum ius ad regnum Scotia vendicantium quoquo modo. An. 20 E. 1. torum, Comitum, Baronum, & aliorum Nobilium de Communitate regni Scotie, an saper petitione juris sui quam facere in'endebant, voluerunt stare juri coram nobis, et petere, respondere et recipere sicut coram superioxi et directo Domino sui dicit regni iustitia complementum? ac ipsi et eorum quilibet per se, palam et publice coram vobis omnibus, nullo contradicente vel reclamante, nos superioxi et directum Dominum dicti regni Scotie recognoverunt et recognovit, et se belle stare juri coram nobis concesserunt et concessit, et etiam a nobis et coram nobis petere, respondere et recipere, tanquam a superioxi et directo Domino sui regni Scotie, quod iustitia scaderet. Idcirco vobis omnibus et singulis his presentibus dicimus et notificamus aperte, quod in summa hoc est nostre voluntatis quodiam, pacem et tranquillitatem in regno Scotie inter ipsius regnicolas confirmare; ut discordiarum et dissensionum contententium sublatiis materiis, unicuique facere iustitie complementum; nihil inebite super quempiam occupare, nullas iustitiam protelare, seu libertates diminuire, nec quenquam ledere minus iuste, sed unicuique petenti tanquam superioxi et directus Dominus Scotie ius sibi competens tribuere, leges et consuetudines ipsius regni juri consonas et approbatas facere inviolabiliter observari, ac etiam operam sollicitam circa ea que reformationem status ipsius regni respiciunt impendere, et quietem partium prebatarum. Sperantes enim cum Dei adiutorio sic in hac parte prohibere, quod ad divini nominis laudem cedet, et statum prosperum regionis et incolarum ejusdem commodum in futurum. Et quambis nos Amicus superioxi et directus Dominus ipsius regni, et ipsius exercitum et exercitio juris ad nos pertineat, non intendimus propter hoc nos a jure hereditario, (si quod nobis competat) ad idem regnum quoad proprietatem ipsius excludere, licet utamur jure nostro exhibendo et faciendo aliis iustitiam, sed etiam ius nostrum inter alios petentes belle prosequi et declarare visis, modis et temporibus quibus de jure poterimus et viderimus expedire.

Ad hac Nobilis vir Dominus Johannes de Balliolo surrexit, & dicto Domino Regi dixit; Quod ipsam superioxi et directum Dominum regni Scotie recognovit, et concessit sicut alias, se belle stare juri coram ipso super jure successionis sibi competentis ad dictum regnum, et ab ipso et coram ipso ut superioxi et directo suo Domino petere, respondere et recipere, quod consideratum sibi fuerit in hac parte. Eodem modo Dominus Johannes Comyn Dominus de Banenagh, surrexit, ipsamque Dominum Regem superioxi et directum Dominum regni Scotie palam et publice recognovit, et petiit se admitti inter alios petentes idem regnum ad prosecutionem juris sibi competentis ad dictum regnum, et concessit se belle stare juri coram ipso; et ab ipso et coram ipso tanquam superioxi et directo Domino regni Scotie petere, respondere et recipere iustitie complementum. Cujus petitioni dictus Dominus Rex inclinatus, ipsam Dominum Johannem Comyn inter alios petentes admisit. Et statim ibidem supranominati Nobiles ius successionis in regnum Scotie vendicantes (ut premissum) omnes et singuli, saper recognitionibus suis sapradictis suas patentes literas eidem Domino Regi fieri fecerant Agillozorum suorum impressionibus consignatas, tenorem qui sequitur continentes.

Anno à Nativitate Domini 1291. Indictione quarta mensis Augusti die tertia con-tinuata cum die Jovis prox. precedente, quem diem Jovis partes subscriptæ juri ad regnum Scotiæ ex successione hereditaria sibi vendicantes, ex assignatione & præfixione serenissimi Principis & Domini, Domini Edwardi Dei gratia Regis Angliæ illustris, su-perioris et directi Domini Regni Scotiæ supradicti (ut pramittitur) habuerunt ad comparandum ipso apud Berewicum super Twedam, & in negotio inter ipsas partes super jure succedendi in dictum regnum Scotiæ inchoato procedendum, petendum, respon-dendum, & recipiendum iustitiæ complementum; Convenientibus coram ipso Domino Rege suoque consilio in Ecclesia fratrum predicatorum de Berewico deserta, atriis-que regni Nobilibus & Prælatibus, necnon omnibus & singulis juri ad dictum regnum Scotiæ vendicantibus, ac viginti quatuor de regno Angliæ auditoribus, per ipsum Dominum Regem Angliæ ratione superioritatis & domini sui prædicti nominatis & electis (ut pramittitur) et etiam octoginta auditoribus per nobiles viros, Dominos Robertum de Brus, & Johannem de Balleolo & alios, qui nominationi & electioni per ipsos facienda consentire voluerint, nominatis & electis ad audiendum petitiones & jura Nobi-lium prædictorum dictum regnum vendicantium, & ad cognoscendum, discutendum & diffinendum de jure singulorum petentium prædictorum, & Domino Regi prædicto id quod invenerint fideliter referendam, ut ipse Deum habens præ oculis pro jure illius pronunciet, quem pinguius juri ad idem regnum habere viderit in eventu, & unicuique petenti iustitiæ faceret complementum. Inprimis ex parte Nobilis viri Domini Florentii Comitis Hollandiæ fuit pro jure suo propositum, narratum & petum hoc modo.

Florentius Comes Hollandiæ petit à Domino Rege Angliæ Superiorem et directum Domino Regni Scotiæ hereditatem suam dicti regni sibi liberari tanquam hæredi propinquiore; eo quod Margareta filia Regis Norwegiæ consanguinea ipsius Comitis (cujus hæres ipse est) fuit seistis in dominico suo ut de feodo de prædicto regno Scotiæ tempore pacis, tempore Domini Edwardi Regis Angliæ Superioris et directi Domini Regni Scotiæ; & inde nuper obiit seistis; Et de prædicta Margareta, quia obiit sine hærede de se, resortiebatur Feodum & Dominium, ut de-buit resortiri cuidam Ade, ut consanguineo & hæredi sororis quondam Regis Scotiæ Willielmi tritavi prædictæ Margareta; & de ipsa Ada descendit feodum & dominium & debuit descendere cuidam Florentio ut filio & hæredi; Et de ipso Flo-rentio descendit feodum & Dominium & descendere debuit cuidam Willielmo ut hæredi; Et ex ipso Willielmo descendit feodum & Dominium, & descendere de-buit illi Florentio ut filio & hæredi, qui nunc petit. Et quod ipse est hæres ipsius Margareta propinquior, paratus est ostendere prout debet, salvo sibi beneficio addendi, mutandi & minuendi; prout melius viderit expedire.

Ex parte vero Nobilis viri Domini Patricii de Dunbar Comitis de Marchia pro Jure fuit propositum, narratum & petum hoc modo. Patricius Comes de Marchia supplicat, quod super regno Scotiæ sibi fiat Justitiæ, quod debet de jure sibi obve-nire propter defectum successionis descendenti à Rege Scotiæ Alexandro ultimo per reversionem & resortam ad Idam filiam Willielmi quondam Regis Scotiæ:

An. 20 E. 1.

De qua descendit Jus succedendi ad dictum regnum ad Patricium Comitem de Marchia, tanquam ad filium & heredem; A quo descendit idem Jus ad Patricium secundum similiter Comitem de Marchia, tanquam ad filium & heredem, qui nunc petit ut hæres propinquior per successionem regni Scotia.

Ex parte vero Nobilis viri Domini Willielmi de Vesey fuit pro Jure suo propositum, narratum & petatum hoc modo. Willielmus Rex Scotia genuit Alexandrum Regem, qui regnavit post ipsum; & idem Alexander genuit Alexandrum secundum qui postea regnavit, & duxit in uxorem Margaretam filiam Henrici Regis Anglia illustris; de quibus exivit una Margareta, quæ fuit nupta Regi Normægia; Et de illis exivit quædam alia Magareta, quæ fuit hæres Scotia; quæ quidem sine hærede de corpore suo obiit, sicut illa quæ fuit minoris ætatis. Item idem Willielmus Rex genuit Margaretam sororem prædicti Alexandri Regis, & fuit nupta illa Margareta Eustacio de Vesey, de qua genuit Willielmum de Vesey qui obiit in Vasconia, & idem Willielmus genuit Johannem de Vesey (qui obiit sine hærede de corpore suo) & Willielmum de Vesey fratrem ipsius Johannis, qui modo petit regnum Scotia, sicut propinquior hæres de sanguine prædictæ Margareta quæ obiit sine hærede de se; per cujus obitum jus debet resortiri isti Willielmo qui modo petit.

Ex parte vero Nobilis viri Domini Willielmi de Ros fuit similiter pro jure suo propositum, narratum & petatum hoc modo. Willielmus de Ros supplicat, quod iustitia sibi fiat de clamore suo quod ponit in regnum Scotia, quod sibi debet obvenire de Jure in hunc modum. Rex Willielmus genuit Regem Alexandrum, qui regnavit post ipsum; Et idem Alexander genuit Alexandrum secundum, qui postea regnavit, & habuit unam filiam Margaretam nomine, quæ fuit nupta Regi Normægia; de quibus exivit quædam alia Margareta, quæ postea fuit hæres Scotia, & obiit sine hærede de corpore suo. Et per defectum exitus de sanguine ejusdem Margareta, & per reversionem debet reverti ad Isabellam primogenitam, & Adam & Margaretam filias dicti Regis Willielmi, patris dicti Alexandri, fratris prædictarum Isabella, Ada & Margareta, & patris Alexandri qui ultimo obiit, sicut ad propinquiores de sanguine prædictæ Margareta; quæ quidem Isabella desponsata fuit Roberto de Ros; Et de ipsis Roberto & Isabella exivit quidam Willielmus, & de Willielmo quidam Robertus, de quo Willielmus qui nunc petit, sicut propinquior homo per defectum sanguinis prædictæ Margareta & reversionem prædictam ad Isabellam antecessorem suum, tanquam ad primogenitam; cui Isabella ratione primogenituræ debet dictum regnum integrè remanere: Et quod regnum non debet dividi paratus est verificare.

Ex parte vero Domini Roberti de Pinkny similiter fuit pro jure suo propositum, narratum & petatum hoc modo. David Rex Scotia genuit Henricum, Henricus Willielmum, Willielmus Alexandrum primum, Alexander primus Alexandrum secundum, & ille Alexandrum tertium, qui obiit sine prole, & David similiter, qui obiit sine prole, & Margaretam Reginam Normægia, ex qua genita est quædam alia Margareta, quæ jam obiit sine prole. Ex prædicto Henrico patre Regis Willielmi similiter genita fuit quædam Margareta, ex qua Margareta Alicia, & ex ea Henricus de Pinkny, à quo Henrico Robertus de Pinkny, qui nunc petit regnum Scotia per reversionem & resortium ad dictam Margaretam proaviam suam propter defectum prolis exeuntis de prædicta Margareta filia Regis Normægia.

Ex parte vero Domini Nicolai de Soules fuit similiter pro jure suo propositum, narratum & petatum hoc modo. Sicut Domino placuit Alexandro, qui ultimo obiit Rex scissus de regno Scotia, & omnibus illis qui de illo per rectam lineam exierunt, viam universo carnis ingresso, Jus ejusdem resortiebatur, & debuit resortiri Margareta quondam uxori Alani le Huffer, sicut uxori & hæredi ejusdem Regis Alexandri; Et de ipsa Margareta descendit Jus & descendere debuit Ermegarda filia & hæredi prædicti Regis Alexandri, & de ipsa Ermegarda descendit Jus & descendere debuit Nicholao de Soules, qui nunc petit sicut filius & hæres.

Ex parte vero Patricii Galighly pro jure suo similiter fuit propositum, narratum & petatum hoc modo. Coram vobis Dominis auditoribus à Domino Rege Anglia superiori et directo Domino regni Scotia deputatis, ac Communicate tota, dicit & exponit Patricius Galighly, quod cum bonæ memoriæ Rex Henricus fuit pater Willielmi Regis, qui genuit Alexandrum Regem patrem Regis Alexandri ultimo defuncti, defuncti, & idem Patricium Galighty sit ex eodem Henrico in legitimo matrimonio procreatus, & per hoc ex Regali progenie sit propinquior Domino Alexandro Regi, ut filio patris sui, Alexandro ultimo videlicet nunc defuncto, de cujus successione nunc agitur ad præsens; quod ipsum Patricium Domino Alexandro Regi defuncto propinquiores gradum & jure potiores ad successionem regni de jure sibi debiti præferatis; potissimè cum ab omnibus sit juratum post mortem ejusdem, quod deficiente Domicella, propinquiores de sanguine regali in Regem assumerent, & ab eo nullatenus dissentirent: Et hæc dicit & proponit, salvo sibi jure addendi & diminuendi.

Ex parte vero Rogeri de Mundeville pro jure suo fuit similiter propositum, narratum & petitum hoc modo. Rogerus de Mundeville supplicat, quod de jure quod habet ad regnum Scotia, inquiratur per gentes de Anglia, Hibernia & Scotia, ex eo quod quidam Rex Willielmus habuit unum filium & duas filias, & ante mortem suam tradidit illos cuidam Malcolmo Regi Scotia fratri suo, qui filium illius fecit occidi; una vero dictarum filiarum obiit, & alia quæ vocabatur Anstrop, nupta fuit in Ulvest, cuidam Willielmo de Say; de quibus exivit unus filius vocatus Willielmus, & idem Willielmus habuit unam filiam vocatam Ansik, quæ nupta fuit Roberto de Vandone; de quibus exivit una filia nomine Agatha, cujus filius & hæres est iste Rogerus, qui modo petit.

Ex parte vero Nobilis viri Domini Johannis Comyn pro jure suo fuit similiter propositum, narratum & petitum hoc modo. Domino Regi Anglia illustri, super rati et directo Domino regi Scotia, & coram auditoribus assignatis monstrat Johannes Comyn, Quod ipse habet melius jus ad regnum Scotia optinendum, & in eo ut Rex regnare quàm aliquis alius; ex eo quod quidam antecessor suus Dovenaldus filius Duncani filii Erici fuit seistus de regno Scotia in Dominico suo ut de feodo tempore pacis, & in eo ut Rex de jure regnavit, de ipso Dovenaldo jus dicti regni Scotia, & debuit descendere cuidam Gothrik, ut filio & hæredi; & de Gothrik descendit jus & debuit descendere Hexilda ut filio & hæredi; & de Hexilda descendit jus & debuit descendere cuidam Willielmo ut filio & hæredi; de Willielmo descendit jus & debuit descendere cuidam Ricardo ut filio & hæredi; de Richardo descendit jus & debuit descendere cuidam Johanni ut filio & hæredi; & de Willielmo (quia obiit sine hærede de corpore suo) descendit jus & debuit isti Johanni qui modo petit ut fratri & hæredi. Et quod tale sit jus suum, paratus est verificare prout Dominus Rex & Consilium suum, ac Curia sua consideraverit secundum leges & consuetudines regni Scotia, & per Chronicas, & alio modo. Et supplicat, quod saluum sit sibi jus corrigendi, addendi & minuendi, & omne aliud quod sibi bonum videbitur dicere, secundum leges & consuetudines regni Scotia. Et non vult quod istud cedat in præjudicium Johanni de Balliol ullo modo.

Ex parte vero Nobilis viri Domini Johannis de Hastings fuit pro jure suo similiter propositum, narratum & petitum hoc modo. Cum regnum Scotia nuper vacaverit per mortem Regis Alexandri, qui ultimo obiit sine hærede, qui modo remaneat de se, qui possit hæreditatem in Scotia clamare; per quod terra Scotia & omnes alie terre, quæ fuerint dicti Regis Alexandri, hæreditarie spectant ad exitum trium filiarum Comitissæ David fratris Regis Willielmi avi prædicti Regis Alexandri, ut ad consanguineas & unum hæredem, propinquiores de suo sanguine, videlicet ad Margaretam, Isabellam & Adam; & de prædicta Ada, exivit Johannes qui nunc petit regnum Scotia ut jus suum, tanquam hæres propinquior in gradu de sanguine Regis Alexandri qui ultimo obiit, & Margareta filia Regis Normegia in linea collateralis, ut de legitimo regali sanguine Scotia.

Ex parte vero Nobilis viri Domini Johannis de Balliol Domini Galwidia fuit similiter pro jure suo propositum, narratum & petitum hoc modo. Coram Domino Rege Anglia, Capitali Domino Scotia, & coram auditoribus electis petit Johannes de Balliol jus suum de regno Scotia de seistina antecessoris sui David nomine, qui fuit Rex & regnavit; unde de eodem David descendit jus & descendere debuit cuidam Henrico ut filio & hæredi; de eodem Henrico descendit jus Malcolmo ut filio & hæredi, & regnavit & obiit sine hærede de corpore suo; unde de Malcolmo descendit jus & debuit descendere Willielmo ut fratri & hæredi; de Willielmo qui regnavit descendit jus & debuit descendere Alexandro ut filio & hæredi; Alexander regnavit, & descendit jus & debuit descendere Alexandro ut filio & hæredi, qui Eadem Christiana obiit sine hærede de corpore suo, unde de ipsa Christiana descendit jus & debuit descendere Dervorgulda ut sorori & hæredi; de Dervorgulda descendit jus & debuit descendere Hugoni ut filio & hæredi; Hugo obiit sine hærede de corpore suo, & descendit jus & debuit descendere Alano ut fratri & hæredi; Alanus obiit sine hærede de corpore suo, de quo descendit jus & descendere debuit Alexandro ut fratri & hæredi; Alexander obiit sine hærede de corpore suo, unde de ipso descendit jus & descendere debuit Johanni de Balliolo, ut fratri & hæredi, qui modo petit jus suum, ut illi qui erit de sorore primogenita de regno impartibili: Et supplicat Domino Regi, & suo Consilio, & aliis electis, quod velint ius suum decidere secundum leges et consuetudines Scotia, et sibi iustitiam exhibere; salvo sibi jure addendi & diminuendi secundum leges & consuetudines Scotia.

Ex parte vero Nobilis viri Domini Roberti de Brus Domini vallis Anandia, & pro jure suo fuit similiter propositum, narratum & petitum hoc modo. Coram vobis Domino Edwardo Dei gratia Rege Anglia illustri, et superiori Domino regni Scotia, monstrat Robertus de Brus Dominus vallis Anandia, quod ipse est rector & propinquior hæres regni Scotia cum pertinentiis; quia Rex Willielmus Rex Scotia antecessor suus frater Comitissæ David de Huntingdon fuit seistus de ipso regno in Dominico suo ut de feodo & jure cum pertinentiis tempore pacis, tempore Henrici Regis Anglia, qui vocabatur filius Imperatricis, & temporibus Regum Ricardi & Johannis filiorum suorum. Et idem Willielmus regnavit Rex in Scotia tempore suo, & pacifice obiit Rex seistus: De eodem Willielmo descendit regnum Scotia Alexandro filio suo, ut filio & hæredi, qui regnavit & obiit Rex seistus: De eodem Alexandro descendit regnum Alexandro filio suo, ut filio & hæredi, qui regnavit & obiit Rex seistus. Ille idem Alexander habuit duos filios, Alexandrum primogenitum, & David secundogenitum, & unam filiam quæ vocabatur Margareta, quæ fuit Regina Norwegia; qui filii obierunt vivente patre, & nullum statum expectaverunt regnandi in regnum Scotia. Illa Margareta habuit unam filiam de Rege Norwegia nomine Margaretam; cui prædictus Rex Alexander Rex Scotia avus suus in vita sua post mortem liberorum suorum, fecit probos homines terræ suæ jurare & affirmare per scriptum ad tenendum eam pro Domina regni Scotia, si decederet sine hærede de corpore suo. Quæ quidam Margareta obiit sine possessione corporali regni Scotia expectanda, & sine hærede de corpore suo. Post quam Margaretam, nihil remansit de exitu prædicti Regis Willielmi in linea descendente; per quod regnum Scotia cum pertinentiis debuisset per legem & justiciam resortiri fuisse Comiti de Huntingdon, postnato fratri prædicti Regis Willielmi, si statum regnandi in regnum Scotia expectasset. Qui quidem David habuit tres filios, Henricum, David & Johannem, qui fuit Comes Cestria; qui omnes obierunt sine hæredibus de corporibus suis, & sine statu regnandi in regno Scotia expectando. Ille idem David habuit etiam quatuor filias, Matildem quæ obiit sine hærede de corpore suo, Margaritam, Isabellam, & Adam; de Isabella exivit Robertus de Brus, qui modo est, qui petit regnum Scotia; propter quod idem Robertus dicit, quod regnum Scotia debet resortiri ad eum sine medio per legem & justiciam ut propinquiore in gradu de sanguine Regis Alexandri, qui ultimo obiit, & Margareta filiz Regis Norwegia supradictæ in linea collateralis, ut de sanguine regali Scotia legitimo. Quod quidem regnum Scotia cum pertinentiis dictus Robertus de Brus clamat tenere libere in libertate regni de vobis Domino Edwardo Dei gratia Rege Angl. et de Corona Anglia hæreditarie imperpetuum. Et monstrat vobis, quod Rex Alexander filius Regis Willielmi prædicti desperans de hærede de corpore suo tenuit dictum Robertum rectum hæredem suum, si ipse decederet sine alio hærede de suo corpore habendo. Et pro tali diffinivit ex assensu proborum hominum de regno suo, & pro tali ipsum pronunciavit coram eis, de quibus plures adhuc sunt superstitēs, qui de hoc testimonium poterunt perhibere. Et Rex etiam Alexander, qui ultimo obiit, tenuit ipsum pro tali, & id pluribus specialibus suis dedit intelligi, si exitus de ipso deficeret. Et præterea omnes probi homines de Scotia sunt jurati propinquiore de sanguine Regis Alexandri, qui ultimo obiit, qui de jure hæreditare debebit, si dicta Margareta filia Regis Norwegia sine hærede de corpore suo obiret. Unde supplicat Dominationi vestræ, quod secundum formam petitionis suæ sibi velit plenam justiciam exhibere, sicut ad vestram pertinet dignitatem. Salvo sibi jure in omnibus addendi, mutandi & diminuendi secundum quod attendet suo profectui convenire.

difficultates in premissis petitionibus compertas, rationes et allegationes hinc inde factas, præfati auditores ad ipsum Dominum Regem accesserunt, et quæ coram ipsis acta fuerunt, seriatim per ordinem referebant. Qui omnia & singula prædicta sibi relata per auditores memoratos, cum omnibus et singulis utriusque Regni Nobilibus et Prelatis totoque suo consilio diligentius examinavit. Et discussione super hiis habita diligenti, quia consideravit magnam dilationem ex prædicto modo procedendi, non sine gravi dampno & periculo ipsius regni posse verisimiliter pervenire; Volensque dicto periculo obviare, lites & iurgia sedare, et quatenus poteris dictum processum abbreviare, & ad maturam & celerem expeditionem huiusmodi negotii procedere, de voluntate unanimi & consensu expresso omnium & singulorum potentium prædictorum, consentientibus etiam utriusque regni Nobilibus et Prelatis, ordinavit quod primo procederetur ad cognoscendum, discutendum et diffiniendum de iure dictorum Roberti de Brus, & Johannis de Balliolo, quousque discussum fuerit ad plenum de iure regnandi, & quis ipsorum potior sit in iure regnandi, & dictum regnum Scotiæ gubernandi. Et quod interim alii omnes & singuli Potentes prænotati de proseguendo supersederent, & suam omnino differant prosecutionem, Jure tamen eorum & cuiuslibet eorum in eventum & eorum cuilibet semper salvo. Ita videlicet quod discussio plena & determinata inter ipsos Robertum & Johannem, ceteri omnes potentes & eorum quilibet, juri sibi competens ex tunc liberè proseguatur modo quo voluerit & crediderit meliori. Quæ ordinatio ut præmittitur dicta & ab omnibus acceptata, & etiam approbata, licet idem Dominus Rex Angliæ de iure sibi competenti ratione superioritatis et directi sui Dominii præstari, ad cognoscendum, discutendum et terminandum dictum regnum procedere potuisset, tamen ut securius & consultius cognosceret & diffiniret, quo ipse per ipsos Auditores Scotiæ octoginta fuisset plenius informatus, recepto primitus ab ipsis octoginta Auditoribus corporali Jureamento, de fidei suo consilio sibi impendendo, præcepit eisdem et injunxit sub debito præfati Juramenti, quod sibi consulerent, qualiter et per quas leges sibi consuetudines sit in prædicto negotio ad iudicium procedendum. Habitoque inter ipsos auditores super hoc tractatu diutino et diligenti, cum inter se non poterunt concordare, eidem Domino Regi una voce dicebant, quod propter dissensiones aliquas super legibus et consuetudinibus diversis inter ipsos ortas, non audebant in casu tam arduo et hæcenus inaudito absque maiori et tanto Consilio et Deliberatione, eidem Domine Regi consulerent; Supplicarunt insuper eidem Domino Regi, quod placeret sibi dictos viginti quatuor de Angliæ Auditores per ipsum assignatos eisdem associare. Quibus viginti quatuor Angliæ dictis octoginta Scotiæ associatis, post deliberationem & tractatum aliqualem habitum cum eisdem super premissis, ad ipsum Dominum Regem redierunt & eidem dixerunt; Quod ex quo dicti octoginta de Scotia super legibus & consuetudinibus Scotiæ in tanta perplexitate & discordia fuissent, de quorum consilio si concordēs essent, idem Dominus Rex ad figurandum iudicium in prædicto negotio procedere debuisset, & ipsi viginti quatuor Angliæ pauci sint respectu illorum octoginta; nec etiam ipsi sint à maioribus & discretioribus regni Angliæ, propter quæ non audebant super se assumere tantum onus, absque maiori consilio Prelatorum, Nobilium, Magnatum et Sapientum regni Angliæ tunc absentium, nec etiam consilere in negotio prænotato; Eapropter de Consilio unanimi & consensu omnium auditorum prædictorum, & aliorum utriusque regni Nobilium & Prelatorum ipsidem presentium, ac potentium idem Regnum prædictum, præfixis & assignatis idem Dominus Rex dictis Nobilibus ipsum regnum Scotiæ potentibus diem crastinum Translationis Sancti Edwardi Regis & Confessoris in Parlamento suo lecto eodem, coram ipso et auditoribus, ad procedendum ibidem in negotio memorato, cum continuatione & prorogatione dierum, cognoscendum, discutiendum, & de iure singulorum diffiniendum, pronunciandum & declarandum, prout de iure fuerit faciendum. Et quod majores & discretiores regni sui ob istam causam ad dictos diem & locum convocarentur præcepit. Et quod medio tempore tam dicti hinc inde auditores, quam ceteri omnes utriusque regni Nobiles & Prelati tunc presentes super premissis cogitarent & deliberarent, quod consultius fieri debeat in eventum. Et decrevit idem Dominus Rex interim, per suos certos nuncios diversarum terrarum super facto huiusmodi consuleret sapientes, & ut eorum consilium circa dictum diem sibi referatur. An. 20 E. 1. ffo Patribus Dominis Antonio Dunolm. Roberto Bathon. & Wellen, Willielmo Elien. Willielmo Sancti Andree, Roberto Glasuen. & Henr. Dei gratia Aberdon. Episcopis, & Nobilibus viris Dominis Amadeo Subaudia, Henrico Lincoln. Johanne de Boughan & Dovenapdo de Mar Comitibus, ac Magistro Johanne Erturi de Cadomo publico apostolica auctoritate Notario, cum aliis tam Ecclesiarum Prælati utriusque regni, quam Comitibus, Baronibus & Militibus, & aliis popularibus in multitudine copiosa.

Anno à Nativitate 1292. Inditione sexta, mensis Octobris die quatuordecimo, in crastino videlicet Sancti Edwardi Regis & Confessoris, existente serenissimo Principe & Domino, Domino Edwardo Dei gratia Rege Angliæ illustri, superiori et directo Domino regni Scotiæ apud Berewicum super Twedam, et Parliamentum suum ibidem inditum incipientem, comparuerunt coram ipso Nobiles viri omnes et singuli regnum Scotiæ bendicantes, & etiam utriusque regni Nobiles, & Prælati, ac Auditores prælati: nominati, electi & assignati quævis idem Dominus Rex in primis palam & publice, sicut alias in ultimo suo Parlamento ibidem fecerat, ab omnibus utriusque regni Nobilibus & Prælati auditoribus memoratis, & aliis de Consilio suo sapientibus & discretis, per quas leges sive consuetudines sit in prædicto negotio ad iudicium procedendum? Et, an in casu in quo certæ leges non reperiuntur vel consuetudines, aut etiam diversa et Scotiæ regnis, qualiter sit iudicandum? Et si de dicto regno Scotiæ sit aliter iudicandum, quam de Comitibus, Baronibus, et aliis Tenuris? Responderunt una voce, nullo contradicente vel reclamante, concorditer, Quod per Leges et Consuetudines regni illius qui præstet, si certæ reperiuntur, in hoc casu iudicare potest et debet; Et si in casu huiusmodi leges certæ et Consuetudines non reperiuntur; Idem Dominus Rex de Consilio Nobilium et Prælatorum, et aliorum Procerum et Magnatum regni sui potest et debet condere novam legem. Dixit etiam, quod de prædicto regno quoad sus succedendi, est iudicandum, et ad iudicium procedendum, sicut de Comitibus, Baronibus et aliis Tenuris impartibilibus. Quibus Responsionibus auditis & intellectis, quævis Dominus Rex à prædictis Nobilibus viris Dominis Roberto de Brus, & Johanne de Balliolo, si vellent quicquid aliud pro iure sui declaratione, quam proposuerunt, proponere, dicere vel ostendere? Ipsi vero respondentibus, Quod sicut præcepit & injunxit auditori ut memoratis, quod locum quo prius adirent, & prædictos Robertum & Johannem de die in diem in omnibus & singulis, quæ dicere seu proponere vellent, benignè audirent, sibi que eorum rationes ostensiones & iura præhabita discussione diligenti fideliter referrent. Coram quibus auditoribus in Ecclesia fratrum prædicatorum de Berewico deserta, præfati Nobiles, Robertus & Johannes, una cum aliis petentibus ad ipsius Domini Regis præceptam constituti. Dicit Dominus Robertus de Brus ad ea quæ in petitione sua superscripta proponebantur adjecit dicendo, ratiocinando, & narrando; Quod quæstio super jure regnandi, habet terminari & iudicari per Jus naturale per quod Reges regnant, & non per leges & consuetudines inter subditos usitatas, per quod quidem Jus naturale proximior in sanguine linea collaterali, melius Jus habet regnandi. Dicebat etiam, quod Lex & Consuetudo quæ sunt inter Tenentes & Subditos, Superiorem ligare non possunt, præcipue Regem suum. Unde dixit, quod licet in hæreditatibus partibilibus secundum leges & consuetudines inter subditos observatas primogenita aliquam habeant Prærogativam, in regno tamen impartibili, ubi proximorum in sanguine regali legitimus tempore vacationis regni inventus secundum Jus naturale est præferendus, primogenita nullam habet nec habere debet prærogativam. Dixit etiam, quod Consuetudo succedendi in regnum Scotia plene facit pro eo; quia usitatum est in Scotia, quod frater Regis præcedentis præferendus est ejus filio in successione regni Scotiæ, ratione proximitatis in gradu. Et ad hoc quædam antiqua produxit exempla; videlicet quod quidam Dovenaldus frater Kineth mach Alpin regnavit immediate post fratrem suum, excluso Constantino primogenito prædicti Kineth; & hoc ratione propinquitatis sanguinis ipsius Alpini, & post prædictum Dovenaldum regnavit Constantinus primogenitus ipsius Kineth mac Alpin. Et post eum regnavit Eib. frater ejus senior, excluso Dovenaldo filio prædicti Constantini: De quibus Constantino & Eib. fratribus & filiis prædicti Kineth mac Alpin descenderunt omnes Reges, qui postea regnaverunt in Scotia usque modo, & semper sicut erant propinquiore in gradu regnabant quilibet post alium usque ad tempus Regis Malcolmi viri Sanctæ

Margaretta

Magarita Regine. Et adhuc post prædictum Malcolmum, quidam frater ejus regnavit, excluso filio ejusdem Malcolmi: Et adduxit ultra similiter idem Dominus Robertus quædam alia exempla de consimilibus successionibus in quibusdam terris aliis et regionibus, utpote de Comitatu Sabaudia & regno Yspania. Dixit etiam, quod mulier regnare non debet, quia officium regiminis exercere non potest; et tempore quo prædictum regnum vacabit per mortem Regis Alexandri ultimi Regis Scotia fuit Dervorgulda mater prædicti Johannis de Balliolo superstes, quæ ratione prædicta regnare non potuit nec debuit. Et sic Jus ipsius regni prædicto Roberto tanquam Masculo, & in æquali gradu cum prædicta Dervorgulda existenti sine medio debet resortire propter insufficientiam dictæ Dervorgulda quia Mulier. Unde petit idem Robertus, quod habito respectu ad leges Regales, per quas Reges regnant et regnare debent, et etiam ad exempla per ipsum producta; Quod dictus Dominus Rex Jus suum velit declarare, et sibi Justitiam exhibere.

Ad hæc statim ex parte Nobilis viri Domini Johannis de Balliolo respondebatur hoc modo; Quod dictum regnum Scotia non potest nec debet eidem Roberto de Brus quovis modo de jure adjudicari; pro eo, quod ubi prædictus Robertus in petitione sua petit regnum Scotia cum pertinentiis suis, ut rectior & proximior hæres ipsius regni, eo quod Willielmus Rex Scotia Antecessor ejus frater David Comitis Huntingdon. fuit scissus de prædicto regno Scotia in Dominico suo ut de feodo, & de jure tempore pacis, & tempore Regis Henrici primi Domini Regis Anglia, qui nunc est; & de ipso Willielmo descendit Jus dicti regni cuidam Alexandro ut filio & hæredi qui regnavit & obiit inde scissus. Et de ipso Alexandro descendit Jus ejusdem regni cuidam Alexandro ut filio et hæredi qui similiter regnavit et obiit inde scissus. Qui quidem Alexander habuit duos filios qui obierunt sine hærede de se patre eorum vivente, & unam filiam Margaretam nomine Reginam Norwegia, quæ similiter obiit vivente patre; de qua quidem Margareta exivit quædam alia Margareta, cui Dominus Alexander avus ipsius Margaretæ fecit homines suos de regno suo jurare, quod ipsam tenerent pro Domina dicti regni Scotia, & hoc fecit per scriptum affirmari. Quæ quidem Margareta obiit sine hærede de se, per quod Jus prædicti regni debuisset resortiri cuidam David fratri prædicti Willielmi Regis, si statum regnandi expectasset; Et idem David habuit tres filios qui obierunt sine hærede de se, et quatuor filias Matildam quæ obiit sine hærede de se, Margaretam, Isabellam & Adam, de qua Isabella exivit Robertus de Brus qui nunc petit, & dicit, quod ad ipsum debet prædictum regnum Scotia sine medio, ut ad proximior in gradu de sanguine Regis Alexandri qui ultimo obiit, & similiter dictæ Margaretæ in linea collateralis. Et quod præterea quidam Alexander pater prædicti Regis Alexandri qui ultimo obiit, recognovit coram Baronibus suis ipsum Robertum pro proximiori hærede suo, si ipsum decedere contingeret sine hærede de corpore suo; Et quod illud idem dictus Alexander Rex qui ultimo obiit recognovit, si absque hærede de corpore suo decederet, sciente Dervorgulda matre prædicti Domini Johannis de Balliolo & non contradicente; quod idem Robertus in petitione sua prædicta omissionem fecit in ea parte suæ petitionis, ubi dicit, quod Jus regni prædicti debuisset resortiri David fratri Regis Willielmi per mortem prædictæ Margaretæ de Norwegia, nullam faciendo mentionem de Margareta, Marjoria, & Isabella filiabus prædicti Regis Willielmi fratris prædicti David, desicut nullum Jus potuit nec debuit resortiri ad prædictum David fratrem prædicti Regis Willielmi, nisi per medium prædictarum filiarum ipsius Regis Willielmi. Et quoad hoc quod idem Robertus dicit, quod Jus prædicti regni debuit ad ipsum resortiri sine medio; idem Johannes dicit prius, quod nullum Jus potest descendere vel resortiri alicui, nisi per medium rectæ lineæ descendens vel ascendens, secundum leges & consuetudines utriusque regni, per quod dicit, quod omnis aliquo vel aliquibus de recta linea ascendente vel descendente, aliquid Jus ad eum non potuit resortiri. Et quoad hoc, quod idem Robertus dicit, quod est proximior in gradu, in eo, quod dicit, quod prædictus David habuit tres filias Margaretam, Isabellam, & Adam, de qua Margareta exivit Dervorgulda, & de ipsa Johannes, qui nunc est, Et de prædicta Isabella Robertus qui nunc petit, & sic proximior in gradu; per quod dicit se habere melius Jus ad regnum prædictum secundum consuetudinem quorundam regnorum. Dicit idem Johannes, quod quicquid dicat de aliis regnis & regionibus, vel de ipsorum consuetudinibus; in regnis tamen Anglia & Scotia, in quibus Reges regnant

An. 20 E. 1. regnant per successionem in recta linea, & Comites & Barones eodem modo succedunt in hereditatibus suis, Exitus postnata, licet in gradu proximorum, non excludit exitum primogenita, licet remotiorem in gradu in ipsa recta linea, successione durante. Dicit etiam, quod ex quo predictus Robertus concedit, quod Margareta antecessor predicti Johannis fuit primogenita predicti Davjd, & predicta Isabella mater predicti Roberti postnata; & quod predictum regnum Scotie non est partibile; per quod dicit, quod ius ipsius regni & ipsum regnum unica persona debeat remanere; videtur ei, quod in huiusmodi successione secundum leges & consuetudines utriusque regni antenata preferenda est postnata; et eadem ratione prius antenata est preferendus ejus postnata, tam ratione primogenitura, quam impartibilitatis regni predicti. Unde per rationes predictas, durante exitu primogenita, nihil juris exitui postnata accrescere potest. Et quoad hoc quod predictus Robertus dicit, quod Alexander Rex Scotie filius Regis Willielmi tenuit eum pro propinquiore herede suo, si sine herede de se contingeret ipsum mori, & pro tali eum coram Baronibus suis recognovit; idem Johannes dicit, Quod quoad petendum regnum predictum huiusmodi recognitio sibi valere non debet, etiam etsi facta fuisset. Et quod idem Robertus in petitione sua recognoscit, quod predictus Alexander obiit scitus de regno predicto in Dominico suo ut de feodo & jure, & quod de predicto Alexandro descendit ius predicti regni cuidam Alexandro ut filio & heredi, qui similiter obiit inde scitus; unde per recognitionem suam predictam satis ostendit, quod ille Alexander sine herede de se non decessit; & quod ius predicti regni ad filium suum ut ad heredem per mortem ipsius fuit transmissum. Et sic per recognitionem predicti Alexandri (si qua facta fuit) nihil juris fuit sibi acquisitum. Item quoad hoc, quod predictus, Robertus dicit, quod questio super jure regnandi habet terminari & judicari per Jus naturale, per quod Reges regnant, & non per leges & consuetudines, inter subditos usitatas; Idem Johannes dicit, Quod per easdem leges et Consuetudines debet Dominus Rex Anglie superius Dominus regni Scotie cognoscere et judicare de dicto regno Scotie inter petentes, per quas idem Rex Anglie de terris et tenementis ad Coronam suam spectantibus, si per antecessores suos infra regnum suum occupatis, cognoscit et judicat, et antecessores sui cognoscere et judicare solebant. Et hoc est per communem Legem et Consuetudinem regni sui, et non per aliquas alias Leges et Consuetudines qualescunque. Et quoad hoc, quod idem Robertus dicit, Quod Lex & Consuetudo quae sunt inter tenentes & subiectos superiorem ligare non possunt, & praecipue Regem suum; idem Johannes dicit, quod predictus Robertus non est in eo casu in quo judicari debet per subiectum, sed per superiorem, scilicet per Dominum suum Regem Anglie superiorem Dominum dicti regni Scotie, de cuius Progenitoribus a tempore cuius non extat memoria dictum regnum Scotie per homagium tenebatur, et de ipso teneri debet. Et ipsi petentes sint in ipsius Curia Regis et Domini sui, ad recipiendum ius ab eo, sicut subditi de tenementis quae ab ipso tenentur. Unde dicit, quod ex quo sunt subiecti dicto Domino suo Regi Anglie et Coronae suae, quolibet jure requiruntur, ut ipsi tanquam subditi et petentes ius ad regnum, quod de eo tenetur, per Leges et Consuetudines regni sui judicari. Et dicit, quod per easdem Leges et Consuetudines primogenita habet prerogativam in succedendo tam in hereditatibus impartibilibus quam partibilibus. Item quoad hoc, quod predictus Robertus dicit, quod Consuetudo succedendi in dicto regno Scotie plenè facit pro eo in hoc, quod dicit, Quod frater Regis cuiusdam praecedentis praefertur illius filio in successione regni ratione proximitatis in gradu; & ad hoc quaedam produxit exempla; Idem Johannes dicit, Quod per hoc, quod predictus Robertus intendit ostendere per exempla predicta, quod frater postnatus regnavit post fratrem antenatum ipsius filium repellendo, & hoc ratione proximitatis in gradu succedendi praefertur proximiori, quia filius proximior est patri in gradu huiusmodi succedendi, quam frater patris, secundum leges et Consuetudines utriusque regni. Et quoad exemplum, quod idem Robertus dicit, Quod frater Malcolmi quondam Regis Scotie regnavit immediatè post ipsum Malcolmum, ejus filium repellendo; Idem Johannes recognoscit, Quod frater predicti Malcolmi per aliquod tempus modo predicto regnavit; sed dicit, quod filius dicti Malcolmi sic expulsus * adivit Dominum suum Willielmum Regem Anglie et superiorem Dominum regni Scotie, conquerendo de injuria per fratrem patris sui sibi facta; ad cuius querelam idem Dominus Rex Anglie fratrem predicti Malcolmi a predicto constituit, qui postmodum toto tempore suo regnavit. Dicit etiam idem Johannes, quod post mortem ejusdem Regis filii Malcolmī, idem frater Malcolmī iterato se in dictum regnum intravit, et regnare cepit; per quod ad quietimoniam ejusdem * Edgari se- * See here, regni Scotiæ, prædictum Malcolmī sic regnantem injuste de eodem regno Scotiæ ite-rato eiecit; et prædictum Edgarum Regem ipsius Regni constituit. Post quem omnes alii Reges Scotiæ usque nunc per rectam lineam successionis secundum Leges et Consuetudines in utroque regno iustitias regnaverunt. Et quoad exempla de Yspania & Comitatu Sabaudiz, dicit, quod illa Exempla prædicto Roberto non de-bent valere; pro eo, quod alia sunt & diversa Leges & Consuetudines in Yspania & Sabaudia quam in regnis Angliæ & Scotiæ; nec Rex debet inter subditos suos per alias Leges et Consuetudines judicare, quam per Leges et Consuetudines regnorum quibus præest. Et quoad hoc, quod prædictus Robertus dicit, quod mul-lier regnare non debet, quia officium regiminis exercere non potest: Idem Johannes dicit, Quod si mulier regnare non debet, nec ius regnandi ad ipsam descendere seu resortiri, idem Robertus nihil iuris vendicare potest in regno prædicto; eo, quod si aliquid ius de ipso regno ad ipsum resortiri deberet, hoc esse non potest, nisi per medium Isabellæ matris suæ; unde dicit, Quod si nullam ius regnandi ad dictam Isabellam matrem suam resortiri potuit; nec ad ipsum Robertum nisi per ean-dem Isabellam tanquam ad filium descendere quoque modo. Dicit etiam, quod idem Robertus in huiusmodi dicto suo est sibi ipsi contrarius. Et quia satis notorium est, quod tam ipse Robertus quam omnes alii Comites, Barones, Proceres & Magnates regni Scotiæ iuraverunt fidelitatem Margaretæ filiz Regis Norwegiæ uxoris ultimo obiti Domini et Regini dicti regni Scotiæ, et ipsam pro Regina et Domina tene-runt; & sic erat idem Robertus modo negando verbo, quod prius facto concesserat, quod quidem factum dedicere non potest; Unde cum sit bene recognitum, quod Willielmus Rex Scotiæ fuit scissus de prædicto regno Scotiæ, & de prædicto Willielmo descendit ius Alexandro ut filio & heredi; & à prædicto Alexandro descendit ius cuidam Alexandro ut filio & heredi, qui obiit sine herede de se; Et de ipso Alexandro cuidam David ut fratri & heredi, & de ipso David quia obiit sine herede de se cuidam Margaretæ ut sorori & heredi; & de ipsa Margareta cuidam Margaretæ ut filia & heredi; & de ipsa Margareta quia obiit sine herede de se, resor-titur ius & debuit resortiri quibusdam Margaretæ, Marjorie, & Isabellæ ut con-sanguineæ & uni heredi, si dictum regnum esset partibile; Et quia non est partibile, remansit ius & remanere debuit prædicta Margaretæ ut antenata; Et de ipsa descendit ius cuidam Margaretæ ut filia & heredi; Et de ipsa Margareta, quia obiit sine he-rede de se, resortitur ius & debuit resortiri prædictis Marjorie & Isabellæ ut ante-natæ et uni heredi, si regnum esset partibile; Et quia non est partibile, remansit ius & remanere debuit prædictæ Marjorie ut antenata et heredi; Et de ipsa Isa-bella quia obiit sine herede de se, descendit ius & descendere debuit prædictæ Isabellæ ut sorori & heredi; Et de ipsa Isabellæ quia obiit sine herede de se, resortitur ius & debuit resortiri cuidam David ut avunculo & heredi fratri Regis Scotiæ Willielmi præ-dicti, patris prædictæ Isabellæ; Et de ipso David descendit ius & descendere debuit cuidam Henrico ut filio & heredi; Et de ipso Henrico quia obiit sine herede de se, descendit ius & descendere debuit cuidam David ut fratri & heredi; Et de ipso David quia obiit sine herede de se, cuidam Johanni ut fratri & heredi; Et de ipso Johanne quia obiit sine herede de se, descendit ius & descendere debuit quibusdam Margaretæ, Isabellæ & Adæ, ut sororibus & uni heredi, si regnum esset partibile; Et quia non est partibile, remansit ius & remanere debuit prædicta Margaretæ ut antenata Sorori ipsius Johannis & heredi; Et de ipsa Margareta descendit ius & descendere debuit cuidam Thomæ ut filio & heredi; Et de ipso Thoma quia obiit sine herede de se, descendit ius & descendere debuit quibusdam Christianæ & Dervorguldæ ut sororibus & uni heredi, si regnum esset partibile; Et quia regnum non est partibile, remansit ius & remanere debuit prædicta Christianæ antenata sorori ipsius Thomæ, ut sorori & heredi; & de ipsa Christiana, quia obiit sine herede de se, descendit ius & descendere debuit prædicta Dervorguldæ ut sorori & heredi; Et de ipsa Dervorgulda descendit ius & descendere debuit cuidam Hugoni ut filio & heredi; Et de ipso Hu-gone quia obiit sine herede de se, cuidam Alano ut fratri & heredi; Et de ipso

An. 20 E. 1. Alano quia obiit sine herede de se, cuiusdam Alexandro ut fratri & heredi; Et de ipso Alexandro quia obiit sine herede de se, descendit ius & descendere debuit isti Johanni ut fratri & heredi, qui nunc petit regnum Scotiz ut ius suum. Cumque per descensum prædictos liquet evidenter, quod prædictus Johannes sit heres prædictæ Margaretæ primogenita prædicti David per rectam lineam succedendo descendens; & concessum sit per eundem Robertum, quod prædictum regnum est impartibile, per quod necessario requiritur, quod huiusmodi hereditas impartibilis tantummodo uni sorori & heredi & exitui ipsius debeat remanere secundum leges & consuetudines utriusque regni. Et si uni tantum, semper præferenda est primogenita & ipsius exitus in omni huiusmodi hereditate impartibili, tam ratione primogenitura quam impartibilitatis hereditatis regni petit; per quas etiam leges & consuetudines nullis gradus proximatis sanguinis in secunda linea excludit remotiorem exeuntem de primogenita in prima linea recte descendentem, petit ipse Johannes petitionem præfati Roberti quoad ius succedendi in prædictum regnum Scotiz, repelli penitus & cassari, & secundum petitionem suam iustitiam sibi fieri, ac ius suum prout in petitione sua continetur in omnibus & singulis judicialiter declarari, ac idem regnum Scotiz sibi per vos adjudicari.

Præmissis coram auditoribus, Prælati & discussis, relatione facta dicto Domino Regi Angliz de eisdem per auditores memoratos; quævis idem Dominus Rex à dicto Roberto de Brus & Johanne de Balliolo coram ipso personaliter constitutus, organo vocis sue, An aliqua alia quam dixerant dicere vellent? Et ipsi responderunt, Quod non, nisi forsan quicquam ab eis ad ipsius informationem petere voluisset. Quæ responsione facta, quævis idem Dominus Rex palam & publice ab utriusque regni Nobilibus & Prælati, totique Consilio ac auditoribus memoratis, quod eorum consilium sibi dicerent; Quis istorum duorum Roberti & Johannis sit alteri præferendus in jure succedendi in dictum regnum Scotie secundum præmissa hinc inde proposita & ostensa? Et, An remotior in uno gradu in successione exiens de primogenita, debeat secundum leges & consuetudines utriusque regni excludere proximior in gradu exeuntem de secundogenita? Vel proximior in gradu exiens de secundogenita, debeat secundum leges & consuetudines ipsorum regnorum excludere remotiorem in uno gradu exeuntem de primogenita? Ad quæ etiam unanimiter responderunt, nulli reclamante vel contradicente, Quod remotior in uno gradu linealiter descendens de primogenita, secundum leges et consuetudines utriusque regni præferendus est proximior in gradu exeuntem de secundogenita in qualibet hereditaria successione. Quocirca præfatus Dominus Rex dicta responsione intellecta, totum negotium prædictum præcepit & fecit exactissime reexaminari coram utriusque regni Nobilibus & Prælati. Et eisdem Roberto de Brus & Johanni de Balliolo sextum diem mensis Novembris, diem Jovis videlicet proximum post instans festum Omnium Sanctorum, loco eodem præfixit & assignavit ad audiendum iudicium suum in negotio memorato. Quibus die & loco, anno & indictionis, præfati Nobiles Domini Robertus de Brus, & Johannes de Balliolo, una cum aliis petentibus idem regnum coram dicto Domino Rege personaliter comparuerunt; habitaque per ipsam Dominum Regem super præmissis inter dictos Nobiles propositis et dictis deliberatione magna, et etiam consideratione ad leges et consuetudines utriusque regni, necnon ad formam et modum petitionis dicti Domini Roberti, et ad recognitiones supradictas factas per eundem, rationisque et responsiones hinc inde factas: quia apparebat evidenter dictum Robertum de Brus ius in sua petitione non habere secundum formam ejusdem & naturam; de consilio Prælatorum et Nobilium utriusque regni, Auditorum prædictorum, et aliorum de Consilio suo ibidem præsentium, considerabit idem Dominus Rex judicialiter et pronuntiabit; quod prædictus Robertus per petitionem suam prædictam nihil capiat de regno Scotiz memorato. Et quia super petitione dicti Johannis de Balliolo non potuit ad iudicium procedere, quousque ceteri petentes audirentur, & de iure eorundem secundum formam petitionum suarum discuteretur; præcepit Dominus Rex tam dicto Domino Johanni de Balliolo, quam ceteris omnibus & singulis dictum regnum Scotiz petentibus; quod coram auditoribus supradictis in loco quo alias petitiones suas de die in diem prosequerentur, quousque de eisdem plenè discuteretur. Similiter & ipsis auditoribus dedit in mandatis, quod eundem locum adirent, & dictos petentes in dicendis & ostendendis coram ipsis benigne audirent, & discussione rationum & iurum eorundem plenè facta, eidem Domino Regi, quod invenerint, fideliter referant sicut prius. Coram quibus auditoribus dicti petentes comparuerunt in Ecclesia

*Fratri Prædicatorum de Berewico desertæ; & pro petitionibus suis & jure suo roborandis rationes varias & diversas adduxerunt: Inter quas idem Robertus de Brus personaliter accedens, protestabatur, se velle jura & actionem petendi dictum regnum Scotiæ, vel saltem partem ejusdem, per aliam formam & modum quam prius intextat; petens se inter alios petentes ad hoc admitti per eosdem. Et ad hoc suo nomine prosequendum, Galfridum de Caldecote, Egidium de Camfches, & Johannem de Brey posuit loco suo. Quibus ad hoc admissis, ut quando voluerint prosequantur, supervenit Dominus Johannes de Hastings, & partem suam petiit de prædicto regno Scotiæ tanquam de hereditate partibili; quia dixit, quod jura prædicta hereditatis regni Scotiæ descendebat Margaretæ, Isabellæ & Adæ filiabus David Comitis Huntingdon. ut uni heredi: Et de illis descendit & descendere debuit jura Johanni de Balliolo, Roberto de Brus, & eidem Johanni de Hastings, heredibus prædictarum Margaretæ, Isabellæ & Adæ: Et sic pro integro jure quod inde habent, in quo omnes sunt partes, prædicta hereditas est partibilis inter ipsos, per quod partem suam inde petiit. Et quod prædicta hereditas sit partibilis nititur ostendere per subscriptas rationes. Tum quia omnes terra & tenementa, feoda, libertates, dominica & honores, quæ de corona regni Angliæ tenentur in capite sunt partibilia: Tum quia homagium & servicium quæ inde debentur Regi & corona Angliæ, ostendunt prædictum regnum esse sub lege Communi, et sic partibile. Insuper præfatus Dominus Robertus de Brus venit, & consimilem fecit petitionem; petens videlicet partem suam dicti regni & omnium terrarum & libertatum cum omnibus pertinentiis, de quibus terris & libertatibus Alexander ultimus Rex Scotiæ obiit seisisse, (nomine et dignitate regalibus donatæ exceptis) pro eo quod totus exitus ejusdem Alexandri est extinctus per mortem Margaretæ filie Regis Norwegiæ; de qua resortebatur jura prædictarum terrarum & resortiri debuit cuidam David Comiti Huntingdon, fratri Regis Willielmi avi prædicti Alexandri, & proavi prædictæ Margaretæ. Et de ipso David descendit jura & descendere debuit quibusdam filiabus ipsius David, videlicet Margaretæ, Isabellæ & Adæ, tanquam uni heredi; & de prædicta Isabella descendit jura & descendere debuit ut de parte sua isti Roberto qui nunc petit ut filio & heredi, quæ quidem partem idem Robertus clamat tenere in capite de dicto Domino suo Rege Angliæ, Imperatori Domino regni Scotiæ per homagium. Et petit idem Robertus à Domino suo Rege prædicto, ut secundum legem Communem regni Angliæ iustitia ibi fiat, adducens insuper quasdam alias rationes, per quas similiter nitetur ostendere, dictum regnum Scotiæ esse partibile. Et licet ad prædictas tam dicti Domini Johannis de Hastings, quàm Domini Roberti de Brus rationes & ostensiones fuisset (ut videbatur) ex parte Domini Johannis de Balliolo sufficienter responsum, præmissis per auditores memoratos Domino Regi relatis: Idem Dominus Rex volens tamen super hiis cum consilio suo et auditoribus prædictis deliberare, quasvis publicè ab utroque regni Nobilibus & Prelatis, & Auditoribus, & aliis ibidem congregatis, An regnum Scotiæ sit partibile: Et si idem regnum non sit partibile, An escaetæ et acquisita ejusdem sint partibilia: Cui omnes, præhabita super hiis deliberatione aliqua, unanimiter & concorditer responderunt, Quod dictum regnum Scotiæ non sit partibile, nec ipsas escaetæ seu acquisita infra regnum prædictum, ex quo ad manus Regis devenissent. Quibus responsionibus auditis & intellectis, præfixis & assignavit idem Dominus Rex partibus prædictis omnibus jura ad dictum regnum Scotiæ vendicantibus pro termino peremptorio diem Lunæ prox. post festum Sancti Martini in Parlamento suo apud Berewicum super Twedam, iudicia sua super jam dictis suis petitionibus præfisse auditoris; volens interim super omnibus et singulis hinc inde propositis, dictis, ostensis et allegatis cum utriusque regni petitis, auditoribus memoratis, et aliis de Consilio suo ad plenum deliberare, utrumque processum et iura partium examinare; ut deliberatione præhabita, quid de jure fieri debeat plenus informari. (* Tho. Walsingham renders us this more full and particular account concerning the King of Norway's Proctors answers, delays, and the Judgement given at last against him. Requisitum fuit de eisdem Attornatis, quid volunt addere, minuire vel mutare, & quod in petitione sua danda declararent? Qui dicunt, quod nolunt declarare antequam habuerint colloquium cum dicto Domino Rege Angliæ superiori Domino regni Scotiæ, nec aliquid aliud proponere vel dicere ea vice. Et hæc requisitio fuit facta, quia alias in petitione sua, qua coram ipsis fuit ibidem lecta, reservavit sibi beneficium addendi, minuendi & mutandi, prout plenius ex tenore ipsius petitionis apparet, & datus est eis dies usque ad diem Mercurii proximo sequentem, ad audiendum voluntatem Domini Regis. Postea die Mercurii proximo post festum beati Martini, venerunt prædicti Attornati Regis Norwegiæ coram Consilio prædicti Domini Regis Angliæ, et Superioris Domini Scotiæ, & dictum fuit eis per consilium dicti Domini Regis, quod declararent manifeste actionem Domini Regis Norwegiæ, per quam intendunt recuperare regnum Scotiæ, tanquam jus Domini sui, qui quidem Attornati responderunt & dixerunt, quod voluerunt prius habere colloquium cum prædicto Domino suo Rege Norwegiæ, & ipsum super exactione & petitione prædictis consulere antequam ulterius prosequerentur. Et multociens requisiti, quod petitionem Domini sui manifeste declararent, tandem dixerunt præcise, quod petitionem Domini sui noluerunt declarare, nec ulterius super hoc aliud dicere, antequam eundem Dominum suum consulti fuerint in præmissis. Ideo datus est eis dies de die in diem coram prædicto Domino Rege Angliæ, superiore Domino dicti regni Scotiæ, ad audiendum iudicium suum, de eo quod noluerunt ulterius prosequi petitionem Domini sui prædicti.)

The Record proceeds; Et quia Johannes Comyn & Rogerus de Mundevile non sunt suas petitiones prosecuti, ideo similiter est per ipsum Dominum Regem judicialiter pronunciatum, quod nihil capiant per easdem. Quoad petitionem vero Domini Roberti de Brus ultimam, per quam petit tertiam partem regni Scotiæ, ut partem suam, tanquam de hereditate partibili; quia compertum est, quod idem Robertus alias coram Domino Rege in sua petitione, per quam petebat totum regnum Scotiæ, recognovit plenè & concessit, prædictum regnum esse impartibile, per quod uni tantum heredi debuit remanere; quam quidem recognitionem et concessionem deducere non poterit coram ipso: Et quia per Prelatos, Comites, Barones, Pares et Magnates, totumque Consilium utriusque regni concordatum est et consideratum, quod prædictum regnum uni heredi debeat remanere, pro eo quod de sui natura est impartibile, sicut et alia regna: Idcirco per eundem Dominum Regem consideratum est et judicialiter pronunciatum, Quod dictus Dominus Robertus et hiis quæ in dicta petitione sua continentur, nihil consequatur omnino. Et quoad petitionem Domini Johannis de Hastings, qui similiter petit tertiam partem dicti regni, ut partem suam de hereditate partibili; quia plenè compertum est, (ut præmittitur) quod prædictum regnum de sui natura non est partibile, et etiam quod etiam et acquisita quæ acciderint infra dictum regnum, et ad manus Regis debuerint sunt impartibilia sicut ipsam regnum, eapropter, substantibus etiam aliis rationibus quampluribus in processu super hiis habito propositis et dictis, consideratum est per dictum Dominum Regem, et judicialiter pronunciatum de consensu utriusque regni Nobilium et Prelatorum; Quod dictus Dominus Johannes de Hastings nihil capiat per petitionem suam supradictam. Quoad petitionem vero Do-

 Et hoc idem satis est per petentes prædictos recognitum judicialiter coram ipso Domino Angliæ Rege pro tribunali sedente, ut superiori et directo Domino dicti regni. Et quia idem Dominus Rex habet judicare de jure subditorum (ut præmittitur) per leges et consuetudines regnorum quibus præest, quod ab omnibus utriusque regni Nobilibus et Prelatis est approbatum, concordatum et dictum, et per eandem leges et consuetudines in casu proposito consentum est et judicialiter declaratum, quod remotior in gradu descendente in prima linea, proximior in secunda linea in successione hæreditatis impartibilis est præferendus. Et etiam quod ordo successionis contentus in petitione dicti Johannis de Balliolo, qui est hæres de prima linea descendente, non est ab aliquo petentium prædictorum in aliqua sui parte deducendus. Idcirco præ omnibus aliis in successione hæreditaria dicti regni Scotiæ est præferendus, tanquam hæres rector regni memorati. Supradictum vero rationibus, una cum aliis quampluribus in præfati processu coram dicto Domino Rege suoque Consilio (ut præmittitur) offensis & propositis diligenter attentis, considerabit dictus Dominus Rex Angliæ, superior et directus Dominus regni Scotiæ. Quod prædictus Dominus Johan. de Balliolo recuperet et habeat seisinam prædicti regni Scotiæ, cum omnibus pertinentiis suis infra idem regnum, secundum formam petitionis suæ supplicatæ: Et etiam omnia quæ ad manus præfati Domini Regis Angliæ ratione superioritatis et directi domini sui hujusmodi debentur:
 Ita tamen, quod idem Dominus Johannes dictum regnum Scotiæ et populum ejusdem sibi subditum, sicrite, sic iuste gubernet et regat, quod nullus pro defectu iustitiæ occasionem habeat de ipso conquerendi; per quod dictus Rex Angliæ, ut superior sans Dominus ejusdem regni, in ipsius defectum ad prosecutionem querelantium directionis manus apponere debeat in eventu: Jure dicti Domini Regis Angliæ, et hæredum suorum Angliæ Regum, cum voluerint inde loqui esse, semper salvo. Hiis itaque peractis assignavit idem Dominus Rex eidem Johanni de Balliolo diem Jovis proximo sequentem coram ipso ubicunque fuerit, ad faciendam sibi fidelitatem pro regno Scotiæ memorato. Et etiam diem Nativitatis proximo sequentem similiter ubicunque tunc fuerit in regno Angliæ, eidem Domino Johanni de Balliolo Regi Scotiæ, ad faciendum sibi homagium pro eodem regno præstitit et assignabit. Et quod interim prosequatur hæc ad habendum seisinam de regno Scotiæ supplicato, præcepit. Ad cuius Regis præceptum statim breviter facta fuerunt pro seisinâ tam Castroꝝ quam regni Scotiæ prælibati dicto Domino Johanni de Balliolo Regi Scotiæ liberanda, sub tenore qui sequitur.

Coram quibus mandatum Regium hujusmodi exequi volentibus, & aliis de Consilio dicti Domini Regis Angliæ, ex parte serenissimi Principis Domini Johannis Dei gratia Regis Scotiæ, per venerabilem in Christo patrem Dominum Willielmum Sancti Andree Episcopum; & etiam Nobiles viros Dominos Johannem Comitum de Bughan, Patricium de Graham, Thomam Randolphi, & quosdam alios Proceres regni Scotiæ de consilio dicti eorum Regis, quedam petitio facta fuit talis: Quod cum Dominus Rex Angliæ, et superius Dominus regni Scotiæ, nuper permisisset Nobilibus & Prelatis ipsius regni leges & consuetudines regni Scotiæ observare; et quod querela et placita super rebus quibuscunque infra idem regnum existentibus mota, extra idem regnum minime traherentur: Supplicarunt eidem Domino Regi Angliæ suoque Consilio ibidem presenti, nomine ipsius Regis Scotiæ, Quod sibi placeret dictam promissionem observare, et per suos præcipere firmiter observari. Quibus nuntiis statim ex parte ipsius Domini Regis Angliæ & suo nomine per Nobilem virum Dominum Rogerum Brabazon Militem, ipsius Regis Justiciarium respondebatur; Quod dicta petitio frustratoria videbatur, quoniam factis constabat dicto Domino Regi, et omnibus regni sui Nobilibus et Prelatis de jure constare debuit, quod prædictus Rex Angliæ omnem promissionem ejus factam in omnibus observaverat, nec in aliquo venerat contra eam vel aliquam earundem; quamquam ad petitionem unanimum Communitatis dicti regni Scotiæ de Episcoporum, Comitum, Baronum, et aliorum Nobilium regni Scotiæ assensu, quadam dilatione dispendiosa prolixitas restricta fuisset ad tempus per ipsam Regem Angliæ pro celeriori justitia facienda petentibus idem regnum eorum ipso: De querelis vero quæ prædicto Domino nostro Regi Angliæ sunt delatæ de suis Auditoribus et Officialibus nuper per ipsum ut superiorem et directum Dominum ipsius regni deputatis ibidem, qui tunc temporis suam personam representabant, casualiter querelæ cognitio ad ipsum et non ad alium spectare dinoscitur, et cujus cognitionem specialiter sibi reservavit; nullus alius præter eum, ratione superioritatis sui domini prælibati, potest nec debet cognoscere, nec eorum facta (si in aliquo erraverint) corrigere, nec de illis aliquatenus se intromittere: Quod de iudiciis ipsius superioris Domini, et eorum qui suam personam representant, non pertinet ad subditos interponere manus suas. Protestabatur insuper idem Dominus Rogerus, nomine et vice ipsius Domini Regis Angliæ, et pro ipso et jure suo prædicto superioritatis et directi domini sui, quod habet & habere debet, et heredes sui Angliæ Reges in prædicto regno Scotiæ: Et dixit, quod licet idem Dominus Rex Angliæ vacante nuper dicto regno Scotiæ, sive Regis præsidio carente, super * quibusdam certis articulis promissiones aliquas ad tempus fecisset, easque sicut promiserat observasset; non intendit propter hoc, nec vult (Rege jam in ipso regno creato) deinceps artati per easdem vel ligari, protestatione sua tunc facta subsistente, quin ipse querelas quascunque et alia quævis negotia regnum Scotiæ et ipsius incolæ contingentia iustis ex causis ad ipsum delata, in supplementum justitiæ admittere velit quodocunque et quotiescunque, et de eisdem conquerentibus facere justitiæ complementum, ratione superioritatis et directi domini sui prælibati. Et super hujusmodi querelis cum acciderint infra regnum suum Angliæ ubicunque sibi placuerit querelantes audire, et superius suum dominium prædictum exercere. Quam quidem Protestationem idem Dominus Rogerus, ætate eodem die sicut prius in camera Domini Regis (ipso Domino Rege præsentem) nomine et vice ipsius Domini Regis innodavit et de nobis fecit, in præsentia mei infrascripti Notarii et testium subscriptorum. Insuper ibidem statim Protestatione prædicta per ipsum Dominum Rogerum (ut præmittitur) emissam, idem Anno à Nativitate Domini Millesimo Ducentesimo Nonagesimo tertio, Indictione sexta, mensis Januarii die secundo, existente serenissimo Principe & Domino, Domino Edwardo Dei gratia: Rege Angliæ illustri, apud Novum Castrum super Tynam Dunolm. Die. venit ibidem egregius Princeps & Dominus, Dominus Johannes de Balliolo eadem gratia Rex Scotorum coram ipso & Consilio suo, aliisque utriusque regni Nobilibus & Prelatis, Recognitiones quasdam acquietantias etiam & remissiones, sponte purè simpliciter & absolute fecit organo vocis suæ; ipsasque in scripturam redactas, sui sigilli impressione, una cum sigillis Episcoporum, Comitum, Baronum, & aliorum Nobilium regni sui roboratas, tenorem qui sequitur continentes.

Omnibus presentes litteras visuris vel audituris, Johannes de Balliolo Dei gratia Rex Scotorum, salutem in Domino. Cum Dominus noster Dominus Edwardus Rex Angliæ, superius Dominus regni Scotiæ, ratione superioritatis domini sui tenuerit prædictum regnum Scotiæ in manu sua, quousque fecisset illis iustitiam quæ sui petierunt in regnum prædictum; & aliquas Conventions, Promissiones & Obligationes fidesse patribus custodibus & probis hominibus ejusdem regni, tam de ipsius regni & Castrorum restitutione facienda, quam de rebus aliis, de quibus fecerat scripta sua certis panis appositis, sicut in scriptis cominebatur eisdem. Et postmodum in presentia sua per iudicium Curie suæ nobis adiutaverit dictum regnum et seisinam ejusdem regni et Castrorum, cum omnibus aliis rebus liberavit nobis plene et integre, sicut per Conventions, Promissiones & Obligationes quas inde fecerat, tenebatur; Nos pro nobis, omnibus heredibus nostris, & omnibus illis ad quorum manus prædictum regnum deveniet futuris temporibus, quicunque fuerint, quietamus prædictum Dominum nostrum Regem Angliæ & heredes suos imperpetuum de omnibus Conventions, Promissionibus & Obligationibus, & panis in ipsis Conventions, Promissionibus & Obligationibus, nobis seu probis hominibus dicti regni factis, quæ idem regnum in rebus illius regni contingant. Et si aliquod scriptum, qualescunque sit illud quod tangat præmissa aliquo tempore amodo sit inventum, volumus & concedimus pro nobis & heredibus nostris, quod nullius sit roboris aut valoris; Ita quod nec Domino nostro Regi prædicto, nec heredibus suis Regibus Angliæ obesse valeat, nec nobis vel heredibus nostris Regibus Scotiæ, nec etiam illis qui dictum regnum Scotiæ tenebunt, (quisunque sint illi) prodesse, nec locum aliquo tempore sentire. Insuper promittimus pro nobis & omnibus

Anno à Nativitate Domini 1293. Indictione sexta, postquam regnum Scotiæ prædictum adjudicatum fuit Nobili viro Domino Johanni de Balliolo, per considerationem Curie magnifici Principis & Domini, Domini Edwardi Dei gratia Regis Angliæ illustris, Superioris Domini Regni Scotiæ, mensis Novembris die decimosextimo, anno regni ipsius Regis Angliæ vicesimo finiente, & anno à Nativitate Domini 1292. & Indictione sexta (ut superscribitur in processu:) Idemque Johannes in ipsius regni Scotiæ & Castrorum possessionem corporalem ex parte ipsius Domini Regis Angliæ per venerabilem in Christo patrem & Dominum, Dominum Antonium Dei gratia Dunelm. Episcopum, & Nobilem virum Dominum Johannem de Sancto Johanne inductus, & in sede sua Regali apud Monasterium de Scona, juxta villam Sancti Johannis de Perth positus, juxta ipsius regni consuetudinem fuisset cum solempnitate debita & consueta, existentibus ibidem ipsius regni Scotiæ Nobilibus & Prelatis, Comitibus, Baronibus, aliisque Magnatibus & Proceribus in multitudine copiosa; ceterisque omnibus & singulis, quæ solempnitati hujusmodi requirebat, rite peractis, factisque per ipsum Dominum Regem Scotiæ Johannem supradictum eidem Domino Regi Angliæ, ut superius suo Domino dicti regni fidelitate et homagio pro regno Scotiæ memorato, prout supra in processu plenius inferuntur; non longi temporis intervallo secuto, ad dictum Dominum Regem Angliæ ut superiorem Dominum regni Scotiæ plures et graves delate fuerunt querelæ; & subsequenter per Macdolphum filium quondam Malcolmi Comitis de Fife; videlicet, quod inter aliam dictus Rex Scotiæ sibi in jure defecerat & justitia exhibenda communi; nec sibi justitiam facere voluit pluries, & humiliter requisitus, propter quod ad dictum Dominum suum Dominum Regem Angliæ, accut ad superiorem Dominum regni Scotiæ recurrerat; supplicans humiliter & devote, quod super hujusmodi defectu subvenire dignaretur eidem; & in ipsius Regis Scotiæ defectum ipsum in jure suo dignaretur audire, sibi que facere justitia complementum. Unde cum ad instantem prosecutionem dicti Macdulphi, quadam ipsius Domini Regis Angliæ littera sub certa forma conceptæ, dicto Regi Scotiæ pluries directæ fuissent, quod ipse Macdolphus & alii etiam querelantibus in jure suo benignam audientiam præstaret, sibi que communem justitiam facere curaret; nec ipse mandatis suis hujusmodi parere voluisset, sed ipsius Domini sui Regis Angliæ litteris spretis potius et vilipensis, prædictum Macdolphum, ne ulterius Jus suum prosequeretur per querelam, fecit carcerali custodiæ mancipari, & super quibusdam terris & tenementis de quibus justitiam sibi fieri petiit, quoddam iniquum reddi fecit judicium contra eum, prout

An. 20 E. 1. ejusdem Macdulphi postmodum à carcere liberati, & dictas injurias sibi factas cum instantia prosequentis, querimonia patefecit: quas etiam Injurias se obtulit secundum quod Curia ipsius Domini Regis considerare voluerit, paratum verificare. Ad cuius Macdulphi instantem prosecutionem & supplicationem idem Dominus Rex Angliæ, superior Dominus regni Scotiæ, æquitatis rationis et iustitiæ oculos advertens, nolensque eidem Macdulpho in Jure deficere, sicut nec debebat, volensque manus directionis apponere, mandavit Vicecomiti Northumbriæ, quod quasdam ipsius Domini Regis literas dicto Regi Scotiæ directas personaliter deferret, & sufficienti testimonio secum adhibito, dictum Regem Scotiæ ad proprium suum Parlamentum apud Westmonasterium statuendum in proximo videlicet festo Sancti Michaelis perferret, coram ipso Domino Rege Angliæ præfato Macdulpho responsurus, facturus ulterius et recepturus ibidem quod Juri fuerit et rationis. Quo die Parliamenti adveniente Anno à nativitate Domini 1293. Indictione septima, & anno Regni dicti Regis Angliæ vicessimo primo, præfatus Dominus Johannes Dei gratia Rex Scotiæ coram dicto Domino suo Domino Rege Angliæ superiori Domino regni Scotiæ apud Westmonasterium, in aula venerabilis patris Domini Archiepiscopi Eborum Angliæ Primatis, ubi idem Rex Angliæ tunc hospitabatur, et Parlamentum suum tenebat, juxta dictum mandatum Regium sibi (ut præmittitur) ad instantem prosecutionem dicti Macdulphi directam, personaliter comparuit. Contra quem idem Macdulphus querimonia suam deposuit in hunc modum; videlicet, Quod cum idem Macdulphus coram Episcopo Sancti Andrea & sociis suis custodibus Regni Scotiæ per ipsum Dominum Regem Angliæ superiorem Dominum ejusdem regni deputatis, autoritate & mandato ipsius Regis Angliæ eis specialiter facto seisinam de quibusdam terris & tenementis judicialiter recuperasset, prædictus Johannes Rex Scotiæ de eisdem terris & tenementis injuste disseisivit eundem. Et ne Jus suum ulterius prosequeretur contra illum, fecit eum incarcerari, et contra badium et plegios in carcere detineri, & contra ipsum sic incarceratum super jam dictis terris & tenementis quoddam iniquum et falsum reddi fecit juditium, & cum postmodum à prædicto carcere liberatus fuisset, ipsum Regem Scotiæ instantem & pluries requisivit, quod ipsum in Jure suo dignaretur audire, & sibi in sua Curia communem Justitiam exhibere; Quod idem Rex Scotiæ sibi facere dedignavit expresse, in contemptum dicti Domini Regis Angliæ superioris Domini sui et mandatorum suorum, decem milia marcarum, et ad dampnum ipsius Macdulphi septingentarum marcarum. Et hoc sicut Curia dicti Domini Regis Angliæ considerare voluerit, se paratum optulit verificare. Et præfatus Rex Scotiæ defendit omnem contemptum dicti Domini sui Domini Regis Angliæ, & dixit, Quod ad respondendum dicto Macdulpho de aliquo diem non habebat ibidem. Et dictus Macdulphus è contrario dicebat, quod diem tunc habebat ad respondendum sibi per adjunctionem sibi factam per breve Domini Regis Angliæ superioris Domini sui; quod quidem breve sibi liberatum fuit apud Strivelin per Vicecomitem Northumbriæ, in crastino Sancti Petri ad vincula, quod constat & constare poterit per retinuum ipsius Vicecomitis. Et requisitus idem Rex Scotiæ, si hujusmodi breve Domini sui Domini Regis Angliæ sibi per prædictum Vicecomitem Northumbriæ liberatum fuisset, ut dicebatur, responditque sic, et quod paratus fuit, et semper esse voluit Brevia et mandata dicti Domini sui Domini Regis Angliæ recipere reverenter, et eidem in omnibus suis mandatis humiliter obedire. Et quia recognovit, se dictum breve recepisse, dicebatur sibi, quod illud Breve retorner secundum continentiam dicti brevis. Qui respondit, quod breve illud non habebat ibidem, quia illud Cancellario suo tradidit; & Cancellarius ibidem præfatus recognovit se dictum breve ex traditione Domini sui ut præmittitur recipisse; sed non habuit illud ibidem, verumptamen quancito ad illud venire poterit, illud Domino suo restituere vellet. Et quia idem Rex Scotiæ recognoverat se dictum breve recepisse, per quod adsignatus fuit ad dictum Parlamentum, & diem ad respondendum eidem Macdulpho habebat ibidem, dictum fuit prædicto Regi Scotiæ, quod sibi respondeat ut tenetur, juxta quod in Rotulis placitorum coram ipso Domino Rege Angliæ haborum plenius continetur. Ad hoc dictus Dominus Rex Scotiæ, eidem Domino suo Domino Regi Angliæ suoque Consilio quamdam ore proprio supplicationem, ipsamque in scriptis redactam manu sua propria eidem Domino suo Regi porrexit & tradidit, cuius tenor est talis. Sire jeo sui vostre home lige du Roialme Descote, e vous pri, qe de ceo qe vous maneta mis a devant

Upon the Liberties of the Kings and Subjects of Engl. & Irel. K. Edward I.

Abbatem ad Regem Scotie memoratum, sibi que adornamentum predictum, & ipsius An. 20 E. 1.
 Domini Regis Anglie adventum ad diem et locum predictos ex causis premissis, nunciavit; & eidem per eodem specialiter mandavit, ut quadam Castra in utroque regni confinio sita, pro assecuratione sua & hominum suorum, de dicto Rege Scotie & suis sub bona cautione faceret liberari, per suos ad tempus custodienda, donec de hiis qua imminabant periculis plenius assecuratus fuisset; quibus periculis cessantibus, dicta Castra eidem Regi Scotie, seu illis quos ad illa recipienda, & suo nomine custodienda deputare voluerit, sine difficultate qualibet restitueret & restitui faceret sine fraude, bona fide promissit; Super quibus fideliter faciendis, tenendis (ut premissum) & ad-implendis, dictus Dominus Rex Anglie litteras suas obligatorias predictis Abbatibus suis nunciis fieri fecit & tradi secum deferendas, & eidem Regi Scotie liberandas, in eventu liberationis Castrorum predictorum eidem Regi Anglie, vel suis suo nomine ad hoc deputandis in forma supradicta. Mandavit insuper idem Rex Anglie per ipsos suos nuntios dicto Regi Scotie firmiter injungendo in fide qua sibi tenebatur, quod ad dictum diem, primum videlicet mensis Martii, sibi alias (ut premissum) prefixum, apud No-vum Castrum super Tynam, vel ad alia certa loca in confinio partium illarum persona-liter veniret ad ipsum, super premissis & aliis statum & tranquillitatem utriusque regni & utilitatem communem tangentibus cum ipso tractaturus, & assecurationem sibi super quibusdam dubiis facturum, ac alia per ipsum Regem Anglie nunquam consiliis exprimenda audiretur, et super hiis et ea contingentibus responsurus et juramentum recepturus, & dicto Macdolpho in iura responsurus. Cumque dictus Dominus Rex Anglie apud Novum Castrum, primo videlicet die mensis Martii, Anno a Nativitate Domini 1296. Indictione nona, & anno regni ipsius Regis Anglie vicesimo quarto, personaliter declinasset, dictumque Regem Scotie ibidem per plures dies expectasset, nec ipse secundum quod in mandatis habuit venire, nec quenkum pro se mittere curavit, ad convincendam ipsius Regis Scotie malitiam, dictus Rex Anglie ad loca dicto regno Scotie viciniora statuit se velle declinare. Et primo apud Bambergh, deinde apud Werk in confinio ipsius regni Scotie se transferens, adventum dicti Regis Scotie in locis predictis per tempus non modicum expectavit. Ad qua quidem loca dictus Rex Scotie, (cui de premissis satis innotuit, & ea sibi verissimiliter latere non potuit) venire tamen ad ipsum Dominum suum Dominum Regem Anglie, nec amicabilem mittere curavit; sed spiritus dicti Domini sui mandatis predictis et dispensis, contemnaciter in sua persistens perfidia, ad apparatus bellicos se convertebat, cum Episcopis, Prelatisque aliis, Comitibus, Baronibus, Clericis et Laicis regni sui Scotie, ac etiam exteris aliis conductis contra predictum Dominum suum lige-um, Dominum Regem Anglie, ipsiusque regnum, et ejusdem Incolas calcamen-ti elevari precepit. Meditansque eidem Regi Anglie per dictum Regem Scotie tam pro se quam pro aliis quibuscumque regni sui incolis Pomagio et Fidelitate sibi pro dicto regno Scotie prius factis (ut premissum) in processu per suas litteras verba effectum diffidentie sapientia continentes. Quarum litterarum in omnibus et per omnia tenor est talis:

Congregatoque ingenti exercitu, idem Rex Scotiæ ad hostiles * aggressus & incursus procedens, regnum Angliæ intravit hostiliter & invasit, villasque quamplures regni Angliæ per suos depredate est, easque vastavit incendiis, homines interfecit, naves quosdam Angliæ navesque eorum comburi fecit. Et hiis & aliis consimilibus facinoribus pluribus non contentus, Comitatus Northumbr. Cumbr. & Westmerland. distri regni Angliæ, hostiliter per suos invasit, stragem innumeram hominum simul & mulierum ipsius Domini sui Regis Angliæ, Monasteriorum, Ecclesiarum, & villarum incendiis faciendo, & patriam undique depopulando, & ad instar Herodianiæ crudelitatis infantes in cunis, & mulieres in puerperio decubantes immisericordi & atroci savitia trucidando; parvos etiam Clericulis primas literas & Grammaticam addiscentes, ad numerum circiter ducentorum in Scolis apud Corbrigg. exsistentes, obstructis scolarum ipsarum ostiis igne supposito concremarunt; ac divino timore, & humano pudore pospositis, adeo in commotionem se dederunt, quod omnino offendibilia ac execrabilia inhumanè committere minime verebantur. Cernens itaque Rex Angliæ tot dampna, opprobria, injurias & facinorosa exhabitationem suam, & populi sui destructionem, sibi & regni sui incolis proditoraliter irrogari, nec valens ratione Juramenti sui (quo ad confirmationem jurium Cozonæ regni sui Angliæ est addictus) tam execranda, detestanda et nefanda facinorosa ulterius tolerare, nec jura sua relinquere indefensa, cum idem Johannes Rex Scottorum et gens sua sibi subdita, per leges se justificari ac duci minime permittere voluissent, ipso regno, quod a longissimis et antiquissimis retro temporibus (sicnt superius in processu plenius apparet) sibi et progenitoribus suis Angliæ Regibus extitit feudale, et de ipsis etiam Angliæ Regibus tenebatur, et præmissis causis commisso, seu (ut communiter dicitur) fozifacito; Bello insuper de Consilio Comitum, Baronum, & aliorum Procerum & Magnatum regni sui Angliæ juxta leges & consuetudines regni Angliæ contra dictum Regem Scottiæ & ipsius gentem inditio, contra ipso potentia sua vires extendit, sicque contra ipsos tanquam perjuros, notorie proditores, contumaces, rebelles, et publicos hostes suos procedens, præfatum regnum Scottiæ Jure proprietatis ipsius Domini Regis Angliæ ditioni subegit, et etiam subjugavit. ris penarum quam sine signati, in fidem et testimonium premissorum.

This is a true Transcript of one Roll of this memorable Record, the original whereof is yet extant in the Tower of London. The Transcripts of the Scots respective new Oaths, Homages and Fealties to King Edward, mentioned in the cloze of this Record, after their most perfidious renunciation of their former Oaths and Fealties, (particularly expressed in another Roll) and subjugation by King Edwards forces, I shall present you with in its proper series, An. 24 E. 1. in the succeeding Chapter; concluding this with some few other Records of Ecclesiastical affairs and cases, relating to the Church, Prelates and Clergy of Scotland.

Anno 20 E. 1. The Bishop of Cathenes Chancellor of Scotland dying there intestate, the Kings Officers seizing into his hands all the Goods and Chattels which he had at the time of his death, according to the custom of Scotland; the King out of his special grace, for his good services done to him in his life time, was graciously pleased to command them to be entirely delivered to the Prior of Goldingham, and Adam of St. Edmunds the Bishops brother, to be distributed by them for his soul as they should think meet, by the oversight and order of the Vice-Chancellor of Scotland, whom the Bishop of Durham (Lieutenant of Scotland) had constituted his Attorney for that purpose; and to help them to recover all his Goods and Chattels from all those who should detain them, as these Records assure us.

From which 4. Records I shall observe: 1. That in that age all the Debts, Goods and Chattels of Bishops in Scotland dying intestate, by the Custom of that Realm, were seized into the Kings hands, as belonging to him; and that this Bishops Debts, Goods and Chattels, dying intestate, were by vertue of that custome then seized into the hands of King Edward, as Superior Lord of Scotland, during the

Upon the Liberties of the Kings and Subjects of Engl. & Irel. K. Edward 1.

Interregnum. 2ly. That the King alone, not the Archbishop of St. Andrews, Pope, or other Ordinary whatsoever, had the sole right, power, Jurisdiction to dispose of them, to whom and to what uses he pleased. 3ly. That the Sovereign care, welfare of the Subjects souls, as well Bishops and Clergymen as Laicks, belonged to the Kings of England and Scotland in that age, after their deaths, as well as during their lives, not to Bishops; Therefore by consequence the administration and distribution of their Goods and Chattels for that end, if they dyed Intestate. 4ly. That the King, not of right or custome, but out of his especial grace, and for the good service done to him by this Bishop (as his Chancellor in Scotland) in his life time, granted all the Debts, Monies, Goods, Chattels of this Bishop, belonging to him by the Custome of Scotland, to the Prior of Goldingham, and Adam of St. Edmunds the deceased Bishops brother, to be distributed for his soul, by the view and testimony of any person whom the Bishop of Durham should depute in his place for that purpose, to joyn with them in the distribution of them; not as a Bishop or Ordinary, (he having no Episcopal Jurisdiction then in Scotland, nor yet in England out of his Diocese, where the Bishop had monies in foreign Merchants hands) but as the Kings Lieutenant in Scotland, which then he was. 5ly. That the Bishop appointed William of Dunfres, then Chancellor of Scotland, as his Deputy for this end; whom the King enjoyned to issue out Writs under the Seal of Scotland to those who had the Bishops Goods and Chattels in their hands, immediately to deliver them to the said Prior and Adam, and to compell them thereunto, to be distributed as aforesaid for the good of his soul. A clear evidence that the King, or such as he appointed, not Bishops or Ordinaries, had the sole power of distributing Intestates Goods to pious uses, for the (pretended) good of their souls. That Bishops and other Ordinaries in that age, had no legal Jurisdiction to dispose or distribute the Goods and Chattels of Intestate persons, but merely by torcious Usurpation, in Scotland, England, or France, seems most apparent to me, by comparing the premises with the memorable Articles against the Bishops, Clergy of France, and their Officials Innovations, Encroachments, Usurpations upon the Crown, Dignity, Jurisdiction of the King of France, and his Subjects Liberties, to their intollerable grievance, exhibited by the Lord Peter de Cugneris, the Barons and Laity of France, in the Parliament held at Paris under King Philip the 4th. Anno Domini 1309. printed in English by * Mr. John Fox (in the life of King Edward the 1.) out of Petrus Bertrandus, Adversus Dominum Petrum de Cugneris, super falso Prælatorum Ecclesiæ Gallicanæ, Parisiis 1495. Articles 63, 64. Item, they will make Inventories of their goods which die Intestate, or without making of Will, and will have the possession of their goods as well moveable as immoveable in their own hands, to distribute to the heirs, or to whom they list. Item, the execution also of Testaments they take into their own hands, taking Inventories of dead mens goods, and keeping and disposing them to the heirs after their pleasure; and they have Officials properly deputed for the execution thereof. And Artic. 23. In like manner they will determine the matters of Pupils, applying their goods when they die, as they do the goods of them that die Intestate, to their own use, the cognition whereof belongeth to the King himself; because these kinde of persons with their goods are wards to the King, and under his protection. Which as it will help to explain the true end of making the Statute of 13 E. 1. c. 19. against * Sir Edward Cokes erroneous glosse thereon; so it evidently demonstrates, that if Bishops and other Ordinaries seising, distributing, or administering the goods of Intestate persons, and Pupils under age, (who could make no Wills) were thus publicly Articled against in this French Parliament, as an unsufferable Innovation, Usurpation, Grievance in the Realm of France, it was likewise then reputed no other in our Bishops, Ordinaries in England, and no legal rights antiently conferred on them by the King and Lords in Parliament, as they erroneously * pretended. This will further appear by these two Records relating to Scotland, the one concerning the Executors of the last Will and Testament of Alexander King of Scots, to issue out Writs for the speedy recovery of the Debts due unto him; the other authorizing and enabling the Bishop of Glasgow to devise and dispose of his moveable Goods by his Testament, so as it turned not to the prejudice or losse of the King himself, or the next succeeding King in Scotland.

BOOK V. CHAP. IV.

Containing King Edward the 1. his claim, exercise of Sovereign Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction over all Persons, Causes within England, Ireland, Scotland, and his other Dominions; his Oppositions, Prohibitions, Edicts against Popes, Bishops, other Clergymens Usurpations, Encroachments thereon; especially Pope Boniface the 8. his Constitution, prohibiting all Clergymen under pain of Excommunication, to grant or pay any Taxes, Subsidies to any King, and for Kings to demand or receive them without the Popes precedent license; and his Bulls concerning his Sovereign Dominion, Title to the Realm of Scotland and other Kingdoms; The Negotiations between King Edward, the Popes, Court of Rome; with the Successions of Popes, English, Irish Bishops, and other Church, State affairs; faithfully collected out of our Records and Histories, from the beginning of the 21. to the end of the 30th year of his Reign.

Amongst several Bundles of Writs returned by Sheriffs and others, Anno 21 Edward the 1. (rescued by me out of the rubbish in the White Tower Chapel) I met with these Writs of Attachment at the Kings and parties suits, for contempts in holding or prosecuting suits in Court Christian of Trespasses, Advowsons, Laytees, Chattels and Debts, not of Testament or Matrimony, belonging to the Kings Courts, against his Prohibitions, Crown and Dignity.

Edwardus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, Dominus Hiberniæ, Dux Aquitaniæ, Vicecomes Oxon. salutem. Monstravit nobis Willielmus de Sancto Gerigio, quod cum Magister Henricus de Nassington in Curia nostra apud Westm. die Sancti Hillarii in quindecim dies proximo præterito attachiatus esset ad respondendum eidem Willielmo, quare cum placita de Transgressionibus contra pacem nostram factis in regno nostro ad Ros et Corozam et dignitatem nostram specialiter pertineant, idem Henricus, sicut ex gravi querela ipsius Willielmi accepimus, tenuit placitum in Curia Christianitatis de huiusmodi transgressionibus, in lationem Corozæ et dignitatis nostræ, et contra prohibitionem nostram. Et de Placito quare tenuit placitum in eadem Curia Christianitatis de advocacione Capella de Tadhham, contra prohibitionem nostram, ut dicitur; Ac idem Willielmus ad diem illum in eadem Curia nostra comparuisset, & idem Magister Henricus cum fecisset se esson. versus prædictum Willielmum de prædictis placitis; & habuisset diem per esson. suos coram Iusticiariis nostris apud Westm. à die Sancte Trinitatis in quindecim dies proximo futur. versus prædictum Willielmum de prædictis placitis; idem Magister Henricus, pendentibus inde inter eos in præfata Curia nostra prædictis placitis, placita illa nihilominus ulterius tenuit in prædicta Curia Christianitatis, quousque Sententia in ipsum Willielmum ea occasione ad sectam ejusdem Magistri Henrici publice promulgata, ipsum excommunicari fecit, et postea Breve nostrum de ipso Willielmo excommunicato, tanquam claves Ecclesiæ contemnite, capiendo, jam nobis porrexit, ut dicitur, in Corozæ et dignitatis nostro lationem, Curie nostræ prædictæ contemptum manifestum, et ipsius Willielmi dispendium non modicum et gravamen, sicut ex gravi querela ipsius Willielmi accepimus. Et quia tanta contemptum et malitiam, si commissa fuerint, transire nolumus impunita, vobis precipimus, quod si prædictus Willielmus fecerit vos securos de clamore ejus profectum.

An. 21 E. 1. quando, tunc ponite per vadium & saluos plegios predictum Magistrum Henricum, quod sit coram Justiciariis nostris apud Westm. à die Sancte Trinitatis in 15 dies, ad respondendum tam nobis quam predicto Willielmo, de predictis transgressionibus et contemptu. Precipimus etiam vobis, quod si vobis constare possit, quod predictum Willielmus occasione predicta & non alia excommunicatus sit, tunc ab ipso Willielmo capiendo per aliquod Rebe nostrum, per predictum Magistrum Henricum ea occasione impetratum penitus destitatis, et ipsum Willielmum inde pacem habere permittatis. Et habeatis nomina Plegiorum, & hoc breve. Teste J. de Mettingham apud Westm. 12 die, &c. Anno regni nostri 21.

Edwardus, &c. Vic. Suffex, &c. Si Robertus Page, &c. Ponit, &c. Magistrum Thomam de Burne & Richardum le Den de Kyngeston, &c. quod sint coram Justiciariis nostris, &c. offensuri, quare tenuit placitum in Curia Christianitatis de catallis et debitis quæ non sunt de Testamento vel Patrimonio contra Prohibitionem nostram. Ponit etiam, &c. Margeriam de Ely, &c. quare secuta est idem placitum, &c. Teste meipso apud Westm. 28 die Maii. Anno regni nostri 21.

Edwardus, &c. Venerabili in Christo Patri S. Episcopo Sarum, &c. venire faciatis coram, &c. Magistrum Michaellem de Wodeford Clericum vestrum ad respondendum. Petro filio Warini, quare secutus fuit placitum, &c. de catallis et debitis quæ non sunt, &c. contra Prohibitionem nostram, &c. Teste J. de Mettingham apud Westm. 26 die Febr. Anno regni nostri 21.

Edwardus, &c. Vic. Rutland. salutem. Si Robertus de Ruill & filius ejus fecerint, &c. pone, &c. Alexandrum Vicarium Ecclesie de Bittlebrocks, quod sit, &c. offensurus, quare secutus est placitum in Curia Christianitatis de catallis et debitis quæ non sunt de Testamento vel Patrimonio contra prohibitionem nostram, &c. Teste meipso apud Westm. 28 die Aprilis, Anno regni nostri 21. Besides others that are perished.

Moreover, in the Fragments of the Plea Rolls of Hil. 21 E. 1. in the Tower, I find these two Actions brought for holding and prosecuting suits in Court Christian against the Kings Prohibitions, besides those in the Plea Rolls of other Terms that year, which are putrified.

Johannes de Erlawe attachiatus fuit ad respondendum Adæ le Parmenter & Alicie uxori ejus de placito, quare tenuit placitum in Curia Christianitatis de catallis et debitis quæ non sunt de Testamento vel Patrimonio contra prohibitionem, &c. Ac iidem Adam & Alicie die Mercurii proxima post festum Sancti Barnabe Apostoli, anno regni Regis nunc decimo octavo in Ecclesia de Aldermarichirch in Civitate London. in presencia Johannis Dyssel senioris & Johannis fratris ejus, Roberti de Dereby & Ricardi le Barbir detulissent eidem Johanni Regiam Prohibitionem, ne placitum illud ulterius teneret; ipse sperto mandato Domini Regis predictum placitum coram ipso tenuit, predictos Adam et Aliciam ab ingressu Ecclesie suspendendo, et postea excommunicando, &c. in contemptum mandati Domini Regis: unde dicunt, quod deteriorati sunt et dampnum habent ad valenciam biginti librarum, et inde produciunt sectam suam, &c.

Ibidem, Rot. 38. Norke.

This year King Edward the 1. held his Parliament at London in Easter Term, to which he adjourned the * premised petition and complaint of Magdolphus against John Bailiol King of Scots, then ordered to appear in person to give his further answer to it; the proceedings in which cause are thus recorded in the Pleas of that Parliament.

* Sciendum est, quod Dominus Rex prius mandavit Domino Regi Scotie per literas suas, quod esset coram eo in Crastino Sancta Trinitatis proximo praterito, ubicunque, &c. predicto Magdolpho super premissis responsurus tunc. In instanti Brevi de Judicio eidem Regi Scotie inde dirigendo, loco verborum, scilicet, Mandamus vobis, inferenda sunt hac verba, Adjornamus vos, quod sitis coram nobis, tali die, ubicunque, &c. ad respondendum predicto Magdolpho super premissis, &c. & ad ostendendum, quare non fuistis coram nobis in prefato Crastino Sancta Trinitatis, prout vobis mandatum fuit. Et quia ex querimonia predicti Magdolphi Dominus Rex accepit, quod Rex Scotie super terris & tenementis de Rereis & de Ereg. quoddam iniquum reddidit iudicium contra eum; per quod presumatur, quod ante iudicium illud reddidit recordum & processus aliqua fieri debuissent; Mandatum est eidem Regi Scotie, quod Recordum inde et Processum habeat coram Domino Rege ad terminum supradictum; ut inspectis Recordo & processu supradictis, fieri faciat partibus Iustitie complementum.

Et sciendum, quod quando aliquis querens vel appellans super falso Iudicio de re aliqua in Curia Regis Scotie sibi facto conqueratur superiori Domino, vel appeller, mandabitur in hoc casu Regi Scotie, quod Recordum et processum loquelar in Curia sua inde habitur coram Domino superiori venire faciat certo die ubicunque, &c. Et si contingat quod ad Dominum Regem Anglie, tanquam ad superiorem Dominum regni Scotie per aliquem perbeniat appellatio, sive querimonia de re aliqua per Regem Scotie, sive per Curiam suam eidem conquerenti Injuste (ut asseruerit) illata; propter quod Dominus Rex superior mandaverit Regi Scotie, quod ad Curiam ipsius Domini superioris, ad diem certum, inde veniat responsurus. Ad quem diem si Rex Scotie a casu contigerit absentare, et in proximo die sequenti sibi per superiorem Dominum prefato comparuerit, et contumaciam diei precedentis purgare non possit: Concordatum est, quod idem Rex Scotie amittat cognitionem querelae principalis, et insuper sit in misericordia Domini superioris, ad voluntatem ipsius Domini. Et hoc idem fiat, si non venerit secundo die contumaciam primae diei purgaturus. Cumque etiam idem Dominus Rex Scotie in Curia superioris Domini iuri pariturus venerit, contumaciam suam in casu predicto purgare non potens, propter quod cognitio querelae principalis Domino Regi debeat remanere, ac Rex Scotie sibi imposita super principali negaverit, vel tanquam indefensus teneatur, unde oportuerit habere verificationem; concordatum est, quod verificatio admittatur, et fiat per inquisitionem Patrie, per sacramentum proborum et legalium hominum de visneto, ubi facta fuerit transgressio, vel alio modo, secundum consuetudinem Curie Anglicane, aut per legitima documenta. Quos quidem Juratores Inquisitionis (si Inquisitio inde fieri debeat) Vicecomes Domini Regis de Com. Northumbrie, vel aliquis alius pro voluntate ipsius Domini Regis ad hoc deputandus, venire faciat coram Domino Rege, vel alio per ipsum Dominum Regem ad hoc assignato infra Angliam sive Scotiam, ubi Domino Regi Anglie placuerit, ad faciend. recognitionem predictam.

Et sciendum, quod nullum Elsonum in toto processu Regi Scotie, sive euerenti allocabitur in hoc casu, sed habeant Attornatum secundum consuetudinem Curie Anglicane, si sibi viderint expedire. Et si predictus Rex Scotie super diffet.

huiusmodi conquerentium sive appellantium amittant, ac Regi Angliæ, tanquam Domino Superiori et hæredibus suis remaneant in perpetuum. Et nihilominus Rex Scotiæ in pœna vel misericordia, sicut supra. *The Writ of Summons to the ri, secundum quod (ratione supertozis domini quod in eodem regno habemus) ad nos dimittitur pertinere. Verum cum iusta petentibus non sit denegandus auditus, propter quod alias vobis mandaverimus per literas nostras quas penes vos habere credimus, quod essetis coram nobis in Crastino Sancte Trinitatis proximo preterito, ubicumque tunc fuissetis in Anglia, prefato Magdolpho in premissis responduri, et in dicta causa appellationis (prout iustum fuisset) processuri, facturi et recepturi quod iustitia suaderet; vos coram nobis ad prefatum terminum non venistis ad premissa facienda iuxta formam mandati nostri vobis prius inde directi, de quo miramur quamplurimum et mobermur. Et ideo adjoznavimus vos, quod sitis coram nobis a die Sancti Michaelis in 15 dies, ubicumque tunc fuerimus in Anglia, prefato Magdolpho super premissis responduri, et in dicta causa, prout iustum fuerit, processuri, facturi et recepturi quod iustitia suadebit. Et ad ostendendum, quare non fuissetis coram nobis in prefato crastino S. Trin. prout vobis mandatum fuit. Et quia, sicut dictus Magdolphus asseruit, quod vos super dictis terris & tenementis quoddam iniquum reddi fecistis iudicium contra eum, per quod presumitur, quod ante iudicium illud redditum, Recordum & processum aliqua inde debuissent procedi, vobis mandamus, quod Recordum et Processum illa, cum omnibus ipsa tangentibus, coram nobis ad prefatum terminum habeatis, ut eisdem Recordo et Processu inspectis, fieri faciamus partibus quarum interest iustitie complementum. Et habitis ibi hoc brevis. Teste G. de Thornewton, &c.

The King of Scots not then appearing, he was thereupon summoned to appear in Parliament in Michaelmas Term following; as Placita Parliamentaria thus further relate.

Domini Rex mandavit Vic. Northumbrie per breve suum, quod cum ex gravi querimonia Magdolpho filii Malcolmi Comitis de Fyff acceperat, quia cum idem Dominus Rex nuper dum erat apud Berewicurn super Twedam, dedisset venerabili patri W. Episcopo S. Andree, & sociis suis Custodibus regni Scotie in mandatis, ut de terris & tenementis Macdolpho predicti de Reris, de Crey, de quibus per predictum Episcopum tunc Custodem Comitatus de Fyff, conquirebatur se esse deserviatum injuste, sibi iustitiam exhiberent, & demum iuxta formam mandati predicti per considerationem predictorum Custodum seisinam terrarum & tenementorum huiusmodi recuperasset; Johannes Rex Scotie de eisdem terris & tenementis injuste disseisivit eundem, in ipsius damnum non modicum & gravamen. Et ne jus suum prosequeretur ulterius, fecit eundem carcerali custodia mancipari, et tandem super dictis terris & tenementis quoddam iniquum reddi iudicium contra eum. Et cum postmodum a carcere liberatus, predictum Regem requisivit instanter & pluries, quod ipsum in iure suo curaret audire, & super petitione sua, quam faciebat de predictis terris & tenementis, sibi facere ius & iustitia complementum; offerens se paratum docere de predicto iure suo per literas & alia legitima documenta. Idem Rex omnia illa, et contra ius, et iustitiam denegando facere recusavit. Propter quod mandatum fuit Vicecomiti predicto, quod predicto Regi Scotie literas Domini Regis in propria persona sua deferret, (insufficienti testimonio se cum adhibito, de adjoznavendo ipsum Regem, essendi coram Domino Rege ad hunc diem ad respondendum predicto Magdolpho super premissis; & ad faciendum & recipiendum ulterius quod iustitia requireret. Et modo venit predictus Rex, & predictus Magdolphus queritur, quod cum coram Episcopo predicto & sociis suis Custodibus regni Scotie seisinam de terris & tenementis predictis recuperavit, prefatus Rex de eisdem terris & tenementis injuste disseisivit eundem, &c. (as before, p. 536.) Et Rex Scotie dicit, quod ipse est Rex regni Scotie, nec predicto Magdolpho ad querelam suam, nec de aliquo regnum suum contingente ausus est respondere sine consilio proborum hominum regni sui. Et predictus Magdolphus petit iudicium de ipso Rege tanquam de indefenso, ex quo presens est in Curia Regis per adjornamentum ei factum per breve Domini Regis, quod agnovit se recepisse, nec aliquid ei respondet. Et super hoc dictum est eidem Regi Scotie per Dominum suum Regem Anglie, quod idem Rex Scotie est homo suus ligeus de predicto regno Scotie, de quo tenet ei homagium et fidelitatem, et est coram eo hic adjornatus, quod respondeat vel dicat, quare non sit, vel non debet hic coram eo respondere. Et idem Rex Scotie dicit sicut prius dixit, quod de aliquo regnum suum contingente non est ausus, nec potest hic respondere inconsultis probis hominibus Regni sui: Dictum est eidem, quod requirat alium diem ad consulendum si voluerit: Qui precise respondet, Quod nullum diem requireret, nec aliquod adjornamentum hic admittet. Et habito super hoc consilio & tractatu diligenti cum Archiepiscopis, Episcopis, Comitibus, Baronibus, Thesaurario & Baronibus de Scaccario, Justiciariis & ceteris de Concilio Clericis & Laicis tunc ibidem presentibus; Concordatum est, quod cognitio querelæ principalis remaneat Domino Regi; et quod prædictus Rex Scotiæ erga prædictum Magdolphum remaneat indefensus. Et etiam quoad hoc quod idem Rex Scotiæ coram ipso Rege dixit, quod non ausus fuit nec potuit hic respondere, inconsultis probis hominibus regni seu de aliquo regnum suum tangente, nec ad consulendum diem petere voluit, nec aliquod ajornamentum inde admittere, nec aliquid ostendere vel dicere pro se, quare hic respondere non deberet; In elusionem et enervationem jurisdictionis superioritatis dominii sui, et lisionem Regiæ dignitatis et Coronæ suæ, pro eo quod se modo coram Rege in Curia sua non responsibilem in præmissis standi recto facit, contra hoc quod alias coram Rege in Curia sua in petendo regnum Scotiæ, et etiam in respondendo aliis jus bendicantibus in eodem, & etiam in quibusdam jus vendicantibus in partem ejusdem respondit, & ibidem justitia complementum recepit: Et sic est contemptus manifestus et inobedientia expressa: Consideratum est, quod prædictus Magdolphus quoad imprisonment recuperet dampna sua versus Regem Scotiæ tanquam indefensus, ut prædictum est, taxanda per discretionem Curie. Et quod Dominus Rex inquirat secundum consuetudinem et ususagium patris, si prædictus Macdolphus tenementa, de quibus modo querebatur se disseisiri, recuperabit in Curia Regis per iudicium ejusdem Curie, sicut dicit; & postea per Regem Scotiæ de eisdem disseisitis fuit sicut queritur, necne. Et idem Rex Scotiæ in misericordia. Et quoad inobedientiam & contemptum Domino Regi facta ut prædictum est; quia idem Rex Scotiæ occasione posse suæ regalitatis præmissa præsumpsit, et juri consonum est, quod quislibet puniatur in eo, quod ei præbet audaciam delinquendi. Consideratum est similiter, quod tria principalia Castra regni sui Scotiæ cum distis in quibus eadem Castra sita sunt, cum jurisdictione Regali in eisdem, seiscantur in manum Domini Regis, et seiscita remaneant quousque de contemptu et inobedientia prædictis eidem Domino Regi satisfecerit. Postea venit prædictus Rex Scotiæ ante pronuntiationem prædicti iudicis coram Domino Rege & Consilio suo, et recitavit Domino Regi quandam supplicationem ore suo proprio per verba subscripta, & eadem verba in quadam scedula scripta per manum suam porrexit, &c. Dirre j'en sup bestre home du Roialme Descoce, et vous prie, &c. (as before, p. 536, 537.) Et Dominus Rex habito super hoc Consilio, adrogatum prædictum prædicti Regis Scotiæ, & etiam ad instantiam Procerum & Magnatum de Consilio suo, ex gratia sua speciali, & similiter de consensu prædicti Magdolphi, concessit ipsi Regi Scotiæ supplicationem suam prædictam, et diem ei debuit ad Parliamentum suum post Pascham, viz. in crastino S. Trinitatis, &c. in omnibus in eodem statu, quo nunc. Idem dies datus est Magdolpho, &c. Et per ipsum Dominum Regem Angliæ dictum est præfato Regi Scotiæ & injunctum, quod habeat ad præfatum terminum prædicta Brevia, qua cognovit se recepisse, ut supradictum est, &c.

Et sciendum, quod prædicta processus & Recordum per manus Gilberti de Rouberry liberantur Gilberto de Thornton & sociis suis, ut coram eis in eisdem procedatur, & partibus fiat justitia prout de jure & secundum consuetudinem Regni fuerit faciendum.

The Abbot of Redyng of the Kings ancestors foundation, without consent of the major part of his Covent or of the King, alienating to the Archbishop of St. Andrewes the Priory of May in Scotland, which David King of Scots had settled on the Abbot, Covent and their Successors, to pray for the souls of him and his ancestors, to the prejudice and disinherittance of the King, as well as of the Abbey; the King of Scots refusing to do them justice therein, upon pretext, that the Archbishop of St. Andrewes had appealed to the Pope, the King the same year, as Superior Lord of Scotland, upon their appeal to him for Justice in this case, issued these two memorable Writs to the King of Scots to appear before him in England by a day, and ordered the Sheriff of Northumberland to summon him accordingly, to answer this his neglect of doing them right before the King, who would determine this case by his Sovereign authority.

REX & Superiour Dominus regni Scotiz, dilecto & fideli suo J. eadem gratia Regi Scotiz salutem. Quicquid venerabilis patris A. Dunolmenis Episcopi recepimus continentem, quod cum ipse villas de Berewyk, & de Hadington cum pertin. ut jus Ecclesia Dunelmensis a vobis petivisset, & cum magna instantia pluries vobis supplicasset, quod et inde in Curia vestra iusticiam fieri faceretis; Vos id ei facere denegastis, et in iusticia super hoc exhibenda totaliter desististis, propter quod idem Episcopus Nobis ut superiori Domino regni Scotiz cum instantia supplicabit, ut sibi super hoc in vestri defectum iusticiam fieri faciamus. Nos igitur qui sumus et esse debemus, singulis de potestate et dominio nostro in exhibenda iusticia debitores, adjornamus vos quod sitis coram nobis in crastino Sancti Johannis Baptiste, ubi cumque tunc fuerimus in Anglia, prefato Episcopo super premissis responsuri, & ulterius facturi & recepturi, quod Curia nostra consideraverit in hac parte. Et habeatis ibi hoc breve. Teste Rege apud Cantuar. 21 die Aprilis.

Et mandatum est Vicecomiti Northumbr. quod predictas literas in propria persona sua prefato Regi deferat & presentes, sufficienti testimonio secum adhibito, seu per alios ad hoc idoneos qui presentationem earundem literarum cum eodem Regi facta fueris sufficienter testificari valeant, sibi deferri faciat, ac etiam presentari. Et qualiter hoc mandatum Regis fuerit executus, Regi predictis die & loco per literas suas distinte & aperte certificet. Et hoc breve Regi remittat. Teste ut supra.

Thus did King Edward the 1. as Superiour Lord of Scotland in that age, exercise a Sovereign authority in and over the King, Clergy and kingdom of Scotland, in causes and inheritances which concerned the Church, Clergy, or Religious persons, as well as in secular mens cases, notwithstanding any pretences, or Appeals to Rome, where Justice was delayed, or refused to them by the King of Scots, whereof there are sundry presidents in the Patent and Plea Rolls of Scotland in this and succeeding years, which I pretermite.

In the Parchment Book and Collection of the Pleas and Petitions in the Parliament of 21 E. 1. in the Tower, I finde sundry memorable Judgements and Answers given in maintenance of the Kings Sovereign Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction, against divers encroachments on it. The first is upon the petition of John de Waren, who by vertue of the Kings Charter to him of Lands in Wales, claimed the custody of the Temporalties of the Bishoprick of St. Asaph, within his Seignoury of Bromesfeld, during the vacancy.

* Johannes de Waren. Comes Surrey & Suffex. supplicavit Domino Regi, quod cum idem Dominus Rex terras de Bromesfeld cum omnibus suis pertinentiis eidem Comiti concessisset & dedisset, tenend. sibi & heredibus suis, cum omnibus juribus et libertatibus ad easdem terras pertinentibus, adeo libere et quiete sicut Domini terrarum illarum terras illas, antequam conquerebantur per ipsum Regem, tenuerunt. Et cum Domini illi ante conquestum terrarum illarum omni tempore vacationis Episcopatus de Sancto Asaph. custodiam omnium terrarum et tenementorum infra Dominium de Bromesfeld existentium, et ad predictum Episcopatum pertinentium habuerunt et habere consueverunt. Et cum sedes dicti Episcopatus jam sit vacans, propter quod custodia terrarum et tenement. infra Dominium de Bromesfeld existentium, et ad Episcopatum predictum spectantium, durante vacatione predicta ad ipsum Comitem pertinet, prout ad alios Dominos de Bromesfeld hactenus pertinuit: quod Dominus Rex custodiam earundem terrarum et tenement. infra Dominium suum predictum existentium, et ad Episcopatum predictum spectantium, et quæ terræ et tenementa per mortem ultimi Episcopi loci predicti seista fuerant in manum Domini Regis, sibi velit reddere, &c. Ad quam supplicationem per ipsum Dominum Regem et Consilium suum unanimiter est concepitum et responsum; Quod custodia omnium terrarum et tenement. ubique existentium, ad Episcopatus antiquos infra regnum suum existentium, tempore vacationis eorundem Episcopatum ad ipsum Dominum Regem ratione Coronæ et Dignitatis suæ pertinent, ut de jure Coronæ suæ, et non ad alium, licet

fus Episcopum

London.

Magister Johannes de Peuleldon queritur Domino Regi de hoc, quod cum ipse nuper primo die Itineris Rogeri Extranei & soc. suorum Justic. Domini Regis de Fe. resta, apud Cheelmenford in Com. Essex. in pace Domini Regis venisset, & coram eisdem Justic. se inter alios fideles Domini Regis optulisset, Richardus de Graneshed Episcopus London. ibidem in presentia eorundem Justic. et aliorum Epagnatum ad communem summonitionem ejusdem Itineris presentium, publice denunciavit ipsam Johannem una cum secam communicantibus excommunicari: propter quod idem Johannes quandam literam Episcopi Offic. Cur. Cant. signatam, quam penes se habuit, in plena Curia Regis ibidem porrexit capitali Clerico Justic. pradi. legendam, ad famam et statum suum clarificand. et ostendend. Curia et fidelibus Domini Regis ibidem existentibus, quod sententia pradiati Episcopi ipsam in nullo ligabit; quam quidem literam prafatus Episcopus statim de manu pradiati capitalis Clerici cepit et asportavit contra voluntatem ipsius Johannis, licet scilicet per ipsum Johannem ex parte Domini Regis inhibita fuisset, ne pradiatus Episcopo litera pradiata liberaretur, et etiam contra voluntatem pradiati capitalis Clerici, cum idem Clericus ipsam Episcopum scilicet rogavit, quod pradiatam literam ei tradere et rehabere faceret: in contemptum Domini Regis et Curie sue pradiat. manifestum, et etiam ad dampnum ipsius Johannis non modicum et grabamen, &c.

Et pradiatus Episcopus venit & defendit, quicquid est in contemptum Domini Regis et Curie sue pradiat. Et bene cognoscit, quod pradiatus Johannes pradiat. die in presentia Justic. pradiat. quandam literam porrexit & tradidit capitali Clerico Justic. legendam: sed dicit, quod litera illa lecta non fuit. Immo ipse incontinenti postquam litera illa in manum dicti Clerici devenit, cepit literam illam penes se. Et quia inspecta litera illa, eadem litera sibi ipsi per Offic. Cantuar. dirigeretur, ad quamdam Officium suum tangentia exequenda, idem Episcopus literam illam penes se retinuit, et adhuc retinet: Et profert eandem literam in pleno Consilio. Qua lecta & audita, manifeste patet, quod eadem litera ipsi Episcopo dirigeretur per Offic. Cur. Cantuar. unde dicit, quod eo quod litera illa ipsum tangebatur, intellexit, quod absque contemptu Domino Regi, seu injuria aliqua alicui alio facienda bene potuit eam penes se retinere. Et super hoc idem Episcopum quaesitum, Utrum pradiata litera in prafata Curia Domini Regis per pradiatum Johannem porrecta fuit prafato Clerico legenda, ad famam et statum ipsius Johannis clarificandam, an tradita eidem Episcopo per prafatum Johannem Clericum, ut idem Episcopus literam illam executioni demitteret? Dicit, quod porrecta fuit prafato Clerico Justic. legenda, & quod ipse de manu ipsius Clerici eandem literam cepit. Quaesitum etiam, si pradiatus Clericus Justic. vel etiam si prafatus Magister Johannes aliquo tempore postea ipsum Episcopum rogarunt, quod literam pradiatam sibi liberaret & rehabere faceret? Dicit revera, quod bene intendit, quod de hoc & per Clericum Justic. & per pradiatum Magistrum Johannem rogatus fuit. Et quia dictus Episcopus expresse cognoscit, quod pradiata litera in plena Curia Domini Regis coram prafatis Justic. porrecta fuit, et Clerico eorundem Justic. ad legendum tradita: et idem Episcopus literam illam antequam lecta fuit, de manu pradiati Clerici cepit et secum asportavit, et hucusque detinuit: nec idem Episcopus devocere potest, quin litera illa porrecta fuit legenda ad famam et statum pradiati Magistri Johannis clarificandam, et non ut idem Episcopus ratione illius literae sic porrectae aliquid quod ad officium suum pertinet tunc exqueretur: Et etiam, quia idem Episcopus similiter cognovit, quod pradiatam literam detinuit postquam per prafatos Clericos ab eo pettum fuit, quod illam eis liberaret et rehabere faceret. Et hoc manifestus patet per hoc, quod literam illam hic secum detulit. Et sic contemptum expresse fecit Domino Regi et Curie sue pradiat. tam in hoc, quod literam pradiat. de manu Clerici Justic. pradiat. cepit antequam legeretur, contra voluntatem pradiati Magistri Johannis illam liberantis, qualitercunque ipsi Episcopo dirigeretur, cum non fuit porrecta ibidem ad officium ipsius Episcopi exercendum; quam in hoc, quod literam illam detinuit postquam pettum fuit ab eodem per Clericum Justic. a quo illam in plena Curia cepit quod illam ei restitueret. Consideratum est, quod pradiatus Episcopus remaneat pro transgressione pradiat.

ad voluntatem Domini Regis puniendus. Et Dominus Rex penes se ipsam p<sup>re</sup>nam illam retinet indigendam. Et similiter, Dominus Rex vult et p<sup>re</sup>cipit, quod p<sup>re</sup>dicta littera p<sup>re</sup>dicto Magistro Johanni liberetur. Et quod quicquid per p<sup>re</sup>dictum Episcopum aut suos in dampnum et p<sup>re</sup>judicium p<sup>re</sup>dicti Magistri Johannis factum fuerit aut attemptatum contra tenorem littere p<sup>re</sup>dictae in aliquo, a tempore quo eadem littera in manu p<sup>re</sup>dicti Episcopi (ut p<sup>re</sup>dictum est) devenit, in qua p<sup>re</sup>dicta littera eidem Johanni p<sup>ro</sup>desse potuit aut valuisse, si littera illa penes ipsum Johannem remansisset, omnino annulletur. Et hoc per Dominum Regem eidem Episcopo dictum est, &c. Postea Dominus Rex ad Parlamentum suum post festum Sancti Michaelis eodem anno, ipsi Episcopo p<sup>re</sup>dictae transgress. de gratia sua speciali totaliter remisit. Ideo ipse inde quiescit & habeat litteram acquitancie. By this it is apparent, how contemptuous this Bishop in that age was to the King, his Temporal Courts and Judges, and how insolent, oppressive, vexatious to the Kings people.

By which Case, compared with that of the Prior of Trinity and Bogo de Clare a Here, p. 405, 406.

Secondly, That Sir<sup>b</sup> Edward Cooke, and Mr.<sup>c</sup> Elsing were much mistaken, in the Case of the Prior of Trinity and Bogo de Clare, in asserting, that they were fined and sent to the Tower for breach of the Priviledge of Parliament, by serving a Citation on the Earl of Cornwall: when as their fine and imprisonment (as appears by that Record, and is more fully evidenced by this;) was only for their contempt against the King, in serving a Citation within his Royal Palace, where no man ought to be cited, nor arrested for any cause by any Officer, but only by the Kings Steward or Marshall, as I have<sup>d</sup> elsewhere largely evidenced.

The Fifth and most memorable case in this Parliament, is that of John de Roman Archbishop of Yorke, for his high misdemeanor and usurpation upon the Kings Crown and Dignity, in presuming the * year before, to excommunicate Anthony Bek Bishop of Durham, whiles attending on the Kings person and service in the Northern parts, for his and his Servants imprisoning two of his Clerks for bringing a Citation to summon the Bishop to appear before him, and refusing to release them upon his Monitions and Interdicts, for which he was after long debate and consideration adjudged to be imprisoned, and forced to pay a Fine of 3000 Marks to the King, as this Record informs us.

Johannes Archiepiscopus Eborum attachatus fuit ad respondendum Domino Regi, de placito, quare cum placita de imprisonment et aliis transgressionibus in regno Regis contra pacem Regis factis, ad Regem et Coronam et Dignitatem suam specialiter pertineant. Idem Archiepiscopus per Johannem Priorem de Bolton in Craveno Commissarium suum, in venerabilem patrem Antonium Episcopum Dunelm. dum nuper in partibus Bozealibus in obsequio Regis juxta latus suum per preceptum ipsius Regis sub protectione sua extitit, pro eo, quod Ballivi ejusdem Episcopi Willielmum de Wreton & Johannem Romayne apud Dunelm. inventos ceperunt et imprisonaverunt, Excommunicationis Sententiam, in Regis Contemptum, et Coronam et Dignitatem suam lacionem, et contra reverentiam Regi in hac parte debitam, fecit fulminari, et Sententiam illam executioni demandari, sicut ex relatu plurimorum fidedignorum accepit Rex. Propter quod idem Rex tantum contemptum et tantam irreverentiam sibi illata transire impunita sustinere non valens, maxime cum tam ipse Rex quam predictus Episcopus quantum in ipso fuit prefatis VVillielmo et Johanni de Imprisonamento predicto celeris justitie complementum, juxta regni consuetudinem, semper fuerunt parati exhibere, &c. Et unde Dominus Rex per Richardum de Bretenil, qui sequitur pro eo dicit, Quod predictus Archiepiscopus die Mercurii prox. ante festum S. Jacobi Apostoli, anno vicessimo apud Derlington, & die Jovis & die Dominica sequentibus apud Alverton, et in pluribus aliis locis Diocesis suae per predictum Johannem Priorem de Bolton Sententiam Excommunicationis in dictum Antonium Episcopum nuper in partibus Bozealibus in obsequio Regis, juxta latus suum per preceptum ipsius Regis, et sub protectione sua existentem, pro eo, quod Ballivi ejusdem Episcopi Willielmum de Wreton, & Johannem Romayn apud Dunelm. inventos ceperunt et imprisonaverunt, fecerit fulminari, et sententiam illam executioni demandari, in Regis Contemptum, et Regis Dignitatis lacionem, et contra reverentiam Regi in hac parte debitam, in despectum ipsius Regis 20. Mill. librarum. Et hoc offert verificare pro Domino Rege, &c.

Et Archiepiscopus venit & defendit omnem Contemptum, & totum, &c. Et dicit, quod ipse nihil fecit in contemptum Regis, nec contra dignitatem suam, nec fuit intentionis suae aliquid facere sibi attemptare contra Regiam Jurisdictionem. Et dicit, quod de sententia a Canone lata et per ipsum declarata, in Curia Domini Regis non debet respondere. Sed tamen salva libertate Ecclesiae suae ob reverentiam Domini Regis vult plane factum suum, et veritatem facti illius declarare, & non uti exceptionibus neque cavillationibus. Dicit enim, quod predictus Episcopus est Suffraganeus et subiectus suus, et tenetur obedire mandatis suis Canonici, et quod

pro eo, quod ei obtemperare noluit ut debuit in Canonicis mandatis, misit Clericos suos, viz. prædictos Willielmum & Johannem ad citandum prædictum Episcopum comparere. coram eo ad certos diem et locum inde responsurus. Qui quidem Clerici capti fuerunt & detenti apud Dunelm. per ipsum Episcopum & Ministros suos. Ita quod mandatum ipsius Archiepiscopi cononitum non fuit executum. Propter quod prædictus Archiepiscopus ut Pater filio, et Superiorem subiecto, et ut ille qui iuxta Officii debitum ad correctionem animæ debet operari, ad salutem animæ tantum, et non ad pecuniam pecuniariam sibi aliam, monuit prædictum Episcopum quod huiusmodi Clericos canonica mandata deferentes liberaret, et prædictam libertatem restitueret; vel causam ei significaret, quare hoc facere non deberet. Qui quidem Episcopus illos nec deliberavit, nec causam significare curavit. Propter quod prædictus Archiepiscopus ipsum iterato monuit, ut prædicta faceret sub pena suspensionis. Et prædictus Episcopus iterato inobediens huiusmodi facere omnino recusavit, inobedientiam suam multiplicando. Et prædictus Archiepiscopus tertio monuit prædictum Episcopum, ut sibi in prædictis mandatis Canonicis obediret sub pena declarationis sententiæ in eum a Canone latæ, propter huiusmodi manifestam Ecclesiasticæ libertatis lationem, et inobedientiam. Et prædictus Episcopus animo indurato tertio mandatis Archiepiscopi Canonicis non obtemperavit, propter quod incidit in sententiam a Canone latam, et ipse Archiepiscopus secundum quod officio suo incubuit, non in præiudicium Regis jurisdictionis, Privilegii sibi Dignitatis, declarationem prædictæ sententiæ debito modo sub tenore sequenti pronuntiari præcepit, &c. \ Johannes* permissione divina Eborum Archiepiscopus, Anglia Primas, dilecto in Christo filio Priori de Bolton salutem, gratiam & Benedictionem. Propter qua non est dubium Episcopum antedictum in dictas Suspensionis & Excommunicationis sententias, ne pramissionur, rite latus merito incidisse. Et quia nichil obedientia prodesset humilibus, si contumacia contumacibus non obesset; Nos volentes per Censuram Ecclesiasticam ac ipsius executioni, quæ ab omnibus Catholicis est timenda, ipsius Episcopi culpis exigentibus pariter & offensis legitime procedere contra eum, ut ceteris devotis Ecclesia filiis innotescat dampnabilis status ejus, ne sua communicatione pestifera grex alterius inficiatur Dominicum, usque quem Dei timor à malo non revocet, hunc saltem cohibeat coercio Ecclesiastica disciplina, & rubore confusus ad satisfactionem veniam & debitam obedientiam compellatur; Vobis auctoritate nostra committimus, ut contra memoratum Episcopum ad declarationem sententiarum prædictæ, ac executionem ac publicationem earum sic debito procedatis, quod vestram debeamus industriam merito commendare: Denunciations & publicationes per vos vel per alium deputand. à vobis in Ecclesiis de Alverton & Derington, ac aliis locis solemnibus nostræ provincie quibus competentius poteritis Episcopum antedictum in dictas Suspensionis et Excommunicationis sententias incidisse, & eas (ut præmittitur) incurrisse. Ad quam executionem faciend. & omnia & singula ipsam contingentia secundum quod de jure fuerit faciend. ac etiam procedend. vobis plenam committimus potestatem. Et qualiter, &c. Unde fecit prædictus Archiepiscopus per nuntios suos Clericos & ministros Ecclesia mandata sua licita & canonica prædicto Episcopo tanquam Suffraganeo & subiecto suo destinavit. Ac idem Episcopus salvis suis immemor in obediendo eidem Archiepiscopo ut Superiorem et mandata sua canonica contempnendo, Nuntios, Clericos et Ministros ipsius Archiepiscopo, et Ecclesiæ suæ prædictæ, arrestari fecit et incarcerari. Et super hujusmodi inobedientia, Contemptu & transgress. pluries per ipsum Archiepiscopum esset ammonitus, ut per Superiorem suum, qui curam habuit et cuius interfuit subditi sui hujusmodi delicta corrigere et castigando emendare, ut prædictus inobedientiam, contemptum et transgressionem faceret emendare, vel causam facti sui ei significaret; Qui quidem Episcopus nec emendari inde facere curavit, nec causam facti sui significare: videbatur eidem Archiepiscopo, quod contra ipsum tanquam contra subditem suam contumacem inobedientem Transgressorem, et Mandatarum suorum canonicorum contemptorem sine Regis offensâ debite potuit et debuit procedere in forma prædicta. Et quoad hoc quod ei imponitur, quod fulminari præcepit sententiam in prædictum Episcopum dum fuit in servitio Regis per præceptum suum iuxta latus suum et sub protectione sua; Dicit, quod in hoc in nullo deliquit, eo quod eo tempore quo sententia lata fuit, fuit ipse Archiepiscopus in partibus transmarinis. Nec continetur in mandato suo, quod prædictus Prior hujusmodi sententias & denunciations pronuntiaret; nisi in locis debitis, in quibus competentius illas facere poterit, sine offensâ Auriæ, Ave Regis prædictæ. Et videtur quod ei imputari non debet, si prædictus Prior hunc Mandati sui excessit; unde dicit, quod per præmissa perpendi potest, quod non publicabit sententiam in ipsum Episcopum pro eo, quod Ballivi prædicti Episcopi ceperunt et detinuerunt prædictos Clericos, sicut Rex de Donni Regis requirit. Immo propter inobedientiam ipsius Episcopi manifestam. Et consideratis præmissis & ponderatis juxta intencionem suam & officii sui debitum in forma prædicta, supplicavit Domino Regi, quod ei et Ecclesiæ suæ prædictæ fiat Justitia cum favore et gratia in hac parte, &c.*

Et Richardus de Bretenill qui sequitur pro Rege dicit. Quod prædictus Episcopus Dunelm. habet duos status, viz. Prælatum Episcopi quoad Spiritualia, & Statum Com. Palatii quoad ten. sua temporalia. Et dicit, quod licet prædictus Archiepiscopus ei præcipere possit, & Canonica mandata sua sibi transmittere in hiis quæ ad Ecclesiam suam pertinent, et Inobedientiam et Peccata subditarum suorum corrigere et emendare; Et idem Episcopus hujusmodi præceptis suis et mandatis teneatur ut Superiori suo obedire; et prout prædictus Archiepiscopus dicit; Tamen quantum ad ea quæ ad sedem Temporalia, quæ de Domino Rege tenet, spectant, et in quibus transg. quæcunque sunt ad ipsum Regem, sive ad Episcopum prædictum nomine Regis pertinent, audire et emendare, prædictus Archiepiscopus ratione officii sui Spiritualis nullam habet seu habere potest jurisdictionem; unde, desit prædictus Archiepiscopus cognoscere quod Laici Ministri ipsius Episcopi qui temporaliū rerum et ten. suorum habuerint administrationem, prædictos Clericos cos ceperunt, et in Castro ipsius Episcopi imprisonaverunt; Cujusmodi imprisonamenti cognitio ad Dominum Regem ratione dignitatis Regia, et non ad alium nisi ex Regia concessione, mere pertinet; Ac idem Archiepiscopus ipsos sic incarceratos per Censuram Ecclesiasticam liberare, et de iniuriis et transgressionibus factis eisdem emendas fieri precepit, maxime cum huiusmodi imprisonati sunt habent recuperare in Curia Regis et habere debent ibi, et non alibi, de iniuriis & dampnis quas sustinuerunt pro injusto Imprisonamento unusquisque pro se, eo quod huiusmodi delicta sunt personalia, tam in personis delinquentibus, quam in personis injuriam patientibus, nec etiam deducere potest, quin predictus Prior Commissarius suus in predictum Episcopum sub protectione Regis iuxta latus suum de precepto Regis in servitio suo existentem, in Contemptum Regis, et contra Coronam et dignitatem Regiam (ut prae. est) sententiam fulminabit, &c. pro eo quod predictus Episcopus predictos, &c. sic incarceratos per Laicos Ministros suos in ten. temporalibus deliberare, et dampna eisdem de Imprisonamento predicto satisfacere noluit, et sic in his quae ad Coronam et dignitatem Regiam pertinent, tanquam Judex temporalis Jurisdictionem quam non habuit nec habet exercuit, petit Iudicium de cognitione ipsius Archiepiscopi. Dies datus est predicto Archiepiscopo & Richardo de Bretenil qui sequitur pro Rege a die Pasche in Tres Septimanas coram Domino Rege ubique, &c. Postea a die Pasche in Tres Septimanas venit predictus Archiepiscopus coram Rege et ejus Consilio; Et idem Archiepiscopus quastus, Si quid plus velit dicere, vel aliud dicere sciat quam prius dixit; Dicit, quod predictus Episcopus Dunelm. duplicem Statum habet, unum viz. Temporalem quoad Baroniam quam tenet de Rege, & alium Spiritualem, de quo ei tenetur in obedientia. Et dicit, quod ratione Temporalitatis non debet ei minus obedire in Spiritualibus. Et quia predicti Clerici sui capti fuerunt & imprisonati per Ministros ipsius Episcopi quos miserit tantummodo ad mandata canonica deferenda, ac idem Episcopus contemptuose mandatis suis Canonicis disobediendo ad monitionem suam eosdem Clericos deliberare non curavit, videbatur ei, quod sententiam in quam a Canone incidit ex hoc facto in ipsum declarare potuit, & similiter promulgare. Quastus, si prisona illa in qua Clerici illi detinebantur, sit prisona pertinet ad Baroniam ipsius Episcopi, an ad Spiritualitatem? Et si imprisonati quicunque & in prisona illa detenti deliberari debent & consueverunt per Ministros ipsius Episcopi, secundum legem & consuetudinem Regni? Dicit, quod non potest deducere, quin infra Castrum quod est de Baroniam sit prisona illa, & quod ibidem fuerunt imprisonati; Et quod quicunque ibidem imprisonati deliberari debent & consueverunt per Laicos Ministros ipsius Episcopi secundum Legem & Consuetudinem Regni. Quastus etiam, si prisona illa tempore vacationis Dunelm. sit in custodia Domini Regis, sive in custodia Custodis Spiritualitatis? Dicit, Quod in Custodia Regis, set semper, ut dicit, quod quacumque prisona detinebantur, ex quo Clerici sui fuerunt, & Canonica mandata deferentes (ut predictum est) & per ministros sui Suffraganei capti, videbatur ei quod ad mandatum suum debuit eos deliberasse. Et hoc ad ipsum pertinet eidem Suffraganeo suo demandare ratione obedientie sibi debita. Et quia predictus Archiepiscopus in propria persona sua manifeste cognoscit, quod Episcopus Dunelm. duplicem habet Statum, scilicet, Spiritualem & Temporalem; Et quod ad Statum illum Temporalem Incarcerationes & Imprisonamenta per Ministros ejusdem Episcopi pertinent facienda, & etiam deliberationes prisonum quorumcumque ad Ministros ejusdem Episcopis ratione Temporalitatis ejusdem, secundum legem & consuetudinem Regni; Et quod Prisona in qua detinebantur est infra Castrum quod est pertinet ad Baroniam, in qua quidem Prisona predicti prisonos detinebantur; Et hoc idem Archiepiscopus ore propria sufficienter fatetur dicendo, quod tempore vacationis prisona illa ratione Baroniam & temporalitatis predicta, est & esse debet in custodia Regis, & non in custodia Custodis Spiritualitatis; Et similiter in Litera predicti Archiepiscopi, quam cognovit & advocavit, expresse continetur, Quod predicti Prisonos capti fuerunt per Constabularium & Laicos Ministros ipsius Episcopi; Custodes predictae Prisonae, & in absentia ipsius Episcopi; & ex praemissis clare sequitur, quod idem Archiepiscopus per literas suas, quas per vices diversas praefato Episcopo mandavit, qualitercumque illas modo nescitur roborare, ratione alicujus obedientiae Spiritualis, intendebat artare ipsum Episcopum ad deliberandum predictos prisonos, nullo respectu habito ad personas eorum per quos capti fuerunt, maxime cum essent Laici et Ministri

* Videtur Domino Regi in pleno Parlamento suo prædict. Com. Baron. Justic. et similiter toti Consilio ipsius Domini Regis, quod prædictus Archiepiscopus, quantum in ipso fuit, nitetur occupare et usurpare super Coronam Regiam et Dignitatem in casu isto deliberationis imprisonmentum, contra legem et consuetudinem regni, et contra fidem in qua idem Archiepiscopus Domino Regi et Coronæ suæ astringitur, ad exheredationem Domini Regis et hæredum suorum manducam. Propter quod per Com. Baron. Justic. et omnes alios de Consilio ipsius Domini Regis unanimiter concordatum est, quod prædictus Archiepiscopus committatur personæ pro offensa et transgressione prædictis. Et super hoc ante Iudicium pronuntiatum, licet unanimiter de Consilio prædict. Magnatum et aliorum concordatum fuisset tenend. in hoc casu, et similiter in casibus consimilibus impetuum, prædictus Archiepiscopus, Magnates, et alios de Consilio ipsius Domini Regis rogabit, quod pro eo Dominum Regem requirerent, ut ante pronuntiationem Iudicii ipsum ad gratiam suam admitteret & voluntatem suam. Et Dominus Rex ad instantiam eorundem Magnatum, de gratia sua speciali, hoc idem ipsi Archiepiscopo concessit. Et idem Archiepiscopus humiliter supplicat, quod possit de omnibus præmissis alto et basso voluntati Domini Regis se submittere. Et Dominus Rex ad instantiam prædict. Magnatum, admittit ipsum juxta petitionem suam ad voluntatem, &c. Et dictum est eidem Archiepiscopo sub gravi forisfactura, quod non recedat à Parlamento isto, donec super præmissis Domini Regis audierit voluntatem, &c. Postea venit prædict. Archiepiscopus, et fecit Finem cum Domino Rege pro transgressione prædict. pro quatuor millibus Marcarum per scriptum suum obligatorum, in hæc verba. Noverint universi, quod nos Johannes permissione Divina Eborum Archiepiscopus, Anglia Primas, tenemur Serenissimo Principi Domino Edwardo, Dei gratia Regi Anglia illustri, Domino Hibernia & Duci Aquitania, in quatuor millibus Marcarum, de quibus coram ipso Domino Rege ad Placita sua in Rotulis suis ibidem, & etiam in Scaccario ipsius Domini Regis fit mentio solvendarum eidem pro suo beneplacito voluntatis. Ad quatum solutionem faciend. obligamus nos et omnia bona nostra per quæ distringamur pro ut Domino Rege placuerit, ad eandem. Ad quod faciendum hos fidejussores invenimus, viz. venerabilem fratrem nostrum Dominum J. Kar. Episcopum, Magistros Henr. Decanum Eborum, Willielmum Archidiaconum Eborum, Johannem Archid. Efrising, & Willielmum Archid. Not. In cuius rei testimonium sigillum nostrum, una cum sigillis prædict. Fidejussorum nostrorum presentibus est appensum. Dat. apud Westm. die Mercurii prox. ante festum Pentecost. Anno gratiæ, 1293, &c.

In which memorable Case and Judgement, we may observe; First, the Bishop of Durham; and his Officers high contempts of the Archbishops Citations, Admonitions, Suspensions, Excommunications, and of the privilege of his Clerks, whom they apprehended and detained in prison notwithstanding their Orders, for endeavouring to serve a Citation on the Bishop. 2ly. The Archbishops high offence against the Kings Crown and Dignity, in presuming to enforce the Bishop and them to release his imprisoned Clerks by his own Ecclesiastical Censures of Interdict & Excommunication, not by the Kings process and authority, according to the Law and Custom of the Realm. 3ly. The Archbishops justification of this his usurpation to the uttermost, and his demurrer to the Kings and Parliaments Jurisdiction to question or judge him for it. 4ly. That for any Archbishop or Prelate to excommunicate any person in the Kings service, or attending on his royal person by his command, and under his protection, or any other for Temporal affairs, is a very high contempt, offence against, and usurpation upon the King, his Crown and Dignity, tending to the Kings and his heirs disinheriting, by the unanimous resolution of the King, and of all his Nobles, Barons, Judges, Council in this Parliament: which they adjudged to be punished not only then, but in all succeeding ages, by imprisonment of the persons of such Archbishops, Bishops, and others who should be found guilty thereof; and also by by great fines and ransoms to the King. 5ly. That this Archbishop was then adjudged to be committed Prisoner to the Tower, notwithstanding his Pall; and enforced to enter into a Recognisance with Sureties, to pay a fine of 4000 marks to the King, notwithstanding his insisting on his Archiepiscopal Priviledges, and the Nobles mediation on his behalf; a great sum in that age; the Kings Solicitor declaring his Majesty was damnified thereby no less then 20000 pounds, which he must have paid, had not his submission and the Lords mediation prevented the penalties of the Judgement against him.

The sixth and seventh are these two Judgements given against the Prior of Bridlington, and this Archbishop of York, in the same Parliament, who was ordered to appear before the King and his Counsil, to answer his fraud and offence against his Oath and Allegiance to the King, for buying a debt of 300 l. (owing by the Prior and Covent of Bridlington by bond to an exiled Jew of York, confiscated to the King by the common banishment of the Jews out of England) after his exile at Paris, in his return from Rome; and enforcing this Prior by his Order in his Visitation of the Monastery, to pay the 300 l. to one of his own Vallers as the Jews Attorney; for which misdemeanors both the Prior and Archbishop had Judgement given against them by the King and his Counsil, as these Records inform us.

Et Prior bene cognoscit, quod prædecessor suus immediatus pecuniam predictam de predicto Judxo mutuavit, termino præfato solvendam. Et quod ipse ratione mutui illius adhuc ad solutionem pecunie illius tenetur; sed dicit, quod Johannes Archiepiscopus Ebor. qui nunc est, in tertia septimana Quadrages. prox. præterit. Dominum suum de Bridlington, prout ad officium suum pertinet, visitabit; & inter cetera in visitatione sua ibidem inventa, qua sunt de debitis Domus in qua idem Prior, & quibus, & pro quo tenebatur. Ita quod tunc invenit, quod Domus predicta predicto Judxo indebitabatur in pecunia predicta. Et statim in Capitulo ipso Priori in-junxit, quod pecuniam illam solveret cuidam Valetto tunc ibi præfenti, ad testum satisfactionis beate Mariæ proximo sequens; Quem Valetum idem Archiepiscopus dicebat esse Attornatum præfati Judxi: Et ipse Prior, prout ratione obedientie suæ tenetur, præcepto præfati Archiepiscopi obedivit, et eandem pecuniam tunc solvere promisit. Et quia idem Prior cognoscit, quod predicta pecunia predicto Judxo debebatur, nec ei solvebatur ante exilium Judxorum, & quicquid remansit de eorum debitis aut catallis in regno post eorum exilium, Domini Regis fuit: Consideratum est, quod Dominus Rex recuperaret pecuniam predictam, ut catalla sua, versus predictum Priorum. Et dictum est eidem Priori, quod non exeat à Villa priusquam Domino Regi de predicta pecunia satisfecerit. Et quia prædictus Archiepiscopus prædicto Priori in-junxit, quod Catalla Domini Regis predicta Valetto solveret, ad dampnum Domini Regis. Et similiter, quia Dominus Rex intellexit quod Archiepiscopus prædictus quoddam Scriptum obligatorium, per quod præfatus Prior prædicti Judxo tenebatur in debito predicto, contra fidem Domino Regi debitam, et sacramentum fidelitatis suæ emit aut perquisivit, ad elongandum Dominum Regem de catallis suis predictis, et sibi appropriand. malitiose: Præceptum est Vicecomiti Ebor. quod venire faciat prædictum Archiepiscopum coram Domino Rege à die Sancti Michaelis in 15. dies, ubicunque, &c. ad respondendum Domino Regi de deceptioe prædicta, &c. Et similiter, quod prædictum Scriptum (ut dicitur) remaneat in custodia Abbatis Sanctæ Mariæ Ebor. aut Prioris Sancti Andree Ebor. Ideo præceptum est

In purſuit hereof, * Preceptum fuit Vic. Ebor. quod venire faceret hic ad hunc diem, viz. à die Sancti Michaelis in 15. dies Johannem Archiepiſcopum Ebor. ad reſpondend. Domino Regi de hoc, quod cum Prior de Bridlington & ejuſdem loci Conventus per Scriptum ſuum obligatorium tenebantur cuidam Bonamy quondam Judxo Ebor. in treſcentis libris ſterlingorum certis terminis ſolvendorum, et ibidem Judxus per communem exiſtam Judxorum de regno iſto ante ſolutionem prædictæ pecuniæ ſibi ſactæ regulari, prædictus Archiepiſcopus de Curia Romana rediens atus Parisios, cum prædicto Judxo conventionem & mercatum faciens, prædictum debitum quod fuit & eſt catallum Domini Regis ab eo emit, et poſtea in viſitatione ſua ad Prioratum prædictum facta, eidem Priori et Conventui per obedientiam injunxit, quod prædictam pecuniæ cuidam Waletto ipſius Archiepiſcopi, aut nuntio præfati Judxi certo termino ſolberent, contra ſubſtatem in qua Domino Regi tenebantur, et in alienationem pecuniæ Domini Regis, ad dampnum ipſius Regis mille librarum, &c.

Et prædictus Archiepiſcopus moſo venit, & ſuper ſacto prædicto coram Rege et Conſilio ſuo arenatus, expreſſè dicit, Quod nunquam cum prædicto Judxo aliquam conventionem fecit ſeu Mercatum de pecunia prædicta ſibi adquirenda; ſed revera dicit, quod in viſitatione ſua ad domum prædictam invenit, & per Priorem & Conventum ejuſdem domus ſibi oſtenſum fuit, quod domus illa indebitabatur prædicto Judxo de prædicta pecunia. Et ibidem ad ſalvationem animarum ſuarum, prout tenebatur, eidem Priori et Conventui dixit, Quod pecuniam illam ſana conſcientia retinere non poſſent; et quod ſic facerent, quod animas ſalvarent; ſet quod nunquam eis injunxit, quod pecuniam illam ſibi aut alii nomine prædicti Judxi ſolberent, paratus eſt ſe acquietare, ſi placuerit Domino Regi & ejus Conſilio. Et Dominus Rex ſuper hoc de gratia ſua ſpeciali, & ad inſtantiam Magnatum de Conſilio ſuo, licet per patriam de jure inquirere poſſet veritatem præmiſſorum, conceſſit prædicto Archiepiſcopo, quod in fide qua ei teneatur, veritatem præmiſſorum ſcateretur & cognoscat. Et ibidem Archiepiſcopus in fide, &c. fatetur & dicit, Quod in veniendo de Curia Romana apud Parisios, bene audivit & intellexit per prædictum Judxum, quod prædicta pecunia ei debebatur, & quod ibidem Judxus eum rogavit, ut ei pro Deo eſſet in auxilium ad prædictam pecuniam ſuam recuperandam. Et poſtea, ut prædictum eſt, in viſitatione ſua ad domum prædictam, hoc ibidem invenit per confeſſionem prædicti Prioris & Conventus, & eis dixit, Quod ſic facerent, quod animas ſuas ſalvarent. Et quia ibidem Archiepiſcopus bene cognoviſcit, quod poſt exiſtam prædicti Judxi et aliorum Judxorum de regno iſto, à prædicto Judxo intellexit, quod pecunia prædicta ſibi in regno iſto debebatur, et poſt eorum exiſtam omnia que ſua fuerunt, et in regno iſto remanſerunt, tam debita quam alia bona quæcunque, ipſi Domino Regi remanſerunt et bona ſua fuerunt. Et ſuper incontinenti poſt eorum exiſtam ſolemnis Proclamationis ſtebat per totum regnum; Quod omnes qui debita aliqua alicui Judxi debebant, aut de eorum debitis, bonis & catallis aliquid ſciebant, Domino Regi aut alicui de Conſilio ſuo ſcire facerent. De qua quidem Proclamatione nullo dicere poſſet, quin ſcivit aut ſciſſe debuit. Et ibidem Archiepiſcopus de debito prædicto ſcivit prout fatetur, tam per Judxum quam per Priorem & Conventum, nec à hoc Domino Regi aut alicui de ſuis conſtare fecit; Immo debitum illud concealando, et a Rege alienando, contra fidem qua Regi teneatur, injunxit præfati Priori et Conventui quod animas ſuas ſalvarent, quod tantum valuit quantum ſi dixiſſet, quod Judxo ſatisfacerent. Concoꝛdatum eſt, quod prædictus Archiepiſcopus remaneat in miſericordia Regis pro concealamento et transgreſſione prædicta, &c. Et ibidem Dominus Rex ſibi ipſi reſervat taxationem illius miſericordiæ.

By which Record it is apparent: 1. That all the Jews were directly and profeſſedly baniſhed out of England by King Edward the 1. and his Parliament. 2ly. That all their Houſes, Debts, Goods and Chattels left in England after their exile, belonged of right to the King. 3ly. That this their baniſhment, and forfeiture of their Debts, Goods thereby, was publiſhed by the Kings Proclamation throughout the Realm, of which all men did or ought to take notice, being thereby required to diſcover all Debts, Goods and Chattels due unto them, without any concealment; cealment; yet * Sir Edward Cooke (who cites these two Records in his Commentary upon the Statute de Judaismo) confidently averres, The truth is, the Jews were not banished out of the Realm by Authority of Parliament, as some are of opinion, and as it is said in some of our Historians; but that their Usury was banished by that Act, and that was the cause that they banished themselves into Foreign Countries, that they might live by their Usury: Whereas these two Records no less then 8. times expressly record their banishment out of England, and above one hundred other Records, as well as all our Historians.

These two Judgements against this Archbishop in Parliament, did so perplex and humble him, that he * dyed soon after on the 3<sup>d</sup> of March 1293.

8ly. In this Parliament it was resolved by the Kings Justices and Council, upon the Petition of the Prior of Bermundsey; 1. That the King by his Prerogative Royal shall present to all Vicaridges, Parsonages, and Benefices belonging to Religious Houses or Bishopricks, during their vacancies. 2ly. That an Abbots, Priors, or Bishops presentation of a Clerk to a Benefice in his life time, if he dye before the Clerks institution and induction, makes no plenarty against the King, but that he may and shall by his Prerogative present another Clerk thereto, as this Record resolves.

* Prior de Bermundsey qui nunc est, monstravit Domino Regi, Quod cum quidam Henr. Prior de Bermundsey, predecessor suus immediatus, tempore suo presentasset quendam Galfridum de Wyteberry ad Vicariam de Camberwell, qua est de Advocacione dicti Prioratus, & idem Galfridus presentationem illam profectus fuisset, ac antequam institutionem in Vicariam prefatam haberet, prefatus Prior predecessor suus dictum clauit extremum. Propter quod custodia dicti Prioratus post mortem prefati Henr. quondam Prioris, &c. ratioms vacationis ejusdem in manum Domini Regis devenit; ratioms cujus custodia idem Dominus Rex ad eandem Vicariam quendam Clericum suum presentavit. Quia quidem presentatio Domini Regis cedit in prejudicium et exprobationem dicti Prioratus, qui est de Advocacione Domini Regis. Et supplicavit, quod Dominus Rex presentacionem illam velit revocare, &c. Et super hoc in pleno Consilio, habito inde tractatu diligenti, quia per Record. Cancellarii, Justic. & aliorum de Consilio compertum est, Quod Dominus Rex et progenitores sui ratione Prerogative sue fuerunt et sunt in seipsis presentandi ad Ecclesias, Vicarias, et alia Beneficia quacunq; ad quasque Dominus Religiosis seu Episcopatus spectant, tempore vacationis eorundem Domodum et Episcopatum nomine custodie in manu sua existentium: Nam totum idem Dominus Rex Ecclesias, Vicarias, seu Beneficia illa vacans et inconsulta inveniunt tempore quo hujusmodi Episcopatus seu Domos in manum suam sequebatur ratione predicta. Et quia in supplicatione predicti Prioris continetur, quod predecessor suus ad prefatam Vicariam presentavit, et antequam presentatus ille in eandem institueretur, idem Prior predecessor suus clauit extremum: Nec dici poterit, quod presentatus Vicaria plena fuit et consultata tempore obitus prioris predecessoris per presentacionem suam, seu tempore quo custodia dicti Prioratus in manum Domini Regis devenit. Concomitanti est, quod Dominus Rex presentacionem suam ratione Prerogative sue (ut predictum est) ad prefatam Vicariam habeat, et quod presentatus suus ad eandem admittatur, non obstante presentacione per prefatum Priorem motum tempore suo facta, &c. Et dictum est Episcopo Winton. seu Diocesan. quod ad presentacionem Domini Regis ad prefatam Vicariam admittat, &c. This is one of the first Judgements I have observed in this point since frequently resolved in our Year-book.

What a fray and murder happened this year, between the Archbishop of Dublin and Bishop of Eghern, coming from the consecration of William Bishop of Bath and Wells; what numerous trains of Servants they then had, and how peremptorily the Bishop of Ely refused to deliver to the Kings Justices or Council the names of his Servants, Secward, or Marshall then with him, when they murdered one of the Archbishops Servants, in high contempt of the Kings and publick Justice, this Record in the Parliament of 21 E. 1. will inform us.

An. 21 E. 1. Regia strata juxta hospitium ubi pradiſt. Archiepiſcopus hoſpitatus fuit, venit quidam garcio de familia diſti Epifcopi Eliensis tranſiens per familiam ipſius Archiepiſcopi equitando quendam equum; & quem quidem garcionem ipſi de familia pradiſt. Archiepiſcopi proſtraverunt de equo pradiſto, & ipſum verberaverunt & male trallaverunt. Quod quidem factum videns quidam Robertus le Wayte, vigilator ipſius Epifcopi, cornavit poſt ſocios ſuos & alios de familia ipſius Epifcopi. Ita quod viginti et quinque homines de familia ipſius Epifcopi exierunt ab Hoſſio cum Arcubus et Sagittis, et inſultum dederunt pradiſtis hominibus de familia pradiſti Archiepiſcopi; Quibus pradiſti homines de familia ejusdem Archiepiſcopi reſiſtebant, & inter ſe pugnaverunt; Ita quod ipſi de familia pradiſti Epifcopi per vim fugaverunt omnes de familia ejusdem Archiepiſcopi ad hoſpitium ejusdem. Et cum ingreſſi fuiſſent portam ubi hoſpitati fuerunt, quidam Waltero de Poſted Cifſore ipſius Archiepiſcopi de foris exiſtente, quem quidam Richardus de Nottingham unus de familia ipſius Epifcopi ſagittavit quendam ſagitta, unde 17. die poſtea inde obiit. Et omnes pradiſti viginti & quinque de familia pradiſti Epifcopi quorum nomina ignoratur, excepto Richardo de Nottingham, ſimul cum Roberto le Wayte, ſtatim poſt factum redierunt ad hoſpitium pradiſti Epifcopi a quo exierunt. Et poſtea in cratiſino in aurora diei pradiſti Epifcopus receſſit a pradiſta Villa de Newton, ſimul cum omnibus pradiſtis viginti & quinque, excepto pradiſto Richardo de Nottingham, qui ſtatim poſt factum fuga. Et quia compertum eſt per Rotulos Covenantorum, & per 32. Juratores quod pradiſtus Robertus le Wayte, & alii de familia pradiſti Epifcopi, quorum nomina ignoratur, & de nominibus quorum non poſſet inquiri per aliquos de hundredo iſto, eo quod extiterunt, & fuerunt in forcia & auxilio ubi pradiſtum Walterus occiſus fuit, & quod exierunt ab hoſpitio ejusdem Epifcopi tanquam familiares & de manuſcriptu ejusdem, & poſt preſentem feloniam factam redierunt & cum ipſo abierunt, ut pradiſtum eſt. Et Vic. teſtatur, quod idem Epifcopus nihil habet in Com. iſto per quod poſſet accuſari. Ideo preceptum eſt Vicecomitiſbus London. quod attachent eum, &c. quod ſit apud Grenewicum die Mercurii prox. poſt feſtum Sancti Andree Apoſtoli ad reſpondend. &c.

*Poſtea ad diem illum venit pradiſtus Epifcopus. Et dictum eſt ex parte Regis, quod certificet Juſtic. de nominibus famulantium qui ſecum venerunt in pradiſta Villa de Newton, excepto Richardo de Nottingham. Qui quidem Epifcopus dicit, quod ipſe eſt membrum ſanctæ Eccleſiæ, et quod non licet ei aliquos in tali caſu accuſare, eo quod rebere poſſit in crimine ſanguinis, &c. Et iterum dictum eſt ex parte Domini Regis, quod certificet eiſdem Juſtic. de nominibus Beneſcal. et ſporeſcal. ſui, qui tunc ſecum fuerunt in pradiſta Villa de Newton: Et eodem modo quo prius reſpondit. Sterio de Engolisma Constabulario Burdeg. & Johan. de Candore Thesaurario Agen. & cuilibet ipsorum in solidum, concedimus potestatem, & speciale mandatum, faciendi & constituendi pro nobis procuratorem seu procuratores, quocienscunque hoc viderint faciendum, ad probocandum et appellandum a Prælati Capitulis et Iudicibus Ecclesiasticis ultramarinis; ad Apostolicam sedem, quandocumque non per ipsos in aliquibus factis aut iuribus Ecclesiasticis gravari contingeret, vel verissimiliter præsumetur de futuro gravamine eorumdem. Et specialiter contra provisiones aut collaciones quascunque per ipsos aut ipsorum nomine in nostrum præiudicium factas vel faciendas. Cum potestate iurandi prout negotiorum & causarum qualitas hoc requiratur, necnon ad prosequendum probationes et appellaciones prædictas in Cur. diæ sedis, et coram quibuscunque Auditoribus et Iudicibus ab eadem Cur. deputandis. Ita quod quilibet dictorum Procuratorum in absentia dictorum Decani, Constabularii & Thesaurarii possint substituere alium vel alios loco sui. Et quod tam dicti procuratores qui substituti ab eis possint per ipsos Decanum, Constabularium & Thesaurarium vel ipsorum alterum, quocienscunque alterum eorum placuerit, revocari. Ratum habituri & firmum, quicquid per dictos procuratores & quemlibet ipsorum, & substitutos ab eis factum fuerit in præmissis. Promittentes sub ypoth. bonorum nostrorum Ducatus nostri Aquitan. rem ratam haberi & iudicatum solvi. Et hæc omnibus quorum interest, per presentes literas intimamus. Dat. apud Westm. 22. die Maii. After the decease of John Peckham Archbishop of Canterbury, Anno 1293. (promoted by the Popes Provision) * cum eligendi potestas Monachis Cantuariensibus a Rege data esset, ex omnium votis & applausu Robertus Winchelse Archidiaconus Essexiæ Archiepiscopus electus est, summa doctrina, prudentia & aequitatis fama ubique notus atque conspicuus. Cumque Romam ad Cælestinum Papam confirmandus atque sacrandus venisset, (by the Kings special license) Papam totamque Romanam Curiam in tantam prudentia doctrinaque sua admirationem & stuporem traduxit, ut non cognovissent se in quocunque dicerent, tantam morum animique mansuetudinem, cum literis & prudentia conjunctam. Itaque eum in Cardinalium gregem cooptare Romæque secum retinere decreverint. Sed expositis multis causis necessariis, cur à Cantuariensi Ecclesia abesse non poterat, agere tandem obtinuit, ut sacratum in Angliam rediret. What a professed devoted servant he afterwards evidenced himself to the Pope and Church of Rome, but a vexatious opposite Rebel to his Sovereign Lord King Edward, (by whose special favour he was elected and confirmed Archbishop) will appear in its due Chronological series. I shall here only insert Matthew Parkers memorable passage in relation thereunto in the beginning of his Life, principally occasioned by the frequent fierce contests in that age between Popes, Popish Prelates and Kings, for Sovereign authority and Jurisdiction. † Sed omnis tum inter Pontifices atque Reges de Imperio magis atque dominatu, quam de Ecclesiæ ex divini verbi p̄scripto gerenda fuit contentio. In qua cum acres dimicationes non armorum, sed vitæ et execrationum essent concitata, P̄sules inscitia verbi ipsi cæci, ac cæcorum duces Papæ adhærebant, et abjecta obedientia Regibus non parebant, quibus divinus humanoque jure essent subjecti. Hanc illi contumaciam, constantiam, et Ecclesiæ libertatem tunc appellabant. Quique in ea pertinacia vitas aut fortunas amitterent, Martyres ac Confessores appellabant. Quæ nisi multis tunc antea ducta annis in hominum animis inveteravisset fallacia, ac multos, p̄sertim P̄sules, a fide atque cultu, quem Regibus tribuere debebant, ad Papam abduxisset, satis bene et cum laude ab Archiepiscopis et Episcopis

Upon the Liberties of the Kings and Subjects of Engl. & Irel. K. Edward 1.

Episcopis gestos Magistatus existimare convenit, si quis eorum acta perpendere. Sed quia ab illa sede Romana, vel dolis insatiati, vel sceleribus et contagione inquinati fuerunt, et ab observantia Regibus debita recesserunt, ubi ex rebus gestis non modo laudem detraxerunt, sed in vita molestias ac iacturas, et post mortem infamiam atque ignominiam pepererunt. Ex horum numero fuit Robertus Winchelsea Cantuariensis Archipræsulis, cujus acta, si quo animo in patriam & rempublicam gesta sicut existimari debeant, recta iudicanda sunt; An Romanam consuetudinem probitatemque species, scelerata atque impia: Qui nonnunquam, vir bonus & amator Patriæ, nonnunquam fraudis, proditoris, superbi et rapinæ plenus varie a scriptoribus perhibetur. * Mr. John Fox also writing of this Archbishop's promotion, and the various contests between him and his predecessor, and King Edward the 1. subjoynes this memorable observation. As this King was troubled in his time with both the Archbishops John Peckham and Robert Winchelsey, so it hapned to all other Kings for the most part, from the time of Lanfrancus, (that is from Pope Hildebrand) that every King in his time had some business with that See; Kings of England being commonly troubled with the Archbishops of Canterbury; As William Rufus and Henry the 1. were troubled with Anselmus; Henry the 2. with Thomas Becket; King Richard and all England with William Bishop of Ely, the Popes Legate; King John with Stephen Langton; King Henry the 3. with Edmund Archbishop, called St. Edmund; this King Edward the 1. with John Peckham and Robert Winchelsey aforesaid; and so other Kings after him with some Bishop or other. Whereby we give to understand, how and about what time the Church of Rome, which before time was subject to Kings and Princes, began first to take head above, and against Kings and Rulers, and so hath (by these his Instruments) kept it ever since.

This Archbishop Robert Winchelsey was no sooner consecrated at Rome, but he procured a Bull from Pope Calixtus the 5. by his Papal Provision to conferre the Bishoprick of Landaff (which had been void for 9. years space, and thereby devolved to the Pope by lapse, as he pretended) on any person he should think meet for that employment: Whereupon without the Kings previous authority, he conferred it by way of Provision upon John de Monmouth, as appears by this Letter and Certificate of his to the King and his Chancellor, which I lately found in a bundle of Privy Seals, Certificates and Letters (long buried in rubbish in the White Tower)

† Matthew Westminster informs us, That Anno gratiæ 1295. Robertus Metropolitanus Cantuariensis jam de Curia Romana regressus, (before his instalment at Canterbury, to evidence his Papal spirit, and advance the Jurisdiction of his Court of Arches) in Octavis Apostolorum Petri & Pauli, convocatis quibusdam Suffraganeis suis in Ecclesia Sancti Pauli London, super Ecclesiæ libertatibus et consuetudinibus tractatum tenuit specialem; & tanquam verus opilio, repagula & mania circa parietinarium, cum maceriarum injurias, adificare satagens, Constitutiones quasdam à sanctis Patribus approbatas, sed per mercenarioz incuriam a bi proptia vacillantes, in medium legitime rebocabit. Necnon et aliis Ordinationibus prioribus annexens propter gregis tuitionem, decrevit inbiolabiliter observari; (without the Kings authority or privity.) These Ordinances of his (being 47. in number) you may read at large in Sir * Henry Spelmans Councils; wherein he prescribes prescribes several forms of Oaths not only to the Judges, Advocates, Clerks, Registers, Proctors in his Courts of Arches and Audience, but likewise to others convented before them; particularly, † Quod dicitur Curia Presidem contempnere. quosoffendant: Together with several new Excommunications, forms of Appeals, and Fees to his Officers; against the Subjects Liberties, Lawes, Customes of the Realm, and Kings prerogative Royal: After which, Die Sancti Leodegarii Dominus Archiepiscopus Cantuariensis ibidem inthronizatus fuit; & Magister Johannes de Mone-muth ab eo eodem die non altero consecratus est in Episcopum Landavensem. Which * Thomas Walsingham thus enlargeth; Robertus de Winchelsea Doctor sacre Theolo-

Romana consecratus, Angliam veniens, Johan de Monemutha Doctori Theologia, Episcopatum Londinensem (it should be Landavensem) auctoritate Papali contulit, qui jam vacuerat multis annis; beginning the exercise of his Archiepiscopal authority with this unparalleled Papal and Archiepiscopal Usurpation on the Kings Crown, Dignity, and Royal prerogative, in obedience to his Sovereign Lord the Pope; for which and other his subsequent undutifull actions to his Sovereign, he demerited this short, but true character of Mr. William Lambard in his Perambulation of Kent, p. 93. Robertus de Winchelsey, a notable Traytor to the King, and true Servant to the Pope.

I cannot finde that the King was forwards to restore the Temporalities of the Archbishoprick of Canterbury to this Archbishop, or of Landaf to John de Mone-muth, thus intruded into it by the Popes and Archbishops authority against his prerogative, but detained them near 2. years after in his hands as vacant, receiving the profits, and presenting to the benefices belonging to them, as appears by the Patent Rolls Annis 21 & 22 E. 1. they having no Writs of Restitution of the Temporaltes till the 23. year of his Regn, Anno 1296.

Upon the death of Robert Barnell Bishop of Bath and Wells the Kings Chancellor, William de Marchia (then Treasurer of England, as * Godwin informs us) was elected to succeed him in that Bishoprick; the manner of whose election I finde thus related in a Letter sent to John Langton then Chancellor of England, which I met within the White Tower Chappell.

The like Writ issued Viccomitibus London, pro Willielmo de Sancto Georgio, An. 22 E. 1. versus Magistrum Henricum de Massington, quare, &c. tenuit placitum de hujusmodi Transgressionibus, & quare tenuit placitum in eadem Curia Christianitatis de Advocacione Capelle de Tadham, contra Prohibitionem nostram, in laesionem capite et dignitatis nostre, &c. Idem Magister Henricus pendens inter eos in prefata Curia nostra prædictis placitu, prædicta placita nichilominus ulterius tenuit in prefata Curia Christianitatis, quousque sententia in ipsum Willielmum ea occasione ad legem ejusdem Magistri Henrici publicata et promulgata, ipsum excommunicari fecit: Et postea hæc nostrum de ipso Willielmo sic excommunicato, tanquam elades Ecclesie contemnente, capiendo, jam vobis porrexit, ut dicitur, in capite et dignitate nostra laesionem, Curie nostre prædictæ contemptam manifestum, &c. as in the preceding Writ. Teste J. de Mettingham apud Westm. 12 die Dec. Anno regni nostri 22.

King Edward the 1. in this 22. year of his reign, by reason of his expensive Wars, wanting money and means to provide for and relieve his old decayed Servants and Soldiers, by virtue of his Prerogative Royal, began by his Writs to demand <sup>a</sup> Corodies for them, from Abbots, Priors, and Religious Houses of his foundation, which held not by Frankalmoigne, (as his Father <sup>b</sup> King Henry the 3. did before him for the converted Jews) and likewise Pensions for his Chaplains from Bishops, especially upon his advancing of any New Abbot, Prior, Archbishop, Bishop, and restitution of their Temporalities to them; witnesse these 4. Corodies granted at once this year.

<sup>c</sup> Henricus Lombard habet literas Regis de peccatoribus directas Abbati et Conventui de Abboteshur. quod ipse eum admittant in Domo sua in bis necessariis quoad dixerit exhibendum. Teste Rege apud Rokesford, 24 die Februarii; per breve de privato sigillo. After which, such Writs for Corodies for the Kings and Queens Servants, Soldiers, and Pensions to the Kings Clerks till promoted to Benefices, very frequently occur both in the Bundles of Privy Seals and Clause Rolls in the Tower, during this Kings reign and his successors; Abbots, Bishops Lands and Revenues being originally granted them by our Kings their Founders, not to spend them on their own luxury, pomp, kinred, allies, but to be bestowed in almes, hospitality, and charity to poor distressed people; therefore more especially on such decayed meritorious Servants or Soldiers as the King by his Writs should recommend to them, to be relieved and harbored during life; being a privilege due unto him of meer common right, of which no prescription or custome could deprive him; no wayes extinguished or restrained by Magna Charta c. 1. 3 E. 1. c. 1. or Articuli Cleri c. 11. as our Judges and <sup>d</sup> Law-books have since frequently resolved.

The same year, (Anno 1293. as Matth. Westminster, or 1294. as Walsingham computes) there fell out a new unexpected quarrel between the English and French, upon this occasion; The <sup>a</sup> Normans murdering and pillaging the English, and hanging some of them upon the masts of their ships, with dogs, in contempt, highly exasperated those of the Cinqueports and other English Mariners, who of their own accord united their ships together, to revenge themselves upon the French, for this indignity, and other depredations on the English Merchants; <sup>b</sup> Per idem tempus Mercatores Angliæ variis in mari laceratis periculis, super mercium suarum amissione, Regi Angliæ conqueruntur; Qui Commisem Lincolniz Henricum de Lacy ad Regem Franciæ transmissit, suppliciter petens, ut de assensu ipsius per Reges & eorum consilia, contra hujusmodi maritima dispendia provideretur. Interim vero dum Comes responsum expectat, classes ducentarum navium Normannicarum & amplius, quæ coadunata, ut Anglos virtuosos invaderes, & invadendo fortius propulsares, in Walsconiam profecta fuerat, quicquid de parte adversa obvium habuit, præda & mori facile destinando. Dum onusta vino reverteretur gloriosa, quæ sibi soli maris celsisset libertas, a sexaginta navibus Anglicanis capitur in portu S. Matthæi; in minori Brytannia, & in Angliam adducitur

An. 22 E. 1. feria sexta ante vigiliam Pentecostes, submersis aut casis hominibus omnibus qui erant in navibus, absque delicti conditione, solis illi exceptis qui in scaphis vix sibi saluti fuerant fugiendo. Perdidernnt quippe Gallici quindecim millia hominum in hoc conflictu, Anglici eorum cadavera in mari proiecērunt, nec unum solum superstitem dimiserunt; & eorum vasa, vina & alia necessaria continentia, reduxerunt ad propria cum contentis, inter se navis & ipsalia dividentes. De quibus Rex Angliæ nihil recipere voluit, quasi eorum non consentiens voluntati, pro eo quod absque eius præcepto talia perpetrarunt. In illo enim tempore non erat Rex, neque lex navis posita, sed quod quisque rapere vel auferre valebat, hoc suum esse dicebat. Gernemuthensis inexpugnabilis manus lustrantes confinia Normannorum, nulli parcentes conditioni, sexus, ætati, rogo patriam illuminantes, manus prædis & discrimini laxaverunt. Francigenæ igitur territi & turbati, adiverunt Regem suum, auxilium postulantes, Rumor facti diffusus per Galliam, Regem, consiliumque suum non tam admiratione quam indignatione vehementi commovit. Mittuntur igitur nuntii inter Reges pro pace faciendâ, Ambassadors ex parte Regis Francorum ordinati, a Rege Angliæ petierunt, ut absque mora navis cum mercibus per homines suos captos, & in regno suo receptos, restitueret, si vellet sua negotia pro terra Wasconiz in Curia Regis Franciæ favorabiliter expediri. Super mandato Rex deliberans, habito consilio, Richardum Londinensem Episcopum, adiunctis eidem aliis viris prudentibus, ad Regem Francorum & suum consilium cum huiusmodi misit responso, viz. Cum Rex Angliæ curiam habeat nulli subjectam, si qui se laesos fecerint per homines regni sui, veniant ad Curiam suam, & declaratis sibi illatis iniuriis, Rex eis celerem fieri iustitiam ordinabit; quod ut securius possint facere quibuscumque conqueri volentibus, Rex de eundo & redeundo per terram suam saluum dabit conductum. Quod si sic Regi Francorum non placeat, eligentur hinc inde arbitri, qui per satis damni utriusque partis, provideant, quomodo querelantibus satis fiat, & Rex Anglorum dicto eorum & laudo sub certa obligatione se submittet, dum tamen Rex Francorum se submittat & obliget pari modo. Si vero aliquid occurrat tam arduum, quod per arbitros discindi nequeat, definiendum Regibus reservetur. Et Rex Angliæ habito conducto ad Regem Franciæ accedentem, ad aliquam villam maritimam veniet, & de assensu mutuo finis negotio imponatur: Quod si nec istud Rex Francorum acceptaverit, in summum Pontificem, cuius est inter Reges et Regna pacem fovere, transferatur de assensu mutuo negotium (not as to a sovereign Judge, but private voluntary Arbitrator chosen by them:) vel quia tunc Sedes S. Petri vacabat, ad Cardinales omnes vel aliquos, ut litis et discordiæ submotâ materia, par inter eos et eorum populos restaret ut solebat. Spernit hæc omnia consilium Franciæ, nec iniuriis instanter flagitantibus dignatum est aliquid respondere.

The King, during the Treaties with the French King for peace, by his Ecclesiastical Sovereignty issued these Writs to his Bishops, to pour forth devout prayers to God for a blessing on his conference with the King of France, that it might tend to the praise of Gods holy name, the peace, prosperity and honour of his Realm, and the common good and profit of Christianity; worthy our imitation upon occasions of this nature.

* *Istud mandatum quia Rex Angliae minime est prosecutus, ad diem praefatum non comparendo, Rex Francorum in propria persona pro tribunali sedens, sententiam protulit iudicans in defectum: moxque universali Parlamento arbitrio, ab omnibus terris in regno Francorum prae habitis, extorris abjudicatur et exhaereditatur. Deinde praecipit Rex Constabulario Franciae, ut in manu armata proficiscens, Ducatum Aquitaniae Regis Francorum nomine occuparet, caperetque vel expelleret quoscunque per Regem Angliae illius custodia deputatos. Hereupon the King of France invading Aquitain, refusing all terms of Peace, or receding from them; Rex Angliae convocato Londoniensi Parlamento, cui Johannes Rex Scotorum interfuit, de consilio Praelatorum et Procerum consensum, terram sub dolo ablatam recuperandam gladio decernit. The Parliament giving him a large Subsidie towards this War, the King by their advice renounced his homage to the King of France; and sending the Archbishop of Dublin, the Bishop of Durham with others Embassadors to the Kings of Germany and Arragon with large presents and gifts, he entred into a firm league with them against the French, ancillante, imo principante summa C. The King notwithstanding this Subsidie wanting monies, searched all the Monasteries and Churches throughout England, where any monies were deposited by Religious persons or others, and forcibly carried it away to supply his occasions, by the advice of his Treasurer William de Marchia Bishop of Bath and Wells, thus related by a Mat. Westminster. Illo quoque tempore, videlicet Dominica secunda mensis Julii, factum est servitium puerablie, et sacrilegium horrentum in Ecclesia Dei, per universum regnum Angliae, quale non fuit, nec fuisse creditur multis temporibus retroactis. Fecit Rex omnia regni Monasteria perscrutari, & pecuniam inventam Londonius deportari. Quod quidem servitium, ut credimus, non emanabit a conscientia Domini Regis; sed author potius hujus facti fuit Magister Gulielmus de Marchia, tunc tempore Domini Regis Thesaurarius, qui in hoc facto non Bathoniensis Episcopus

 relates the story: Erat p hæc bella continua jam vacuatum ararium regium, quo maius Gulielmus Marchianus quæstor unus, omnium alieno detrimento sanandum statuit. Is enim noverat cum in Conobitis, tum in Templis pecunias esse depositas, quas si su-

 Francis Godwin in his Catalogue of Bishops stories, That he had seen amongst the Records of our Church of Wells, the Copies of divers Letters unto the Pope and Cardinals, from the King, from the Nobility, and divers of the Clergy of this Realm, commending William de Mar-chia so farre forth for his holynesse, testified (as they write) by many miracles, as they increated very earnestly for his canonization. I marvel much at it, for Matthew of Westminster and Polydor Virgil complain much of him, as the author of an heinous sacrilege, in causing the King to spoyle all the Churches and Monasteries of England, of such plate and monies as lay hoorded up in them, for the payment of his soldiers. It was Edward the 1. a Prince that wanted neither wit to devise, nor courage to execute such an exploit, and to lay the fault upon another at last. Yet likely enough it is, that such a fault stamped on him (how undeservedly soever) might barre him out of the Popes Kalender, who otherwise was not wont to be overdauntie in affording that kinde of honour, where fees might be readily paid in for it.

Cui si contradixerit quis, assurgat in medio ceto, ut agnita persona ejus, ascribatur tanquam regis pacis reus. Quibus auditis, conturbatis singuli pælati capitis protinus paruerunt.* <sup>e</sup> Henry de Knighton thus relates the proceedings in this affair. Eodem anno circa festum Ascensionis Domini, Rex omnes lanes terras Angliæ, tam Clericorum quam Laicorum scilicet, et sic seistas servabit quousque Pccatores data pecunia summa, eas quasi de nobis redimerent. Eodem etiam anno, vocavit Rex per literas suas Archiepiscopos, Episcopos, Decanos Ecclesiarum Cathedralium, et Archidiaconos in propriis personis, Clerumque universumque Diocesis per duos Procuratores ut in festo Sancti Matthæi Apostoli coram eo comparerent Londoniæ. Quibus existens ait Rex; Domini carissimi, jam satis constat, ut audistis, de famosa ista guerra quæ inter Regem Francorum & inter nos initium sumpsit, non nostra culpa ut novit Deus, set abique ullo dolo vel fraude casualiter sumpsit initium, & usque præsens sumptuosissime continuatur. Verum ne ex injusto bello redargui possemus vel reprehendi, optulimus ei primò pacem, & pacis formam uterque nostrum amplexatus est; Quam cum ex parte nostra, ut convenit, servare parati essemus, ipse eam renuit & contempsit, & quanto magis pacem quærimus, tantò magis ab ea eramus separati: Videntes autem nos finaliter sic illudi, hanc guerram incepimus, & si necesse fuerit pro iustitia nostra consequenda usque ad mortem continuandam. Verum quia terræ nostræ Anglicanæ non sum nisi quasi unus malus custos, & non ipsa terra nostra, set tota Anglicana Ecclesia jam in arto ponitur et movetur injuste, nec continuare possumus quod incepimus nisi de eadem terra nostra nobis auxilium tribuatur, scirco orationes vestras in præsentem expetimus, et vestrum auxilium implozantes. Et jussè debetis Domini carissimi & præcipue ista oratione impartiri auxilium, quoniam videtis Comites, & Barones & Milites nostros, quod non solum bona, sed verum etiam corpora sua pro nobis exponunt & pro terra nostra, non ad sanguinis effusionem, imò frequentius ad mortem. Et vos igitur qui corpora vestra exponere non potestis, iustum est et rationi consonum ut de bonis vestris subveniatis. Adjecitque subsequencia, ut placeret illis, scilicet enim eos esse motos pro immunitate Ecclesiæ violatæ. & ait: Quia recenter duo facta sunt in quibus admiramini; placare vobis volumus, & in hac parte respondere: Præcepimus, quod omnes lanes vestre arresterentur, et hoc non sine causa fecimus, quia nostræ voluntatis fuit, ut de bonis terræ ipsæ terra conservaretur illæsa. Aliud est: Datum fuit nobis intelligi, quod moneta terræ nostræ corrupta fuit & falsata, unde præcepimus, quod statutum monetæ in suo robore teneretur, nichil mali suspicantes; set in facto contigit sicut & accidit inter Apostolos Jesu Christi: Inter enim 12. erat unus malus qui Christum tradidit; similiter & in hoc facto fines mandati nostri quidam egressi sunt, & deceperunt nos; unde parati sumus emendas facere pro libito vestre voluntatis. Cumque loquendi finem faceret, respondit Oliverus Lincolnienfis Episcopus; Domine, istud negotium consilium requirit; detur nobis dies ad consulendum cum fratribus nostris, & ex consilio respondendum. Datusque est dies tertius. Interim verò consulentes, diversi diversa censerunt. Vacabat enim Cantuariensis Ecclesia, & membra sine capite dispersa sunt. Eboracensis verò Johannis Romanus, Regis timore perterritus, eo quod Regi in magna summa tenebatur, (upon his præmissis censure and Judgement in Parlamento, solum excommunicating the Bishop of Durham, &c.) quasi dissimulando desistit. Dunelmensis Antonius de Bek nondum reversus fuerat de Alemania. In unum tandem concordabant omnes, ut offerrent Regi duas Decimas in uno anno solvendas. Quod audiens Rex, indignatus est, et per suos satellites comminatus est, se extra protectionem suam Clerum velle ponere, nisi medietatem omnium bonorum concederent, et votis ejus annuerent in hac parte, statimque quasi stipula corda eorum dissipata sunt. Quidam enim Regi placere volentes festinanter, alii vero timore perterriti subsequencia concesserunt. Et quia immunitas Ecclesiæ, ut dictum est, læsa fuit et violata, petiit a Rege quosdam Articulus, Rege jubente. Fuit enim Rex postquam votis ipsius paruerunt, ut & ipsi ab eo peterent remedia quæ vellent: et petierunt imprimis, ut statutum de manumortuis, quod in præjudicium sanctæ matris Ecclesiæ fuit editum, deleteretur. Caterum autem articulis quod perposuerant (not specified in our Histories) respondit de facili; ita quod frustrati delusi reverts sunt ad propria; obligati tamen ad medietatem concessam. Eodem etiam anno habuit Rex a Communitate regni decimum denarium, & a civitatibus sexaginta denarium. * Polydor Virgil, relates the story almost in the same words with Knighton, concluding it with this observation. * Dum Edouardus ita ex Sacerdotum opibus suas eriget; Walli deficiunt, Anglos passim persequuntur, locaque aliquos capiant, multis interfecit sine ulla discrimine sexus aut aetatis. Misit Rex Edmundum fratrem cum non mediocri Militum numero, qui ut in Walliam pervenit, praelio cum hostibus commisso, prostratus est, nimirum pecunia sacrilegio quaesita egitio fuit exercitus, qua in primis illos conductus fuerat. So Polydor; who might have made the Popes sacrilegious exactions of moneys for the Holy Land, and Wars of Sicily, the sole or principal cause of the Christians overthrowes in the Holy land, and of the Popes forces in Sicily and Apulia.

The King after this Grant of the Clergy appointed Collectors in every Diocese to collect these Tithes at the several times of payment, by these Patents.

As the King granted these Protections to the premised Abbots and Clergymen who aided him with their contributions against the French: so our of his Ecclesiastical Supremacy he desired the assistance of their devout prayers unto God for a blessing upon him and his military forces, in defence of his inheritance against their armed power, as appears by these Writts under his Privy Seal issued to his Bishops, and other religious persons, which I found in a Bundle of Writts of Privy Seal and Letters, lately rescued from the rubbish in the White Tower Chappel.

And here I deem it very seasonable, and worthy special observation, (in respect of our present publick Negotiations, Treaties with France and other Forreign States for Peace) from this clause in the Kings precedent Writs; [Demum quos post Tra*batum varios habitos utrobique publicos credebamus habere propicios, latenter inveni-* mus inimicos, &c.] to render you this further account of the King of France his fraudulent, yea treacherous proceedings with King Edward in these his Treaties with him for a firm amicable peace between them, out of our Histories and Records, to make us more vigilant, cautious in our Transactions with them & others, thus related by † Thomas Walsingham. Anno gratia 1295. qui est annus regni Edwardus 1. vicesimus secundus, Edwardus frater Regis Angliæ per Reginas Franciæ, Johannam Regis con- † Hist. Angliæ, sortem, & Mariam ejusdem novercam, ut cum eisdem pacis tractatum resumeret cele- p. 24, 25.
 riter revocatur. Denique mediantibus Reginis, post plurima interloquia, in forma subscripta extitit concordatum; Ut propter honorem Regis Francorum, cui per ministros custodiæ Wasconia deputatos, ut videbatur nonnullis, in pluribus erat derogatum, sex castra, videlicet, Sanctonas, Talemund, Tonru, Pomerel, Penne & Mountflau-km, voluntati Regis Francia dederentur. In omnibus verò Civitatibus & Castris totius Ducatus, exceptis Burdegalia, Baiona, & Regula, unus serviens nomine Regis Francia poneretur. De ministris quoque Regis Angliæ in Wasconia positis, aliisque per totam terram pro libitu Regis Francorum obsides ponerentur. Quibus pactis Rex Francia citationem in aula Parisiensi publicatam faceret revocari. Castra verò omnia, amotis servientibus in Civitatibus positis & Castris, obsidesque, ad petitionem duarum Reginarum vel unius earum restitueret sine mora. Rexque Angliæ (concesso sibi salvo conductu) Ambianis veniret, ut ibi habito mutuo Regum colloquio, pax & amicitia in posterum firmaretur: Super hiis confectis scriptis, unam per Reginas signatum Edmundo traditur, aliud signatum ab Edmundo, commendatur Reginis. Dux data fide in manu Edmundi promiserunt pacta in scriptis infra nulla-tenus violanda. Certificatus super hiis Rex Angliæ, per germanum suum litteram u-nam patentem directam omnibus ministris suis in Wasconia, continentem mandatum, ut in omnibus Regis Francorum obtemperarent voluntati; transmisit germano suo, per eum (cum sibi videretur) ulterius in Wasconiam transmittendam. Recepta littera, Edmundus veritus eam transmittere antequam sibi constaret, an Rex ipse acceptaret quæ facta fuerant per Reginas, petivit ab eis, ut per dictum Regis proprium super præmissis certior redderetur. Denique presentibus Edmundo germano Regis Angliæ, & uxore sua Blankia, Regina Navarræ, matre Regina Franciæ, necnon Duce Burgundiæ, & Hugone de Veer filio Comitis Oxoniensis, & Clerico quodam Johanne de Lacy, Rex ipse promissa Reginarum ac pacta per eas concordata, in fidelitate Regia se impletu-rum respondit. Moxque Miles quidam nomine Galfridus de Langleya, de familia Edmundi fratris Regis Angliæ, cum literis Regis Francorum rebocantibus Constabularium Regis Franciæ, qui cum exercitu profectus fuerat ut Wasconiam expugnaret, missus est ad eum. Rex autem Angliæ, Cantuariæ solennitatem Paschalem re-tenuit, ibidem ut Ambianis proficisceretur, expectabat de conductu. Johannes etiam de Lacy Clericus prædictus, in Wasconiam transmissus est, cum littera ministris Regis Angliæ directæ, secundum formam prædictam. Johannes verò de S. Johanne (miles discretus & armis strenuus, & in rebus bellicis exercitatus, quem Rex Angliæ Wascovictualibus, & viris strenuis ad bellandum) auditis pactis initis, omnia quæ ad munitiones Castrorum et Urbium præbiderat, vendidit, discedensque per Parisius versus Angliam iter suum direxit. Et ecce procurante pacis amulo, mutatum est cor Regis Franciæ, conductusque Regi Angliæ denegatur, et littera Constabularii rebocatois, per posteriozem litteram irritatur. Et quia per Constabularium Wasconiam in manu potius intrantem, Custodibus et ministris juxta tenorem litteræ sibi apportatæ se subduntibus, in manu Regis Francorum accipitur terra tota. Ministri omnes Regis Angliæ, terræque Custodes, obsides et captivi Parisius deducuntur. Post dies tantum aliquot Edmundo Reginas rogavit, ut juxta promissa sua et pactiones initas,

An. 22 E. 1. Regem Franciæ interpellarent, super conductu Regis Angliæ concedendo, Citatione rebocanda, terra restituenda, et obsidibus liberandis. Rex vero Francorum, per quosdam milites ad Edmundum missos, inficiatur se quicquam de talibus promissis scire. Denique pendens Edmundus se, fratremque suum Regem Angliæ delusos, reberus in Angliam Regem et Consilium suum ad plenum informat et certificat de re gesta. Igitur Rex Angliæ convocato Londoniensi Parlamento, cui Johannes Rex Scotorum interfuit, de consilio Prælatorum ac Procerum consentium, Terram sub dolo ablatam recuperandam gladio, ad Regem Franciæ misit nuncios, Hugonem de Mancestria de Ordine Prædicatorum, & Willielmum de Ginesborn de Ordine Minorum, Doctores Theologia, viros providos & discretos, mandans eis per eosdem; quod cum pacta inter progenitores eorum habita et ipsos, necnon et secretos tractatus quas mediante germano suo cum eo habuit, violasset, non videbatur sibi quod ipsum Regem Angliæ, Ducemque Aquitanie hominem suum reputabat, nec ipse homagium suo astringi ulterius intendebat. The form of which recunciation of his homage, I found in the White Tower in a particular Roll writ in the reign of King Edw. the 3. NOZ Messages derront au Roy de Franc. Nostre Seigneur le Roy Dengleterre, Seigneur Dirland, & Ducs Dacquitain, vous fist Homage sur condicion, cest assavoir, solonc le fourme de la pees faite entre voz Ancestres et les Soens, la quelle vos ne li avez tenuz. Et dautre part puis les conteks & proces qui ont este entre voz gentes et les Soens a pesser, secrez tretez ont este entre vous & li par Monf. Edmond son frere, si combien vous doit sovener: en la queux traitez estoient certain Covenantz les queux ne li sont gardez en nul point, tout soit quil vous ad fait obeissance entre le fourme de ceo traitez. Et puis fil si vous ad fait deux foiz quere per lavantdit son frere, et le tierz foiz per aucuns de Piers de France, e puis autrez grantz Seignurs de vestre Roialme, que la terre de sa Duchee Dagui. lui fuist rendue, et sa gent, que sont en vostre arrest delivre, des quels riens ne li abez faitz, per ont il li semble, que vous ne li tenez pas pur vostre home, ne si nentent estre.

But that which is most observable, during these very Treaties of Peace, the French King by his private solicitations, letters and promises, procured John Baylis King of Scots, with all the Prelates, Nobles and Commonalty of Scotland, (against their late * premised solemn Oaths and Homages under their respective hands and seals made to King Edward) to enter into a most perfidious clandestine league, and an offensive and defensive warre with him against their Sovereign Lord, yea to invade and waste England with fire and sword, so soon as King Edward should send forces into Gascoign to recover his antient right therein, and to make no Peace nor Truce with him, without his concurrent assent; thus related at large in French in two Parchment Rolls, I found in the White Tower, only briefly mentioned in sundry other Records and Instruments, containing that and other succeeding Treaties of Peace with the French Kings, with the exceptions taken by King Edward the 1. and his Successors against the legality of the premised citation and arrest.

This

An. 22. E1. This League and Alliance then made and concluded between the perfidious, treacherous Scots and French against the English contrary to their premised Oaths and Obligations, was vigorously put in execution the two next ensuing years, and very punctually observed by them in succeeding ages, the true reason whereof is thus rendered by Matthew Parker Archbishop of Canterbury, discoursing of the Treacheries and perfidiousness of the French, and their inhumane cruelties, under pretext of Treaties of peace. * Ac ne Scotia quidem in perjuriis, crudelitate et perfidia dissimilis censeatur Gallie. Ad quæ bitia, si stella atque sidera ex Astrologorum sententia regionibus dominantur, tato quodam dedita videri possit. Subest enim ut Astrologi censent versutissimo atque inconstantissimo sideri Scorpionis. Cujus mores in singulis pœne Scotis (& Gallis) exprimentur. Sunt enim cruces, elati, intemperantia et libidine dediti, falsi atque vasti, pacis, induciarum fœderumque fractores; natura autem tam fera & indomita, ut etsi in bellis saepe viti succubuerunt, et submissionem (Anglis) iurejurando promiserunt; redintegrata tamen contra fidem datam pœlia, et mortis atque mortis discrimina subire, quam exteri cujuscunque dominationem perferre maluit. Itaque cum Astrologi Martem Scorpionis esse dominum, eoque præfisse autumant, Scotiam crebris vastationibus, incendiis, stragibusque cruentis ex illa Martis & Scorpionis conjunctione perpetuò subesse statuant. Hæc itaque sceleratissimorum similitudo moxum Gallos atque Scotos semper indicem conciliabit. Tanta enim utriusque gentis perfidia, & feritas et immanitas in vindictis prodita est, quanta non modo inter Christianos, sed ne inter barbaros a scriptoribus ullis traditur. Of which our Histories, and the ensuing years will render you a further account.

Oliver Bishop of Lincoln, and Mr. Thomas Sutton his Nephew, gathering a great multitude together, and intrenching, besieging the Church of Thame, stopping all passages, and prohibiting any victuals to be carried to it, to force Richard Saint-John the Rector thereof to desert it by siege and famine. The King upon complaint thereof, by his Ecclesiastical Sovereignty, issued a Writ de Vi Laica amovenda to the Sheriff of Oxford, who being negligent in the execution thereof, he thereupon issued this second memorable Writ to Masculmus de Harley, his Echeator on this side Trent, and Robert Giffard, to raise the siege, remove the force, levell the Trenches, apprehend the Malefactors, and inquire of the Sheriffs neglect in executing the former Writ, and all the premised circumstances. After which he took the Prebendary into his hands and protection, to prevent disturbances of the peace, till the right thereof was determined in his Court, between Thomas Sutton and the Bishop of Lincoln, and Edward son of John de Saint-John, and sequestering the profits thereof pending the suit, & restoring them by his Writs, when the controversy in Law was ended.

By which Certificate it is apparent, that a * plurality of Benefices and Prebendaries in that age, without a special dispensation, was a good cause of deprivation.

Anno 1294. the Roman See (through the Cardinals schisms and divisions) continuing voyd about three years and three moneths after the decease of Pope Nicholas the 4th. the Cardinals at last, in die decollationis Sancti Johannis Baptista, elected Petrus de Murone an Hermit, and Monk of the Order of Saint Benedikt, whom they named Celestine the fifth. * Post mortem Nicholai 4. Cardinales Perusium profecti sunt, ut eo liberius successorem eligere & denunciare possint: verum intestinis dissidiis res eo deducta est, ut toto triennio, atque tribus inde mensibus nihil determinarent; Et quamvis Carolus 2. Neapolitanus Rex ex Narbonense Gallia adveniret, atque ad curandam, & electionem maturandam eos diligenter saepeque adhortaretur, nihil tamen retulit nisi superbiam & superciliosum responsum; imprimis à Benedicto Cajetano, qui id interpretabatur, quasi vim ipsis allaturus videretur, quorum suffragia debebant esse libera: Tandem Caroli Neapolitani Regi & Latini Cardinali favore, Celestinus Pontifex declarabatur, (quasi per indignationem et risum, as Stella and others write) post vacationem diutinam: Vir simplex eremo paratior quam throno: hic vir simplex, reus et timens Deum, virtutibus coquebat (as Mat. Westminster stories,) De vite austeritate jam Pontifex effectus, nihil remisit. Equum vel mulum, vel currum ascendere non præsumpsit, sed asinum, Christi exemplo, & bono exemplo illum qui asello inquisitum Christi paupertatem amulari conaretur. Nicellus gives this character of him, Nihil nisi religiosus erat, & adeo probus, ut potuerat dici ipsa probitas. Ob eam probitatem videbatur non esse idoneus ad obeundum magistratum: (Honesty making men altogether unfit for the Papal Chair of Rome) sed ultro perferret abdicationem, ut locus esset beatiæ maiestatis. In primo consistorio statim Romanam Ecclesiam stricte statuit reformare; verum tamen usque adeo nihil effecit, ut etiam omnium indignationem et odium incurreret, qui jam prædictæ disciplinæ iugum et vincula ruperint; ipsumque statuum er delictum senem vocitabant: b Matthew Westminster stories, Cum de asino descendisset, & Ecclesiam ingressus esset, clamavit quidam contractus, ut ipsam dissuper asinum, super quem Papa sedere, imposerent intus charitatis. Et qui præsen es erant increpabant eum, ut taceret, ipse vero multo magis, amore filii David, qui super pullum asina Hierusalem valvas sanctificando intraverat, quatenus ipsum super dorsum asini leverent. Res mira, impositus contractu illico recipit sanitatem, & consolidans basium plantis, exiit qui claudus fuerat, laudans Deum in servi sui meritis Celestini, a quo Magister c Robertus de Winchelsey Cantuariensis electus confirmatus est, et in Archiepiscopum consecratus. Yet this miracle could not induce this humble Popes proud successors, or his Cardinals, nor yet this Archbishop of Canterbury or his successors to ride upon an Ass like this Pope or our meek Saviour; but on Kings or Princes shoulders, or the richest Chariots, the best and choicest Steeds they could procure. Pope Celestine during his short continuance in the Papacy, out of zeal to the Holy Lands releif, granted our King Edward the 1. a Disme for seven years from all the Clergy of England, as d Henry de Knyghton informs us, with the impediments that hindred the King from that undertaking he much desired. Cum Rex tot & tantas controversias in diversis plagis regni & domini sui pacificasset, deduxit in memoriam de passagio in terram sanctam contra inimicos Ihesu Christi, quod ante a Papa et multis aliis Catholicis propositum fuerat, & multum de illo in corde gravavit. Sed guerra in Gasconia & Wallia multum exhaurerant & devastaverant thesauros suos; unde Papa Celestinus videns cruciosam voluntatem in tantum positum in sancto proposito salubris itineris, ad votum cruciatu implendæ, dedit ei Decimam de tota Ecclesia Angliæ per 7 annos: et Papa Bonifacius, qui receniter venit post Celestinum, dedit ei i Decimam trium annorum; & interim Rex Edwardus de dicto itinere impeditus est, by his Wars with the French, Welshmen, and Scots; which wasted all these Dismes, c Celestinus unam ordinationem in mense Septembris faciens, creavit 12 Cardinales, inter quos duæ eremitæ erant, in order to reform the Roman Court and Church. But the Cardinals weary of this precise, humble, reforming, conscientious Pope, perswaded him to resign his Papacy, as unfit and unable to manage it without the Churches

Pope Boniface the 8. was no sooner settled in his Pontifical throne (as *before related) but in the very first year of his Papacy, he sent his Italian Merchants and Usurers into England, to return all monies from thence to the Roman Court, which he, his Legates, or other Agents should extort from thence or Ireland, by whom he sent this Bull to the King to grant them his safe conduct, favour and assistance upon all occasions, the original whereof I found in the White Tower Chappel.

BONIFACIUS Episcopus, Servus servorum Dei, Charissimo in Christo filio Edwardo Regi Angliæ illustri salutem, & Apostolicam benedictionem. Cum dilectos filios Johannem Aldobrandinum, Nicholaum Caccaleonem, Giacum, & Vilanum Lurcheti de Societate Clarennum de Pistorio, Cameræ nostræ Mercatores, pro quibusdam Romanæ Ecclesiæ negotiis ad partes Angliæ transmittamus; Magificentiam Regiam rogandam duximus attentius & hortandum, quatenus ipsa pro nostra et Apostolicæ sedis reverentia benigne recipiens, et honeste pertractans, eorum cuilibet in terris quibus exercet dominium, de Securo conductu facias provideri. Et nichilominus in gendis ipsorum cum ab eis vel eorum aliquo fuerit requisitus, assistas eisdem favoribus Regiis et prædictis opportunis. Ita quod ex hoc Excellentie Regiæ devotionis promptitudinem dignius commendationum titulis attollamus. Datum Anagninæ 8 Idus Julii, Pontificatus nostri anno primo.

Immediately after, he sent two Cardinal Legats à latere, first to the King of France, and from him to the King of England, then engaged in Wars against each other, under a specious pretext of mediating a Truce, and making a firm peace between them; but in verity to usurp a Papal Jurisdiction over them and their Realms, and prey upon them both, as the sequel evidenced. These Legates being not specially sent for by King Edward, according to the * ancient privilege of the Realm; thereupon, before they presumed to set foot in England, they sent a special Messenger and Letters to the King, to acquaint him with the effect of their mission, and crave his Royal license, safe conduct and protection for themselves, their followers and goods, the form whereof they sent inclosed in a Cedula to the King: who although he seemed very well pleased with the end of their Legation and coming to him to settle peace, yet he refused to grant them any safe conduct to come into England, till they first informed him, what safe conduct the King of France had granted them under his Seal; as these Records assure us.

* Henry de Knyghton thus more fully records their Negotiation, together with the Popes elegant Epistle to the King; which they brought with them, earnestly perswading him to a peace and Truce with the French, and the Kings and his Councils answers to it and the Cardinals proposals.

Eodem anno circa festum Pentecostes venerunt in Angliam duo Cardinales, missi à latere Papæ ad Regem Angliæ, cum Epistolis Papalibus in hac verba conceptis.

Bonifacium Servus servorum Dei, carissimo in Christo filio Edwardo Regi Angliæ salutem, & Apostolicam benedictionem. Sane ab ipsis nostræ promotionis auspiciis, ad generalem statum fidelium mentis aciem extendentes, & considerantes gravem, inimo gravissimam & ideo contrariam votis nostris, inter te & charissimum filium nostrum Philippum Regem Franciæ illustrem proxima tibi consanguinitate conjunctum, procurante pacis æmulo incentore malorum, discordiam inscitam, firma et stabili dispositione decrevimus, ut super hujusmodi negotio cordi nostro possim, solemnes nuncios ad præsentiam Regiam et literas mitteremus. Sed propter nostrum de Civitate Neapolitana discessum, ubi tunc Romana curia præsidebat, nostrumque accessum ad urbem quem viarum periculosa discrimina non modicum retardabant, ac etiam ad nostra inibi celebrata consecrationis solempnia impediti, nequivimus citius nuncios prædictos & literas destinare. Revera fili nequaquam sumus immemores, quin potius tenaci memoria retinemus, quod nos hactenus dum essemus in minori officio constituti, sinceris affectibus dilexisti, plenis favoribus prosequens. Idemque dum solerter attendimus quantis et quam grandibus prædicta discordia noscitur onusta dispendiis, quæ et quanta pericula secum trahit, quam dampnosa fidei redditor, quam graviter turbat et impedit negotium Terræ Sanctæ, quantumque præterea Deo displicere dinoscitur, auxiamur ut pater, sauciamur ut mater, in animo turbamur amarius ut amator, nec possumus quietis refoveri dulcedine, donec prælibatum negotium opratum et celerem exitum juxta cordis nostri desiderium scizatur. Cumque venerabiles fratres nostros Berardum Albinensem, & Simonem Prencestinum Episcopos, sedis Apostolicæ Nuncios, exhibitores præsentium, viros utique profundi consilii, literarum scientia præditos, ac diversarum virtutum titulis insignitos, necnon pacis angelos, licet eorum inviti careamus præsentis, destinamus; Excellentiam Regiam rogamus, hortamur, & obsecramus in Domino Jesu Christo, quatinus ad obsequium et Apostolicæ sedis reverentiam memoratos Episcopos, magnas utique columnas Ecclesiæ, tuique honoris et famæ serbidas amatores, tanquam filius benedictionis et gratiæ respiciens, bonestique prosequens, et honorificentia condigna pertractans, attente audias, diligenter intelligas, et efficaciter studeas adimplere, quæ ipsi et eorum quilibet coram te super eodem negotio duxerint proponenda. Sic te in hiis debate ac prompte habiturus ut speramus et cupimus, ut difficultatis et repulsæ cuiuslibet mora profugata, Regiæ devotionis sinceritas et inde clarius illucescat, tuque famæ præconium, quamvis amplum et diffusum in sæculo, propensius augeatur, ac sedis Apostolicæ gratiam quæ circa filios debotos ejuberrat, habundantius merearis. Dat. Laterani 10 Kal. Martii, Pontificatus nostri anno primo.

Cumque in adventu Cardinalium nondum reversus esset Rex à Wallia post guerram quam ibi finierat, præcepit Rex, ut honorifice tractarentur, Londoniisq; moram facerent usque ad vincula Sancti Petri, ipsius Regis aduentum præstolantes. Ad quem diem ipse Rex, pacificata Wallia, et omnes Magnates tam Cleri quam populi specialiter ad hoc vocati comparentes, ipsos Cardinales honorifice cum gaudiis susceperunt. Cumque facto silentio uterque Cardinalis pacis sermonem faceret, & multa vicissim de bono pacis introducerent, in fine tandem concludentes, ipsum Regem pacis zelatorem & catholicum rogaverunt; ut tanquam Princeps piissimus & pacis filius dignaretur animum ad pacis bonum inclinare. Responsum est eis ex parte Regis. Quod deliberato consilio ad interrogata & rogata responderet die tertia. Erat enim thema unius Cardinalis, Da pacem Domine in diebus nostris. Alterum verò; Adaperiat Dominus cor vestrum in lege sua, & in præceptis suis, & faciat pacem. Adveniens die tertio, & congregato Concilio, frater Willielmus de Hotham predicavit in Latino sicut Cardinales fecerant, assumpto themate hoc, Audiam quid loquatur in me Dominus, quoniam loquetur pacem in plebem suam. Reducens in parte sic, Quod Rex noster tanquam veræ obedientiæ filius, pacis zelator, paratus erat audire Apostolica mandata, tanquam etiam cælitus emissa. Finitoque sermone brevi, statimque ex præcepto Regis recitabatur in Gallico totus processus superscriptus, quomodo inter Reges ipsos guerra orta est, & usque ad eundem diem continuata; ut ipsi qui mediatores pacis existerent & promotores videre possent & dinoscere, quis Regem justitiam haberet in causa, vel injustè causam confoveret. In fine vero totius longæ recitationis superscriptæ, surrexit Antonius de Bek Episcopus Dunelmensis, & ex parte Regis respondit sic in Gallico. Vos Domini Cardinales rogastis & requisistis Domipum nostrum

* The relation of the cause of the warr, with the proposals & demands of the Cardinals, with the Kings & Councils answers to them in several Articles, are at large recorded in French in a Parchment Roll I found in the Tower, which being much torn and decayed, I thought fit to omit.

strum Regem pro plena pace concedenda, vel bonis saltem treugis diutius amplectendis; & licet unusquisque Christianus & Fide catholicus pacem velle debeat, & eam amplecti ratione bonorum quæ ex ea sequuntur, & propter ejus contraria & immensa mala quæ ex guerra proveniunt, & ex seditione nascuntur, tamen fidelitatem & promissa tenere debent homines universi, unde ipse Dominus Rex vobis respondet sic; Quod talis confederatio inter Regem Alemannia & ipsum jam nunc inita est, & per Sacramentum confirmata, quod neuter eorum absque altero cum Rege Francia pacem faceret, vel treugas concedat quoquo modo: cujus rei causa ipso non requisito vel dissentiente, nec pacem facere potest, nec treugas concedere vult. Quo cessante loqui, confestim Cardinales ipsum Regem rogaverunt, ut ex clementia Regia annuere dignaretur, nuncios super hoc Regi Alemannia destinare; Et datum est dies crastinus ad respondendum. Crastino autem die convenirent iterum universi, idem Danelmensis Episcopus in Gallico sic ait; Domini charissimi requisiti hesternæ die Dominum nostrum Regem de duobus, scilicet, quod ex gratia sua mera dignaretur nuncios mittere ad Regem Alemannia, ut ejus animum alliciat ad pacem annuendam & plenè confirmandam; De alio, scilicet, quod treugas concederet usque ad certum tempus, infra quod de plena pace tractare posset, vel ipsas saltem treugas ulterius prorogare. Ad primum articulum respondet vobis Dominus noster Rex sic; Quod ratione et reberentia Romanæ Ecclesiæ, quæ totius orbis caput est, et magistra, et occasione personarum vestrarum, qui illius Ecclesiæ estis membra, habitaque consideratione vestri laboris et longi itineris, liberaliter concedit vobis Rex nuncios suos super hoc ibidem destinare. Ad aliud sic; Satis vobis constat & omni populo, quod exercitus Regis Francia & gens sua tota jam parati existant ut sibi & suis inferant mala quæ possunt, sicut buculque fecerunt in terra & in mari; unde Regi non esset securum suis præcipere ne se defenderent, nisi ex parte altera esset inhibicum, ne ulterius persequerentur. Propter quod vobis respondet, Quamcito constiterit ei Regem Francia ex parte sua inhibuisse vel inhibere velle, statim & ipse suis hoc illud idem præcipiendo mandabit, sed ante non. Fatigue tali responso, et accepta licentia, rebersti sunt Cardinales in Franciam, unde prius venerant, set non vacui, immo buras vacuantes. Ex unoquoque Cathedrali Capitulo vel Collegiato per totam Angliam nomine procuratorum et expensarum sex marcos Argenti habuerunt; et hoc ex concessione papali, præter alia multa, ut affolet cupiditati Romanorum Cardinalium, sicut pensare scitis multipliciter. Et ubi religiosorum pauperum, vel sanctorum montium propter exilitatem non sufficerent per se, adjungebantur eis circumjacentes Ecclesiæ parochiales ad solutionem peragendam, ita quod papale privilegium non emaneret vacuum, nec deficeret obolus in summa. Such was their infamous rapine and extortion.

K. Edward 1. An Exact History of Popes Intollerable Usurpations, B. 5. ch. 4.

An. 23 E. 1. ponamus remedium opportunum; vobis mandamus firmiter inhibentes, ne a p[re]latis Decano et Capitulo hujusmodi procuraciones vel alias exactiones, in m[on]ast[er]io et d[omi]ni Capell[an]e nostr[re] p[re]judicium aliquant[er] erigere p[re]sumatis, per quod oporteat nos manum ad hoc apponere gravio[re]m. Teste Rege apud Westm. 25 die Augusti. By which it is apparent, That the Kings Free Chappels were exempt from all Procurations, even to the Popes own Nuncios and Legates à l[et]tre sent by him into England, which priviledge the King was very vigilant to maintain.

These avaritious Cardinals to fill their purses yet fuller, not contented with procurations from the Clergy of England, sent their Agent and Chaplain into Ireland, with the Kings Letters of Safeconduct and assistance, to collect Procurations from the Irish Clergy, (though they went not thither) as this Record attests.

How importunate the Cardinals (to colour their rapines) were with the King to procure a Truce and Cessation of arms, appears by 3. Writs I found in a Bundle in the White Tower Chappel, An. 23 E. 1. then ingrossed & filed; one of them directed to the Kings Lieutenant, and other Officers in Gascoigne and foreign parts; the other general to all men; the third, to the Wardens of the Ports, and all other his Officers and Ministers to whom they should come; wherein he declared, that by these two Cardinals importunate zeal, to settle a firm Peace between him and the King of France and their Subjects, (toward which a present truce, and cessation of all acts of hostility between them both by Sea and Land would much conduce) he had condescended out of honour to the Cardinals, and reverence and obedience to his Mother the Church of Rome, to such a Truce and Cessation of all acts of hostility between them, till the Feast of All Saints next, and obliged himself, his goods and chattels to the Cardinals to perform it; so as the French King would oblige himself in like manner for himself and his Subjects; which he (it seems) refusing, these Writs were thereupon cut and cancelled with a penknife, but not taken off the file: which I shall here present you withall, to declare King Edwards readinesse to peace, and avoid wars with the French King.

That this Pope and his two Cardinals had some other designs upon the King, Kingdom and Church of England, then to settle Peace, and gain Procurations, even to deprive the King of the Rights of his Crown, by inducing him to condescend to the Popes and Cardinals appropriating of Prebendaries and Churches in England to their Churches in Rome, and dispose of Benefices and Promotions belonging to his Presentation, Crown, dignity, (which although he, his Council, Judges, Parliament had * formerly opposed, yet was he now earnestly pressed by this Pope and his Cardinals to assent unto) will most clearly appear by the Kings Letters and Answers to them, implying his willingness to grant their requests, so as any expedient could be devised to save the dishonour and hurt of the Rights of his Crown, Royal dignity and Prerogative, which might ensue thereupon by his condescension.

The Prebendary of * Nassinton, belonging to the Church of Lincoln, was one of those mentioned in these Letters to be appropriated to a Church in Rome, concerning which (when first set on foot Anno 1288.) I found this memorable Letter by way of caution, then writ by one of the Kings Council to Edmund Earl of Cornwall the Kings Lieutenant, and the rest of his fellow Counsellors and Friends, strenuously to oppose this Innovation, as a direct disinheriting of the King and Kingdom, repugnant to the ancient Rights and Customs thereof, admitted by Popes themselves in all ages, which I shall here insert.

Dignitas Regia et Coronae Angliae, ac consuetudo regni instant semper, ut observetur in eis quod est ab antiquo usitatum, et a Summis Pontificibus concessum perpetuo, ac a tempore quo non existat memoria (eo quod sola Anglia utitur consuetudine et non iure scripto) approbatum. Ne igitur in Praebenda de Nassinton in Ecclesia Lincoln. quae est de Corona et Patronatu Domini Regis, exhereditatio Regis et Regni interveniat manifesta, expedit quod Punctis Curiae Romanae, ex hac causa venientes, effectum nequaquam sortiantur in praemissis, contra Coronam et consuetudinem praedictam; et mandetur Dioeclesiano per breve Domini Regis firmiter et expresse, ne praetextu litterarum Domini Papae seu quorumcumque Iudicium Ecclesiarum aliquid faciat, quod Regi aut Coronae in Baronia sua esse poterit praedictale seu damnosum; ac aliis quorum interest in hac parte. Nos igitur qui legem, consuetudinem, et ea quae Coronam et officium contingunt, melius nostris, facietis quod honori Regis decet, et quod est hactenus in causa consimili consuetum. An. 23 E. 1.

Yet such was the insolency of this New Pope and his Legates, after several precedent Prohibitions, resolutions of the King, Council, Parliament, and Letters from the King to Pope Nicholas and his Cardinals against it, as now to revive and importunately prosecute this dangerous project afresh, in hope to accomplish it, under a pretext of friendship and settling Peace; which the King modestly declined by his Epistles to them.

These Cardinals likewise solicited the King to exempt some of the Cardinals Nephews who had Benefices in England, from paying the moiety of their Goods towards the maintenance of his Wars, to which all the rest of the Clergy were liable, as this Letter of the King imports.

The Popes Legatés under pretext of settling a Truce, having extorted great sums of money from the Clergy and Religious persons, to transport it securely beyond the Seas procured divers Foreign Merchants to passe over with them out of England into Foreign parts with monies, under colour of being Members of their Train and Attendants; to prevent which fraud and exportation of monies, the King issued this Writ to the Constable of Dover Castle and others.

An. 23 E. 1. bernia, & Dux Aquitanie; venerabili in Christo patri, W. eadem gratia Bathoniensi & Wellensi Episcopo, Thesaurario suo, salutem. Dicitur quod cum dudum infra libertatem dilecti nobis in Christo Abbatis Westmonasterii de Westmonasterio, Johannes de Eborum, Johannes Ballard, Rogerus de parva Frome, Robertus le Clerk, & Eustachius de Royston, Clerici, quibusdam criminibus irrepti, capti fuissent, & subsequenter gaole ejusdem libertatis mancipati; ac postmodum personaliter constituti coram dilecto & fidele nostro Radulpho de Sandwico, & sociis suis Justiciariis nostris ad eandem gaolam deliberandam assignatis, requisitisque per Archidiaconum Westmonasterii, ut ei tanquam Ordinario loci dictos Clericos liberarent, secundum ecclesiasticam libertatem, iidem Justiciarii id quod literas patentes super hoc de warranto dictus Archidiaconus non habebat, prefatos Clericos ad pristinam custodiam simpliciter judicant. Quibus gentibus aliquantulum in eadem, gaolam illam temere contragentes, ab eadem clanculo evaserunt. Deinde, sicut accepimus, coram dilecto Clerico nostro Johanne de Berewyk, & sociis suis Justiciariis nostris ultimo itinerantibus in Com. Midd, in quo eadem libertas consistit, extitit per quosdam ipsius Abbatis amulos presentatum, quod idem Radulphus, & socii sui memorati, dictos Clericos eidem Archidiacono, promoris est, liberarunt, juxta libertatem Ecclesiasticam conservandos, ipso Abbate contrarium asserente; unde dictus Abbas ad quingentas libras, videlicet pro evasione cuiuslibet ipsorum Clericorum ad centum libras, quæ ab eodem per summonitione Decretarii nostri eriguntur ad opus nostrum, amerciatu fuerat, sicut fertur: Nos igitur certis de causis scire volentes veritatem totius negotii supradicti, mandavimus prefato Radulpho quod Recordum & processum inde habitum, sicut præmittitur, coram, sub sigillo suo, sine dilatione vobis mittat. Cumque recordum & processum hujusmodi receperitis, tunc illis, una cum recordo & processu presentationis prædictæ inspectis & diligenter examinatis, quatenus videritis opportunum certitudinem inquiratis sollicitè præmissorum, & inquisitam nobis per litteras vestras nunciatis, ut super hiis plenius nostri vobis beneplacitum demandemus. Et interim eidem Abbati ab exactione prædictæ pacem habere faciat. Dat. sub privato sigillo nostro apud Aberconwey, 29. die Martii, Anno Regni nostri vicesimo tercio. Quocirca excellentiæ vestræ significo, quod inspectis & examinatis recordo & processu deliberationis gaolæ prædictæ michi missis per prædictum Radulphum, vos inde plenariè certiorar. non possum, sine recordo & processu presentationis inde factæ coram Justiciariis vestris in Itinere suo prædicto, eo quod Rotuli sui adhuc in custodia eorundem existunt, unde recordum & processum deliberationis prædictæ vobis mitto sub sigillo meo, ut vos ulterius inde fieri jubeatis quod vestræ excellentiæ videbitur faciendum. Valeat excellentia vestra per tempora diuturna.

The King sending special Messengers to the Pope about his publick affairs in the Court of Rome, sent these Letters of Credence to several Cardinals by name, together with other Letters to the Pope and them, desiring their favours upon his account to expedite their affairs, and to grant them licenses to receive and retain Pluralities of Benefices, notwithstanding the manifold Constitutions against them, and those newly promulged in our forecited English Councils.

The Popes and Cardinals Dispensations granted to these covetous ambitious Pluralists, upon the Kings Letters to them on their behalfs, was a principal cause of their encroachments upon the Kings Crown, Rights and Prerogative by their Provisions, and promoting their Nephews, Kinred to many Deaneries, Prebendaries, Benefices, Pensions in England, almost to the ruine of our Church, Religion, and great prejudice of the Realm.

REX dilectis sibi in Christo, Priori & Conventui sancte Trinitatis, & Decano & Capitulo sancti Patricii Dublin. salutem. Accedentes ad nos frater Richardus de Staunford Canonicus sancte Trinitatis Dublin. & Magister Henricus de Rath- man Canonicus sancti Patricii Dublin. cum literis patentibus Capitulorum vestrorum, nobis ex parte vestra humiliter supplicarunt; quod cum Ecclesia Dublin. per mortem bonæ memoriæ J. nuper Archiepiscopi, ejusdem loci pastoris sit solacio destituta, alium vobis eligendi in Archiepiscopum et pastorem licentiam concedere dignaremur. Nos igitur precibus vestris in hac parte favorabiliter inclinati, licentiam illam vobis duximus concedendam; Mandantes, &c. In cujus, &c. Teste Rege apud Aberconwey, 24 die Marcii.

Memorandum, quod prius habuerunt licentiam eligendi ad supplicationem fratris Ade de Balsam Canonici sancte Trinitatis, & Th. de Snyterby, Canonici sancti Patricii Dublin. qui ad Regem accesserunt; et quia in adventu Magistri Th. de Chadworth electi sui ad Regem, compertum fuit, quod Canonici præcesserunt ad electionem priusquam habuerunt literam Regis de licencia eligendi, remissi sunt ad partes suas cum ista nova litera licentiæ ad iterato eligendum; & pro habenda ista litera detulerunt supranominati in litera ad Cancellarium, breve Regis de privato Sigillo, quod residet in filaciis.

After this, the Prior and Convent of St. Trinity, and Chapter of St. Patrick unanimously elected Thomas de Chaddesworth Dean of St. Patrick for their Archbishop, as this their common Certificate thereof to the King, and petition for his Royal assent thereto under their seals attests.

By all which Certificates and Petitions to the King (whereof there are several Bundles in the Tower under Archbishops, Bishops, Ordinaries, Abbots, and others seals, as likewise of Archbishops, Bishops, Abbots, Priors, Abbesses deaths, desiring his licenses to elect new ones, and his Royal assent to those they certified they had elected by his license and authority, during the reigns of K.H. the 3. & Edw. the 1.)
 it is apparent, That the King was Supreme Governor within his Dominions over all Ecclesiastical persons, causes, to whom Bishops, Ordinaries, Abbots, Deans, Chapters, Officials, Covents, and Clergymen of all sorts had recourse upon all occasions, to redress, correct those grievances, abuses, exorbitances in the Church by his Sovereign Royal authority, which they by their Ecclesiastical swords, censures, jurisdictions could not reform, which were altogether invalid and ineffectual when contemned by any refractory persons, as frequently they were.

* Quinto Idus Martii 1295. regni vero Edwardi I. 23. Johannes Romanus Archiepiscopus Ebor. obiit in manerio suo apud Burton; of whom † Henry de Kynghton hath left us this true character; Johannes Romanus Archiepiscopus Eboracensis à Johanne Romano quondam Eboracensi Thesaurario & quadam pedissequa procreatus; & bene Romanus, quia a Romano patre cupiditatem Romanam extraxit. Et cum magnus esset Theologus & homo valde literatus, non tamen multa litera, sed avaritia maxima eum fecit quasi insanire. Ditabit enim pecuniam et substantiam; unde iusto Dei iudicio contigit, ut qui subditozum bona, et maxime ab intestatis stiret, subita quasi morte præventus, nullum vel modicum ex Testamento suo proprio consecutus est emolumentum. Executores enim sui se intrinittere noluerunt; ita quod non proprio, set potius alieno fiebant expensa funerum, & in Ecclesia sua cum bonore simplici repositus est, non enim panis vel obolus pro anima ipsius dabatur. By which passage it seems to me; 1. That this Archbishop John de Roman (a bastard, begotten of a covetous Roman) was the first Archbishop, who out of Roman covetousness (in imitation of the Popes of Rome) usurped a power to dispose of the goods of persons dying intestate within his Diocese, which he secretly thirsted after, under pretext to distribute them to pious uses for the good of their souls; 2ly. That for this his avaritious practise and innovation, he was by Gods just judgement stricken with sudden death, yea although he made his Testament, yet his Executors refusing to administer, he was buried dishonourably, there being not one loaf or farthing distributed for his soul, to pious uses or the poor: He adds, Illustrationem hic Ecclesie Dunelmensis, quam prædecessor suus jure et jurisdictione Eboracensis Ecclesie benedixerat, accepta, ut dicebatur, pecunia dormire sustinuit. Obdientiam, quam primo pompose de Dunelmensi petiit, appellatione interposita segniter prosecutus est. Huic successit Henricus de Newerk, ejusdem Ecclesie Decanus, electus à fratribus Anno Domini 1296. Qui propter guerram inter Reges Romanam adire non valens, missis ad Curiam Romanam procuratoribus suis (no doubt with a good sum of money) impetravit gratiam et licentiam consecrandi a Papa Bonifacio 8. in Ecclesia Eboracensi: per Bullam confirmatus est, etiam ex dispensatione Papæ in Ecclesia sua Eboracensi consecratus est per Antonium Dunelmensem Episcopum.

Edwardus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, Dominus Hiberniæ, & Dux Aquitanie, Custod. Spiritualitatis Episcopatus Coventrensis & Lychesfeldensis, salutem; Mandamus vobis quod venire faciatis coram Justic. nostris, apud VVestm. à die Sancte Trinitatis in 15. dies Johannem de Brodon, Personam Ecclesiæ de Lyington. Clericum vestrum, ad respondendum notis de placito, quare cum placita de catallis et debitis in regno nostro quæ non sunt de Testamento vel Patrimonio, ad coronam et dignitatem nostram specialiter pertineant. Idem Johannes sicut ex relatu plurium accepimus, tenuit placitum in Curia Christianitatis de catallis et debitis Prioris de Erbury, quæ non sunt de Testamento vel Patrimonio, in lationem Coronæ et Dignitatis nostræ, et contra prohibitionem nostram, ut dicitur: Et unde Vicecomes noster VVar. mandavit Justic. nostris apud VVestm. à die Sancti Hillar. in 15. dies, quod prædictus Johannes Clericus est, & non habet Laicum feodum in balliva sua per quod potest attachiari. Et habeatis ibi hoc Breve. Teste J. de Metingham apud VVestm. duodecimo die Febr. Anno regni nostri vicelesimo quarto.

On which Writ, the Custos of the Spiritualities endorsed this return;

Dorso, Distixi Johannem de Brodon. Personam Ecclesiæ de Lenintone per sequestrationem bonorum suorum Ecclesiasticorum, & per citationem, quod sit coram Justiciariis de Banco Domini Regis ad diem in hoc brevi contentum, ad faciendum id quod in eodem brevi plenius continetur.

Thus did the Ecclesiastical Courts continually encroach upon the Kings Courts, Crown, Dignity, and Subjects Liberties, notwithstanding the manifold Complaints, Writs, Attachments issued out against them by the Kings Justices and Chancellors, to the Subjects insufferable vexation. Besides these VVrits, in a fragment of Plea Rolls in the White Tower Chappel, Anno 24 E. 1. I finde these Writs and Attachments upon Prohibitions both at the suit of the parties, and of the King, for holding Pleas and prosecuting Suits in Court Christian for Chattels and Debts, not of Testament or Matrimony. The first of them concerned the Vicechancellor and University of Oxford, who pleaded the Kings Charter of Priviledges granted to them, by way of Justification, as Chancellor only, not as Ordinary.

Magister Rogerus de Mortivall, & Magister Robertus de Kydelawe attachiati fuerunt ad respondendum Stephano del Lurder, & Thomæ le Marefcall de placito, quare tenuerunt placitum in Curia Christianitatis de catallis et debitis, quæ non sunt de Testamento vel Patrimonio, contra Prohibitionem, &c. Et unde queruntur, quod cum quidam Stephanus Aget traxisset ipsos in placitum in Curia Christianitatis coram præfatis Magistro Rogero & Roberto apud Oxoniam, de quodam equo precii quinque marcarum, qui non fuit de Testamento vel Patrimonio, &c. Et iidem Stephanus & Thomas die Luna proxima post festum Nativitatis beate Mariæ, anno Regis nunc vicelesimo secundo apud Oxoniam, in præsentia Rogeri le Clerk & aliorum, præcessissent eis Regiam Prohibitionem, ne prædictum placitum ulterius tenerent, &c. prædicti Magister Rogerus & Robertus spreta Prohibitione illa, nichilominus tenuerunt prædictum placitum in prædicta Curia Christianitatis, &c. Unde dicunt quod deteriorati sunt, et dampnum habent ad valentiam viginti librarum, & inde produciunt sellam, &c.

Et Magister Rogerus & Robertus veniunt & defendunt vim & injuriam quanda, &c. Et dicunt, quod prædicti Stephanus & Thomas injustè queruntur ipsos Rogerum & Robertum contra Prohibitionem, &c. in hac parte processisse, quia dicunt, quod prædictus Rogerus prædictis die et anno fuit Cancellarius Universitatis Oxoniæ, cujus quidem Universitatis Scholaribus Dominus Rex nunc de gratia speciali concessit, quod de omnibus actionibus personalibus Burgenses, et omnes Laicos coram Cancellario ejusdem Universitatis possint implacitare, &c. Willielmus de Esthorp qui sequitur pro Domino Rege, optulit se 4 die versus Thomam Vicarium Ecclesie Sancti Laurencii de Suburbio Eborum, de placito, quare cum placita de catallis et debitis in regno Regis, quæ non sunt de Testamento vel Patrimonio, ad Regem et Coronam et dignitatem Regis, et non ad alium pertineant in eodem regno, predictus Thomas, sicut ex relatu plurimum accepit Dominus Rex, tennit placitum in Curia Christianitatis de catallis et debitis Roberti le Graunt Capellani Magistri Hospitalis S. Nicholai Ebor. in honorem Coronæ et dignitatis Regis, et contra prohibitionem Regis, &c. Et ipse non venit, & preceptum fuit Vicecomiti, &c. Et Vicecomes nichil inde fecit, set mandavit, quod predictus Thomas Clericus est, & non habet laicum feodum, &c. Ideo mandatum est Archiepiscopo Ebor. quod venire faciat eum a die S. Martini in quindecim dies, &c.

Ibidem. Ebor.

Henricus de Brae per attornatum suum optulit se 4 die versus Magistrum Willielmum de Tremegate, & D. Vicarium de Ministre, de placito, quare ipse simul cum Alano de la Hac fecerunt placitum in Curia Christianitatis de catallis et debitis, quæ non sunt de Testamento vel Patrimonio, contra prohibitionem Regis. Et ipsi non venerunt, & preceptum fuit Vicecomiti, quod attachiaret eos. Et Vicecomes nichil inde fecit, set mandavit quod Clerici sunt nec habent laicum feodum in Balliva sua, &c. Ideo mandatum est Episcopo Exoniz, quod venire faciat predictos Willielmum & D. hic a die Sancti Hilarii in 15. dies. Et Vicecomes mandavit, &c.

The Abbot of St. Agatha prosecuted this year at the Kings suit, for prosecuting a Plea in Court Christian for Chattels and Debts, which concerned not Testament or Marriage, had this Writ and license to make an Attorney.

Edwardus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, &c. dilecto & fidei suo Johanni de Lithgreynes, salutem. Sciatis quod dedimus vobis potestatem recipiendi Attornatos Abbatis de Sancta Agatha, quos coram vobis loco suo attornare voluerit, ad lucrandum vel perdendum in loquela qua est coram Justiciariis nostris apud Westm. per breve nostrum inter nos et predictum Abbatem, de eo quod idem Abbas secutus est placitum in Curia Christianitatis de Catallis et Debitis Magistri Galfridi de Langeton Personæ Ecclesiæ de Langeton, quæ non sunt de Testamento vel Patrimonio, contra prohibitionem nostram. Et ideo vobis mandamus, quod cum Attornatos illos receperitis, de nominibus eorundem Attornatorum nobis sub sigillo vestro distinctè & aperte constare faciatis. Remittentes nobis hoc breve. An. 24. 1. *Conspiratione facta, insurrexerunt in Regem eorum, sprete ejus simplicitate, & super-vici ut contempta. Circumdantesque eum in interiora loca Scotiæ, illic eundem in quodam Castro abruptis circumsepso montibus incluserunt, assignantes militibus qui regulum custodirent. Post hac elegerunt sibi more Francorum, pares 12. quatuor Epis-copos, (the ring-leaders in this Rebellion and perjury), quatuor Comites, & qua-tuor Proceres, ad quorum ordinationem cuncta regni negotia sancirentur. Hoc autem totum factum est in ignominiam Regis Angliæ, quia quodammodo reclamantibus Scotis, & nonnullis occulte murmurantibus, Johannes de Baliol per Regem Angliæ Scotorum
their Rebellion and confederacy with the French, against the King of England, Scoti homines inquieti, leves & instabiles contra Regem Angliæ rebellare ceperunt, credentes excutere jugum servitutis debite; Inprimis suo Regi simplici suggererunt, occasione expensarum alleviandarum, ut omnes Anglicos suos, quos sumptuosissime in Curia sua retinebat, a Curia sua removeret. Et quidem hoc ne seductio eorum per Anglicos in primo suo fomite panderetur. Interim dum Rex Edwardus ad Regem Scotorum literas dirigeret, ut in guerram suam contra Regem Franciæ robur exercitus in parte mitteretur, excusatoria impotentia & responsio brevis datur. Multiplicantur ite-rum preces & precepta, & non tantum ad Regem, immo & ad Magnates terra, & sem-per responsiones fivola quærebantur, eo quod conjurationes eorum valida nondum complerentur ad votum. Which Thomas Walsingham thus amplifies.*

Anno 1296. (23 E. 1.) <sup>d</sup> Johannes Rex Scotiæ homagii et fidelitatis suæ im-memor, destinatis ad Regem Francorum nunciis, Willielmo Sancti Andree & Wil-helmo Dunelmensi Episcopis, (two firebrands of Rebellion, treachery, perjury, against their Oathes and Allegiance to King Edward) Johanne de Soules, & Ingelrame de Umfravile Militibus, clam contra Regem Angliæ sedes inlit, petens in affirmationem negotii matrimonium contrahi inter filium suum Edwardum & nobilem puellam Johannam filiam Caroli germana Regis Francorum, spondens, se velle regnum Angliæ totis viribus impugnare, et a Werra cum Rege Franciæ impedire, sicut in scriptis inter utrosque Reges confectis plenius continetur. Scoti vero per idem tempus primò tenuerunt Parliamentum apud Scone, & ordinarunt ac elige-runt sibi duodecim Pares ad modum Francorum, quatuor videlicet Episcopos, qua-tuor Comites, & quatuor Barones, quorum consilio Rex regnum suum gubernare debebat, fecerunt etiam sibi sigillum commune; per quos etiam ut in hanc consentiret pro-positionem fuit inductus. Nempe eorum consilio, et præcipue Abbatis de Menros.
Deinde mandant certos nuncios cum literis procuratoriis sigillatis cum sigillo Regi, & totius Communitatis Scotorum ad Regem Franciæ Philippum. Cum ad Parliamentum venisset regni Angliæ, clam accessit tanquam fugitivus, ad magnum dedecus persona
sua. Ob quam causam Rex Angliæ iussit omnia bona sua mobilia & immobilia qua habebat in Anglia confiscari, qui eo tempore multas villas & prædia pinguis in Anglia possidebat. Rex Angliæ per idem tempus à Rege Scotiæ (ignozans eorum prohibitionem) cum auxilium pro Werra sua instanter petisset, & sibi semper responderetur in dubiis, suspectum habens negotium, rogavit, ut ob securitatem usque ad finem Werra sua, Castra tria, videlicet Berwici, Edinburgi & Rokesburgæ traderentur in manu sua qua post Werram restitueret, si eos sibi comperisset fideles. Quod cum Scoti facere venissent, Rex de prohibitione eorum certior, (by the premised Letters he intercepted) cum exerce in versus Scotiam progressus, disposuit eam vi subicere, nisi ab his qua refererantur, & qua jam in opere ostendebantur se possent legitime excusare.

In pursuit whereof, Anno 1297. (24 E. 1.) <sup>e</sup> Rex Angliæ immenso coadunato
exercitu, venit ad Novum Castrum super Tynam, ad quem locum Johannem Regem Scotorum citari fecerat edicto publico, ut de hiis quæ sibi debeant obijci responderet; quo ad diem præfixum nec per se comparente, nec per nuncium se excusante; Rex de suorum consilio decrevit ulterius procedendum. Interim Miles quidam Robertus de Roos, Dominus Castri de Werk, non obstante fidelitate quam Regi Angliæ jurverat, ad Scotos transfugit. Quo audito, Rex mox ad illud Castrum properat, & apud prædictum Castrum Paschalem solennitatem peregit. Quo tempore septem Comites Scotiæ, videlicet, de Bouvan, de Menteth, de Straderberne, de Lewenes, de Roos, de Athel, de Mar, & Johannes filius Johannis Conyn de Badenau, collecto exercitu valido in valle Anandæ, feria secunda Pascha Angliam ingressi, vastabant omnia castra & incendio, non parcentes ætati vel sexui. Circa ingressum mensis Aprilis venerunt ad Regem

Regem Edwardum Gardianum & lesior fratrum Minorum de Roksburg. deferentes An. 24 E. I. literas Johannis Regis Scotiz, (* forecited, and printed in Walsingham) tenorem hujusmodi continentes. Magnifico Principi, &c. Nos dictas injurias, contemptus, gravamina ac dampna, necnon & hostiles impugnationes ulterius sustinere non valentes, nec in fidelitate & homagio vestro, licet per violentam impressionem impressam extortis, &c. fidelitatem et homagium tam a nobis quam ab aliis quibuscunque regni nostri incolis fidelibus nostris, ratione terrarum quas in vestro regno tenebant, et etiam ratione menagii seu retentionis vestre, nomine nostro et nomine eorundem omnium et singulorum vobis reddimus per presentes. Rex Angliz audita presenti litera, resignationi homagii sui admittit, & Cancellario precepit, hanc literam * registrare ad perpetuam memoriam. Interim Comes Scotiz nominati superius, profecti sunt in Angliam, & vastantes omnia cade & incendio usque ad Prioratum Hagustaldensem. Mane vero facta Prioratum cum tota villa incendio destruxerunt: Progressi deinde ad domum Monialium de Ramefay, domibusque quibusdam (salva Ecclesia) combustis, cum ingenti prada in Scotiam revertuntur. After which King Edward and his forces routing the Scots Army, slaying ten thousand of them at Dunbar, taking Berwick, with the Castles of Dunbar, Roksburgh, Mayden, and other Towns and Castles from them, wherein many of their Earls, Nobles, chief Commanders were taken prisoners, and recruiting his Army with many fresh forces from Wales and Ireland, (at large related in our Historians) thereupon, Videns Johannes Rex, quia non haberet potestatem resistendi, missis ad Regem Angliz nunciis, pacem & misericordiam imploravit. Cui Rex benigne annuens, remandavit, ut ad Castrum de Brichin cum Magnatibus terra sua veniret, cum his quos Rex illuc mitteret nuncios, infra dies quindecim tractaturi. Misitque illuc Rex Anthonium Dunelmensem Episcopum, cum plena potestate regia: ad quem venerunt infra prescriptum tempus Rex Scottorum Magnatesque sui. Qui post multos variosque tractatus, nude et pure subjecerunt se et regnum Scotiz regis voluntati, * absque conditione quacunque, & concesserunt frangere suum commune sigillum, quod contra Edwardum fecerant. Pro qua submissione observanda, Johannes Rex Scotiz filium suum obsidem tradidit, literasque confecit continentes in Gallico hunc tenorem.

Johannes Dei gratia Rex Scotie, omnibus presentes literas visuris vel auditis, salutem. Quia nos per malum consilium falsumque, simplicitatemque nostram graviter offendimus et provocamus Dominum nostrum Edwardum Dei gratia Regem Angliz, Dominum Hibernie, Ducem Aquitanie, videlicet, in eo, quod erigentes et manentes in fide sua, et suo homagio, alligabimus nos Regi Francie, qui tunc hostis ejus erat et adhuc est; Patrimonium procurantes fieri cum filia Domini Caroli fratris ejus, et ut Dominum nostrum gravaremus, Regemque Francie inbaremus cum omni potestate nostra per Terram mobilisque alii. Deinde per nostrum perversum consilium antedictum diffidabimus Dominum nostrum Regem Angliz, et posuimus nos extra fidem et homagium suum, et misimus gentes nostras in terram suam Angliz, ad incendia faciendo et pradas abducendas, homicidia et alia dampna plurima perpetranda; et terram Scotiz quæ est de feodo suo, contra eum muniendo, ponentes et stabiles gentes armatas in Vallis, Castris, et alibi, ad defendendum terram contra eum de feodo suo; pro quibus transgressionibus, Dominus noster Rex Angliz antedictus, ingressus terram Scotiz in fortitudine sua, eam conquiescit et cepit, non obstante omni eo quod facere potuimus contra eum, sicut potest de jure facere tanquam Dominus de feodo suo, quia nos ei homagium nostrum reddidimus, et fecimus rebellionem antedictam. Nos igitur existentes in plena potentia nostra et libera voluntate, reddidimus ei terram Scotiz et gentem totam cum homagiis. In cujus rei testimonium fecimus fieri has literas patentes. Datum apud Brichin decimo die Julii; regni nostri anno quarto. Consignata litera factoque sigillo communi regni Scotiz, processit Rex ut videret montana Scotiz, procedente cum semper per unam diem Episcopo Dunelmensi. Cumque transisset Moraviam, & pervenisset usque Eilgni, omnia videns esse parata, converso itinere revertitur Berewicum.

In redeundo autem Rex Edwardus transiit per Abbatiam de Scone, ubi sublato lapide quo Reges Scottorum tempore coronationis solebant uti pro throno, usque Westmonasterium transfudit illum, jubens inde fieri celeberrimum cathedram Sacerdotum. Eo tempore, Rex apud Berewicum convocato Parlamento omnium Magnatum Insuper et iuramus, tactis Sacrosanctis Evangelis, et postea nos omnes, et quilibet nostrum per se fecit homagium dicto Domino nostro Regi Angliae in hac verba. Ego vester homo ligius efficior de vita & membris, ac terreno honore, contra omnes homines qui possunt vivere & mori. Et idem Dominus noster Rex recepit hoc homagium sub his verbis. Nos illud recipimus pro terris quibus estis seisin, salvo jure nostro, & alterius, & exceptis terris quas Johannes de Balliolo quondam Rex Scotiae nobis contulit, postquam nos ei regnum Scotiae liberavimus, si forte aliquas terras dedit. Insuper nos omnes et singuli nostram per se fecimus fidelitatem Domino nostro Regi praedicto in his verbis. Ero fidelis & legalis, fidemque & legalitatem servabo Edwardo Regi Angliae & heredibus suis, de vita & membris & terreno honore, contra omnes qui possunt vivere & mori; & nunquam pro aliquo portabo arma, nec ero in consilio vel auxilio contra eum, vel heredes suos in aliquo casu qui possit contingere; sed fideliter recognoscam, & fideliter faciam servitium, quae pertinent ad tenementum, quod de eo tenere clamito: Sic me Deus adjuvet, & omnes Sancti ejus. In harum rerum testimonium factae sunt istae litterae patentes, & sigillis nostris signatae. Dat. apud Berwicum, Anno regni Regis Angliae Edwardi Domini nostri vicelimo quinto.

The Records of these their respective submissions, abjurations of their Leagues and Covenants with the French King, and Letters patents of their new Fealties and Homages made to King Edward, both in Scotland and in the Parliament at Berwick, are extant upon record in the Tower of London, in Rotulis Scotiae, An. 23 and 24 E. 1. but more largely and particularly recorded in four large Parchment Rolls thereof, fairly written by Andreas (a sworn Notary,) by the Kings special command, who was present at all those Transactions as a witness thereunto, with sundry persons of note, which Rolls delivered by him to Adam de Osgoby, then Master of the Rolls of the Chancery, July 25. Anno 24. E. 1. to be carefully kept, are yet remaining in the Tower; I shall present you with the beginning and chief parts of the Rolls at large, and a Breviat only of the remainder of them.

All these Abbots, Abbesses, Priors, Parsons, Freers, Earls, Lords, Knights, Citizens, Burgeses, Communalities, and Commoners of Scotland, in the Parliament held at Berwick the 20. day of August in the reign of King Edward the 1. (entred at large in this memorable Record) made the self-same renunciation of their solemn League and Covenant with the French King, and took the self-same Oath of Fealty and Allegiance to the King of England, as * those premised: whose names I have here inserted at large, to gratifie those of the Scottish Nation who delight in Heraldry, or their own pedegrees; as also to evidence their most execrable perjury, treachery, disloyalty to King Edward, in revolting from, and confederating with, adhering to the French Kings, rebelling against him and his posterity Kings of England, soon after these their most solemn doubled, yea trebled Abjurations, Oaths, Homages, Leagues, Covenants, ratified with their respective publike and private Deeds and Seals to the contrary, recorded in these Rolls to all posterity; which thus conclude.

*Et ego Andreas quondam Gulielmi de Tang Clericus Eborum Dioc. Sacrosanctæ Sedis Apostolicæ publica auctoritate Notarius, qui præmissis omnibus et singulis una cum superscriptis testibus, diebus et locis prænotatis quibus facta fuerant, ut præmittitur interfui, eaque omnia et singula sic fieri vidi et audiui, ab excellenti Principe Domino Edwardo Dei gratia Rege Angliæ Illustri, & Domino Johanne eadem gratia quondam Rege Scottorum, necnon & venerabilibus in Christo Patribus Dominis, Antonio permissione divina Dunelm. & Waltero eadem permissione Covent. & Lich. I shall cloze up the precedent Relation of the execrable perjuries, perfidiousness and rebellion of the Scots against King Edward, with this character John Bailiol their own King and Countreyman gave of them soon after the resignation of his Crown; which I found recorded in a special Instrument in Parchment in the White Tower, thus attested by a publike Notary in perpetuam rei memoriam, not unworthy consideration.

IN Nomine Domini Amen. Anno à Nativitate ejusdem Millesimo ducentesimo nonagesimo octavo, Indictione undecima, prima die Mensis Aprilis, in Camera Hospitii venerabilis Patris A. Episcopi Dunelmensis extra London. ipse, de statu & conditione Regni Scotia & Inhabitantium idem Regnum, coram Nobili viro Domino Johanne de Balliolo verba faciens, .... Idem Johannes motu proprio, in presentia mei Notarii & Testium subscriptorum; inter alia quædam verba dixit & protulit sermone Gallico, hunc habentia intellectum; *Videlicet, quod dum ipse dictum regnum Scotiz ut Rex et Dominus ipsius regni tenebat atque regebat, tantam inveni in hominibus ejusdem regni malitiam, fraudem, proditorem, et dolum, propter eorum malignitatem, nequitiam, dolositates, et alia nonnulla execrabilia et detestabilia facta ipsorum, qui eum tunc Principem eorum potionari, sicut veraciter intellexerat, machinabantur, intentionis suæ non est prædictum regnum Scotiz ingredi vel intrare aliquo tempore in futurum; seu de ipso Regno aut pertinentiis suis per se vel per alium, aut alios intromittere ullo modo. Nec etiam didis et aliis multis de causis aliquid habere commune cum Scotis. Adjiciens idem Dominus J. quod alias rogaverat præfatum Dominum Episcopum Dunelmensem, ut magnifico Principi & Domino suo, Domino Edwardo Regi Anglia illustri, hanc suam esse intentionem, voluntatem, et firmum propositum explicaret, et adhuc sibi cum instantia supplicat, quatenus præmissa eidem Domino Regi ex parte sua dignetur et velit exponere ac plenius aperire. After the Scottish Bishops, Abbots and Clergy-men had made their premised Abjurations of their League with France, and Oaths of fealty and Allegiance to the King under their hands and seals, he was pleased out of his Royal grace to issue forth Writs, to restore to them all their lands, tenements and profits he had formerly seized in Scotland, for their perjury and rebellion against him.

Anno Dom. 1297. citra festum Purificationis beatæ Mariæ idem Archiepiscopus suam Diocesim visitare inchoavit. Et Dominus Thomas Abbas ad manerium de Wing-ham ad illum personaliter accessit; supplicavitque eidem, quod si quæ in visitatione inveniret quæ ad statum dicti Monasterii in aliquo eidem offenderet, illa eidem Abbati ob reverentiam Romanæ sedis notificare dignaretur. Quod idem Archiepiscopus libenti animo concedebat. Unde licet ex habundanti aliquando per Priorem, aliquando per alios, & aliquando per ipsum Abbatem idem Archiepiscopus sapius requisitus fuisset, ut munimenta & alia privilegia hujus Monasterii vellet inspicere, illi tamen hæc videre vel audire omnimodo recusavit; & eundem Abbatem et conventum notorie exemptos evocavit. Et quædam cito hujusmodi citatio ad notitiam Abbatis pervenisset, misit ad eum rogans, quod placeret eidem hujusmodi citationem revocare, et sine figura judicii videre privilegia et munimenta sua. Qui respondit, quod noluit aliquo modo revoca-re citationem suam; sed dixit, quod cito post veniret ad Cantuariam, & tunc posset Abbas habere colloquium cum ipso de eodem. Et licet dictus Archiepiscopus concessisset Abbati & firmiter promississet, se eadem privilegia & munimenta inspicere voluisse, disiulit tamen per multum tempus sub dissimulatione ea videre; & tandem asseruit, se nolle ea videre nisi judicialiter. Et cum Dominus Abbas allegasset, se et Monasterium suum in tantum esse privilegiatum, quod non tenebantur nec debebant coram dicto Archiepiscopo judicialiter comparere vel respondere, idem Archiepiscopus fecit eos citari peremptorie, ut certo die ubicunque tunc in Diocesi vel provincia Cantuariæ coram ipso sufficienter comparerent, titulum seu jus speciale, si quæ haberent, per quæ possent ipsas Ecclesias & Hospitalem sancti Laurentii sic tenere; non obstante Compositione dudum inter Archiepiscopum Cantuariensem prædecessorem suum ex parte una, & dictos religiosos ex altera, & per Capitulum Cantuariense approbata, & per sedem Apostolicam confirmata super quibusdam de prædictis Ecclesiis cum Capellis suis, prout in compositione super hæc confecta, & Sigillis partium consignata, plenius continetur.
Asserens etiam minus veraciter, se in sua Visitatione invenisse dictos religiosos Deci-mas et pensiones annuas in diversis Ecclesiis suæ Diocesis contra jus commune perci-pere, ipsos citavit responsuros, quo jure ista sic percipiebant; licet in veritate nullas unquam pensiones præterquam in Ecclesiis sui patronatus vel Decimas percepissent. Insuper citavit eundem Abbatem, ut ostenderet quare sibi obedientiam facere non deberet?
Propter quæ omnia idem Abbas & Conventus sentiens se per prædictum Archiepiscopum indebitè prægavari, ad Sedem Apostolicam appellarunt; sed idem Archiepiscopus hujusmodi Appellationi non deferens, ipsos fecit iterum citari coram se, ubicunque esset in Civitate, Diocesi, vel provincia Cantuar. super Ecclesiis de Tanderdene, Len-ham, de Sellyng, de Pærlton, de Littleborne, de Sheldwich, & Sancti Pauli Cant. nec non & super Hospitale Laurentii, & super Decimis et Pensionibus prædictis, jus spe-ciale, si quod haberent præcise et peremptorie proposituri et ostensuri. Subscripsit ta-men processum insertum super prænominatis Ecclesiis in compositione contentis, faciendo ta-men mentionem de Ecclesia de Sheldwich, quæ est Capella Ecclesiæ de Faversham, non obstante

An. 24 E. 1. Stante quod in dicta Compositione continetur. Pro quibus iterum ad prædictam Sedem est appellatum. Quibus appellationibus non obstantibus, dictus Archiepiscopus fecit eos citari peremptorie ad alium brevem diem, quod comparerent coram eo ubicunque, &c. super Ecclesiis prænomina- tis præcisè & peremptorie ostensuri, ut supra; & priores continu- micias ut dicebat legitime fulminaturus; non tamen ultra processit contra nos, super Ecclesia de Scheldwich, nec de D. cimis & pensionibus supra dictis. Et quia idem Abbas judicialiter non comparuit, Archiepiscopus reputavit dictos Religiosos contumaces; & pro- nuntiavit dictas Ecclesias præter Scheldwich esse vacantes, mandando et faciendo eos moneri per Magistrum Martinum Commissarium suum Cant. ut infra quinquaginta septima- nas proximè sequentes, personas idoneas sibi tanquam Diocessano præsentarent ad Ecclesiam prænomina- tas; a qua quidem pronuntiatione & mandato fuit iterum per procuratorem Ab- batis in præsentia dicti Archiepiscopi ad Sedem Apostolicam legitime appellatum.

Thus did the Pope and Court of Rome by these Suits and Appeals between the Abbot and Archbishop not onely exhaust their wealth, but enlarge and exercise their Jurisdiction over both of them from year to year; as appears by this Bull of Pope Boniface to the Archbishop upon the Petition of Thomas Case, to provide an Ecclesi- astical Benefice for him with or without Cure, belonging to the Abbot and Convent of Saint Augustines Canterbury; notwithstanding all former Bulls of exemption or pri- viledges indulged to them: by pretext whereof the Archbishop this year issued his Mandate to denounce a sentence of Excommunication against them in case of disobe- dience, worthy consideration, thus registred to posterity by William Thorne.

Quia igitur diligenti inquisitione præmissa, juxta mandatum hujusmodi Apostolicum nobis in hac parte directum, invenimus dictum Thomam liberum esse & legitimam, vitamque laudabilem, ac conversationis honestam, nec quicquam sibi obitare, quo minus sibi valeat de beneficio Ecclesiastico congruè provideri. Volentes mandatum hujusmodi reverenter exequi, ut tenemur, auctoritate Apostolica nobis in hac parte commissa, præfato Thomæ Cuse providimus de beneficio Ecclesiastico competentem cum cura vel sine cura, cujus redditus seu proventus estimationem in dictis litteris Apostolicis contentam non excedunt, si quod ad vestram præsentationem seu collationem communiter vel divisim spectans, vacat ad præsens in Civitate vel Diocesi nostra; illudque eidem Thomæ contulimus, ac eum de ipso per nostrum vicarium præsentialiter investimus, alioquin beneficium proximo inibi vacaturum collationi nostræ reservamus, eidem Thomæ per nos seu illum, vel illos cui vel quibus in hac parte vices nostras committendas duxerimus conferendum. Thus did these Cardinals under pretext of making a Truce between England and France, twice prey upon the English and Irish Churches, Clergy, and transport their Treasure into France to enrich themselves and our French Enemies.

The King this year sending forces into France to recover his right to Vascogny, and after that Commissioners to Cambray to the Cardinals, to treat and conclude a League between him and the French King; by his Sovereign Ecclesiastical authority, issued these pious Writs to his Archbishops, Bishops, Abbots and Priors, to make devout and hearty prayers to God in all their Churches and Diocesse, for his blessing upon his forces to recover and defend his right, and also on that Treaty, to put such a period to the Wars, and settle such a Truce as might redound to the praise of God, his own honor, and the profit of his Realm.

But these Protections, being expired or forfeited soon after by their double denial of a Subsidy to the King, in obedience to Pope Boniface his Bull, for which they were put out of the Kings protection, stood them in no stead at all,

Upon complaint of the Bishop of Ely that his Tenants of divers Manors belonging to his Bishoprick were distrained both in Thetford and Norwich for toll of their goods, from which they were exempted by his and his progenitors Charters; the King issued forth sundry Writs to discharge them from the payment thereof, or to certify the causes why they did it not: whereupon they made these returns and Certificates into the Chancery, which I found in the White Tower Chappel.

E Dwardus Dei gratia Rex Anglia, Dominus Hibernia, & Dux Aquitania, Ballivis Johannis de Wareuna Comitis Surry de Thetford salutem. Ex parte venerabilis patris W. Elyensis Episcopi nobis est ostensum, quod cum ipse & homines sui per cartas progenitorum nostrorum Regum Anglia quieti sint & esse debeant, & ipse & predecessores sui Episcopi ejusdem loci ac eorum homines a tempore consecrationis cartarum illarum semper hactenus quieti existerint a prestatione Theolonii per totum regnum nostrum, vos ab hominibus ejusdem Episcopi de Brigham, Felteuwell, Brandon & Northwolve Theolonium exigitis, & ipsos ad Theolonium de bonis & mercimoniis suis prestandum in villa vestra predicta distringitis, in enervationem libertatis predictarum, minus justè, propter quod pluries mandavimus quod si ita est, tunc ab exactione quam facitis predictis hominibus de Theolonio predicto desistentes ipsos inde pacem habere permetteretis, & distractionem si quam eis ea occasione fieri feceritis penitus relaxaretis eisdem, Vos mandata nostra predicta parvipendentes, nichil hactenus inde facere curastis, de quo miramur. Et quia prefatum Episcopum vel homines suos predictos indebite pręgravari nolumus in hac parte; Vobis mandamus, sicut pluries mandavimus, quod ab exactione predicta desistentes homines predictos a prestatione Theolonii predicti quietos esse permitatis juxta tenorem predictorum mandatorum nostrorum vobis inde directorum, vel causam nobis significetis, quare dictis mandatis nostris parere nolueritis vel non potueritis. Teste meipso apud Sanctum Albanum 28 die Decembris, Anno regni nostri vicesimo quarto.

Dorso. Cancellario Domini Regis per Ballivum Thetford;

Ad mandatum vestrum vobis significamus, quod de propriis bonis Episcopis Elyensis, & de mercimoniis emptis vel emendis in Villa de Thetford Theolonium non exigimus, sed de hominibus ejusdem Episcopi manentibus in Brandon, Brigham, Felteuwell & Northwolve Theolonium exigimus ea ratione, quia Dominus Comes de Wareuna & antecessores sui de tempore a quo non extat memoria fuerunt seisciti & adhuc sunt de Theolonio predicto de hominibus & de tenentibus ejusdem Episcopi Elyensis, de omnibus mercimoniis emptis vel venditis in Villa predicta.

E Dwardus Dei gratia Rex Anglia, Dominus Hybernica, & Dux Aquitania, Ballivis suis de Norwico salutem. Ex parte venerabilis patris W. Episcopi Elyensis

sis nobis est ostensum, quod cum ipse & homines sui per cartas progenitorum nostrorum Regum Anglia quieti esse debeant, & idem Episcopus & predecessores sui Episcopi Elyenses et eorum homines semper hactenus quieti esse consueverint à præstatione Theolonii per totum regnum nostrum, ac pro eo, quod vos homines ejusdem Episcopi de Pulham, cum bonis & mercandis suis ad villam nostram de Norwyco venientes, ad Theolonium vobis ibidem præstandum graviter distrinxistis, & multipliciter ea occasione indebitè inquietastis, vobis pluries præceperimus, quod ab hujusmodi distractionibus eisdem hominibus occasione prædicta faciendis desisteretis, vel causam nobis significaretis, quare mandatis nostris in hac parte parere noluitis vel debuistis, Vos nichilominus mandata nostra in hac parte parvipendentes, à distractionibus & inquietacionibus hominibus prædictis occasione prædicta faciendis desistere, vel saltem quare hoc facere noluitis vel non debuistis nobis significare hactenus non curastis, in nostri & mandatorum nostrorum contemptum manifestum, & prædicti Episcopi & hominum suorum prædictorum dispendium non modicum & gravamen, & contra tenorem cartarum prædictarum. Et quia nolumus quod idem Episcopus aut homines sui prædicti indebitè graventur in hac parte, vobis præcipimus sicut pluries præceperimus, quod ab hujusmodi distractionibus et inquietacionibus prædictis hominibus occasione prædicta de cætero faciendis penitus desistentes, ipsos de Theolonio præstando sicut inde quieti esse debent, & idem Episcopus & predecessores sui & eorum homines semper hactenus quieti esse consueverunt, quietos esse permittatis, vel vos ipsi sitis coram nobis à die Pasche in 15 dies, ubicumque tunc fuerimus in Anglia, ostensuri quare mandatis nostris tocies vobis inde directis parere contempsistis. Et habeatis ibi hoc Breve. Teste meipso apud Walsingham, 30. die Januarii, anno regni nostri 24.

To which they made this memorable return and Certificate;

Non contempsimus, prout nec debemus, mandatis vestris nobis directis in omnibus parere. Et vobis significamus, quod eo tempore quo istud breve nobis liberatum fuit, liberatum fuit nobis aliud breve per quod causam alias vobis significavimus, quare ab exactione Theolonii hominibus Domini Episcopi Elyensis de manerio suo de Pulham de mercandis ipsorum hominum desistere non potuimus; videlicet, Quia omnes homines præfati Domini Episcopi de manerio suo prædicto sunt mercatores bladi, illud in Comitatibus Norff. & Suff. & alibi de Militibus, personis Ecclesiasticis & aliis à præstatione Theolonii non quietis per diversa loca euentes, & blada sic empta ter vel quater in septimana in Civitate Norwici ducentes, & ea diversis hominibus pro voluntate sua ut mercatores vendentes, & cum Civitas vestra prædicta nomine vestro à tempore quo non extat memoria seiscita sit de Theolonio ab hujusmodi mercatoribus capiendo, tanquam pertinente ad firmam ejusdem Civitatis, quæ quidem firma extenditur ad Cxv. l. & quæ de hujusmodi Theolonio bladi maxime provenit, & Dominus H. Rex pater vester toto tempore suo, & vos toto tempore vestro, tam per Custodes tempore quo dicta Civitas fuit in manu dicti Domini H. Regis patris vestri & in manu vestra, quam tempore quo nos & antecessores nostri inde per vos custodiam habuimus nuper seisciti fuistis, & adhuc existitis, Et quia Jura vestra alicui in præjudicium vestrum concedere non balemus, nos statum vestrum et progenitorum vestrorum Regum Anglia continuantes, prædictum Theolonium a præfatis mercatoribus de Pulham in forma prædicta capimus et exigimus, Vobis ulterius significantes, quod si dicti mercatores de Pulham de Theolonio bladi sic empti quieti fuissent, fere quarta pars totius firmæ prædictæ decideret, nec esset aliquis qui de firma prædicta vobis respondere posset. So much did these exemptions procured by the Bishops, prejudice the King and his Farmers.

This year there arose a great sedition and combat between the Scholars and Townsmen in the University of Oxford, wherein many were slain on both sides, and the goods of the Scholars plundered and carried away; upon complaint whereof to the King by the Scholars, he sent his Justices thither to punish the Malefactors, and repair the Scholars damages: which **Thomas Walsingham* thus relates.

Hoc anno suborta est discordia grandis Oxoniæ inter Clericos et Laicos propter duos garciones diversarum patriarum, qui pro levi causa ad pugnandum sunt accensi. Nam cum quidam ratione patria unum juvare laborarent, quidam aliam nitantur manutene- & fovere, translata est pugna ad faustos oves partium diversarum. In tantumque crevit

This year there happened one of the highest and most memorable contests between the King, Prelates and Clergie of England, mentioned in our Histories, being backed by Pope Boniface the 8. the whole series whereof, continuing near two years space, or more, I shall faithfully relate at large out of our Records and Chronicles. King Edward being reduced to great want of moneys to carry on his wars against the French, Scots, and other Enemies, issued out Writs to the Archbishops of Canterbury, York, and their respective Suffragan Bishops, Priors, Abbots and Clergy, summoning them to a Parliament and Convocation, to grant him a considerable Ayde to recover Gascoigne, fraudulently seized by the French King, who then intended likewise to invade England; and extirpate the English Nation, by Writs running in this form.

REX venerabili in Christo Patri R. eadem gratia Cantuarien. Archiepiscopo, totius Anglia Primati salutem. Sicut lex iustissima provida circumspectione factorum Principum stabilita hortatur, Ut quod omnes tangit ab omnibus approbetur; sic & inquit evidenter, Ut communibus periculis per remedia prebisa communiter obviatur; Sane satis nobis & jam est, ut credimus, per universa mundi climata divulgatum, qualiter Rex Francie, de terra nostra Gasconia nos fraudulenter & cautelosè decepit, eam nobis nequiter detinendo. Nunc vero predictis fraude & nequitia non contentus, ad expugnationem regni nostri, Classe maxima & Bellatorum copiosa multitudo congregatis, cum quibus Regnum nostrum & Regni ejusdem incolae hostiliter jam invasit, linguam Anglicam, si concepta iniquitatis proposito detestabili potestas corespondere, (quod Deus averiat) omnino de terra delere proponit. Quia igitur prebisa jacula minus laedunt, et res vestra, sicut ceterorum ejusdem Regni communiter agitur in hac parte; Vobis mandamus, in fide & dilectione quibus nobis tenemini firmiter injungentes, quod die Dominica proxima post festum Sancti Martini in hieme prox. futurum, apud Westm. personaliter interficiis. Premonuentes Priorem et Capitulum Ecclesie vestra, Archidiaconos, totumque Clerum vestrae Diocesis, facientes quod idem Prior et Archidiaconi in propriis personis suis, et dictum Capitulum per unum, idemque Clerus per duos Procuratores idoneos, plenam et sufficientem potestatem ab ipsis Capitulo et Clero habentes, una vobiscum interficiis modis omnibus tunc ibidem, ad tractandum, ordinandum, et faciendum nobiscum, et cum ceteris Prelatis et Proceribus, et aliis incolis regni nostri, qualiter sit hujusmodi periculis et excogitatis malitiis obviandum. Teste Rege apud Wingham, 30 die Septembris.

Where they granting him a present, and promising him a further supply of monies if no Truce were made in the mean time, the French refusing a Truce, he issued these new Writs of Summons to the Prelates and Clergy, to make good their promise.

REX, &c. R. &c. Cant. Archiepiscopo, &c. An. 24 & 25

Edw. I.

Eodem anno in crastino Animarum ejusdem anni tenuit Rex Parliamentum suum apud Sanctum Edmundum, ubi ad rogatum ipsius concessus est 12 denarius à populo, & à Civitibus & Burgis octavus denarius. A Clero vero responsum est, quod nec ipsi dare vel concedere, nec ipse quicquam accipere posset, nisi uterque eorum sententiam Ex-communicationis incurreret in Bulla lata; quod tamen Regem velle non credebant, nec ubi expedire sciebant. Unde advocati sunt ad aliud Parliamentum Londoniense in crastino Sancti Hilarii, ut interim cum deliberatione consimili melius respondeant.
Adveniente tandem die, & ibidem Clero congregato, Cantuarien. Archiepiscopus Magister Robertus de Winchelsea communicato Consilio, his qui à facie ejus mittebantur, respondit in hæc verba; Satis vobis constat Domini mei, nec latere potest, quod sub omnipotenti Deo duos etiam Dominos habemus, spirituales et temporales; spiri-tualem vero Dominum Papam, et temporalem Dominum nostrum Regem; & quamvis utrique obedientiam debeamus, maiorem tamen Spirituali quam Tempo-rali. Verum ut placere possimus utrique, concedimus, & mittere volumus sumpti-bus nostris nuncios nostros speciales ad ipsum patrem spirituales Dominum Pa-pam, ut licentiam aliquid concedendi habere possimus, vel saltem responsum habea-mus ab ipso quid facere debeamus. Credimus etiam Dominum nostrum Regem sicut et nos, ipsam Excommunicationis sententiam imbullatam, et timere, et effugere velle. Ad hoc ordinate ex vobis Domini nostri charissimi personas certas qui taliam Domino Regi ex parte nostra renuncient. Nos enim scientes indignationem ejus accensam, veremur taliam nunciare omnino. Quod cum ipsi fecissent, mox furo-Regis insedit, et excandens in iram, ipsum Cantuariensem Archiepiscopum cum toto Clero Anglicano extra suam protectionem et defensionem posuit; præcepitque, ut omnes terræ etiam dotales totius Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ in manum ipsius scirentur.
Et tamen, ut creditur, miraculose contigit, quod eadem die qua Clerum extra protec-tionem suam posuerat, confusi sunt milites sui in Vasconia a Francis, et turpiter victi, ut infra patet. Iusticiarius etiam Regis in Banco ex parte Regis pro tribunali sedens, omnibus circumstantibus dixit publice; Nos Domini Attornati Archiepiscoporum, Abbatum et Priorum, ceterarumque personarum omnium ex Clero, nunciate Dominis vestris et dicite, quod de cetero in Curia Domini Regis nulla fiet eis iustitia de quacunque re, etiamsi illata fuerit eis injuria atrocissima, iustitia tamen de eis fiet omnibus conquerentibus et eam habere volentibus. O mirabile & inau-ditum auribus horribile! Communis iustitia quæ omnibus patere deberet tam inco-lis quam alienigenis, quæ spiritum nescio, Clero Christi denegatur; ancillaturque et servit ac subpeditatur ipsa mater Ecclesiæ, quæ solebat antiquitus filiis dominari, pedes super caput elebantur; et quæ solebat cunctis splendescere fomento miserationis, jam a misericordia dejicitur, et obscuratur umbraculo crudelitatis. Elitiss au-

tem Eboracensis Henricus de Newerk, & Dunelmensis, Eliensis & Sarisburiensis Episcopi, & quidam alii timentes iram Regis maximam, & conjuncturantes grave periculum imminere, ordinaverunt se deponere velle in xpe sacra quintam partem bonorum Ecclesiasticorum illius anni ad tuitionem Ecclesie Anglicane et defensionem urgentissimæ necessitatis, ut sic iram Regis evaderent, et sententiam in Bulla non incurrerent. Quicquid tamen ponebat Clerus, tollebat fiscus. Et sic ordinantes et sub colore quintam partem concedentes, protectionem Regis consecuti sunt. Cantuariensis vero Archiepiscopus animum non mutans, nec concedere nec deponere quicquam voluit: elegitque potius iram Regis quam sententiam Excommunicationis incurere, unde seista sunt omnia bona sua, et vasa ejus aurea et argentea occupata sunt, et equi omnes; recesseruntque ab eo familiares ejus, nec remansit quicquam nudè pauper Christi aleretur. Præceptumque est sub gravi forisfactura Regis, ne quis eum hospitio susciperet in Monasterio vel extra; evacuatumque est illud Apostoli, Suscipite invicem, sicut & Christus suscepit vos; mansitque sic in domo cujusdam simplicis Religiosi cum solo sacerdote & uno clerico, non habens ex toto Archiepiscopatu ubi caput reponeret. Constantiter tamen egit in verbo Domini, publice mendicans; ubique protestans, omnes qui vel Regi vel personæ seculari præter voluntatem Domini quicquam concederent in canonem latæ sententiæ ex facto proculdubio incidisse, semper existens paratus ad moriendum pro Ecclesia Christi. Such was his oblinacy, and obedience to the Popes Antichristian Bull, against Christs and the Apostles commands, presidents to the contrary, and his own Oath and allegiance to the King. Amici vero Lincolnienfis Episcopi Olivari, etiam ipso voluntatem vel positionem Regis non ratificantes, procuraverunt tamen, quod Vicecomes Lincolnienfis levata quinta parte de bonis ipsius Episcopi, extunc ei possessiones et terras restitueret. Omnia etiam Monasteria Episcopatus ipsius, et totius Provincie Cantuariensis seista fuerunt in manu, et ex præcepto ipsius Custodes apposti, qui ipsis religiosi solummodo necessaria ministrarent, et reliqua converterent in fiscum. Unde Abbates et Priores necessitate compulsi, Curiam Regis adierunt, non peccata set bona propria redimendes data quarta. Nulla tunc temporis fiebat Justitia Clero, et passi sunt Clerici injurias multas. Religiosi etiam in via regia equis suis spoliabantur, et nullam consecuti sunt justitiam, quousque redemptione facta eis daretur regia protectio. In festo autem Sancti Matthæi Apostoli, quibusdam convocatis optimatibus regni, absque Clero Rex tenuit Parliamentum suum apud Sarisberiam.

Matthew Westminster a Monk of that Abbey, stories; Rex apud S. Edmundum Primates ac magnates sui regni ad suum Parliamentum invitavit in festo Sancti Martini; à quibus nonnum Tallagium postulavit, cui concessus est à civibus & burgensibus, octonarius denarius, à ceteris duodenarius est extoritus, Clerus quippe nihil tunc temporis illi obtulit vel concessit. Quo commotus Rex, indixit eis tempus consultandi super meliori responso, sua voluntati gratius acceptando. Interim fecit Rex sigillari omnia Ecclesiasticorum hogrea. Qua dum fierent, mandavit Archiepiscopus Bullam Apostolicam, jubentem sub poena Excommunicationis aliquam collectam ex Ecclesiasticis proventus Regi vel cuivis alii Principi concedi, per cathedrales Ecclesias divulgari: (a high daring contempt against his Sovereigns prohibitions.) Die Sancti Hillarii celebravit Archiepiscopus Concilium suum cum corpiscopis suis suffraganeis London. in Ecclesia Sancti Pauli. Quibus tractantibus per dies octo super postulatis regia, non invenierunt iter rectum, nec modum exclusivæ sententiæ, si aliqui vel quascunque colore, vel aliquo titulo quippiam contulissent, etiam plurimi Clerici, Autici, Curialesque accessissent, qui postulatis consilium dederant et favorem. Qua omnia Regi per Episcopos aliosve nuncios, sunt relata. Qui statim mutatus in crudelem, perveria Regali æqualitate in tyrannidem, licentiatibus suis famulis, obviantium Clericorum religiosorum virosum, quasi modo hostili, equitaturas sibi arripere meliores, prohibitis insuper placitatoribus in lege sua peritis, coram Baronibus de Beaccario, seu ante quemvis alium Justiciarium secularem, pro personis Ecclesiasticis allegare, Ecclesiasticos Ministros censuit sua pace indignos. Mandavit etiam singulis ordinatis, sponte sibi offerre suorum proventus quintam partem, aut invito cedere omnibus bonis suis. Quic mandato primitus obtemperaverunt quidam tonsorati, in Curia regali Prælati, in cura vero animarum Pilati manifesti, ut inducerent pari modo animos ceterorum. Quo facto, seista sunt protinus per manus Vicecomitum omnia bona Clericorum mobilia et immobilia, super laicum seodum inventa, atque fisco Regio Regio titulata, cum superabundanti molestia suis ablatis libertatibus, quas predecessores Reges, Christianitatis conservatores, Ecclesiis contulerant, authores bonorum. Et quod nequius est ferendum, appropinquabant ipsorum facultates, emptoribus quantocius exponendæ, nec securi audebant Clerici equitare, nisi in maiori conventu, propter militum in Clericos violentiam, a Rege licentia data. Sed et omnia bona Archiepiscopi mobilia et immobilia capta sunt in manu Regis. Igitur Clero, sicut predictum est, passio in corpore, passus est & Rex in animo. Hinc dolor et metus omnium Prelatorum. Hi namque in perplexitate maxima constituti sunt, ut si quicquam conceberent, sententiam excommunicationis incurrerent ipso facto, et si non darent, non effugerent inimicorum manus ipsorum prædonum. His madefacti adversitatibus, pro seipsis anxii, pro grege sibi commisso inconsolabiliter incescunt, tanquam non habente alimoniam, ingruente fame, necessario seculum repetere quæsierunt, protectionem Regis facultatibus suis, ratiocinio magno, redemptis. Et statim post redierunt quidam nuntii de Vasconia, referentes, qualiter in quo loco conflictu in Anglos & Gallos adversascente jam die, conferto, dilabente turba Vasconenium, soli equites Anglici resistentes ab hostibus cingebantur. Inter quos primicerius exercitus, Johannes de Sancto Johanne captus, cum aliis commilitonibus circiter duodecim, Parisiis esse adductus, applaudentes de ipso Francigenis, prout quoddam Philistinæ de Sampson.

Anno Gratia 1297. congregatis Archiepiscopo Cantuar. & quibusdam aliis Coepiscopis, Suffraganeis suis apud Sanctum Paulum London. 26 die Martii, iterum pro statu Ecclesiæ consulturis, insurgentes proinus duo Causidici, & duo de ordine Predicatorum fratres, regalem et temporalem favorem aucupantes, conati sunt argumentis probare, Clerum ipso Regi in tempore belli, non obstante prohibitione Apostolica, de suis facultatibus posse licite subvenire. Insuper prohibito sub poena incarcerationis, ne quis contra ipsum Regem et eos, qui jam pridem suam protectionem quæsierant, Excommunicationis sententiam promulgarent, provocatione facta pro se ad Romanam Curiam et pro ipsis. Reversus igitur omnes, oneratis suis conscientias per Archiepiscopum, sic dicentem, Salvet suam animam unusquisque.

Anno M. CC. xvj. recepit Robertus Archiepiscopus mandatum Papale publicandi constitutionem Bonifacii Papæ octavi, de non dando aliquid Laicis. Et eodem anno tenuit Dominus Rex Parliamentum apud S. Edmundum, convocato illic toto Clero, & indicta Laicis duodecima omnium benorum, & à Clero subsidium sibi habundanter elargiri. Unde Archiepiscopus cum Clero super his consilium habuit; & deliberationem habita, propter novam constitutionem super editam, viam nescierunt invenire per quam sana conscientia, Romana Ecclesia inconsulta, hoc facere possent, negotio incompleto de subsidio præstando, singuli ad propria redierunt. Et ecce mor Edm. dum erit per totum regnum, ut omnia temporalia Archiepiscoporum, Episcoporum, Abbatum et Religiosorum, vel quorumcunque Clericorum, ubique per Regnum Angliæ existentia, in manus Regis caperentur. Et habito Rex Parlamento cum suis Baronibus (Clero excluso) statutum est, ut bona Clericorum sententialiter adjudicaretur tanquam forisfacta. Unde multi propter timorem Statuti redemptionem fecerunt, et litteras de protectione Regis receperunt. Et Monasterium istud redemptionem fecit pro ducentis libris et CC. summis Bladi diverſi generis. Archiepiscopus vero nec aliquid dare, nec protectionem regiam vellet adquirere; unde omnia temporalia ejus confiscata sunt, et (quod horrendum est) quicquid habeant Monachi ibidem intra portas Ecclesiæ suæ secesserunt, ita quod non haberent ad quod manus apponerent pro vita necessariis, nisi secundum quod vicini eorum religiosi & alii mittebant eis intuitu charitatis. Et hoc tam diu duravit, donec Prior et Capitulum necessitate compulsi redemptionem fecerunt. Archiepiscopus vero nec Regis protectionem nec sua voluit redimere quocumque modo; sed amota majori parte familiarum suarum cum uno Clerico vel duobus et simplicissima familia apud Chertam morabatur, & fere singulis diebus Dominicus & festivia circumibat per loca, verbum Dei predicando. petenti, subsidium tenebavit. Rex autem ut de meliori responso deliberarent negotium in Parliamentum tenendum Londoniis in crastino sancti Hillarii distulit. Parliamentum conatum est Londoniis post festum sancti Hillarii; in quo Clero persistente in negatione Subsidii, Rex ipsum a sua protectione exclusit. Pro qua tamen redimenda, multi per se, multi vero per mediatos, Regi bonorum suorum dederunt postea quantum partem. Rex Archiepiscopum rigidiorum comperiens, terras ejus omnes sequestravit, et de bonis ejusdem debita in Rotulis Decretarii inventa precepit cum celeritate levare. Nam idem Archiepiscopus de consensu Cleri procuraverat a Papa Inhibitionem, ne quis Clericorum Regem respueret de bonis Ecclesiarum. So that this Inhibition and Decree was procured from Pope Boniface by this Archbishop, with the consent of the English Clergy, for which they very justly deserved to be put out of the Kings protection, and to forfeit all their lands, goods and chattels to him, if not their lives

* Polydore Virgil (the last Collector of the Popes Peter-pence in England) thus informs us of the occasion and necessity of Pope Boniface his Decree, and the ill consequence it brought upon the English Clergy. Per idem tempus Bonifacius octavus Rom. Pontifex animadvertens Principes Christianos avaros, & pererebre sine justa causa, nova quotidie Sacerdotiorum fructibus imponere vectigalia, atque sine fine arbitram suo, decimam vigesimoque eorum partem tributi nomine imperare, immunitati ordinis sibi consulendum statuit; itaque habito Lugduni Concilio, interdixit ne posthac Principes Sacerdotibus imponerent, neve illi imposita conferrent iniussu Romani Pontificis. Id prescriptum extat in libro tertio libri sexti, De immunitate Ecclesiarum, capite tertio; quod tamen non erat iniquum, fuit tamen apud Anglos magna causa discordie. Enimvero non multo post Edoardus in Angliam ex Scotia reversus, Concilium habuit Burie, ad Cænobium divi Edmundi; quo in Concilio cum indigeret, primum populo, deinde Sacerdotibus tributum indicendum curavit. Populus qui negare non poterat, pecuniam impetratam se soluturum dixit: Sacerdotes vero responderunt, id sibi facere per Pontificis Romani prescriptum minus licere. Quo responso Rex iracundia permotus, bona Sacerdotum passim publicari venireque iussit, qui indicium tributum pendere pernegassent. Quod factum est, et tunc multi quibus pre quiete nihil satis cordi erat, tantum incommodi diutius ferre nolentes, alii alio modo injustam verationem redimerent. Solus Robertus Cantuariensis Antistes fortiter animo post multas acceptas iniurias, bonaque omnia amissa, Principis voluntati resistebat, predicabatque palam sciens illud Apostolicum, Obedire oportet Deo magis quam hominibus. At Rex nihil sanctissimi Pontificis aut constantia deterrensus, aut salubribus monitis flexis, in dies magis cuncto generatim populo succensebat, & Sacerdotes ut ingratos duriter premebat, & reliquis qui gravate imperatam pecuniam solverent, uno vel alio modo nocebat. Quibus rebus (by the Prelates and Clergies instigation, but yet upon another account of foreign services demanded from them, illegal Purveyances, and seising their Wools without paying for them) ita omnium animi incitati sunt, ut neque in agris neque in urbibus silebant. Quid quod nec jam ullus locus tale regnum ferre posse videbatur.

prius pro facto illo capienda tibi directo nullatenus emittatis. Teste Rege apud Plympton 17 die Aprilis. An. 25 E. 1.

The Bishops, Clergy, Abbots, Priors, and Religious persons terrified with the Kings resolute proceedings against them, in putting them out of his Royal Protection, seizing their temporal Lands, Goods, Chattels, and imprisoning the persons of those who published or executed the Popes Bull to regain the Kings favour, protection, and restitution of their Lands, Goods, Chattels, not only condescended to grant him a Subsidie for defence of himself, and of the Church and Realm of England, double to that they had formerly granted, but likewise every one of them entered into particular Recognisances with sureties for the due payment thereof at certain dayes, before the Kings Commissioners and Sheriffs in every County authorized to receive them; who certified them under their respective Seals into the Chancery; two Bundles of which original Recognisances and Certificates, with the Seals annexed to them, I lately found in the White Tower; whereupon they had particular Protections granted them under the Great Seal, to secure them from all future violence and wrongs, and Writs to restore their Temporalties, Goods, Chattels to them. These Certificates for the most part run in these formes.

An. 25 E. 1. In the same Bundle of Writs I found these Certificates made by Sheriffs and others, of the Names of several Parsons, Vicars, Abbots, Priors and Clergymen, who had entred into Recognisances and Obligations to the King with Lay-pledges or sureties, if they had no Lay-fee of their own, to pay him several fines and sums of money towards his Wars, to procure his Writs of Protection for their Persons, Goods and Lands, and to have their Lands and Goods (seised by the King) restored to them.

Edwardus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, Dominus Hiberniæ, & Dux Aquitaniz, dilecto & fideli suo Johanni de Langeton Cancellario suo, salutem. Placet nobis, ut Clerus tam Ebor. quam Karl. Diocesum quam aliunde volens quintam partem Beneficiorum et bonorum suorum ad Regni et Ecclesiæ defensionem ponere, Protectionem nostram in forma quam misistis Johanni de Benslede Clerico nostro consequatur. Quam quidem formam vobis sigillo nostro privato remissionem configuratam. Dat. sub privato sigillo nostro apud Dynesse 16 die Februarii, Anno regni nostri 25.

Ibidem,

Edwardus, &c. Capitaneis Marinariorum, & eisdem Marinariis, ac omnibus Ballivis & fidelibus suis, ad quos presentes littere pervenerint, salutem. Cum Prelati et Clerus Ebor. & Karliolen. Civitatum et Diocesum prudenter influentes inevitabilis necessitatis angustias, quibus Ecclesiæ suæ et totum regnum Angliæ occulata fide exponuntur et subjacent hiis diebus, usque ad quintam partem Beneficiorum et bonorum suorum istius anni, juxta taxationem nuper factam de Beneficiis Ecclesiasticis de quibus decima, ultimo in subsidium Terræ Sanctæ concessa, data fuit, ordinaverint et constituerint se ponere ad defensionem suam et Ecclesiarum suarum, et ad resistendum machinationibus et invasionibus hostium, qui alias applicantes in dictum regnum, Dei timore postposito, Ecclesias combusserunt, * basasacra et alia ornamenta divino dedicata cultui rapuerunt, personas Ecclesiasticas etiam decrepitas in eisdem inhumaniter trucidarunt, quique reparatis prioribus et nobis et incognitis eidem regno navium et armorum machinamentis generibus, ad invadendum regnum illud se fortius solito prepararunt. Nos ipsorum circumspiciam providentiam commendantes, suscepimus in protectionem et defensionem nostram specialem predictos Prelatos et Clerum, et singulos eorundem, homines, terras, res, redditus, et omnes possessiones suas: Et ideo vobis mandamus, quod predictos Prelatos et Clerum, et singulis eorum homines, terras, res, redditus, et omnes possessiones suas manuteneatis, protegatis et defendatis, non inferentes eis, vel inferri permittentes iniuriam, molestiam, dampnum aut grabamen. Et si quid eis forisfacium fuerit, id eis sine dilatione emendari faciatis. In cuius, &c. usque ad festum Omnium Sanctorum futur. prox. duratur. Nolumus autem sed firmiter inhibemus, ne de blavis seu aliis bonis et catallis predictorum Prelatorum et Cleri, seu aliquibus eorum ubicunque consistant, ad opus nostrum aut aliorum quorumcunque sine licentia et voluntate eorundem Prelatorum et Cleri aliquid interim capiat, seu capi faciat, quominus de eisdem bonis et catallis suis libere disponere et ordinare, ac commodum suum facere possint, prout vbi melius viderit expedire. REX omnibus Ballivis & fidelibus suis, &c. salutem. Sciatis quod suscepimus in protectionem et defensionem nostram specialem dilectum nobis in Abbatem de Hida Winton, homines, terras, res, redditus, & omnes possessiones suas. Et ideo vobis mandamus, quod ipsum Abbatem, homines, terras, res, redditus, & omnes possessiones suas, manuteneatis, protegatis, & defendetis; non inferentes eis vel inferri permittentes injuriam, molestiam, dampnum, aut gravamen. Et si quid eis forisfactum fuerit, id eis sine dilacione faciatis emendari. In cuius rei testimonium has literas nostras fieri fecimus patentes, duraturas usque ad festum omnium Sanctorum proximo futurum. Volumus autem set firmiter inhibemus, ne de bladis seu aliis bonis et catallis ipsius Abbatis, ubicunque consistent, ad opus nostrum seu aliorum quorumcunque, sine licentia et voluntate ejusdem Abbatis, aliquando interim capiat, seu capi faciat, quo minus de eisdem bladis, bonis et catallis suis libere disponere et ordinare, ac commodum facere possit prout sibi melius viderit expedire. REX Capiteo Marinariorum, & eisdem Marinariis, Vicecomitibus, & omnibus Ballivis & fidelibus suis, ad quos, &c. salutem. Cum per breve nostrum de Scaccario restitui fecerimus dilecto nobis in Christo Priori de Oxeburne Prioratum predictum, cum omnibus Terris & Tenementis, Bonis & Catallis, ad Prioratum illum spectantibus, tenend. ad voluntatem nostram; Ita quod nobis inde reddat per annum, quamdiu Prioratum predictum sic tenuerit, quandam certam pecuniam summam, ad Scaccarium predictum, iuxta ordinationem in eodem Scaccario inde factam; Nos quieti & tranquillitati ejusdem Prioris ex hac causa providere volentes, suscepimus in Protectionem et Defensionem nostram predictum Priorem, homines, terras, res, redditus, et omnes possessiones Prioratus predicti; Et ideo vobis mandamus, quod ipsum Priorem, homines, terras, res, redditus, et omnes possessiones Prioratus predicti in Ballivis vestris manuteneatis, protegatis, et defendatis; non inferentes eis vel inferri permittentes injuriam, molestiam, dampnum aut gravamen: Et si quis contrisfactum fuerit, id eis sine dilatione faciat emendari. In cujus, &c. dur. usque ad festum sancti Michaelis prox. futur. nisi aliud interim duxerimus ordinand. Nolumus autem, set firmiter inhibemus, ne de bladis seu aliis bonis et catallis ad predictum Prioratum spectantibus, ubicunque in Anglia consistant, ad opus nostrum aut aliorum quorumcunque, sine licentia et voluntate predicti Prioris, aliquid interim capiatis, seu capi faciat, quo minus de eisdem bladis, bonis et catallis libere disponere et ordinare, ac commodum suum facere possit, prout sibi melius viderit expedire. Teste Rege apud Shafstoniam 23 die Martii. Per billam de Scaccario. Et habuit inde sex paria.

The Archbishop of Canterbury (who procured Pope Boniface his premised Bull, and was most peremptory, stout in the prosecution of it, for which all his Temporalities, Goods, Chattels were seised) being forced to hide his head, and reduced to great extremities, was likewise restored to the Kings favour and protection at last, through the earnest prayer and mediation of his Suffragan Bishops on his behalf, upon hopes of his future loyalty: whereupon the King out of his special grace issued these Writs to restore his Temporalities, with all his Oxen, Goods and Chattels formerly seised, in the state they now were.

Pro Cantuar.
Archiepisc. de laica feodis restituendis.

Consimiles littera diriguntur Vic. Surr. Suffex. Midd. & Essex.

From this premised Bull of Pope Boniface, prohibiting Clergymen to give or pay any Taxes to Kings for their Kingdoms necessary defence against publick enemies, without his special license, under the penalties therein expressed, and the premised contests arising thereupon between K. Edward, his Prelates and Clergy, our Kings, Nobles, and all others may now observe. 1. That this Popes Constitution made in Cathedra, by the advice and assistance of his Brethren, was not only erroneous and antimonarchical, but antichristian and diabolical, diametrically contrary to Christi, St. Peters and St. Pauls expresse precepts and presidents, recorded in the Gospel for all Prelates, Christians conscientiously to obey, practise, imitate upon all emergent occasions, Mat. 17. 25, 26, 27. Mat. 22. 16, to 22. Mar. 12. 13, to 18. Luk. 20. 22, to 27. Rom. 13. 5, 6, 7. 1 Pet. 2. 11, 13, 15, 16. Tit. 3. 1. 2ly. That our Archbishops, Bishops, Clergies procuring of, and submission thereunto, was not only an high contempt against Christi and his Apostles precepts, presidents, as Christians, but a most seditious, trayterous, rebellious practice, against their duties, Oathes, Allegiance as Subjects, of very dangerous president to all Lay-Subjects in like cases. 3ly. That King Edwards heroical opposition against this Papal Decree, and his strenuous severe proceedings against his Archbishops, Bishops, Clergy, in putting them out of his Protection, and seising all their Lands, Goods, Chattels for this offence, whereby he crushed this Cockatrice in the shell, was not only an act of great courage, justice, but also of policy and prudence, without which he could

K. Edward 1. An Exact History of Popes Intollerable Usurpations, B. 5. ch. 4.

An. 25 E. 1. never have preserved his Royal dignity, Jurisdiction, Crown, against the Popes and Prelates Usurpations on them, nor his Person, Kingdoms, Dominions against his Foreign Enemies invasions. 4ly. That this his turning his Bishops, Clergy out of the Parliament-house, holding a Parliament, and making Laws with his Temporal Lords and Commons without them, is not only justified to be lawfull by our <sup>a</sup> Law-books, but likewise by two of our learnedest late Bishops, <sup>b</sup> Jewell of Salisbury, and <sup>c</sup> Bilfen of Winchester, in their authorized Books in defence of the Doctrine of the Church of England against Papists and Jesuits; where they assert, That the King and Temporal Lords and Commons in Parliament, may lawfully make Laws, Statutes, even in matters of Religion, not only by the more part of voyces, although the Archbishops and Bishops were never so earnestly bent against it; and that Statutes so passing in Parliament only by the voyces of the Lords Temporal, without the agreement and consent of the Lords Spiritual, have nevertheless been alwayes confirmed, ratified by the Royal assent of the Prince; but likewise when they were excluded the Parliament, as in the Statutes of King Edward the 1. <sup>d</sup> In a Parliament held at St. Edmondsbury, (and after that at Sarum) the Archbishops and Bishops were quite shut forth, yet the Parliament held on, and good and wholesome Laws were there enacted, the departing, or absence, or malice of the Spiritual Lords notwithstanding. May not the Kings Highness (addes Bilfen) serbe Christ in making Laws for Christ, without your (Popes and Bishops) liking? Claim you that interest or prerogative, that without you nothing shall be done, by the Laws of God, or by the Charters of the Realm? By the Laws of the Land you have no such priviledge. Parliaments have been kept by the King and his Barons, the Clergy wholly excluded, and yet their Aas and Statutes good. And when the Bishops were present, their voyces from the Conquest till this day were never Regative, but Aas passed without and against their votes and protestations; witnesse 20 H. 3. c. 9. 3 R. 2. c. 2. 7 R. 2. c. 11. 11 R. 2. c. 3. Rot. Parl. nu. 9, 10, 11. 21 R. 2. Rot. Parl. nu. 9, 10. 6 H. 6. Rot. Parl. nu. 27. and other Aas. 5ly. That there is no other means for Kings to support their Crowns against Popes, Prelates, Clergymens Usurpations, but by resolute, rigorous proceedings against them, till they reduce them to due subjection, obedience, and force them to renounce their Antimonarchical Decrees and Innovations against their Prerogatives, as King Edward here did, and then received them into his special protection.

And here it is very observable, That as our King Edward thus strenuously opposed Pope Boniface his Antimonarchical Constitution, against demanding or imposing Subsidies on the Clergy without his previous consent, in England, so King * Philip the 4th. (though his mortal enemy) encouraged by his heroick previous example, did the like in France, publishing this special memorable Remonstrance against it; and thereupon extorted a Dispensation from this Pope, for the Prelates and Clergy of his Realm to assist him with Subsidies and their Armes in his Wars against King Edward and the Flemings, which I shall here insert out of the Charters of France, published by Pierre de Pitbou, and others.

A Ntequam essent Clerici, Rex Francie habebat custodiam regni sui, & poterat statuta facere, quibus ab inimicorum insidiis & nocumtibus sibi & regno praeceperet, & per quae inimici subtraheret omnino subsidia, quibus ipsum & regnum possent gravius impugnare. Hac de causa Dominus Rex qui nunc est, equos, arma, pecunias et similia generali edicto prohibuit extrahi de regno suo, ne forsitan talia per malignorum fraudulentiam ad manus inimicorum in Domini Regis & regni praedictum devenerent; nec hoc simpliciter prohibuit, sed adjecit, haec non debere fieri absque ejus licentia speciali: super hoc habens rectam intentionem, quod quando sibi constaret pro certo, quod talia sic ab ipso prohibita essent bona Clericorum, & quod extrahi de regno, sibi & regno non obessent, nec inimici prodesse, nulli sic petenti, & praemissa probanti, licentiam denegaret. Et videtur satis mirabile, quod carissimus filius Papae (our King Edward the 1. then in hostility with King Philip) non solum Clericorum bona,

bona, sed etiam personas detinet violenter, (for submitting to this Constitution of his) nec propter hoc Dominus Papa ipsum denuntiat sententiam Excommunicationis incurrisse. Sancta mater Ecclesia, sponsa Christi, non solum est ex Clericis, sed etiam ex Laicis; imò sacra testante Scriptura, <sup>a</sup> sicut est unus Dominus, una fides, unum baptisma, sic à primo usque ad ultimum ex omnibus Christi fidelibus, <sup>b</sup> una est Ecclesia ipsi Christo coelesti sponso, annulo fidei desponsata, quam ipse à servitute peccati, à iugo veteris legis, ac dominio hostis antiqui per mortem suam misericorditer liberavit, qua libertate gaudere voluit omnes illos, tam Laicos quam Clericos, <sup>c</sup> quibus debet potestatem Alior. Dei Aeri, iis videlicet qui credunt in nomen ejus, & susceperunt Christiana fidei sacramenta. Nunquid solum pro Clericis Christus mortuus est, et resurrexit: absit. <sup>d</sup> Nunquid est personarum acceptio apud Dominum, ut solum Clerici in hoc mundo gratiam, et in futuro gloriam consequantur: absit. Sed per indifferentiam <sup>e</sup> omni credenti operanti bonum, per fidem et dilectionem aeternae retributionis premium repperit. Et quia Clerici in Ecclesia, ut patet per praedicta, sunt & merito & munere potiores, non debent, nec possunt, nisi forsitan per abusum, sibi appropriare, quasi alios excludendo, Ecclesiasticam libertatem, loquendo de libertate <sup>f</sup> qua Christus nos sua gratia liberavit. Multa vero sunt libertates singulares, non universales Ecclesiae, sponsa Christi, scilicet solum ejus ministrorum, qua cultus divino ad adificationem populi sunt, & esse debent <sup>g</sup> spiritualius deputati. Quae quidem libertates per statuta Romanorum Pontificum, de benignitate vel saltem permissione Principum secularium, sunt concessae; quod quidem libertates sic concessae vel permittae, ipsi Regibus suorum regnorum gubernationem ac defensionem auferre non possunt; nec ea quae dictae gubernationi et defensioni necessaria, seu expedientia, <sup>h</sup> et deliberata bonorum ac prudentium consilio subvertantur, dicente Domino Pontificibus Templi; <sup>i</sup> Reddite ergo quae sunt Caesaris Caesari, & quae sunt Dei Deo. Et quia turpis est pars qua non suo congruit universo, & membrum inutile & paralyticum, quod corpori suo subsidium ferre recusat, quicunque sive Clerici, sive Laici, sive Nobiles, sive ignobiles, qui capiti suo vel corpori, hoc est Domino Regi et regno, imò etiam sibi, auxilium ferre recusant, semetipsos partes incongruas et membra inutilia, et quasi paralytica esse demonstrant: Unde si a talibus pro rata sua subventionum auxillis requiruntur, non exactiones, vel extortiones, vel gravamina dici debent; sed potius capiti, et corpori, et membris, debita subsidia; sed et pro defensoribus et pugilibus ipsorum, quibus non licet, vel qui non possunt pugnare per seipsos, stipendia praeparata: <sup>j</sup> Nemo siquidem tenetur pro aliis propriis stipendiis militare. Et quod si inimicorum rabies invalesceret contra regnum, constaret quod bona Clericorum penitus dissiparentur; quare, multo plus aliis, indigent ab hostili impugnatione defendi. Ideoque in naturalis iuris injuriam esse videtur, prohibere cuicumque serbo, vel libero, vel Clerico, vel Laico, nobili vel ignobili, stipem defensionis obficere contra hostilem gladium, aut stipendia solvere defensori. <sup>k</sup> Nonne merito Deus tales tradidit in reprobum sensum qui ius naturale et antiquum nuntantur subvertere, pro suae libito voluntatis? Et quis sapiens et intelligens haec, non incidit in vehementem Anpojem, audiens Vicarium Jesu Christi prohibentem tributum dari Caesari, et sub anathemate fulminantem, ne Clerici contra injustae persecutionis incursum, Domino Regi et regno, imò sibi metipsis, pro rata sua manum porrigant adjuvatricem: Dare vero histrionibus, et amicis carnalibus, et neglectis pauperibus, expensas facere superfluas in robis, equitatis, comitibus, comraestationibus, et aliis pompis secularibus, permittitur eisdem, imò conceditur, ad perniciosae imitationis exemplum. Hoc enim natura et ratio, ius divinum et humanum pariter detestantur, ad illicita scena laxare, et licita, imò necessaria, cohibere. Quis enim sanae mentis iudicaret licitum et honestum sub anathemate cohibere, ne Clerici, ex devotione Principum incrassati, impleti et dilatati, pro modulo suo eisdem Principibus assistant, contra ingruentes iniquorum persecutionum aduersitates, quocumque celoze excogitato, donec vel mutui, vel subventionis pro seipsis, pro Rege et regno pugnantibus, et resistentibus inimicis vi armorum, alimenta praebendo vel stipendia persolvendo? Non enim prudenter attendunt qui talia perhibent, vel renuunt, quod hoc nihil aliud est quam inimicos subare, et crimen laesae Majestatis incurrere, et quasi velle prode ipsam Republicae defensorum; ad quod crimen puniendum

An. 25 E. 1. intendimus plus solito, volente Deo oculos apertre. Deum siquidem fide & devotione colimus, & Ecclesiam Catholicam & Ministros ejus multipliciter veneramus in terris, sicut & omnes patres nostri; sed hominum minas, minus rationabiles et injustas, minime reformidamus; nam coram Deo, favente ejus clementia, semper iustitia invenietur in nobis. Nonne Rex Angliæ, quondam homo noster ligius, vocatus ad iudicium coram nobis, cum omni solemnitate quâ decuit, ad imperium Domini sui venire contempsit? Quare necesse habuimus terras quas à nobis tenebat ad manum nostram trahere, iudicio & iustitia mediante; cujus occasione dictus Rex Angliæ homagio & fidelitate quibus nobis tenebatur, ratione terrarum quas à nobis tenebat in feudum, renunciavit expressè, & postea contra nos insurgens crudeliter, pradiatas terras sibi est usus acquirere, non tam vi armorum, quam dolo, via iustitia, & rationis, & consuetudinis approbata penitus pratermissa. Quis Rex, quisve Princeps terras feudales sic à vassallo suo dimissas, & tum multipliciter forisfactas, ad se non traheret, & non defenderet, tanquam suas? Nec super hoc debetur ab aliquo increpari, sed potius de contrario reprehendi. Et Regi Theutoniarum quid potuit vel debuit plus offerri, quod esset rationis aut pacis, quam quod quatuor viri eligerentur idonei, duo pro nobis, & duo pro ipso, qui de limitibus Regni & Imperii cognoscere & tractarent, & quicquid super hoc ordinarent ambo Reges in perpetuum observarent. Et si pradiati quatuor discordarent, ipsi possent eligere quintum, qui eorum discordiam revocaret: Et si dictus Rex Theutoniarum de Comitatu Burgundiarum conqueratur, sua querimonia nulla ratione fulcitur. Nam notorium est omnibus, quod post guerram apertam & dissidationem superbam, à dicto Rege nobis factam, dictum Comitatum nobis duximus acquirendum. Nam in dissidatione sua contra nos graviora facere minabatur, & jam forsitan fecisset, si adhuc sibi se opulisset sacra. Nonne sanctæ matri Ecclesiæ nos et antecessores nostri, multa grata servitia ab antiquis, et immensa beneficia contulimus, quibus optinistri ejusdem multo pinguius et gloriosius, quam in aliis regnis temporalibus exaltantur? Super quo velit Deus, quod ingrattitudinis vitium non incurrant; non enim debent debitas subventiones negare, sed ultro quicquid habent offerre, præsertim cum videant manifeste, quod prædicti Reges injuste, et sine causa rationabili, nos impugnant. Quare modo non fuissetis ab Ecclesiâ amplioribus injuriis præbocandi, sed potius ab ea, tanquam a pia matre, sobendi et placandi, et a malis imminentiis efficaciter consolandi.

Moreover the Archbishop of Rheims with the Suffragans and Abbots of his Province (of a different temper from our English Prelates) made this supplication to Pope Boniface against this his new Constitution.

Sanctissimo Patri ac Domino suo, Domino Bonifacio, divina providentia Sacrosanctæ Romanæ ac Universalis Ecclesiæ Summo Pontifici, devoti ejus filii, missionis divina Petrus Remensis Archiepiscopus, & Episcopi Remensis Ecclesiæ Suffragantes, & Abbates, cum humili sui recommendatione, devota pedum oscula beatorum. In hac terrestri patria Ecclesiam militantem constituit providentia Conditoris, eam ex alto providit sic commoda substitutione Vicarii gubernandam, qui, ne ipsam tempestuosa hujus sæculi fluctuationes confunderent, in turbatione sibi consilium impenderet, in tribulatione solatium, & in adversitate succursum, ut sic hujusmodi solatii præsidio solita Vicarii, triumphantis Ecclesiæ, qua est Christi, ad salutem humani generis, id devotius, quò tranquillius, deserviret. Ad ipsius quippe Vicariatus apicem, diebus nostris, quod læti referimus, divine gratia provisionis assumpti, qualiter ad salubre regimen, statum prosperum, & exaltationem felicem ipsius Ecclesiæ, desideriis summis aspirantes, paternam curam, studium efficax, & indefessæ sollicitudinis operam duxeritis impendendam, universalis jam notio publicat, & ipsa rei experientia manifestat. Et hujus siquidem desiderii fervente affectu, quem ad felicem statum universalis Ecclesiæ paterno more solliciti geritis, Beatitudinem vestram nobiscum constitutionem edidisse cognoscimus, per cuius beneficium Ecclesiarum periculis remediare, salubriter obviare dispendiis, et Ecclesiasticæ libertati voluit utiliter præbidere. Verum quia excellentissimus Princeps, Dominus noster Rex, ac Principes, Barones, et Domini Temporales, ceterique regnicolæ Franciæ, occasione ipsius Constitutionis, quam onerosam, gravem, et præjudicalem nimis asserunt juri suo, cum omnes, tum singulos incolas dicti regni, ad defensionem Regni et Patriæ, omni præbilio, excusatione et exceptione cessantibus, vocare prætendunt, præsertim feudatarios et fideles
